W. A. Doty.

FOR SHERIFF.
G. T. Ballard, Jr.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE.
H. Clay Kauffman.

I am a candidate for County Court Clerk to succeed J. W. Hamilton the present Clerk.

I have accepted the Chief deputies appointment in the office in order to acquaint myself with the duties of Clerk and having fitted myself to take the examination required by law, I sincerely ask and solicit your support.
E. M. Walker.

Railroad Commissioner.
We are authorized to announce JOHN E. NEWMAN, of Bardston, Nelson County, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Railroad Commissioner from the Second District; the primary election to be held Saturday August 7th., 1915.

PAPER ENLARGED.
The Junction City Picayune, our baby exchange, is growing as all vigorous healthy children should. It is a new, well gotten up sheet and here's hoping its shadow will never grow less.

SCHOOL TAX.
Your school tax has been due since July 1st, 1914 and the time has come that I can not wait longer as the law required me to advertise and sell all property that the Tax has not been paid. This I will do in a few days. So come and settle and save further penalty and cost of advertising.
E. W. Harris, Treasurer.

NEW WAR TAX COLLECTOR.
Mr. Wesley Moore, of Salvisa, one of the staunchest Democrats of the north end of Mercer, has been appointed war stamp collector by Collector John W. Hughes. He fills the position of Mr. Wallace Wharton, of Jessamine county, who was promoted from war stamp collector to that of income tax collector in the revenue office in Danville in the place of Mr. Victor Rubie, who resigned to engage in other business. Mr. Moore is a good man for the job.

MRS. J. M. STILES, OF PRATT CITY Says It Is Wonderful What Was Done For Her After Suffering Sixteen Years.

Mrs. J. M. Stiles, of Pratt City, says I had catarrh of the head for sixteen years and it finally went to my stomach and bowels. My complaint was variously named, catarrh of the stomach, abscess of stomach and intestinal indigestion. I had bloating fullness after meals, pains in the chest and sides, dizziness and lightness of the head; palpitation of the heart; mucous dripping from the head annoyed me greatly, causing a constant clearing of my throat. I had a dry, hacking cough and very offensive breath. The linings of my stomach were in such a condition that my food did me no good whatever, consequently I had not the least bit of energy and simply forced myself to drag around. I have used three bottles of Andes Great Prescription and feel like a different person. It has cleansed my stomach so I now digest and assimilate my food and my whole body has been built up. I feel so good when I get up I want to go to singing and want to sing nearly all the time. I tell you Andes' Great Prescription has worked wonders for me.

These wonderful new preparations are guaranteed to cure all forms of blood disorders, catarrh, indigestion, stomach, liver, kidney or bladder troubles, weak back, nervous rundown systems, and for that tired allgone feeling it has no equal. Try a bottle today and be convinced. Your money returned if it fails to do good. Sold in Lancaster by R. E. McRoberts.

Don't forget the intertainment at School Auditorium next Thursday night.

MORE HONORS FOR MASON.

Governor Jas. B. McCreary has just issued a commission to Mr. W. B. Mason, appointing him a delegate to the Southern Commercial Congress, to be held in Muskogee, Okla., the last week in April. No better selection could have been made and Mr. Mason is very proud of the honor. Mr. Mason is considered the best Circuit Court Clerk in the state and is a candidate to succeed himself next fall. His friends say he will.

DANVILLE TO HAVE FAIR.

A meeting of the directors of the Danville Fair Association was held in the court house Saturday afternoon. It was decided to hold a fair this year on July 21, 22 and 23. The fair this year comes about two weeks earlier than usual. Mr. A. W. King, the local buyer for the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company, was chosen to the position of secretary. Mr. H. C. Bright, who heretofore served as secretary, declined to take the place again. Mr. Fred Harris was chosen treasurer and declined to take the place again. Mr. King, the new secretary, is a high-class man and a hustler and will make the fair a great success.—Advocate.

WRIGHT'S ARM PREVENTS PLAYING.

Floyd (Wraaty) Wright, the State University star outfielder who is under contract to report to the Cleveland American league base ball team, is doubtful whether he will be able to play this season. An injury to his arm sustained during the foot ball season last fall refuses to yield to medical treatment and at present he says he is unable to throw a ball with any degree of force. Wright stated to a Leader reporter yesterday that he intended to have his injured member examined by a specialist and to do everything possible to get it into working order, but that he was not expecting to get into the game this year.—Lexington Leader.

JOHN MORGAN JR. SOLD.

Mr. Mark Goin, of Marksburg, has purchased of Mr. T. O. Hill, his famous jack, John Morgan Jr. and will make the season at Mr. Goin's place near Marksburg. This is considered one of the best jacks in the county and should prove a good investment to the new owner.

DARK HORSE ENTERS KENTUCKY RACE.

H. V. McChesney, former State Superintendent of Public Instruction and Secretary of State, formally announced he is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor. He will run on a statewide prohibition platform. McChesney is the much-talked-of "dark horse", and now it is believed that the field for the nomination for this office is made up. The candidates are H. V. McChesney, of Frankfort; Henry Bosworth, of Fayette county; J. W. Newman of Versailles; H. H. Cherry, of Bowling Green; A. O. Stanley of Henderson, and E. J. McDermott of Louisville.

GRANT.

After a illness of several months, Mrs. Emma P. Grant, died at her home on Richmond St, last Saturday morning. She is survived by four children, Dr. H. M. Grant, of Norfolk Va., and Misses Ida May, Lou and Lillie, of this city.

Funeral services were conducted at the home last Monday afternoon, by Rev. F. M. Tinder, interment taking place immediately after in Lancaster cemetery. Mrs. Emma P. Grant, who was formerly Emily Price Graham, was born at the residence of her grandfather, Colonel William Price, the old Price homestead two miles east of this place, on October 24th, 1837.

Her mother was Nancy Jennings Price, the only sister of William Ashburn Price, Commodore Cicero Price, Dr. Jennings Price, Napoleon B. Price and Thomas Johnson Price, and Ed Price. Her father was Benjamin Franklin Graham, a lawyer of this place, who served in the Mexican War with the rank of Captain receiving his appointment from President Polk, and was killed in a skirmish preceding the battle of Monterey. Mrs. Grant was only ten years old when she lost her father and just eighteen when she sustained the irreparable loss of her mother.

At the death of Nancy Price Graham, her eldest daughter, Emily, became a beloved member of the family circle of Napoleon B. Price, where she was given every consideration of a tenderly cared-for daughter for four years.

She was married in 1859 to Dr. James W. Grant, a young dentist from Virginia, who had located in this city, the marriage being solemnized in the parlor of the old Price homestead where she was born, the ceremony being performed by the pastor of the Christian church, the Reverend Dr. Adams. She made a confession and was received as a member of the Christian church, when she was about twenty years of age. Dr. Hatch then being the pastor. Her almost four score years were passed in this city and vicinity.

Mrs. Grant was a most excellent woman, a type of the highest of her sex. Kind she was, and her sympathies were all embracing. At home she was the embodiment of a type of wife and mother that was true and beautiful. She held the esteem and respect of the entire community, for she was truly one of God's best creatures—a good woman.

The floral offerings were many and beautiful—flowers seem to be the best emblem we have to express our love, for we weave them around the cradle, the marriage altar and the tomb. Thus will we leave her and in memory keep her, sweetly reposing among the beautiful flowers she loved so well. To the bereaved son and daughters we extend our sympathies. A Friend.

FROM REMOTEST PARTS OF WORLD Famous Medicine, Tanlac, Draws Ingredients From Distant Points.

Louisville, Mar. 11th., L. T. Cooper, the man who electrified the larger cities with his philanthropy, health theories and medicine, is now meeting hundreds daily in Louisville and explaining the nature of his celebrated preparation, Tanlac.

To a group of friends at The Seelbaah, where he is stopping, Mr. Cooper stated that the medicinal elements or properties, which go to make up his medicine, Tanlac, came from many remote sections of the globe. The Alps, Apennines, Pyrenees, Russian Asia, Jamaica, Brazil, West Indies, Mountain States near the Rocky Mountains, Asia Minor, Persia, India, Russia, England, France, Germany, Mexico, Columbia and Peru were among the points he mentioned as furnishing the ingredients for the premier preparation.

In his principal laboratory, the roots, barks and flowers of the medicine in its rough, is assembled under the personal direction of a German chemist of note and skillfully made to obtain to the high state of efficiency that is shown by the uniform preparation, Tanlac.

In sterilized bottles, made expressly for the purpose, Tanlac is placed, labeled, inspected and then shipped out over the world where the demand requires.

Mr. Cooper, having made an extensive study of catarrhal affections, was asked to express himself upon that subject. He said: "Most of the so-called stomach, liver and kidney troubles are due almost entirely to a catarrhal inflammation of those organs. The constant coughing up of mucus, dull, throbbing headaches, pains in the pit of stomach, and the persistent susceptibility to coughs and colds, are common symptoms from which so many suffer.

"Tanic, the preparation I am introducing to combat this condition, preserves your health, gives you renewed energy, brightens your spirits, lengthens your life and is an unmitigable, unfailing comfort to the thousands who suffer from catarrh and its distressing consequences."

Tanic can now be bought in Lancaster, at R. E. McRoberts drug store, exclusive agent.

We are now prepared to paint your automobiles, carriages and buggies. Mr. Louis Ott of Cincinnati will be in charge of this department.
W. J. Romans.

Mr. Schooler has accepted a position in the mill and is now discharging the duties of book-keeper. Mr. H. K. Herndon having resigned this place several weeks ago.

DEATH OF JNO E. GREENLEAF

A death which caused universal sorrow in this community is that of Mr. John E. Greenleaf, who passed quietly into that dreamless sleep on Saturday March 6th, at his home on Lancaster Avenue.

He had been in declining health for a couple of years, but with his cheerful disposition and courage that was characteristic of the man, he would not allow his suffering to interfere with the happiness of those around him.

Mr. Greenleaf was born in Lancaster Sept. 18, 1850, and was the son of Wm. Greenleaf and Lucinda Stevens. He came to Richmond in 1870 and during the long years that have followed, no man has stood higher in the community, or built up for himself a character further above reproach. He was elected book-keeper and teller of the First National Bank, and years later succeeded Mr. Letcher as cashier of the Bank now known as the Southern National, which position he occupied at the time of his death.

Mr. Greenleaf was first married to Miss Annie Busby and after her death to Miss Ida Jennings, a daughter of Dr and Mrs. Wm. Jennings, of this county. Of this union three children were born, two of whom, Judge J. J. Greenleaf and Miss Van Greenleaf survive him.

Mr. Greenleaf belonged to the order of Elks and was a Mason, being knighted in Richmond Commandery. August 1875, and had filled nearly all the positions of honor in the various bodies. He became Master in 1878, High Priest of Richmond Chapter in 1882 and again in 1890, and was elected Commander of his Commandery in 1889.

Mr. Greenleaf was a member of the Presbyterian church and for many years has been one of its most faithful members. Perhaps no man in the county had more friends, and justly so. Always a man of modest, retiring disposition, but genial and hospitable, he was a loved figure in the town. As a husband and father he was indulgent and affectionate, the devotion of his only daughter being a source of great pleasure to him.

The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon at the home and was conducted by Dr. K. L. Telford, of the First Presbyterian church, after which the body was laid to rest in the Richmond Cemetery, where the grave was hidden beneath a mass of fragrant flowers—love's offering.—Citimax-Madisonian.

Mr. Greenleaf was loved and liked by every one here and was a brother of Mrs Emma Kauffman of this city, to whom much sympathy is extended in the loss of a devoted loved one.
