FOR CONGRESS.
We are authorized to announce HARVEY HELM, of Lincoln county, as a candidate to represent the Eighth Congressional District of Kentucky in Congress to succeed Hon G G Gilbert, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

For Sale.
The residence of the late Mrs Annie Herring is for sale, and also a lot immediately back of the said residence property. The aforesaid property is on Richmond street in Lancaster. This is a splendid piece of property. The house is a two story frame, and there are six or seven acres of land in all. For prices, etc., see or write, E F Herring or C W Anderson.

- Of Local Interest. -

Circuit court adjourned Friday
Everybody going to Lexington fair next week.

The weather has been hot as blue blazes this week.

The colored fair is drawing many Lancaster negroes to Lexington this week.

The state U D C convention will be held at the Confederate Home, Pewee Valley, Oct 3 and 4.

The chain gang is busy spreading rock on the streets, which is an improvement long needed.

Harry Haywood, the great American magician, at court house tonight and tomorrow night, Thursday and Friday.

The Ladies of the Baptist Aid Society will give an exchange Nov 28th the day before Thanksgiving. Particulars later.

Have an evening of genuine pleasure by seeing Harry Haywood at the court house tonight and tomorrow night, Thursday and Friday.

A tremendous crowd took in the Cincinnati excursion Sunday. There are few hoodlums on these trains now, and better class of people patronize them.

The colored teachers Institute has been changed to September 24, and will be held at Baptist church conducted by Prof C C Monroe, Lexington, Kentucky.

Mr and Mrs H K Herndon have moved to the residence of Mrs Ann Robinson on Danville street, and Mrs Ada Kinnaird will return to her property on Stanford street.

The entertainment to be given by Harry Haywood, at the court house tonight and tomorrow night (Thursday and Friday) is one of the best on the road, and you will certainly enjoy it.

George Smith, mail carrier on the Richmond road rural route, had his buggy smashed to pieces last week by a runaway team striking it. The buggy was completely demolished and the loss falls heavily on Mr Smith.

Store Closed.
Our store will be closed on the following dates, Thursday, Sept 20th, and Saturday, the 29th. The former is the Jewish New Year and the latter the Day of Atonement.

To California.
For Sale. Round trip ticket to California. Address J B C, care Central Record. It

Big Land Sale.
County Attorney Joe E Robinson has sold 150 acres of his farm, on Dix river, to Lee Rankin. The price was about sixty dollars an acre.

Sunday Subject.
Eld F M Tinder will be home Sunday and fill the pulpit at the regular hours. The theme for 10-45 a. m. will be "That for Country." Evening subject, 7:30, "The Value of one Man."

A Curiosity.
Mr Thos B Walker showed us a stalk of corn, which grew on his farm near town, on which there were two "suckers" which were almost as large as the stalk. On each sucker was a well developed ear of corn. An unusually large ear grew on the stalk. It has attracted much attention.

Must Go to School.
In his charge to the grand jury, at Danville, Monday, Judge Bell called special attention to the new law prohibiting the employment of children under age of fourteen years during the school term, as it is the purpose of the law to make all children under that age attend school.

Ordinance Valid.
Richmond has an ordinance requiring citizens to cut the weeds on the streets and alleys adjoining their property. The property owners refused, alleging it was the duty of the city to do it. Judge Greenleaf, of the city court, has decided that the ordinance is valid and citizens must obey it.

Bud James Hurt.
The many friends of Mr. I. C. James, the Harrodsburg horseman, will be sorry to learn that he was painfully hurt in a collision in the roadster ring at the Bardstown fair, Friday. He was removed to his home, where he is resting easily at present. Mr. James was run into by John Purdy, of Bloomfield, who was driving in the same ring.

Lightning Strikes House
Sunday morning, about five o'clock, lightning struck the residence of Mr. Ed Walker, near Point Leavell, completely wrecking the building. Only Mr. Walker and another gentleman were in the building and they were thrown out of bed but escaped without injury. The house was insured in Jesse Warren's companies.

Protracted Meeting.
The protracted meeting at the Christian church will begin Sunday, the 23rd. John E Pounds and wife, of Cleveland, and Miss Ida Mae Hanna, of Cincinnati, will constitute the evangelistic force. The music will be a special feature, and the members are looking forward to a pleasant and profitable meeting.

Complying with the Law.
Many business men are complying with the law by filing with the county clerk a list of members of their firms where the full name of one of the partners does not appear. A penalty of $25 to $100, or imprisonment from ten to thirty days, is the penalty imposed for failure to comply with the law. Attend to this before an inspector, who gets a big part of the fine, walks in and asks you why you failed so to do.

Good Entertainment Coming.
Harry Haywood, magician, and versatile entertainer, is an artist and is leading them all in the cleverness of his work. None of the fakirs of India or the Chinese magicians perform any more marvelous tricks. He is out of reach of rivalry in the realms of the mysterious and amuses and astonishes his audiences. All of his tricks are good and cleverly performed so as to completely baffle the closest observer. At court house Thursday and Friday evenings, (tonight and tomorrow) admission 25cts.

Lincoln Goes Dry.
In the local option election, held in Lincoln Wednesday, under the new county unit law, the dries won by the majority of 1,249. The wets put up no fight, and, we understand, the saloons at Stanford will make a fight in the courts on the ground that the election recently held in that city (when the wets won) was legal and that they have the right to sell thereunder. The fight on this point will doubtless go through the courts, but the remainder of the county will soon be as dry the average temperance lecture.

Strayed, a yellow Jersey cow. Reward for information as to her whereabouts. (tf) J A Amon.

ADDITIONAL PERSONALS.
Mrs John Ballard is quite ill today. Little Miss Pataline Ballou remains in a critical condition.

Mr A R Denny's condition is somewhat improved today.

Mr R E Henry, of Somerset, has been here for several days.

Mrs R E Henry is quite ill of fever at the home of her father, Mr J C Robinson.

Capt Frank J White, the veteran tyro, continues ill, and is unable to come to town.

Exchange of Property.
Dr Burnett has exchanged his property in Lancaster, the Harding place on Richmond street, to Mr J W Turner for a farm near Hattsville containing 184 acres.

Price of Journal Increased.
On Oct. 1, the price of the Ladies Home Journal will be increased to $1.50. Call at Joseph Mercantile Co's store and give me your subscription before that time, and save money.

Stanford Court.
Journal:—There were about 250 cattle on the market yesterday, some 150 of them changing hands at 2 to 3.35. Mule colts were in great demand at $50 to $107.50. B. W. Gains selling Sidney Dunbar one at that price. Horses were also high.

Frank Embury, formerly of this city, now of Middlesboro, was here a short time this week shaking hands with his many friends. He located in the Magic City some years ago, and has accumulated a good share of this world's goods, being now on the shady side of easy street. No colored man enjoys greater respect from our people, and they are always glad to see Frank.

The Only Laundry in Town.
The only laundry in town where you can send your laundry every day in the week and get it back the next. We have a legion of satisfied customers, let us add your name to our list. Work called for and delivered.

The Danville Steam Laundry Co. Jas W Smith Agt, office at R H Bateson's clothing store. Lancaster, Ky. 8-17-06.

Deserved Recognition.
At the annual encampment of the Kentucky State Guards, Major E W Lillard was unanimously elected lieutenant colonel of the Second Regiment. He has been connected with the state troops for many years, and is thoroughly qualified for the position, in fact there is no better soldier or tactician in the service. The men certainly displayed good judgment in electing him.

The Jewish Rushua or new year and the Jewish festivities fall upon the 29th and 30th of Sept and the Jewish Yumkieper or fast day upon Sept 29 which day will be occupied with fasting and prayer. These sacred holidays of the Jewish people will be celebrated throughout the entire world by these people. The store of H Patterson, of this city will be closed on these three holidays all of the 1st two days and until 6 o'clock on the 29th. Mr H Patterson and family will attend services in the Jewish temple at Cincinnati.

Handsome Entertainment.
A most delightful affair was the dinner and smoker given by Attorney Emmett Puryear, of Danville, to the bench and bar of this district, at Danville. Nearly every judge and lawyer in the district was present, beside a number from other points. The dinner was served in courses and was a most elegant one. The smoker was given in the handsome apartments of Mr. Puryear, in Masonic Temple. Mr Puryear, who is one of the most popular gentlemen in Kentucky, proved an ideal host, and many were the well wishes extended to him. The editor of this paper expected to be able to accept a most cordial invitation to be present, but pressing business matters prevented. The Lancaster lawyers present were Joe E Robinson, G B Swinebroad, R L Davidson and W I Williams.

Death of Popular Man.
Never in the history of Lancaster has there been such universal sorrow as was caused by the death of Charles W Frisbie, who passed away Saturday morning about ten o'clock. As stated in last issue, he was suddenly ill and it was thought at first attacked by typhoid fever, but later meningitis developed and he was completely paralyzed until death ended all. Everything that loving hands and a skilled physician could do was done for him, but all without success. Funeral services were conducted by Rev C C Brown and Eld F M Tinder, at the home of his mother Mrs Mattie Price Frisbie, on Danville street at four o'clock Sunday afternoon, concluded at the Lancaster Cemetery. The immense crowd of people, the banks of lovely flowers and the many expressions of deep regret were only small tokens of the love and esteem our people had for Charley Frisbie. It is customary to hear similar expressions after the death of most anyone, but the manner in which everyone spoke and the outward evidences of deepest grief proved that he was beloved by all. He was the eldest son of Mrs Mattie Price Frisbie and in his thirtieth year. All his life was spent in Lancaster, and, as stated above, we have never known a more popular young man. He was married about seven years ago, to Miss Mary Miller, who, with a little daughter, his mother and one brother, Fred P Frisbie, survive him. He was always among the first to wait upon the sick, do anything in his power for those in distress, and will be greatly missed by old and young alike.

Notice.
From date, all letters that you want to go in mail for train that passes this place at 5:10 a m must be mailed by 9 p m, and on Sunday before 7 p m. W. T. West P. M.
