From "The Land of Now."

PURE RELIGION, UNTARNISHED DEMOCRACY AND GOOD GOVERNMENT.

From "The Land of Now."

TWENTY FIRST YEAR.

LANCASTER, KY., FRIDAY, JUNE 17, 1910.

NUMBER 10.

Mr. Farmer,

We have one of the best CULTIVATORS on the market. No trouble to explain its merits.

Now is a good time for you to have your Binders, Mowers, and Implements repaired.

We carry in stock. Knives Sections, Guards Etc. for all make of machines.

See our Wire Fence.

CONN BROTHERS

Lancaster, Ky.

YOU CAN TEST OUR LUMBER

any way you please. It will stand it splendidly. For we handle no unsound stuff of any description. We know and you will learn that the best lumber is the cheapest in the beginning as well as in the end. And our lumber decidedly comes up to quality called "best."

Lancaster Lumber and Manufacturing Co.

NOTICE THE HUBS

On the next STUDEBAKER Wagon you pass on the road

Why aren't they split and cracked like the ordinary wagon? Because the ordinary wagon hub is made from oak, a wood that splits and cracks very easily, while hubs are made from Eastern Black Birch, a very springy, tough wood, chemically treated, with great weather resisting qualities.

Studebaker Wagon

Western birch is used by some manufacturers, but it is even poorer than oak. It is heavy and will not stand the strain.

Studebaker hubs cost more than any other hub on the market, but they are stronger and wear longer.

Another reason why you should buy a Studebaker from

J. R. MOUNT, SON & CO.

Little Oliver Price Bush, son of Rev. O. P. Bush, is recovering from a spell of sickness.

Lost—Tuesday morning between hotel and depot, an open face gold watch, Elgin movements. If found, return to this office and receive reward.

For Sale.

A nice 83 acre farm all in grass well watered with modern four room dwelling, three miles from town. Will raise tobacco or hemp. Apply at this office.

Sale of Property.

Hughes & Swinebroad sold for Mrs. E. J. Mason the old Mason Hotel on Stanford street to Mr. R. E. McRoberts for $4,500.00.

To Nominate Congressman.

The republicans will nominate a Congressman in this district on August 9th in Danville, Ky. There are several candidates in Contemplation.

False Report.

Our friend Mr. George Kelly, of Marksbury, tells us that there is no truth in the report that he found a box containing gold money while diving in Dix river near Kings mill.

W. F. Champ, as Executor of the will of Emma Gregory sold the farm belonging to the estate, to J. W. Hill, of McCreary. The farm lies on the Fall Lick turnpike and contains 243 acres. It is one of the best farms in that part of the county.

Andridge-Ward.

Earle Richard Ward, formerly of this place, now of Cincinnati, was married last Wednesday to Miss Mabel Andridge at the Sinton Hotel, in Cincinnati. The groom is a most estimable young man and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ward, who were residents of Lancaster for some 12 or 15 years. The bride is the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Andridge, of the Queen City. Congratulations are extended the former Lancasterian.

Big Fish

Mr. J. F. Stone who lives near the Kentucky river brought a 25 pound cat fish to town last Saturday which he caught himself. This was the largest fish caught near here for some time. He sold it for three dollars.

Mr. Stone is a good fisherman and can nearly always furnish you with fresh river fish when you are in his neighborhood. On July 4th he will give a big fish dinner at the mouth of Sugar Creek and has prepared an interesting program for all who attend.

Richmond People to Take Local Option Vote.

On June 6th four hundred and six voters of Richmond filed a petition in the Madison county court asking Judge Shackelford to make an order on his order book authorizing and directing a local option election to be held on Aug. 11th 1910.

About one half of the petitioners are negroes and part of them could not write their name. The good people at Richmond will have no trouble in defeating the whiskey men.

Change in Drug Firm.

It gives us much pleasure to announce to the public that Mr. R. W. McRoberts has purchased an interest in the drug store of his father, Mr. R. E. McRoberts. For the past six years he has worked in the store in which time he has thoroughly learned the business and his courtesy and strict attention to business has made him very popular among the people of Lancaster and Garrard county. He enters a business already established by his father who by his fair dealings and thoroughness has always commanded a large per cent of the drug business from this county. We feel sure that by the new interest of such a capable young man the new firm will continue to prosper and that their business will increase as the years roll by. The style of the new firm will be R. E. McRoberts & Son.

Automobile Tournament.

The members of the Blue Grass Motor Club are completing plans for the Central Kentucky Automobile Tournament to be held June 30.

This will be of far more interest to the owners and dealers of automobiles in Central Kentucky than the Glidden Tour and will have fully twice as many entries, almost a hundred having already signified their intention of entering the contest.

The tour will start in Lexington and will go thence through Richmond, Lancaster, Danville, Harrodsburg, Brooklyn Bridge, Versailles, Frankfort, Georgetown, and Paris back to Lexington. It will be a run of one hundred and sixty miles and is the same route that was laid out and proposed to the Glidden pathfinder and rejected by the officials of the Glidden tour.

The route mapped out is one of the most beautiful that could be secured anywhere, and will be run under the most rigid rules.

There will be three handsome trophies given in the contest, the finest of which will be an elegant loving cup for any car making a perfect score.

As yet no one from Lancaster has entered, however Col. J. L. Gill will probably be in with the bunch.

Mr. J. E. Robinson sold his farm of 140 acres near Bryantsville to Mr. G. W. Caliebs for $7,000.

Lost—Between Central Record office and Carey Mullins' home, gold watch with name, Annie Mullins, engraved in case. Reward if returned to this office.

Hon. Wm. O. Head, Mayor of Louisville announced Tuesday that he would be a candidate for Governor of Kentucky subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Independence Day Celebration.

Monday July 4, 1910 at Sycamore Lodge, mouth Sugar creek, Kentucky river, Garrard county, "Land of Now" Big Fish Fry, turtle soup a specialty. Burroo, etc. Old Soldiers Parade. Oratory. Brass Band. String Band. Merry-Go-Round. Childrens Parade. Song, My Country 'tis of Thee, by one of Lexington's best vocalists.

I have secured the services of a "High Diver" and water walker. He will leap head-over from the top of a tall tree overhanging the cliff 100 ft. into the air, into water below. Don't fail to see this marvelous and dare-devil performance.

Remember the date, July 4, Sycamore Lodge, Sugar Creek, Kentucky River, Garrard county.

"Postal Card."

A two-by-one-and-a-half-foot "postal card," plastered over with red hearts and winged cupids, delivered to a demure looking couple in a corner of the big dining room at the Sinton yesterday noon informed the large crowd of diners there that the recipients, who had been looking as matter-of-fact as possible, were bride and groom. The two were Clay Sutton, farmer, Lancaster, Ky., and his wife of but half an hour. Their faces turned the color of the hearts. The ceremony had taken place at "high noon" in a private parlor of the hotel. The "tender" postal-card greeting had been sent by "admiring friends" from Sutton's home, and its arrival had been exactly timed.

On the back of the huge postal were clippings from newspapers, reading, "Two hearts that beat as one," "Love in a fit," "Hints for brides and grooms," and many more. Rev. E. L. Andrews, Covington, performed the ceremony. Two sisters of the bride, who was Miss Altie Marksbury, of Lancaster, were present with their husbands. They are Mrs. A. H. Rice, Richmond, Ind., and Mrs. Dr. J. M. Staughton, Covington, Ky.

"I am a captain of the agricultural industry," said Sutton, explaining his business. "Miss Marksbury was visiting her sister in Richmond, and we decided to meet in Cincinnati and get married here."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Council Meeting.

The City Council met Tuesday night and passed the cement walk ordinance. It will be published in next week's issue.

On being asked about the enforcement of the concrete ordinance City Attorney L. L. Walker made the following statement on behalf of the City Council.

"There is no doubt that the City Council has full and complete power to require property owners to construct concrete pavements. The Court of Appeals has decided that the City Council is the sole judge of the necessity of the pavement and of the kind and character that should be built. It is a time that Lancaster should begin to put down concrete yet there is no disposition on the part of the City Council or any of the city officers to force anyone to make these pavements, unless it becomes absolutely necessary in order to get them. It is hoped that our citizens and property owners will realize the benefit of such improvements and make them voluntarily. There is no doubt that they will enhance the value of the property five or ten times as much as the cost of the pavements. Anyone can see the great advantage by inspecting the pavements recently put down on Richmond street, and observe how much the appearance of the homes there are improved by the construction of these up-to-date sidewalks. Every adjoining town, and in fact almost every town in the State has put them in. We should not delay any longer, but our citizens should do this improving voluntarily and not put the city to the trouble and annoyance of requiring it to be done. I think they should first be constructed around the Public Square, as this is a place that is used by everybody that comes to Lancaster, and any improvement made on the Public Square is a benefit to all of our people, both in the town and in the county as well as those who visit us from the outside. The City Council expects to fix up the Square this Fall and put it in as good condition as our limited means will permit. I know the public will appreciate the fact that the town has been to a great expense in erecting and maintaining our water works system, but we are saving every cent possible and hope in the near future to fix up all the streets in good condition as well as to macadamize some of the new streets. We trust that the people will accept the conditions as they should, and will all join in undertaking to improve our little city, and with good streets, good sidewalks and good schools we will advance along with other prosperous and up-to-date towns. Let the work begin as soon as possible.

Cracks At Creation.

Did you know?

That if you frame your mind to mirth and merriment you will bar a thousand harms and lengthen life. That is what the bard of Avon said and he seemed to have had a rare insight into human nature.

That hoping these "Cracks at Creation"—a portrayal of the humorous side of life, at the capital of Garrard, sometimes true and sometimes otherwise, may awaken latent humor and thereby lengthen life, the owners of names give their permission for them to be used, feeling, if you can really see the joke, that 85 will finally seem so young in Lancaster, we will tie white crepe on the door and put a lamb on the tombstone of a person who dies at that age.

That always there are those who howl calamity from the house-tops, we heard a man say the other day that Lancaster had been visited by cholera twice and how she would escape this summer, with its stagnant water, muddy streets, piggins and the like, he didn't know.

That when a man is all in, he is still several dollars out.

That two men of our town were kidnapped not long since. They were enticed into a "devil wagon" and before they realized what had happened they were in Danville, where they telephoned to their respective homes the following old oaken, ironbound, moss-covered message; "don't wait supper, unavoidably detained." One wife's reply was "get off something new. Adam sent that message to Eve in the Garden of Eden."

That you can fool some of the people all the time, and all of them some of the time, but you can't fool your wife any time.

That it is funny when we stop to think about it, how much we talk about the weather.

That the sun would shine into the hearts of a great many if they would only raise the curtain and give it a chance.

That Robt. G. Cousins U. S. congressman from Iowa has written a timely article against "The Chargin' Monster of the Public Road." "Shall the people be driven from their own highways" is the question he aptly asks.

That every true lover of the automobile, in fact every law abiding citizen of the U. S., whether he is an automobilist or not, will agree with Mr. Cousins that the speed violator should be punished.

That the speed mania seems to have become a prevalent disease, not a microbe or germ disease, but a maldy made up of selfishness and devilment.

That if we were all of one accord, and would put our shoulders to the wheel, we could make old Lancaster what she should be.

That Richmond street has increased her looks and value 25 or 30 cents by the concrete walks.

That we need to tear some fences down, some need painting and some need whitewashing.

That if every citizen had the civic pride he should have, we would have a beautiful town.

That Sam Denny is the intrepid hero of thousands of engagements, with ladies and photographers. He always faces the enemy unflinchingly, whether intrenched in strong fortifications or behind formidable cameras. We have a few photos on hand we will give each new subscriber to the CENTRAL RECORD.

That Billy Burton says he is going to the country for a visit where they use "Ballard's floor."

That Dave Thomas is singing "Alexander" don't you love your baby no more."

That some young ladies have made up a song on our friend "Jake Robinson," and we are thinking of getting out an extra edition in which to publish it.

That Tom Wilson will be here with the fair before long.

That the only man whose life was perfect, was my wife's first husband, and her third husband promises to be a close second.

That Noah had Alex Walker skinned a block when he lit a candle, for he made the first Ark-light and he could see by it, too.

That we heard a young man whistling "What's this dull town to me, is not here." You can supply the blank to suit yourself.

That we are going to have red lemonade, yellow lemonade, coca-cola and pop at the fair, and anyone with injured feelings can bathe them at these thirst parlor and forget all about it. If that doesn't help you, repair to the many good dinners on the grounds.
