SHIPPING FEEDERS

Mr. Ike Shelby shipped about two hundred feeding cattle from this place last Monday morning to Mr. Marcus Prewitt, of Winchester. These cattle were some of the cream of the county and were purchased by Mr. Shelby from different parties at seven cents a pound; the entire bunch averaging about 1000 pounds.

SOME TREE, THIS.

Our good friend, Mr. Edgar Price brought to this office last Saturday a half dozen large, red juicy apples, of the June variety, but are now bearing profusely in October. Mr. Price tells us that this tree was loaded down with the delicious fruit in June, and while the October crop is not so abundant, it is just as good in quality. The apples are quite a curiosity and can be seen at this office.

Our Advice Is:
When you feel out of sorts from constipation, let us say that if Reall Orderlies do not relieve you, see a physician, because no other home remedy will. Sold only by us, 10 cents.

DOZIER.

Stricken suddenly with heart failure, Mr. James F. Dozier, age 27 years, died at his home near Paint Lick last Saturday morning. His sudden death was quite a shock to his relatives and friends as he had never complained of any heart trouble, although he had been suffering for several days with his eyes. He was the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Dozier and is survived by a wife and two young children. His remains were taken to Harboursville, his former home, where interment took place last Sunday afternoon.

HANDSOME HOTEL BURNED.

The handsome brick Newtonian hotel at Somerset was burned last Tuesday morning entailing a heavy loss to the owners and occupants. The fire originated in the attic and is believed to have caught from defective wiring. The fire department was very slow to respond, the result being that very little was saved. Mr. Charles Renner, a brother of Mrs. R. Zimmer, of this city, had leased the hotel a few months ago and his loss is quite heavy, with no insurance. Mr. Renner has opened up the old Cumberland hotel near the depot, which at the time was vacant, but Mr. Renner informs his patrons he will have it in good shape in a few days. Mr. Renner has many friends here who regret to hear of his loss.

JUDGE WALKER TO SPEAK IN LINCOLN

Judge Lewis L. Walker, of Lancaster, who is the republican nominee for Lieutenant Governor, will make two speeches in Lincoln county next week, speaking at Crab Orchard next Tuesday afternoon, the 26th, at half past one o'clock and here at Stanford that night at seven o'clock. Judge Walker has a great many friends in this county who will be glad of the opportunity to hear him, regardless of politics. He made a splendid record while on the circuit bench when appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Judge Sautley. The Republican Campaign Committee invites everyone to hear him. —Interior Journal.

NO RACE FOR COUNCIL.

Present Board Elected Without Opposition.

Every two years in the city of Lancaster a Board of Councilmen are elected, and the unusual has happened in the good year of 1915. There is no contest over who shall be on the Board for the next two years. It is perhaps the first time in the memory of the oldest citizen of the town when this election did not bring on a sharp fight.

The town has been fortunate to have a board of council including the Mayor who have served the people so satisfactorily for the past two years. The finances of the town have been economically and honestly handled. Reasonably good order has been maintained. On the whole the majority of the people have been pleased with the administration of the public affairs of the city. The only change made in the Board was caused by the voluntary retirement of Mr. Wes Zanone, one of the most experienced members of the council. Mr. Zanone has always been a popular member, having led the council in the votes at all previous elections. It is to be regretted that he could not be persuaded to longer serve the public in this important post. Mr. H. T. Logan who has been seasoned by ripe experience upon the council was selected to take the place of Mr. Zanone. The most important matters that will come before the next council will be an attempt to furnish the people with twenty four hour light service. This Board is committed to the plan of public ownership of the lighting system of the city if any feasible way can be devised.

Hon. L. G. Davidson, present mayor, will continue to serve for two years more. The names of the following will be upon the city ballot to be voted for at the November election. Dr. J. A. Amon, Parker Gregory, Jas. A. Dalton, Sam Cotton, W. O. Goodloe and H. T. Logan.

PARAGRAPHS FROM STANLEY'S SPEECHES.

"I unearthed the ground wire that connected the Senate of the United States with 111 Fifth Ave., New York, between the desk of Nelson A. Aldrich and the home of the trusts."
"I had spread upon the record of Congress the checks and vouchers, the indubitable proof of their sordid sins."
"Will the intelligent citizenship of Kentucky entrust a party with power that knows nothing of invisible government, or knowing is too timid or corrupt to give you its solemn pledge to destroy it?"

"If elected Governor of Kentucky I solemnly and earnestly pledge the people of the Commonwealth here and now that I will turn the calcium light upon the lobbyist and upon all who to procure positions of honor or privilege by any secret or unshy alliance with him."
"Not the creation but the equitable distribution of wealth, is the great problem confronting the law makers of America."
"The republican platform contains no anti-trust plank, no pledge to curb corporate greed or punish corporate crime. The reason is not far to seek, it pretends to betray the people rather than offend the interest."

"The party which had the stomach in 1900 'to endorse without reserve the resolute and patriotic course of W. L. Taylor' has, at this good hour, never a word to say in commendation of any of the Republican, National or State administrations."
"If I am elected Governor of Kentucky my time will not be given to saying things but doing them."
"The eyes of the President look down upon you. Where, oh where, is the democrat, at this crucial hour, who will prove recalcitrant to his mighty chief? Inspiring as a candidate, greater as a patient and constructive statesman, he is greatest as the wise, fearless, far seeing diplomat, preserving at once the honor of his country and the peace of half the world."
"Though still living our President has already earned an immortal place even among 'those dead but sceptered sovereigns, who still rule our spirits.'"

"Your failure, were failure possible, will appall the Democracy of America, and your assured victory will thrill with delight and inspire with new courage the militant Democracy of the nation."

"REV." DELK'S FINE SUSTAINED.

The Rev. James Delk, who made quite a reputation while preaching at King's Mountain, Science Hill, Somerset, Junction City and other points in this section of the state, was handed quite a wallop by the Kentucky Court of Appeals on account of some things he is alleged to have said from the pulpit at Pukaiki and which offended some of the good people there. A dispatch from Frankfort to the Courier Journal Thursday morning said of the matter: James Delk, a Holy Roller preacher, must pay the fine of $62.50 imposed upon him by the Pukaiki Circuit Court where he was convicted on the charge of breach of the peace. While preaching at Science Hill, Delk used vulgar and obscene language, which he alleged he did by rebuking his listeners for the sin of immorality. Ministers will not be permitted to commit a breach of the peace in the guise of preaching, the court says. Neither are they licensed to use the pulpit for disgraceful purposes. Women and children, the court says, are not to be insulted with impunity by the use of obscene vulgarity in places where they go to worship. If the language used by Delk was not an act of public indecency in violation of the common quiet and consequently a breach of peace, the Court of Appeals says, "then it would be difficult to imagine such a breach short of actual violence."

Come and hear Ollie James tomorrow and you will hear something.

WORTHY COLORED MAN.

Clayton Anderson, a worthy and respected colored citizen, died at his home in the Middleboro section of the city, last Monday night of dropsy. He was buried Tuesday afternoon.

BRUCE ARNOLD Killed In Railroad Accident.

A telegram to relatives in this city, received Tuesday afternoon, announced the death of Bruce Arnold in a railroad collision on the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway, near Chickasha, Okla., early Tuesday morning. Mr. Arnold had been an engineer on the Santa Fe for several years and was considered one of the best in the service. His sudden death was quite a shock to his relatives and friends here. He was a son of the late George Arnold and a nephew of H. T. Logan. He was never married and was 35 years old, being survived here by a brother, Mr. John Arnold and two sisters, Mesdames William Ward and Henrietta Roney. The family telegraphed that the remains be sent to this city for burial and should arrive here Saturday afternoon when interment will take place.
Until the body arrives, no definite arrangement can be made as to the exact time of the burial.

SHOCKING DEATH.

Mr. Edward M. Mountjoy, of Lawrenceburg, Division Deputy Collector John W. Hughes, with headquarters in Danville, was instantly killed at 11:35 o'clock Sunday morning, a mile north of Lawrenceburg on the Frankfort pike. He and his wife, accompanied by two little neighbor girls of Tyrone, had started to Alton Station to spend the day. The Ford runabout was being driven by Mr. Mountjoy at a fairly high rate of speed when an attempt was made to turn a curve. The front wheel bounded off, the machine turned upside down and then right side up and reversed directions and started back toward Lawrenceburg.
Mr. Mountjoy's neck was broken, his skull crushed and other injuries inflicted. His wife and the two little girls were thrown out of the machine but escaped injury.

After the accident and after the machine had turned upside down, then righted and reversed itself, Mr. Mountjoy was found seated at the steering wheel, which he was gripping tightly. Mr. Mountjoy had been making his home in Danville for the past two years, he was very popular in Danville and his home town of Lawrenceburg where he was buried Tuesday afternoon.

ARNOLD.

After a lingering illness, extending over four years, Mr. William A. Arnold died at his home on Lexington street, Tuesday morning at seven o'clock. Mr. Arnold was sixty seven years old. He had resided in Garrard county all his life having been born in lower Garrard near Bryantsville.
He was twice married, his first wife being Miss Eliza Anna Umber, to whom were born five children, four of whom are living and were at his bedside at the time of his death, they are Mrs. Della Francis, Misses Allie and Mary Arnold and Mr. Jesse Arnold.

On July the 8th 1908, he was married to Miss Lucy Gregory, in Nicholasville, by Rev. F. M. Tindler, her devotion to him at all times has been beautiful.
Another name is stricken from the ever lessening roll of our older citizens and his lady is left to sadly miss him. We sympathize with her, and children and relatives who mourn his departure.
Mr. Arnold was a member of the Christian church and funeral services were conducted at his late home Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by Rev. F. M. Tindler, assisted by Rev. S. H. Pollitt, which his remains were laid to rest in our cemetery. Besides his wife and children Mr. Arnold leaves the following brothers and sisters: Messrs James Arnold of Kansas City, the Arnold of Guthrie Okla., Rouben Arnold of Pleasant Hill, Mo., Walter B. Arnold of this city and Mesdames Hugh Hemphill and Margaret Folger of Nicholasville.

DIVINE BELIEVED COLAPSE CERTAIN

Louisville Man, However, Gains Weight After Taking Tanlac.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 20.—C. D. Divine, one of the best and most favorably known men in Louisville, who is bookkeeper for the Falls City Clothing Company, recently had these words to say about Tanlac, the premier preparation:
"It was my misfortune to be afflicted with an aggravated case of stomach trouble and a highly nervous condition for several years. Gas would accumulate in my stomach, causing me great pain. These attacks followed one another in such rapid succession that my entire system became weakened and made me susceptible to coughs and colds."
"At one time I feared I was in danger of a complete nervous breakdown. In fact, I was told that the breakdown was inevitable, I had a tired, wornout feeling, my sleep was fitful, I was lacking in energy, and had no appetite. I was depressed in spirits and devoid of ambition."
"I suffered for two years, the stomach trouble refusing to yield to the treatment of the best physicians in Louisville. My nerves were shattered. I felt as though my case was hopeless."
"Since using Tanlac, I feel like a different man. I have gained in weight, I sleep better, my appetite has returned, and I am filled with vigor and ambition. The tired feeling has vanished completely."

Tanlac, the premier preparation, is sold in Lancaster by R. E. McRoberts, and in Bryantsville by Becker, Ballard and Scott.

KENTUCKY'S CHOICE

And Edna Mae Sells For High Dollar.
Fully one thousand people attended the dispersal sale of Mrs. Richard Tacker Lowndes at Danville yesterday afternoon when twenty nine head of her choicest horses sold on an average of $200 a head, including the famous Kentucky's Choice, Edna Mae and Mary Yandell Fox. While the sale may have been a disappointment to the owner of these richly bred Kentucky horses, men who are supposed to be posted on the value at this time, of this class of stock, pronounced the sale a success, although quite a number sold what looked to be ridiculously low and at great bargains. Those bringing the best prices were: Kentucky's Choice, to Joe McDowell, $1150; Mary Yandell Fox, to Langhorne Anderson, $750; Edna Mae, to Allie Jones, $1125; Edna Mae's Choice, to Boston party, $1000.

GENUINE PRESCRIPTION FOR ALL RHEUMATISM

Rheuma—that is the name of the scientific prescription that is putting rheumatism out of business.
Rheuma cures by driving the uric acid from the blood. It also acts directly and quickly on the kidneys, bowels and blood and is better for them than most so-called kidney cures.
Gratifying relief comes in a day, because Rheuma acts at one time on the kidneys, stomach, liver and blood. 50 cents a bottle at R. E. McRoberts and all druggists.
