

Lexington We Greet You

BABY CONFERENCE

To Be Held Here Thursday
Lasting Through Saturday
500 INVITATIONS ISSUED

As the days draw nearer for the Baby Conference, held under the auspices of the Garrard County Chapter of the American Red Cross, interest increases and everyone is talking of the big event which opens Thursday at the court house in Lancaster and which promises to be one of the biggest events ever undertaken by the local chapter. Practically every detail has been arranged and five hundred invitations have been issued to that many babies in Garrard county under two years old. Thursday, the first day of the conference will be devoted to babies under one year old, Friday to the babies under two years old and Saturday all babies whose ages run from two to five years. Saturday afternoon the colored babies of the county will be looked after.

Although five hundred invitations have been issued, it is possible that many have been overlooked, for the reason that these babies parents failed to register their birth with the Bureau of Vital Statistics. The invitations issued were through the registers of these bureaus, but those who failed to get invitations are just as welcome and are expected on the days mentioned above.

A committee of ladies have been named who will look after the entertainment of the crowd, lunch being served each day at noon. A parade has been arranged for Thursday afternoon a 1:30 o'clock and it is important that all babies report at the court house before that hour. Mrs. Rose Bastin will have charge of the parade; Mrs. Theo Currey is the chairman of the lunch committee; Mrs. George Smith will be the assistant to the physicians in charge; Dr. J. E. Edwards will have charge of the physical examination, assisted by five other prominent physicians of the county.

Garrard County's Community Nurse, Miss Eva Westover and Dr. Edwards have been working night and day for the past few weeks, arranging every little detail and that they have done their work well, will be evidenced by the interest shown and the hundreds of babies that are expected to attend this Conference. The grandmothers will play an important part in the big parade. Mrs. J. B. Kinnaird, expects to lead the parade with her six grandchildren, unless some other grandmother is more fortunate and has more than six grandchildren, in which event she leads the parade.

Handsome certificates, suitable for framing will be awarded each baby attending the Conference. At ten and two o'clock each day a demonstration will be given in preparing and pasteurizing the baby's food. These demonstrations will be in charge of Misses Mary Davis, Irene Smith, Bertha Broadbudd and Mayne Stapp.

Lexington Boosters

To Be Our Honored Visitors Today

About one hundred and fifty boosters and business men of Lexington are to be our guests today from 11:15 until one o'clock. They are to motor over from Stanford, having spent last night in Danville, where they were given a cordial and royal welcome. A committee of business men of Lancaster are to meet the mortorcade on the Stanford road and escort them into the city where they will receive a hearty welcome from all our citizens. They have arranged lunch at the Kengarian and will leave here at one o'clock for Berea where they will spend the night; thence to Richmond and to Lexington the following day.

FOR SALE:—My household and kitchen furniture at auction Saturday, May 27th., at my home on Maple Avenue. Sale beginning promptly at two o'clock. Also some carpenter's tools for sale.
Mrs. Jesse Dunn.

MEMORIAL

CEREMONIES
At Lancaster Cemetery Sunday
May 28th., at 2 O'clock

Final arrangements for the decoration of the graves of soldiers buried in Garrard County have been made by the Heidelberg Post of the American Legion with which are to co-operate the fraternal orders of I. O. O. F. and Knights of Pythias, who will also decorate the graves of their dead. All members of the American Legion, I. O. O. F. and Knights of Pythias are to meet at the I. O. O. F. Hall before 2 o'clock Sunday, at which time it is planned to march in a body to the cemetery for the decorating ceremonies.

A speaker has been secured by the I. O. O. F. to commemorate their dead, and Judge L. L. Walker will speak on behalf of the American Legion, and the Knights of Pythias. Music will be furnished by a local quartette.

Everyone who can furnish flowers flags or other suitable decorations is requested to send them to the I. O. O. F. hall before 2 P. M. Sunday or bring them to the cemetery and give them to the committee in charge, which will be: Messrs. Robert Hays, Curtis Sanford, Brewer Layton, and Robert Meadows, representing the Legion; Messrs. Ralph Meadows and Hugh Mobley representing Knights of Pythias and William Cox and Homer Murphy representing the I. O. O. F. Everybody is invited to be present and take part in these ceremonies.

William H.

Sowder Dead

Mr. William H. Sowder, who moved with his family to this city from Muncie, Ind., a month since, died at his home on Lancaster street Wednesday, aged 58. He had influenza some months ago, later contracted a throat trouble and then his lungs became involved. His condition was such that he could not fight the inroads being made on his constitution and he gradually declined until the end came. He leaves his wife, who was Miss Sarah E. McNeil, and who was born in Knox county, this State, and the following children: J. T. Sowder, Miss Addie Sowder, Robert Sowder and Mrs. Josh Wilson. Deceased was a member of the Baptist church and had been for many years. The burial occurred in the Lancaster cemetery Thursday afternoon after brief services at the grave by Rev. John Cook Taylor.—Interior Journal.

"Easter Star"

Brings $3,500

"Easter Star," a gaited gelding owned by Charles Cook, of Shelbyville, bred by Allie McAfee, whose sire was "Bourbon Star," owned by Eli Shelbourne, was sold to W. G. Shropshire last week for $3,500, according to Mr. Shelbourne. The horse won second in the $10,000 stake at the State Fair, it was said.—Anderson News.

"Edna Mae" Back

In Danville

A graceful young lady was seen the other evening on Maple avenue riding the horse show favorite "Edna Mae" in one of her high school parties. Seemingly the wonderful mare enjoyed the exercise as much as the young lady. Horseback riding is taking on new life in Central Kentucky towns this spring a swell as in several other states.—Danville Messenger.

Bryantville Wins

One of the best ball teams in Garrard county has developed at Bryantville and they are cleaning up their opponents about as fast as they can get to them. Last Sunday this team of players defeated the Moreland team by a score of 9 to 8. The feature of the game was a home run by Newt Gosney, that brought in three men.

Next Sunday the Bryantville boys will cross bats with a fast team from Lexington and it should be an interesting game.

Never tell another man he is a fool. The truth is often offensive.

SENIOR PLAY

Delights Large Audience at School Auditorium
700 IN ATTENDANCE

"At the End of the Rainbow," title of a three act comedy, presented by the senior class of the Lancaster High School, was a fitting finale to a week of interesting and instructive programs, which marked the close of the schools last Friday evening. Never before has a senior class heaped more honors upon itself than did the cast that presented this play to a delighted audience, bringing hearty applause often during the evening. The auditorium was packed and jammed and many turned away for lack of standing room. There were over 700 paid admissions. Samuel Elliott as a lawyer; Paul Morrow as a groom; Cecil Henry as Butler and the parts taken by Walker Robinson, S. D. Cochran and Ben Kavanaugh, played their parts so well that no one should doubt that their profession should be the stage.

The girls did just as well as the boys, if not a little better, each acting their parts perfectly and with so much personality and grace, showing in every word and movement the thoroughness of their training. Those participating were Misses Judith Daniels, Mossie Criscilla, Jane Haselden, Della Rice Hughes, Faye King, LaVerne Dickerson, Helen Gulley, Lula Anderson, Lucille Schooler, Ruth Taylor, Irene Smith, LaVerne Hicks, Elsie Brown, Allene Curtis, Clyde Hughes and Bertha Broadbudd. Interesting features between acts was the singing of Messrs. Charlie Doty, Curtis Sanford, Russell Sanford and Wade Walker.

The Commencement address to the graduates by Dr. B. F. Bush, of 2nd. Presbyterian church of Lexington, on Thursday evening was largely attended and the address was pronounced the best that had been heard for many months. His theme was "America" and it was ably handled. In the absence of Mr. Boyd, the speaker of the evening was introduced in very happy and appropriate words, by Mr. Robert Hays. Mr. Boyd was ill at his home by a badly sprained back, but we are glad to announce that he is about himself again.

Visits Old Home

The hearts of many of his old friends were made glad last week to see Judge William McKee Duncan, a former Lancasterian, but long a resident of Louisville, he having spent the last week-end with his brother, John M. Duncan and sister, Miss Jennie Duncan. He delights in meeting his old friends and can entertain them by the hour with reminiscences of former years spent in Lancaster during his boyhood days. Father Time has dealt gently with Judge Duncan, who looks quite the same as he did twenty years ago. He was accompanied to Lancaster by his granddaughter, Mrs. Ridgely Lee, of Cleveland, Ohio, and handsome young great grandson, Master Duncan Rogers Lee. The latter had the distinction and honor of sleeping in the same cradle while here, that his great-grandfather occupied during his babyhood. They returned to Louisville Monday afternoon.

Serious Operation

Friends of Ollie Carpenter will regret to learn that he is confined in a Lexington hospital, where he was operated upon yesterday. While the operation was serious, his surgeons report that he is doing well and hope to have him out again soon.

A New Church or Not?

In a very short while the members of the Christian Church will be asked to decide whether we should begin this year the raising of a church building fund. In view of this situation the subject next Sunday morning will be: "A New Church or Not?" All members of the congregation are urged to be present.

Another Hog Sale

Z. T. Rice and Son sold two nice Hampshire male hogs this week. One to Richard Cobb, of Boyle, for $21; one to McKinley and Baughman, of Stanford, for $26. Those pigs weighed about 100 pounds each.

BLUE GRASS LEAGUE

Commercial Organization to Meet in Lancaster in July

At the monthly meeting of the Blue Grass League of Commercial Organizations, at Georgetown last Tuesday, it was unanimously decided to hold the July meeting in Lancaster. A delegation of five from the Chamber of Commerce here attended the meeting at Georgetown. They were: G. B. Swinebroad, John M. Farra, Price McGrath, H. S. Hudson and G. A. Abbott.

There are 16 organizations in this Blue Grass League consisting of Frankfort, Versailles, Paris, Cynthiana, Lexington, Lawrenceburg, Harrodsburg, Nicholasville, Danville, Lancaster, Richmond, Winchester, Mt. Sterling, Owingsville, Georgetown, and Falmouth.

A large representation and splendid program occurred at the Hotel, Lancaster, from one to three P. M. Lexington pledged one hundred boosters for the June meeting at Owensville, where efforts are being made to secure the Mid-land Trail Route. The July meeting will be held at Lancaster and every one of the sixteen organizations will come to see the Biggest Little Town in the State.

Miss Noland

Winning Honors at University of Kentucky

LEXINGTON, KY.,—May 23rd—Miss Nell Noland of Lancaster, Ky., daughter of Mrs. Mae Hughes Noland, is a sophomore in the college of Arts and Science at the University of Kentucky. Miss Noland has sustained a high scholastic standing during her stay at the University.

She has taken for her major subject, "Education" as she is preparing herself for a teacher.

Last year she attended Mary Baldwin Seminary at Stanton, Va., and while there she won the medal offered for the highest scholastic standing made by a Freshman in the study of French.

Miss Noland was a member of the class of 1920 of the Lancaster High School. She will be remembered as having the title role in the Senior play.

Scott

A. D. Scott, aged 50 years, died in Cincinnati last Thursday, where he has lived for the past two years. Mr. Scott was born and reared in Garrard county and is the first of nine children to have passed into the Great Beyond. He is survived by his wife and two children, Edwin, 23, and Rubie, 19 years old. He leaves seven brothers, Messrs. Gus, Charlie, J. E. A. T., William, Marshal and Virgil Scott and one sister, Mrs. H. C. Rubie. Mr. Scott was a member of the Methodist church at Mt. Olivet, and was one of its devout members. His remains were brought to Lancaster last Saturday afternoon, interment following in the local cemetery, services being conducted by Rev. Price T. Smith.

"Wait For Clarence"

The above is the title of a four act comedy to be presented at the School Auditorium, Monday evening, June 5th., by the Senior class of Berea College. More details in next issue of the Record. The play is brought here at the request of the Young Peoples Union of the Baptist church.

Small Court Day

Last Monday was one of the quietest Court Days seen in Lancaster in many months, due possibly to the thousands that were in Lancaster last Saturday, to receive the second payment on their pooled tobacco. Not more than ordinary Saturday afternoon crowd was here and very little business was transacted.

Exchange Saturday

The Circle Girls will conduct an exchange at Haselden Brothers' store next Saturday. Everything good to eat can be bought cheap.

FOR SALE:—Extra good sanitary couch. Mrs. Jas. W. Smith. (5-11-tf.)

GALA DAY

Last Saturday Brought Two Thousand Tobacco Growers to Lancaster

$272,000.00 DISTRIBUTED

Every detail for the paying out the second installment of the tobacco money by the burley association, was carried out to the letter, last Saturday, so complete had arrangement been made by the local chairman, Judge L. L. Walker. It was an unpredicted day for Lancaster, for at no other time was there ever as much money released in the county, $272,000 having been the total of the checks sent here for distribution among the Garrard county growers.

Four places had been arranged in the court house and police court room alphabetically where checks were handed the growers without delay or confusion. All but a few checks were called for and considering the volume of business handled, very few errors were made.

A committee from the business men and merchants of Lancaster had carefully arranged every detail toward the entertainment of the immense crowd, as well as to feed them to their hearts content, which was done, with burgoo, coffee and sandwiches. It is no small undertaking to feed three thousand or more people, but it was done here last Saturday, as anyone of those present can testify. This committee deserves much credit for their work. The assistance of the ladies was par excellence and their help added very materially to the success of the day. Nothing was left undone for the pleasure and convenience of the crowd, which was the happiest one seen here in many years.

All were delighted with the entertainment shown them by the citizens of the town and had no hesitancy in expressing themselves as pleased. They discussed the merits of the association with their neighbors and its future hope. It was unanimous among them that the organization had proven a success in every particular, surpassing many obstacles and troubles that brought phenomenal results. Garrard county has nearly a ninety per cent organization, and it is freely predicted that before many moons, it will be 100 per cent perfect.

Cantrill Speaks

In the presence of an audience which filled the big circuit court room and overflowed into the halls and stairways, Congressman J. Campbell Cantrill pleaded with the tobacco growers to come into the association, not only for the benefit of the members, but for their own sakes, and "make it unanimous."

Many women were in the audience, and the Congressman was given an enthusiastic reception. He was introduced by Judge L. L. Walker, chairman for Garrard county. Mr. Cantrill is full of his subject and never made a better speech than he did on this occasion. Mr. Cantrill said he had found satisfaction to be general, according to reports he had heard since his arrival from Washington, and that he hoped the growers would sign up unanimously in the drive to be conducted in the county during the present week.

Quite a number of contracts were signed following Mr. Cantrill's address and a few before he began speaking. A number of growers last fall were prevented from joining the association because of previous agreements or contracts. These have come into the association, it was said, and the outlook in Garrard county for the signing up of the outside growers almost unanimously, was declared to be favorable.

"The Four Horsemen"

On the personal page of this issue we are carrying a large advertisement of "The Four Horsemen," one of the greatest photo plays ever produced. It is being screened at the Colonial Theatre in Danville, starting yesterday and continuing through Friday evening with matinees at 2:30 and evening hours at 7:30. Many from Lancaster expect to see it.

Just received car load 1x6-16 ft. White Oak Fencing.

Lancaster High Closes

A Successful Season
Stanford High Again Defeated By Captain Henry's Nine.

RAIN MAKES MUDDY DIAMOND
(By Billy Miller)

Captain Henry performing the last time for the Lancaster High School played his strong nine against that of Stanford and defeated them by the score of 4 to 3 on a muddy diamond. Bratton on the mound pitched a great game of ball for the High School lads and held the visitors at his mercy throughout the entire contest. Cox caught the game and played well in his new adopted position. Crutchfield as usual on the first bag socked them all that came his way. Anderson made many pretty plays on second and succeeded in catching all the throws from Cox to second. Captain Henry on short played an unusual good game and was on the job continually. His greatest desire was to be Captain of the nine that defeated the lads from Lincoln county. W. Robinson on third base backed up the pitcher to the last notch, while Estes, Gaines and Daniels were in the field praying for a ball to get to them in order that they might show to the fans who braved the disagreeable weather that they too could play ball. The game was called by "Babe" Lawson and Geo. F. Farris. This ended one of the most successful baseball seasons that was ever known to L. H. S. and the players under Captain Henry's regime have played a wonderful season and now that their beloved Captain has finished his course at L. H. S. the players that will take part in the contests in the years to come will always be grateful for the untiring and unceasing energy put forth by this noble and capable leader.

Athletic Director McRoberts and Coaches Whittaker and Wilmot are to be highly congratulated on the wonderful nine that they whipped into shape.

Governor Bowen's

Minstrels

All Lancaster People, Auspices Masonic Lodge

At a meeting last night, all arrangements were completed and dates set for the big Masonic Home Talent Minstrels, to be given at the School Auditorium, Friday evening, June 2nd.

Gov. Bowen, formerly Comedian and Producer of the A. G. Field Minstrels, has arrived in the city to take charge of the rehearsals and producing the show. Mr. Bowen brought with him special scenery, costumes and parade outfit that will make our boys equal, if not surpass, any of the traveling Minstrels that has played Lancaster.

The show is divided into several distinct parts, the first which is devoted to blackface Minstrelsy, is entitled—"The Floral Festival"—"The High School of Minstrelsy" which is complete with the latest songs and dances. "The Foolishness of 1922" is the title of an interesting travesty on Lancaster's City Government in which all the city officials will be represented. Many other specialties will be added. The entertainment will close with a comedy burlesque, "Doings in Darktown," in which the Delegates, Prohibition Party and Suffragettes will come in for their share of the fun. Rehearsals are being held nightly at the Masonic Hall. Some of Lancaster's best talent will be seen in what promises to be the biggest show ever.

Notice

All members of the I. O. O. F. Lodge, Knights of Pythias Lodge and the American Legion are urgently requested to be present at the Court House in Lancaster, Ky., Sunday afternoon, May 28th., at 2:00 P. M., for the purpose of decorating the graves of the departed brothers and buddies. Let all members bring flowers. Signed
Wm. Cox, Hugh Mobley, R. H. Hays.
