Mr Charlie West, who has been quite ill is very much better.

Banks Hudson returned from Lexington Saturday night.

Mrs J E Stormes was a visitor in Lexington the past week.

Miss Jane Petty, of Decatur, Ill., is expected home this week.

Miss Beulah Grimes has been visiting Miss Sallie Lou Myers.

Mr Abraham Beazley has returned from a visit to Lexington.

Mr John M Logan has been in the cities purchasing more goods.

Dr J M Acton was called to Ford, Friday, on professional business.

Mr and Mrs Graham Price, of Danville, were visitors here Sunday.

Miss Zeigler, of Cincinnati, has been the guest of Miss Elsie Zimmer.

Mr and Mrs Jno S Baughman, of Boyle county, were here Sunday.

Miss Mattie Elkin has been visiting Miss Mary Welsh, of Nicholasville.

Miss Allie Anderson is in Lexington visiting her sister, Mrs J W Browning.

Mrs Richard Ward has been visiting relatives in Cincinnati and Lexington.

Mrs Hallie Hopper McKee, of Florida, is the guest of Mrs W H Kinnaird.

Mrs Elbert Smith and children, of Jellico, Tenn., are guests of Mrs Geo. Farris.

Miss Dove Harris has returned from several weeks visit to relatives in Lexington.

Mrs Ellen Owsley Poor has returned from a visit to her son, Letcher, of St Louis.

Mrs Bettie Landram has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs John Baughman, of Lexington.

Mr Robert Ogden, who has been the guest of Miss Allie Arnold, has returned to his home in Lexington.

Miss Mary Arnold, who is attending school at Nicholasville, spent Saturday and Sunday with her home folks.

Mr G A McWhorter and family, of London, have rented the Shugars' property and will move in November.

A very good likeness of Miss Kate Moore, niece of Mrs Carrie Nation, appeared in Saturday's Courier Journal.

Miss Jennie Arnold, who has been visiting relatives here for several months, left Tuesday for her home in St Louis.

Miss Sallie Lou Myers and cousin, Miss Myers, of Arkansas, left Monday for a visit to Mrs Richard Ware, of Williamstown.

Stanford Journal:—Capt and Mrs J Alex Doty are over from Garrard to see their son, Lewis L Doty, who has been sick for a week or more.

A telegram from Dexter, Mo., called Miss Nell Johnston to that city to assist in waiting upon Miss Willie Belle Burnside, who continues quite ill of fever.

Born to the wife of Henry B Cox, an eleven pound boy. He will be a democrat, a Maccabee and Methodist, if he inherits the leading traits of his father.

Courier Journal:—Miss Mayme Ramsey, daughter of Dr B Bamesey, of Paint Lick, arrived here Tuesday to be the guest of Miss Violet Preston, of 2307 Floyd street.

Miss Lizzie Hudson left Monday for a visit to friends in Richmond and to attend the wedding of Miss Earle Chenault. She will also visit in Nicholasville before her return.

Misses Annie Austin and Fannie Shugars chaperoned Robert, Patsy and Will Kinnaird to Hyattsville Friday. This was the children's first trip on the train and they enjoyed it immensely.

Miss Alberta Anderson gave an extremely pretty card party Thursday evening. The house was decorated with palms and garlanded with smiles. The game was euchre. An elaborate lunch was served. The prizes were extremely pretty trifles. Among the guests were Misses Fannie Doty, Maggie Tomlinson, Altie and Bessie Marksberry and Mrs W R Cook, Messrs Ed Doty, Dave Walker, John Dunlap, Duke Goodloe, Dr Chris Faris and Dr Gilbert.

Miss Lucretia Skinner spent Sunday with friends in Beuna Vista. She was accompanied by Miss Mayme Bastin. Miss Skinner is the obliging operator at the telephone exchange, and her prompt and courteous treatment of patrons has made many friends. If you will only visit at telephone exchange for a few minutes, you will learn that it is the most difficult place to fill, as the number of fools who call up central and expect impossibilities, are greater than one meets in any other vocation.

Danville Advocate:—Mrs D J Lear, of Paint Lick, and handsome daughters, Misses Mary and Alma are visiting Mr and Mrs J P Frank... Mrs Fisher Gaines very handsomely entertained the Chaffing Dish Club Tuesday afternoon at progressive amigrams. The prize was won by Mrs Ira Taylor, and the consolation prize by Mrs Ed

Dillehay. The meeting was a most enjoyable one... Mr and Mrs Doloh Rice left yesterday for an extended trip to Louisville, Ky., and Springfield, O. Mr Rice will remain in Springfield some time, where his business headquarters are located.

The Record is glad to note the improved condition of Mrs S S Dicker man, who was stricken by paralysis at her home in Bryantsville some days since. Hope is now entertained for her recovery.

Richmond Register:—Mr and Mrs Ed Walker, of Garrard county, spent Wednesday night in Richmond, Mass. Walker was on his way to Barry, Mass., to attend the annual meeting of the Brunswick Fox Club, the oldest hunting organization in America. Mr. W. went as a guest of the club and took with him nine of the celebrated Walker dogs to run in the various events.

O. W Shugars, who has been working for the New England Mutual Life Insurance Co., was offered a better job with the Mutual of New York last week, and has accepted the place. He is superintendent of several counties and will have headquarters at Lexington, being furnished with a handsome office, stenographer (we presume she is handsome too) and a salary equal to that of most bank presidents. We are glad the young man has secured a good thing, as he is industrious, sober, and a mighty clever fellow.

Thursday afternoon a gay company assembled at the home of Mrs J C Hemphill when she and Miss Carrie Curry entertained the B B club and other friends at a delightful game of progressive finch. The rooms were beautifully decorated with flowers and magnificent palms. When the game was over refreshments of ices and cakes were served on the card tables, each being spread with an embroidered cloth. Miss Nell Johnston captured the prize, a handsome vase. The popularity of the hostesses always ensures a happy response and who also understand how to give pleasure to their guests. The Lancasters were lovely in their pretty gowns and picture hats. The guests of the afternoon were Mesdames R E McRoberts, Ed Price, William Apon Price, H M Ballou, Curt Robinson, Robert Embry, W S Beazley, J E Stormes, L L Walker, K F Postle, J B Kinnaird, W R Cook, F P Frisbie, J F Robinson, W A Berkele, Louis Landram, Juliette Rogers, Mattie Duncan, S C Denny, Guy Davidson, Misses Nell Johnson, Kate, Lillian and Grace Kinnaird, Louise Kaufman, Altie Marksberry, Mary Gill, Sallie Elkin, Maggie Tomlinson, Bettie Anderson and Annie Herndon.

Something Nice.

The season for selecting Christmas presents is not far off, and the people will begin to rack their brains to select suitable remembrances for their friends. We learn that Mr Harry Sommers, the gifted editor of the Elizabethtown News has had his letters on his foreign travels printed in book form, and we mention the above in order that parties wishing to give their old friends something nice may know of this book, as nothing would make a handsomer or better gift. The work embraces all of Mr Sommers' letters, in which he tells what he saw, and in language that makes it exceedingly interesting. The book is entitled "In Three Continents," and the letters were written while Mr Sommers was in the old country last year. The price of the book is only $1, and you can get a copy by addressing H. A Sommers, Elizabethtown, Ky.

Do Good—It Pays.

A Chicago man has observed that, "Good deeds are better than real estate deeds—some of the latter are worthless. Act kindly and gently, show sympathy and lend a helping hand. You cannot possibly lose by it." Most men appreciate a kind word and encouragement more than substantial help. There are persons in this community who might truthfully say: "My good friend, cheer up. A few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will rid you of your cold, and there is no danger whatever from pneumonia when you use that medicine. It always cures. I know it for it has helped me out many a time." Sold by all druggists. 1m

Many a poor man might acquire wealth by utilizing the time he wastes in bemoaning his poverty.

For a pleasant physic take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Easy to take. Pleasant in effect. For sale by all druggists. 1m
