Fred May says the corn stalks in Stern's Bottom will measure four inches in diameter and average three and four ears to the stalk.

Mr. Virge Hardin, of Holt's Bottom, planted a bushel and a peck of early rose potatoes, and dug seventy-five bushels as the product.

Mr. Alf. Rollards, jr., has a four-acre field of white barley tobacco on the Hardinsburg place that promises something immense in the tobacco line.

In order to make room for our fall stock, we are selling Gent's Ties, Half-Hats and Underwear at very low prices.

An envious Beckleyville man remarks the other day, "If gas could build a railroad, they would be sure to have one down at Cloverport." Wonder what he meant?

Lovell's Library, a neat and handy little volume, containing stories by the best authors, can be had at J. D. Balbagg's. Price, single number, 10c; double number, 20c.

A prominent "Cow-Heel" went over to town officers the slip Sunday night, after raining Cain with a certain Wall-street widow. He thought a good run better than a bad stand in this case.

Dick May, the champion teamster of the county, hauled five hogheads of tobacco from Hardinsburg to this place, Monday, with four horses. His return load was one hundred bushels of coal.

Dick—On Tuesday of last week, of whooping cough and summer complaint, Walter, a little two-year old son of Mr. H. Dean, of Rock Lick. The bereaved parents have the condolence of many friends.

Health, the poor man's riches, and the rich man's bliss, is maintained by the judicious use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla which strengthens and invigorates the system by purifying the blood. It is so highly concentrated that it is the most economical medicine for this purpose that can be used.

Judge Bowden, the democratic nominee for the superior court judgeship, arrived in our city yesterday, and could have visited the principal points in the county for the purpose of forming the acquaintance of our people, but was compelled by press of law business to return home. He is a leader whom we are proud to follow, and we know that he will charm every one with whom he comes in contact.

Mr. James H. Rogers, the well-known carpenter and builder of this city, died at his residence on Second-street, last Thursday night, aged 53. He came to Cloverport about thirty years ago, and was a native of Hardin county. He was married twice, and leaves a widow and three children by his first wife—Mrs. John Dean, William and George.

M. F. P. Bonner, Meadville, Pa., writes: "I feel like a new-born creature. Transformed from a crabby dyspeptic and nervous sufferer to a robust, strong, healthy man, it all seems like a dream. I feel kindly toward everybody, especially to the inventors of so good a medicine." Capt. Marion Ryan piloted the Dick Johnson and tow up to Cincinnati last week, returning to his home in this city Monday morning on the Granite State. He has a flattering prospect of obtaining a pilot's berth on the Paris C. Brown, which would be a good thing for her, as he has no superior as a Mississippi and Ohio river pilot.

Amos Dean, the well known young colored republican leader and orator of this city, has announced himself as a republican candidate for jailer, having been earnestly solicited to do so by leading colored republicans all over the county. Amos says he is a candidate "to stick" this time, and intends to run as a straight-out republican, being no believer in "this independent nonsense."

The picnic held in Roberts' Bottom last Thursday was largely attended, and save one or two difficulties, which were promptly quashed, every thing passed off pleasantly. The dancing and music were the best we ever saw or heard at a picnic—the girls pretty and stylish—the dinner sufficient, well cooked, but poorly served—the speaking short and sweet—and the day delightful. Old Breckenville is full of garden spots.

We have been told of a joke on our general republican friend, Amos Oelze, of the Star Mills, which is too good to keep. A few days ago he was counting acquaintances whom he knew by a good democrat, coming to town, and jocularly called out to him: "If you want flour for nothing, all you have to do is to go down to the mill and holler for J. J." "Thank you," instantly responded the country friend, at the same time exhibiting a two-dollar bill, "if you want this just go down to Fraize's corner and holler for Miller."

A change of time on the Paducah road has thrown our daily mail away behind the packet time. We now receive the Louisville and New York papers of the same date by the same mail, which is at night, while the Cincinnati dailies reach us, by the packet line, from eight to fourteen hours earlier. We hope the Courier-Journal and Commercial publishers will see it a change can not be made. If they can not get the old time restored on the railroad, then it would be money in their pockets to send their papers by the packets. People in search of the latest news do not care about buying papers two days old because they are late in coming when they can get other dailies almost a day earlier.

Shooting Affray at Stephensport. Saturday was quite an exciting day at Stephensport, and for a time it seemed that the would be considerable bloodshed. From all the intelligence that we could gather of the affair, it seems that the difficulty originated between Cash Wedding and Alex. Cummings, beginning in this manner: John A. Hines, who was with Cash Wedding, an oil grocer existed, and Alex. Cummings were walking past Wedding's residence, when Mrs. Wedding requested them not to come by again, as the sight of them was offensive to Mr. Wedding. Alex. Cummings and Cummings subsequently returned, pistol in hand, and demanded to know if her remark applied to him. She replied that it did not particularly, but she said that it depended altogether on her own feelings. Cummings behaved himself whether the remark applied to him. From this they got into a wrangle which ended in an exchange of shots, Cummings using a Smith and Wesson revolver and Wedding a shotgun, charged with birdshot, several of which struck Cummings inflicting slight wounds. By this time Sheriff Wick Mooreman, who was in the place, disarmed the belligerents and Ahl, who had made his appearance pistol in hand. Shortly after this Dr. Colquhoun, who had been to a barbecue a few miles from town, returned and heard of the affray, which greatly excited him. Rushing into his house he seized his shotgun and returned to the street. Seeing this Cummings and Ahl demanded their weapons from Capt. Jack Gross, in whose hands Sheriff Mooreman had placed them, and Ahl opened fire on Dr. Wedding, who did not return it but retreated back into his house. The sheriff again disarmed all parties, and delivered the weapons into the custody of the town marshal, Cummings and Ahl leaving for their homes in the country. It was a miracle that some person was not killed or hurt, as the street was crowded with people, many of them women and children, who had come in from the barbecue. It is feared that the matter will not end here, as all the parties are known to be men of nerve and pluck, and are said to be "most excellent latters."

Preparing for the Centennial. An enthusiastic meeting of citizens of Breckenville county was held at Hardinsburg Monday, which was presided over by Col. Alf. Allen, president of the Centennial Society, an organization that embraces every citizen of the county in its membership, and which is now in complete working order, with its officers and committees, and ready for active preparation for the great event. Col. W. P. C. Breckinridge was chosen orator of the day, and Wallace Gravelle and Wm. Watkins, jr., as assistants. The full proceedings of the meeting, and the names of the ladies and gentlemen comprising the various committees, will be published in our next issue.

Practical Elocution. All who desire a thorough course of instruction, at very moderate rates, in Practical Elocution in regard to Conversation, Expressive Reading or Public Delivery, should call on or address the undersigned. The attention and correspondence of teachers are earnestly solicited. Address, Prof. S. K. RASE, Stephensport, Ky.

HARDINSBURG.

Wilson v. Pool. Bring in another horse. The O. K. Minstrel came home and hung up.

Miss Titha Jones has returned from Big Spring. We'd like a slice off Conkling's big law practice.

Pork has crawled up to eighteen cents per pound. Contributions for the centennial will soon be in order.

Dr. J. H. Thomas, of Elizabethtown, was in town last week. George Frank has sold out his stock of goods to A. X. Kincheloe.

Miss Clara Board, of Jeffersonville, Ind., has been visiting Mrs. Sue Board.

Mrs. J. A. Witt and Miss Myra Weston were over on Grayson Springs last week. There is a chance for our board of health to get in some very effective work just now.

The city fathers have decided to levy a tax on all the stock and horses. The concern can't run without funds.

Mrs. Sallie Triplett and her little daughter, of Owensboro, have been spending a few weeks with Mrs. Elijah Board.

There is no evidence before the court now that there will be a large supply of water-melons on hand at the August election.

Mr. C. A. Fouché, of Meade county, and Miss M. E. Pamphrey, daughter of Mortier Pamphrey, were married at Mt. Zion church last Wednesday, Rev. J. R. Dempsy officiating. Mr. Fouché was happy in securing one of the sweetest girls in that neighborhood.

Our Louisville mail which has heretofore arrived here at 5 o'clock in the afternoon of the same day it left Louisville now reaches us twenty-four hours behind time. Instead of receiving Monday's mail on Monday evening it comes on Tuesday evening, thus keeping us a day behind time. This is caused by a change of time on the Cecilian branch railroad, which is in fact working a great imposition on this people only sixty miles from Louisville. If there is any way to stop this thing we are for it. If the boss of that railroad can't put the mail at Muldraugh at 8 a.m. the government ought to take it away from them. It's a concern that has given the people more trouble than all the railroads in the United States. Their railroads are not to carry a negro up and down the road to distribute the mail who know about as much of that business as a kangaroo does about the war in Egypt. Let our mail come through horseback, and we'll be satisfied. It will not be annoyed by that infernal railroad monopoly.

Changes in the Louisville and Henderson Packet Line Company. The annual meeting of the Louisville and Henderson Packet Line Company was held at their office yesterday and the following board of directors was re-elected: Wm. H. W. F. Nichol, Thos. L. Barret, A. T. Gilmore and R. C. Levi. The directors then elected the following officers: W. C. Hite president; W. W. Hite, secretary and treasurer; Capt. J. G. Berry, superintendent. It will be seen that Capt. T. Gilmore retires from the superintendency and Capt. Jesse G. Berry, of the Grey Eagle, has been appointed to take his place. Capt. Gilmore retires from command of the Hertha Lee and Capt. Dick Ballard takes his place there. Capt. Gilmore has rendered efficient services to this popular line of steamers as superintendent for more than fifteen years, and refused to serve in an official capacity any longer, on account of business on shore. No line of boats has been built and kept in better order than the "Henderson packets," and Capt. Gilmore has proven his efficiency as a manager to the satisfaction of his company and the many patrons of the famous line with which he has been associated for so many years. Mr. Long may live to enjoy life and his well-earned reputation as a man and an officer.—[Courier Journal.]

How do you manage, said a lady to her friend, "to appear so happy and good natured all the time?" "I always have Parker's Ginger Tonic handy," was the reply, "and this enables me to keep myself and family in good health. When I am well I always feel good natured."

The Magisterial Race. The race for magistracies in the district, since the enlargement of their territorial jurisdiction, is a matter of vital importance to the business men of Cloverport. It is a necessity that one of the magistrates should be a resident in town. It is equally a necessity that he should also be one amply qualified for the position. The people have had a short time in which to work to secure such a man, and looking around for him it is essential that some one more than mere good-fellowship and cleverness be considered. A person may be the cleverest man in town, and yet imperfect education, or old age, or dull intellect, unfit him for the position of magistrate. For this time we were looking around for one who had more than one one who can "fill the bill."

Bitten by a Snake. Letitia, a little nine year old daughter of Dr. Randolph Frymire, living near Union Star, this county, was bitten by a copperhead snake some two weeks ago on the ankle. Her father was away from home visiting a relative, and there was no one on the place but the little girl, who had been told by Miss Tint Frymire, the latter tied a string tightly above and below the wound and sucked the poison out before it had time to become incorporated with the blood, and that unquestionably saved the child's life.

Public Speaking. Hon. W. E. Russell, candidate for judge of the court of appeals, will address the citizens of Breckenville county at Hardinsburg next Saturday, July 29, at 1 o'clock p.m., and at Cloverport at night, Judge Russell is a cultivated and refined gentleman, and a lawyer of superior ability and vast experience. We hope the people will turn out generally and give him a respectful hearing, and we can assure them that they will be well entertained, for he is a pleasant, earnest and logical speaker.

A Croup of Lung Trouble. MATTHEW, Ky., July 19.—Dr. W. B. White.—Dear Sir, I have been afflicted for eight months with a lung trouble so severe that I was confined to my bed, and could only lie on one side. Two bottles of your Herold Lung Balm entirely cured me, and I am to-day sound and well, for which I am very grateful to you. Yours very truly, G. M. TENDALL.

A Card from Mr. Aaron Norton. Editor Breckinridge News: Weavers, Ky., July 21.—It is being circulated over the county that I am making the race for jailer in the interest of John Slaton. There is not one word of truth in the report. Please publish the above distinctly. AARON NORTON.

Phthisis Cured. Mr. James Sharon, of Haverhill, Ky., writes that his sons, after having been afflicted for a long time with phthisis, was happily relieved by the use of one bottle of Dr. W. B. White's Herbal Lung Balm. Manufactured by W. B. White, Cloverport, Ky., and for sale by druggists generally.

The tobacco in this county is in a terribly bad fix.

A Grand Barbecue

TO BE GIVEN AT THE FALLS OF ROUGH, SATURDAY, JULY 29, 1882.

Bewleyville Emphatically Protests Against Granting License to Open a Hell Among Them.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the citizens of Bewleyville, Breckinridge county, numbering over two hundred, assembled in the Methodist church on July 16, 1882, with Charles Blandford, president, and T. J. Jolly, secretary, and after being addressed by R. S. Cheves, G. W. C., adopted unanimously the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the liquor traffic in any community is a crime, tending to degrade society, corrupt morals, encourage and make drunkards, and no greater crime could be inflicted on a people or society than the legalization of a saloon, and

Resolved, That we, the people of this vicinity, in mass meeting assembled, do hereby enter our protest against the granting of such license, and beg the county council in behalf of our mothers, and daughters, to deny the petition on the broad ground of public policy, the happiness of our homes, and safety of our boys, feeling that the general prosperity and happiness of a community should be paramount to the individual interests of any man who would indulge in so degrading a business.

Resolved, That these resolutions be presented by the president and secretary of this meeting to the county judge, as our protest against the licensing of a saloon, and that the same be published in the Breckinridge News and Good Templars Advocate.

On motion the meeting then adjourned. C. BLANFORD, Pres. THOS. J. JOLLY, Sec.

The Daily Experience of Every One that neglect of the bowels is the prime cause of ill health. Testimony of the late Chief Justice of Georgia: "I have used Simmons Liver regulator for constipation of my bowels caused by a temporary derangement of the liver, for the last three or four years, and always when used according to the directions with decided benefit. I think it is a good medicine for the derangement of the liver, at least such has been my personal experience in the use of it."

HIRAM WARNER, Chief Justice of Georgia.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!! Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. It has never failed in any case, and ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. 25c a bottle.

DRY VALLEY.

The prospect for a good corn crop is very flattering at present. Great excitement over the election. Wheat is yielding fully 20 per cent. more than was expected. Did Jolly will be elected by about 100 votes over the left. Have crop rather short, but it is still growing owing to recent rains. Did Jolly made Lewis Norton pay a fee bill the second time. Result: Did lost six votes in this immediate neighborhood. Lewis has a receipt for the first payment and a living witness to the second. Could give you several more but refrain. Did made the greatest mistake of his life in throwing off Aaron Norton and taking up "Craw" Lyons. The republicans of this vicinity are sold against him. It does seem that Did would lose some rest over this little out of unkindness, if he'd only let his mind run back to the "late unpleasant" and remember how well he's treated while his precious carcass was under the protective bayonet of Aaron Norton. It is presumed that Mr. Eskridge and others will remember the same thing. If an officer is dishonest he should be thrown out of office. If honest, but incompetent and ignorant, always making mistakes (in his own favor), he should be kept out.

There are five candidates for constable in the Union Star district without Cox, and six with Cox. "Rah for Dick Cox!"
