

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

NOVEMBER 18, 1878.

PERSONAL.

Miller & Hovious are building a new livery stable. Mr. R. R. Pierce is putting up an immense tobacco factory and steamery. Mr. Theo. Robinson, of Big Spring, Ky., was in town last Friday. Mr. Isaiah Robinson, of Florence, Ind., is quite sick at Mr. W. M. Cooper's. Mr. H. L. Robinson, of Florence, Ind., is visiting his daughter, Mrs. W. M. Cooper, of this place. A. J. Gross has retired from the firm of Walter, Moorman & Co., Mr. Walter purchasing his interest. Mrs. Dr. Jessie P. Lewis, we are glad to say, is recovering slowly from a long and painful spell of sickness. Mrs. Milton Board and her brother, Mr. Henry Moorman, of Hardinsburg, were visiting relatives last week at this place. Miss Lucy Moorman and her brother, Mr. Louis Moorman, of Hardinsburg, were visiting friends and relatives at this place last week. We regret to hear that Rev. A. J. Miller, pastor of the Baptist church in Cloverport, is quite sick. We hope he will speedily recover. Court of Claims next Monday. The river is on a stand at this point. Dock Isaac, colored, was shot on the 7th inst., while in a gambling row at Vicksburg. Our devil is just like a woman. He can work and quarrel all at the same time. Out Meal and Cracked Wheat at Babbage's. A Fine Cigar at Babbage's. Local option was beaten in the Cloverport precinct one hundred and fifty-five votes. The BRECKENRIDGE NEWS has put off her patent-right and is printed at home out and out. Read our local market report. It is reliable, and you may rely on getting the prices quoted. The BRECKENRIDGE NEWS is the best advertising medium outside of Louisville. Its circulation is increasing every day. Composition Books, Exercise Books, Memorandum Books and Blank Books, at J. D. BABBAGE'S. Jacob Miller's new Blacksmith and Wag-on Shop is going up very rapidly. He will soon be in it and ready for work. The man who was so torn to pieces on the Cincinnati Southern railroad, was named Mike Gibson. Diphtheria is prevalent throughout the State. Children are dying in great numbers. Let parents take notice and govern themselves accordingly. The body of A. T. Stewart was stolen from the family vault in St. Marks' churchyard early on the morning of the 7th inst. No reward will be offered by the estate. Mrs. Richard Barry, residing in a lonely part of San Francisco, Cal., was found murdered in her house on the 7th. Her husband was charged to pieces with a hatchet. A difficulty occurred on last Saturday in a bar-room, between Mr. Isaac Harris and the proprietor, Mr. Hiram Pullan, which resulted in the shooting of Mr. Harris by the latter. It came very near being a fatal shot. The greatest wonder of the age is, the State election in Kentucky passed off and not a respectable street fight in the whole Commonwealth. Campbellville came near getting up one than any place that we have heard of. There were thirty ocean steamers in port at New Orleans, on the 7th. The Courier-Journal says that Nathan Shockey dropped dead at the Bureau Stockyard in Louisville, on the 5th inst. Editors of the News: Please announce in your paper a meeting to begin at the Presbyterian church next Sunday and continuing through the week, with a Communion on the fourth Sunday. J. B. McDONALD. One of the funniest things in town last week happened on Vest's Corner. Two men, who were drunk, were trying to take care of a third man who was not so tight as they, by three drinks. They were trying to get their friend into a wagon, and started him in all right, but his head caught between the spokes in the hind-wheel and fastened. The two friends reeled forward and back a half a dozen times or more still holding to the man's body, carrying his feet and legs away forward to the fore-wheel and then, with another surge they would lap his legs around the hind-spoke of the wagon-body, the poor fellow's head, in the meantime, working down and getting tighter between the spokes. A drunken man's luck was all that saved his neck. The Farmer's Review. The latest addition to our exchange list is the FARMER'S REVIEW, Chicago, Illinois, and a most welcome addition it proves. It is as full of departments as the government at Washington, and they all bear evidence of unusual skill and industry in their management. It is emphatically a model farm and family monthly. It is, without the NEAREST AND CAREFEST JOURNAL OF THE KIND IN THE WORLD. Fifty cents secures a copy for one year. We will furnish the Review and our paper, each one year, for $1.50. At the Cloverport Hotel. T. O. Widdinger, Fordville, Ky.; L. L. Waggoner, W. W. Smart, county; John O. Ray, Rockport, Ind.; G. A. Leichardt, Lost Run, Ky.; Miss Bertha Longroth, San Antonio, Tex.; H. G. Leichardt, Monticello, Iowa; T. J. Jenkins, Hardinsburg, Ky.; R. J. Bassett, J. L. Newburger, H. Kraft, H. P. Taylor, Louisville, Ky.; J. T. Marlow, Hancock county; Eugene T. Haynes, H. Pallan, Thos. Bohler, C. W. Satterfield, J. E. Wheeler, M. R. Taylor, city.

The receipts were 450 hhds, against 145 last week, and 270 hhds in the last week but one. The principal feature of the market was the development of a more urgent demand for colary tobacco, arising from the presence here of several buyers from abroad. This class of goods has held its ground far in advance of all other descriptions of leaf, except bright wrappers, ever since 1874, and is now worth about double the average of dark tobacco, grade for grade. It has been known to the trade but a little more than a single decade, and, commencing with general doubt and disbelief, it has forced its way into the forefront; where many seem to think it is destined to remain. This is due to two qualities, bold and capacity to absorb substances which make weight and flavor; and it will not be long before the question will rise whether dark, gummy tobacco, even of low intrinsic value, but possessing greater natural qualities, and withal selling fifty percent cheaper, will not force the gummy kind to a reaction. Tobacco men certainly knew their trade, but there is doubtless a point of value at which this class of leaf will cease to be available for plug filters and strips, and this point will be determined by the relative prices of Virginia leaf and others of that description. Colary leaf certainly has the turn now as strongly as at any former time, gaining a material advance in the week just closed. Breckenridge county red fillers sold as high as $11.25. All grades of good and brown fillers are active at still prices. The general offerings have been about the same character as heretofore. Shipping tobacco has been extremely scarce. Nonsmokers have sold at former prices. A sale of Virginia wrappers was made at $27. Dark and black wrappers are nominal. The market shows a firm tone. The Planters House sold 9 hhds Breckenridge county leaf and 7 lbs of $5, $6, $7, $8, $9, $10, $11, $12, $13, $14, $15, and $16.

LOUISVILLE JOCKEY CLUB GROUNDS, AUGUST 15, 1878. Mr. HENRY A. MAGILL: DEAR SIR—I had a very severe attack of Fever and Ague, or Chills and Fever. Quinine was prescribed in large doses by my physician, but failed to cure me or to be of any benefit. MAGILL'S Chill Cure, Tonic and Appetizer was recommended. I procured one bottle, and by the time I had used a few doses the disease was broken, and I am now completely restored to health. A member of my family was soon afterward taken ill with the same disease, and was quickly cured with a few doses from the same bottle. Gus Lancaster, a journey, was cured by a few doses from the SAME bottle, and the fourth person, sick with the same disease, is now using some of the medicine remaining in same bottle. I regard it the most valuable medicine I ever used, a splendid tonic and powerful appetizer. It did not cause any noise or buzzing in my head, as was the case with the quinine I used. I never before used a medicine which had such a splendid effect, and I willingly and cheerfully give it my indorsement. ELI JORDAN, Trainer for J. W. Hunt Reynolds, Esq. Price $1 per bottle. Sold by all retail druggists and medicine dealers. Wholesale by Arthur Peter & Co., R. A. Robinson & Co., J. B. Wilder & Co., Alfred Newhouse & Co., Louisville, Ky., and the trade generally. H. A. MAGILL, Proprietor, Louisville, Ky. dec 77 1y. For Sale by A. R. FISHER, Druggist, Cloverport.
