

Of Local Interest.

The L T L will meet Sunday at 3 o'clock at the Methodist church.

There is much typhoid fever in the county. Several deaths are reported.

Seventy-five tickets were sold for the excursion to Cincinnati Sunday morning.

A big crowd took in the circus at Richmond. We "didn't have anything to wear" and couldn't go.

Willie Smith has accepted the position of devil in this office, and bids fair to make a good printer.

Edler F M Tindler is in Winchester attending the State Missionary Convention. He will return tonight.

The Christian church has been supplied with several dozen new song books, that the entire congregation may join in the singing.

R M West has bought 600 acres of new crop hemp at $5.30 for 112 pounds also 60,000 pounds of old and new hemp from Moore and Montgomery.

Some of the streets are very muddy. This is caused by soft rock, which is all that can be secured, and the continual dragging of old rattle-trap vehicles over them.

If the City Council is going to spread any rock on the streets, its about time they were "getting a move on," or it will take all in the county to fill up the "chug" holes, as Maj. Jim Burnside calls them.

While Editor Albright was enjoying the World's Fair, Mr James Maret edited the Mt Vernon Signal, and the work was done to Queen's taste. Jim is an old hand in the newspaper treadmill, a "good un," too.

Card of Thanks.

We are requested to return the sincere thanks of Mrs Isaac Hamilton and family for the many kind courtesies extended to them during the sickness and death of Mr Hamilton and to assure the good people of Lancaster that their kindness toward them in their affliction will never be forgotten.

Be Cautious.

The deadly banana peel continues to get in its work. The Mayor of Earlington is the latest victim, being crippled a few days ago. Why anyone with as much sense as a goose will throw peels on the pavements is a mystery too deep for us to solve. An idiot, as a matter of course, will do such tricks, but there is no excuse for others.

Nickle-Plate Show to Disband.

The Harris Nickle-Plate Show will disband at Howell, Ind. The show has not quit insolvent but Mrs W H Harris, widow of the former owner is left with $200,000. Recently her son-in-law Mr Wilson, has been running the show. It is being advertised and will be sold in its entirety as the Harris family is satisfied with the result of 20 years business and will quit.

Some Pretty Bass.

Manager Jim Beazley, of the water works, went to Dix river last week and caught eighty of the prettiest small mouth bass we ever saw. There were about ten goggle-eyes. They were medium in size and those fishermen who had the pleasure of seeing them stood around and grinned like many 'possums. The fish were placed in the waterworks Lake, and Mr Beazley will carefully guard them for a year or so. They were caught in Hanging Fork with a minnow sein.

A Card.

Through the columns of this valuable paper—one of the best exponents of the best of the Kentucky country press, the writer may be permitted to sincerely thank the good people of Garrard and Lancaster for the great kindness, courtesy and good will received in their midst in the past two years. In removing to adjoining neighborhood for continuance in duty, heartfelt remembrance is unremoved of the open-hearted hospitality and good fellowship in the bond and blessing of a common Head. Eugene H. Pearce, 370 East Lexington Ave., Danville.

Hamilton.

The many friends of the family were greatly grieved to learn of the death of Mr Isaac Hamilton, which occurred at the home, on Danville street, Sunday afternoon about four o'clock. Mr Hamilton has been in failing health for some time, being confined to the house most of the time during the last six months. He was troubled with dropsy, and all efforts to stay the disease proved of no avail. The deceased was in his 55th year, and moved to Lancaster about two years ago, taking charge of the boarding house on Danville street. He was a man of good habits, industrious, honest and upright in all his dealings, and was always ready to do a good turn by his friends and acquaintances. He was married to Miss Sarah Lane, who, with five children, have deep sympathy in their great loss. The children are Mrs H C Spoonamore, Mrs C H Compton and Mrs A Christopher, of Independence, Ind., and Misses Cordelia and Naomie, of this city. Funeral services were conducted by Rev Joe Hopper, at the Presbyterian church, Tuesday morning, the interment taking place at the Lancaster Cemetery.

Garrard County People.

To those going to the World's Fair, we desire to say that Miss Jennie Arnold and sister are running one of the best boarding houses there, and if you want first class accommodations, at reasonable rates, stop with them. They are located at 3965 Finney St., only a short ride from the grounds, and for one dollar a day they furnish lodging and breakfast. Most all the Garrard county people who have visited the Fair have stopped with them and speak in greatest praise of the fare and accommodations.

Senatorial Primary.

The democratic senatorial committee met at Danville Monday and ordered a primary to be held Saturday, December 3. It was decided at the least calculation possible it would cost $300 to the county, therefore the entrance fee was fixed at $1,300—$900 each—there being only two candidates Messrs R L Hubble and M F Elkin, contesting for the nomination. The entrance fee shall be paid in by Nov. 18, 1904, to the chairman of the district committee and, in case there should be only one candidate on Nov. 18, 1904, before the primary, then the committee is to be reconvened and the candidate declared the nominee. Each county committee in the district selects its own election officer, from lists furnished by the candidates.

Why She Was Thankful.

A camp meeting was in progress in the wire grass region of Georgia. The afternoon service was conducted by Uncle Mose Bradford, an exhorter of deep piety, but entirely innocent of book learning. He took for his text on this occasion the words of St Paul, "For I have learned in whatsoever state I am therewith to be content." After talking about fifteen minutes on the beauty of contentment from a Christian's point of view he suddenly announced that we were going to "throw the meeting open." His invitation was, "If you've got anything to be thankful for get up and say so." One after another rose and spoke of peace and contentment under circumstances that seemed impossible, judged from a worldly standpoint. Some said they were thankful for things they had missed, and at last an old lady arose, pushed back her sun bonnet and with a beaming countenance triumphantly exclaimed, "Well, Brother Mose, I hain't got but two teeth, but thank God, they hit."—Lippincott's.

Will Result in Good.

The protracted meeting conducted by Rev Joe Hopper, at the Lancaster Presbyterian church, came to a close Monday night. The Christian people of the town were greatly benefitted by the sermons of "Uncle Joe," while the interest he awakened among the members of the church will result in great good. The meetings were attended by the earnest, faithful members of every church in town, but we must say that Uncle Joe made it too warm for those Sunday-only, dress parade people who hang up their religion every Monday morning, there to remain until the next Sunday. In other words, he held the hypocrit up in his true light, and told him so plain that he could not go to Heaven on flowery beds of ease, that some people preferred to run from the plain truths so ably preached at each service. On the other hand, the faithful, honest Christians found great comfort in the sermons, and as stated above, were greatly benefitted and comforted by the earnest words of "Uncle Joe." His last sermon, where he referred to this probably being his last visit to his native town, was very touching. Several united with the church.

"Uncle Mose" Collier Passes Away.

Mr Moses Collier, whose serious illness was mentioned in last issue of The Record, lingered until Friday night, when his spirit returned to God who gave it. Mr Collier, whom all loved and addressed as "Uncle Mose," had been quite feeble for some months, and became seriously ill about three weeks ago. He had almost reached the 81st mile post in his life's journey, this advanced age depriving him of any recuperative power, so the illness pulled him down rapidly. Uncle Mose was born in Garrard county, near Point Leavelle, and resided here all his life. He was a farmer and one of the hardest working men the county ever produced. He was married to Miss Mary Beazley, who preceded him to the grave only a few years. Two children, Mr James Collier and Mrs Uriah Simpson, both of this city, and eight grand-children are left. Uncle Mose was elected Coroner several years ago and at the time of his death was the democratic nominee for that office. He was an especially good friend of the editor of this paper, and in our frequent meeting with him we were very much impressed by the interest he manifested in young men, and he was always more ready to speak a word of good cheer and encouragement than to censure any of his young friends. He was a member of the Christian church, and lived the life of a christian in every sense of the word. He would divide his last earthly possession with any one in need, and was as clever hearted man as the writer ever knew. That Uncle Mose has passed to a home where there is no sorrow or pain, there is not a shadow of doubt. Funeral services were conducted at the Christian church Sunday afternoon, Bro. Tindler officiating, the interment taking place at the Lancaster Cemetery.

Waiting For a Tide.

Twenty thousand logs or more lie rotting in the bed of Kentucky river between Whitesburg and its head, waiting for a tide to move them. There has been no high water in the upper Kentucky for over eighteen months. The numerous mills down the river are to a great extent idle. If these logs could be moved to them it would take over a year of constant sawing to convert them into lumber.

A Big Scheme.

A gigantic deal is mapped out by the Tobacco Growers' Association. President Hawkins says the Louisville Leaf Tobacco Exchange have agreed to advance between one and two million dollars to the Association with which to buy the present crop of tobacco and store it at Louisville when an Eastern syndicate will purchase it. This would give the Association and the growers complete control of the market.

BEGINS TOMORROW NIGHT.

Brooks Brothers, the Noted Evangelists and Singers, to Conduct Meeting at Christian Church.

Brooks Brothers, the evangelists, who come to the Christian church Saturday night, the 24th, are native missionaries though the ancestry is of Kentucky on both sides of the house. To the parents, Evan Sand Malvina K Brooks were born four sons and all of them are preachers. The oldest, Clayton S. Brooks, has been pastor of the Jefferson City, Mo., church for several years and is the man who lately achieved national fame by bringing the Missouri "hoodlums" to a stand still being associated with Joe Falk, of St Louis in that work.

C. F. Brooks, the third son, is to graduate this year from the University, of Missouri, taking a medical, scientific and theological diploma, and will enter the field as a medical missionary.

W. S. Brooks is the preaching evangelist in the coming meetings. He was born near Paris, Mo., Dec. 28, 1859, and reared on the farm. When 18 years of age he secured a state certificate in a competition examination and taught school two years, afterwards graduating from Perry College. In 1896 he graduated from Kentucky University after a five years course. He began preaching in 1893, taking his first work in the mountains of Kentucky. In 1897 he was married to Miss Minnie Christie, of Lexington, and they immediately assumed charge of the church at Ladage, Ind., where in seven years there were 650 additions to the church.

During all the ministerial life of J W Brooks, he has spent a large part of his time in the evangelistic field and since last December this is his exclusive work. His first meeting was at Corinth, Ky., lasting 12 days and resulting in 88 additions. His record of success has been unbroken, since that time. He recently held meetings at Seouan and Angolo, Ind., and Springfield, Mo. with more than 100 additions each. He is a plain fear less gospel preacher and the Lancaster church is most sure to show the same blessing.

A K Brooks is also an evangelist. He has three diplomas from the Kentucky University graduating from the Bible College in 1903. He was born Aug. 9, 1878. He will have charge of the singing in this meeting and will also conduct frequent services of a special character. He possesses a rich barytone voice and will render a solo each evening. The Indianapolis News recently said: "Mr Arthur K Brooks, of Kentucky, gave a solo at the glee club entertainment last night. His voice is one of richness and power rarely heard in our city." These men form a unique combination for both are preachers and both singers. Their work is not of the stereotype kind, but fresh and full of life. Their services are never long and tiresome. Lancaster will enjoy Brooks Brothers.
