We Hope He Will Get It.

Ed C. Gaines the popular insurance man, is practising up on how to act as a millionaire, and he stands a chance to see his hopes realized. There is an estate in Germany belonging to the heirs of one Fisher, of whom the Gaines family are said to be descendants, which amounts to $172,000,000. A firm of New York attorneys is seeking to find the heirs and has entered into a contract with the Gaines family to represent their interests; they will send a committee to Germany in an effort to establish the claims of the heirs in this country, and if their efforts are crowned with success, Ed will "get his".

Always Willing To Learn.

George Smith, Jr., of the Lancaster Record, is in correct supposition that the balance of train 24 was on time the day the sleeper was late, notice which was made in the Messenger at the time. Seeing that the sleeper comes from Jacksonville, Fla., and the rest of the train from a point in Virginia, there is nothing so peculiar about this. The Richmond branch of the "ell and en, near which the beautiful city of Lancaster is situated, is not navigable to sleeping cars or other heavy craft. The only thing this branch has to boast of is a line of telegraph poles and an alleged right of way. George should move out into the world and see a real railroad one of these days.—Junction City Cor. Messenger

Thanks Bro. Burdett, when ever we are seeking information about railroads or want to see trains what are trains, we will come over to Junction city.

Nice Compliment To Deserving Gentleman.

The Democratic Committee for the Fifth Appellate District nominated Judge John D. Carroll to succeed himself upon the appellate bench without opposition, thereby demonstrating the fact that the people of Kentucky are capable of laying aside personal and political preference and sending to office the men who have proven themselves worthy. And in the case of Judge Carroll, no man ever proved himself more worthy of the trust placed in him than he. An able jurist, a just and upright man and a gentleman, he has often been weighed in the balance and never found wanting, and tis but a fitting tribute to his integrity and the esteem in which he is held by his constituents that he should have no opposition for the office to which he aspires, and which he asks that he be re-elected. That he will be re-elected goes without saying as the district from which he is to be re-elected is over ten thousand democratic, and if he is given opposition at all, it will be a mere matter of form. Not an attorney who practises in Kentucky but who knows Judge Carroll, if not personally, through the book to which they all look for guidance;—"Carroll's Code", of which he is the author, and all who have practised before the Kentucky Court of Appeals are personally acquainted with him from his long connection with that tribunal, both as a judge and as the official reporter of the court. Judge Carroll is prominently connected with the fraternal organizations of the state, having served as a grand officer in one or more of them, and in this capacity has travelled over and formed a wide acquaintance throughout the state, and without exception, wherever he is known, he is justly popular.

As for his political faith, no truer democrat ever registered under the rooster than he, and he is ever to be found in the forefront, laboring for the cause of his party and for its nominees.

Bailey, pastor of the colored Baptist Church of this place has answered the legal requirements by registering with the county clerk as a practicing physician, and he will now proceed to heal the bodily as well as the spiritual worlds of his congregation as well as any other of his race who may be in need of his services.

Boys Fine Hogs.

Mr. Ben F. Robinson has just returned from Paris, Ky., where he bought two fine duroc gilts from A. P. Adair & Son. One of these gilts is a prize winner having won second in a class of twenty five at the State Fair in Louisville. Mr. Robinson is building up a fine herd and expects to produce some prize winners in the future.

Another Editor For Office.

The editors of this congressional district seem to be coming in for a liberal share of the state offices; Harry McCarthy of Nicholasville is slated for a good berth under Secretary of Agriculture Newmann. We hope however, that we are not to lose Bro. McCarthy from the journalistic field, but like Cecil Williams, he will find time to devote to the good paper of which he is the able editor.

A Popular Appointment.

Immediately upon being apprised of the fact that a vacancy existed in the office of the Commonwealth's Attorney for the thirteenth judicial district, which was occasioned by Judge Charles Hardin assuming his duties as circuit judge, Governor Wilson appointed Hon. George D. Florence of Stanford to succeed Judge Hardin. Under this appointment Mr. Florence will hold until after the November 1912 election. The appointment is a popular one as Mr. Florence stands well with the legal fraternity of the district. He was Judge Walker's master commissioner in Lincoln county. Mr. Florence on Tuesday presented his commission, qualified and assumed the duties of his new office.

BIRTHS.

There arrived a ten pound girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Curtis of the Hackley vicinity on last Saturday night.

Born to the wife of Mr. R. P. Ison, an 8 1/2 pound girl on last Friday. Mr. Ison says that she already wants to go to Sunday School at their good meetings held at Antioch, at which place Mr. Ison is Supt.

Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Bush Elkin are rejoicing over the advent of the twelve pound son. The lusty youngster arrived at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening and Shirley has already been compelled to purchase for himself a new pair of slippers. He has not yet been christened. Mrs. Elkin is doing nicely, and aside from the worry as to whether or not the public will stand the raise in the prices of meat, which he fears will become necessary, the father too is enjoying reasonably good health.

TO THE OLD SOLDIERS.

Hustonsville, Ky, R. F. D. No 2, Box 51, Nov-14th 1911.

Dr. J. J. Pursley (Dakota Jack) Lancaster, Ky., Dear Sir:—Please have published the following letter. For the benefit of all the old soldiers, who fought during the civil war for what they thought right. I was a soldier during the civil war and fought for the cause and for 15 years I have been a sufferer of rheumatism and for the past 11 years I have been unable to do anything. I had almost lost use of my self. I had rheumatism in my shoulders, back and lower limbs, I tried everything I could hear of that was recommended for rheumatism. I tried a number of Doctors and they done me no good. Some of them told me the more you treat rheumatism the worse it gets. I had lost all hope I was a miserable existence to self. A friend told me of PURSLEY'S INDIAN HERBS. I ordered a 45 days treatment and taken it according to directions and it has cured me sound and well. I can work and walk 5 mile now without exertion. PURSLEY'S INDIAN HERBS is a god send to all sufferers of rheumatism and I appeal to sufferers of rheumatism to try it and be convinced. This letter is unsolicited by any one and voluntarily written by myself for the benefit of people who suffer with the dread disease Rheumatism. Try it and be convinced. Yours very truly, (signed) W. S. Taylor. Pursley's Indian Herbs are for sale by J. J. Pursley Lancaster, Ky., or by J. E. Stormes Druggist $1.00 for a 45 days treatment.

SPLENDID TRIBUTE PAID TO Judge L. Walker At The Closing Of His Farewell Term Of The Lincoln Circuit Court.

At the close of the Lincoln Circuit Court on last Saturday, which marked Judge Lewis L. Walker's retirement from the circuit bench in so far as Lincoln county was concerned, every member of the Lincoln county bar joined in signing the following testimonial which tells of the esteem in which he was held by them:— We, the undersigned members of the Lincoln county bar, upon the voluntary retirement of Judge L. L. Walker, as Judge of the Thirtieth Judicial District of Kentucky, desire by this testimonial to express our high appreciation of the fearless, impartial and scholarly way he has discharged the duties of the Judgeship.

Judge Walker has met every obligation of his high office in that way calculated to preserve the dignity of the Court, the sanctity of the law, and the respect of the people for an able upright judge.

He has fully measured up to every requirement of the exalted position, and quits the bench with admiration and respect of every lawyer who has practiced before him".

Clever Josh Swope, clerk of the Lincoln Circuit Court, has added his quota of respect for Judge Walker by noting on the resolutions the recording of the article.

Circuit Court.

The November term of the Garrard Circuit Court opened Monday morning with Judge Walker presiding. Clerk Mason and Miss Sue Shelby Mason as his deputy presided at the books, while Sheriff Ballard had for his deputies Messrs B. F. Robinson, C. A. Robinson and Tommie Ballard; Hon. Chas. A. Hardin was also on hand to look after the interest of the Commonwealth. Judge Walker proceeded to empanel and instruct the juries, after which adjournment was taken until afternoon. Immediately upon the convening of the afternoon session, Judge Walker inquired of Mr. Hardin if he had his commission, and on being answered in the affirmative, he vacated the bench, and in a few well chosen words he bade him God speed in his new position. Judge Hardin then produced his commission, qualified, took the oath of office and proceeded with the business of the court. Judge Hardin is presiding with dignity and is pleasing lawyers and litigants. He is considered by every one as a good Judge and well qualified to fill this high and honorable position. He made us a good commonwealth attorney and so will he perform the duties of the higher office. Every one likes Judge Hardin which is attested by the fact that he had no opposition either from the democratic or republican party.

Hon. W. H. Brown has been appointed Master Commissioner for this county and Bennie F. Robinson has been made trustee of the jury fund. Both of these appointments are popular ones and they will do their work in an efficient and capable manner. As we go to press this Wednesday morning Judge Hardin is disposing of business rapidly and to the satisfaction of the lawyers. Hon. W. I. Williams of Tulsa, Okla. is here and every one in Lancaster is glad to see him. He has several cases to try out this term as soon as he has finished shaking hands with every one.
