HOW ABOUT THAT

INDIANA SILO?

Feed of all kinds will be scarce and high in price this coming winter.

The Indiana Silo Co., had sold more Silos up to July 1st, than they sold all last year, and they are warning me to get my orders in as early as possible, for fear they would not be able to fill late orders.

Mrs. W. B. Moss lately returned from Lee county, Va., where she was called by the fatal illness of her mother, Mrs. Katherine Colson. The mother of Mrs. Moss who was an occasional visitor to her daughter at this place, was a most remarkable woman; she had reached her 93rd year and up to a month ago was able to sit out on the porch at the residence of her only son, W. G. Colson, where she made her home; though her death was really due to the infirmities incident to old age, the immediate cause was a fall she sustained some little time ago from which she never rallied. The funeral service was held both at the home of her son, and also at the grave followed by interment in the Colson cemetery at Middlesboro. While Mrs. Colson was a native Virginian, the greater part of her life was spent in Kentucky, she having removed to the Yellow Creek Valley with her family before the Civil War and the old brick dwelling known as the "Colson Homestead" still stands in the suburbs of Middlesboro. Mrs. Colson could relate interesting War reminiscences and often told of having furnished the cloth for the flag that was hoisted at Cumberland Gap. Mrs. Colson left four daughters, Mrs. W. B. Moss of this city, Mesdames J. S. Bingham, of Pineville, W. D. Hurst and J. G. Fitzpatrick, of Middlesboro, the Bell county women being occasional guests of their sister, Mrs. Moss at this place. News Of The Churches.

The revival meeting now in progress at the Methodist Church has been well attended and productive of much good. Rev. Bridges, who has charge of the meeting is a powerful speaker, one whose earnestness and sincerity impress upon the hearer a realistic understanding of the Gospel. Rev. Bridges is accompanied by his wife who has charge of the song service.

The meeting at the Methodist church continues with great interest. Brother Bridges is doing some good preaching, hewing close to the line, not sparing saint or sinner. The meeting will continue up until Sunday.

He will preach to men only, Sunday afternoon, at three o'clock, at the Methodist church. Let all the men avail themselves of this opportunity, in hearing this noted evangelist.

The Kentucky Annual Conference will convene at Wilmore, Sept 2nd to 6th., Bishop Kilgo, presiding.

Catarrh Cannot Be Cured with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surface. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surface. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. Send for testimonials, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O.
