Circuit Clerk, J W Hamilton, is having the docket printed for the November term, which begins next Monday. There are 21 appearances, three murder cases, and the usual amount of old commonwealth and equity business.

Final Notice to Tax-Payers.

I wish to give the tax payers of Garrard county notice that their taxes for 1905 have long since been due, and must be paid by November 30, as the penalty goes on all taxes December 1, 1905, which will be charged. Come and pay at once and save cost and penalty. W L Lawson, S. G. C.

Preaching at the Methodist church every first, third and fourth Sunday of each month, both morning and evening. Sunday School every Sunday, 9:30 a. m., D D Giger, Superintendent Junior League Sunday afternoon 3 p. m., prayer meeting every Friday evening. You are respectfully invited to attend these services. B M Nelson, Pastor.

Important Notice.

The Ladies of the Methodist church will have an exchange at Postoffice on Tuesday, 28th, before Thanksgiving. Hope the housekeepers of the town will confer special favor on them by buying their dainties for their Thanksgiving dinner, as they are trying to pay for a new furnace they are forced to buy. As the church membership is smallest and most dependent on outside aid we hope they will be liberally patronized.

Notice to Correspondents.

As Thanksgiving falls on our present day, we will print The Record one day ahead of time next week, and will be obliged if communications are sent in a little earlier. The Record will be mailed Thursday morning, but the office force will all be given a holiday.

Better Congregations.

We have been asked how to have more people hear the gospel. Let those who are able to have jewelry and fine clothes, leave them at home and attend church in their plainest dress, in order that the poor may not be abashed when meeting them at church. Go to the homes of the unfortunate and ask them to come to church. Let the minister go among the sinners and preach, no matter where they prefer to gather—be it on the Chute or anywhere. Such was the practice of the Savior. He even went among fishermen. Above all tie a hard knot in the tongue of slander, and sinners will feel that they may yet be redeemed.

Tobacco Growers.

A good crowd of farmers met at the Court House Saturday. J Wade Walker was elected chairman and L G Davidson, Secretary. B. F. Hudson read the form of contract to be signed by tobacco growers, pledging three-fourths of their crops to the Tobacco Growers Association, and requiring them to take 25 per cent. of the crop in stock, to interest them in the fight against the trusts. They paid $400, the first installment on stock, and they have pledged over 200 acres of tobacco to the company; but as 1,200 acres, or 1/2 of the crop of the county, and of the other 39 counties, must be pledged by November 25, the enterprise may not succeed at this time. They are determined, however, to get better prices. J G Burnside was elected chairman and B F Hudson and J Wade Walker were elected members of the county boards.

Rewards.

Post master West has received notice of rewards offered by the Post office Department, for the conviction of parties charged with robbing post office, or mails while being conveyed from one point to another. We publish the following section, as of general interest at this time: "Larceny from post office stations, street letter boxes, or other receptacles established, approved or designated by the Postmaster General for the receipt of mail matter on any rural free delivery route, star route, or other mail route, or from any public receptacle for mail matter, will be regarded under this Offer of Reward as of the same effect as larceny from a post office proper."

POSTED!

The undersigned hereby give warning to all persons not to trespass upon our lands for any purpose whatever, as we will prosecute all offenders to the fullest extent of the law. Hunters and Fishermen especially take notice.

Alfalfa a Good Thing for Kentucky. Mr A. J. Sanders, of Oldham county, Kentucky, says: "About five years ago I sowed two acres of alfalfa as an experiment. I had read a great deal about its wonderful productiveness, and saw no reason why it should not succeed in Kentucky as well as in the West. The first year we had a severe drought, which burned up all the other pastures and killed out a lot of grass. I kept my alfalfa clean by mowing it, and it came through all right. The following year I cut a good crop of hay and pastured late in the fall, and every year since I have cut it three times. This season I could have cut it four times had I not pastured it. My cows prefer it to any other grass. I have seen them leave their shipstuf for alfalfa. It makes the finest butter, both in color and flavor, that I have ever seen, and I am of the opinion that it is the very thing for Kentucky soil, such as I have. We can grow more to the acre than anything else with which I have had experience. I have sowed nine acres more, and expect to increase this in the future."

It is gratifying to find a farmer who has succeeded with alfalfa without wasting time on the nonsensical fads of "bacteria and inoculation." God inoculated the seed long before the Government farmers began to dream in the laboratory and to draw a salary.
