 All persons indebted to Dr. J. M. Clayton will please call and settle the same with Mr. F. P. Payne, of the firm of Payne & Co.
 Mr. Israel Holder bought a house and lot, situated on Fourth street, between Oak and Sycamore, last week of Dr. Newsom. Consideration $500
 John Valentine, an old-time darkey, who once belonged to Joe Woolfolk, of Meade county, has moved to this city. He is an old-timer and is full of history of the old slavery days.
 County Court Clerk, John E. Monarch, was in the city a couple of days last week. He had a good supply of "twist" of which the boys chewed liberally.
 Edmund Martin, only son of W. E. Martin, formerly of this city, died in Louisville on the 5th, inst. of catarrhal pneumonia. He was buried in Cave Hill Cemetery.
 Blythe Bros., made 1,700 pounds of tobacco per acre on land that has been cleared seventy-five years. This is the effect of commercial fertilizer and thorough cultivation.
 The City of Owensboro was the first packet down after the ice broke up. She had a broken wheel when she arrived here and was compelled to lay up about three hours for repairs.
 H. C. Blain, a former townsman, now of Butte City, Montana, in renewing his subscription to the News, sends his regards to all his friends here and says he is glad to see that the old town is improving so rapidly.
 Mr. John R. Jarboe is a candidate for poor-house keeper. Mr. Jarboe held this position two years ago and made a good officer. He is an unswerving Democrat, a perfect gentleman and the County Court could not make a better selection.
 On Monday afternoon this office was made bright by the smiles of five of Cloverport's most charming young ladies, Misses Lula Owen, Annie Murray, Jennie Warfield, Allene Murray and Maggie Bowmer. Woman's smiles are like flowers, they gladden and make bright the pathway of life. Some of our types have had a smile on their faces at least a foot long ever since.

When it comes to an all-round Mayor, Cloverport has something to boast of. One day last week he had a "coon" in charge who he had sentenced to the rockpile, for some misdemeanor, but the nigger had the tooth-ache and said he could not work. Mayor Lightfoot politely requested the darkey to be seated and producing a pair of shoemaker's pinchers, the tooth, together with some tongue, jawbone, etc., was out in a twinkling of an eye, as it were. Billy Brown, the city contractor, assisted the Mayor in the operation. The coon declared it was a painless extraction, was well pleased and immediately went to work.

Choice dried beef at the City Bakery. Sam Adkisson, of Webster, was in the city Saturday.

 Mayor Lightfoot, and Jim Miller went to Henderson Monday night.
 Mr. George Harris, of Henderson, is visiting his family in this city.
 Don't forget that you can get hot bread every day at the City Bakery.
 When your oil can is empty take it to the City Bakery to have it filled.
 Chas. Bohler, the city contractor, has bought a new Studebaker wagon.
 Mat Bell is in Indiana this week, in the interest of the Cloverport Cigar Factory.
 Mr. J. T. Daniels, of Daviess county, has moved into Mrs. Temple's house in Eastland.
 Miss Maggie Goodman, of Hardinsburg, is the guest of her cousins, the Miss Halls.
 Mrs. James Burnett, of Hancock county, died last Thursday at the advanced age of 78 years.
 Robt. French, of Union Star, was on the West bound train Monday enroute to Cannelton.
 The Tobsport Public School closed yesterday. Walton Wheeler, of Rome, was the teacher.
 Mrs. G. W. Jordan, who has been quite sick for a couple of weeks, is able to be out again.
 Mike Jungling, went to Evansville Saturday night to spend a few days with his old friends down there.
 "Mike" Miller will start to California soon, accompanied by "Jack" Warfield and "Old Soldier" Murray as an escort.
 Rev. R. W. Browder, educational Secretary, of Louisville Conference, will occupy the Elm street Methodist pulpit next Sunday morning and evening.
 Mr. and Mrs. Lee Vandergriff, of Hardinsburg, just recently married, have moved to the city and gone to house keeping in the Cooper property, corner of Elm and Railroad streets.
 Mrs. John R. DeHaven sold a lot on the hill to Mr. J. S. Daniels, of Daviess county, Monday. Mr. Daniels has let the contract for a nice residence, which will be completed as soon as possible.
 If a gentleman helps a lady or little child on a train in Cloverport and steps off after the train has started up, he violates the law and may be arrested and fined. That is a bad law. Repeat it!
 An advertisement appears in a western paper which reads thus: "If George William Brown, who deserted his poor wife and babe twenty-five years ago, will return, the aforesaid babe will knock the stuffing out of him."
 Pat Keenan, aged 70 years got his left arm broken at a saw mill, near Balltown, in a most peculiar manner. He was standing by the engine warming when his coat got caught in the shaft, and drawing him into the machinery he was injured as stated.
 Dr. J. M. Clayton is closing up his affairs here and making preparations to move to Mt. Savage, Ky. The Doctor is a fine young man, an excellent physician, and his many friends here regret very much that he is leaving and they hope that success and prosperity will crown his efforts in his new field of labor.
 When an officer arrests a man for stepping off a moving train in Cloverport he is only doing what it is his sworn duty to do; and when the Mayor fines a man thus arrested he does what he can not avoid without violating his oath of office. But this is a bad law, and the council should repeal it.
 The City Ordinance which prevents persons from jumping on or off moving trains is receiving some sever criticism just now. Agent W. O. Allen was recently arrested and fined last week Gordon Moorman, day operator at the shops, was arrested for violating said ordinance. These men are employees of the road, but of course they violate the law by jumping off a train while in motion just the same as any other citizen. It's a bad law. Repeat that law.
 The Uniform Rank, K. of P., had an election of officers last Friday night, which resulted as follows: G. W. Jordan, captain; Leon Leaf, first lieutenant; E. E. Henning, second lieutenant; Gus. Brown, recorder; G. W. Short, treasurer. Next Friday night there will be a meeting and eleven new members will be instituted. Col. Johnston and Gen. Currie and staff will be present and superintend the proceedings. There will be a public installation of officers.
 In renewing his subscription to the News, James H. Lay, of Gas City, Ind., (formerly of Stephensport, this county,) says: "Gas City is the coming town. We will surely have a population of 8,000 to 10,000 within a year from May 1st, 1893. We have the largest and best manufacturing in the gas belt; enough of them already here and built to employ 3,000 hands." He also sends kindest regards to all his old friends in Breckenridge and wishes them much success.

HOOP-POLE CUTTERS.
 All poles must be cut between now and middle of March. Poles cut after that date will not be received.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
 When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
 When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
 When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Cloverport Will Help

To Get Telephone Connection With Owensboro, Evansville, Henderson etc.

For We Very Much Desire To Be Neighborly With The Villages Down The River.

The Owensboro Messenger gives the following account of the progress of the scheme: "Sam Myer, the popular ex-manager of the Owensboro telephone exchange, is in the city on business for the Cumberland Telephone company. He is prospecting for the establishment of a telephone line from Owensboro to Cloverport to connect at that point with the Ohio Valley Telephone company's line to Louisville.
 It is proposed to run the line from Owensboro via Yelvington, Powers, Lewisport and Hawesville to Cloverport, provided the citizens along the route will subscribe for $1,000 worth of telephone tickets to be paid for upon completion of the line and used at any time over any of the Cumberland company's lines.
 There is so great a desire in Owensboro and at the other points for such communication that it ought not to be difficult to secure the required subscription, and Mr. Myer is the right man to undertake the enterprise. He will visit all the points immediately and lay the proposition before the people. It is the company's intention to begin the construction of the line within thirty days after the subscription is made.
 The telephone line to Cloverport alone would be a great convenience to Owensboro, but the prospect of having a line to Louisville makes the scheme one of great importance."

Mrs. James T. Skillman, Dead.

This most estimable lady, the wife of James T. Skillman, Esq., died at the family residence in this city, on last Thursday morning at an early hour. She died in her chair, from heart failure, having arisen from her bed, and was sitting by the fire for relief in a spell of coughing. At 3 o'clock she told her husband she was much relieved and to go to sleep. When he awoke soon after she was dead.
 She was a daughter of the late Samuel S. Braeshear, of Preston, in this county, and was about fifty-five years of age.
 Mrs. Skillman was greatly beloved by all who knew her. Her life was beautiful and pure, devoted to husband and friends. She bore no children, but she occupied her time in making others happy.
 Her Christian character shone brightly all her life, and was of that commendable and true kind, that it was catholic rather than churchy, and she worshipped a God and loved a Savior who dwelt in the Universe and not alone in her denomination. Her affections and good deeds were circumscribed by no narrow lines.
 She was never robust in health, but for the last several years she was an invalid and a great sufferer—confined to her house. But she was never irascible or peevish. Her virtues only shone more brightly, and her patience and fortitude were more and more developed. She met her reward by a peaceful and painless transfer to that realm.
 "Where sickness and sorrow, pain and death Are felt and feared no More."

BRANDENBURG.

 Mrs. Geo. Dowden has returned from a visit to relatives at Cloverport.
 Henry Shields, of Newton, Kan., is visiting his grand-mother, Mrs. Dr. Ditto.
 Mrs. Grinnell is improving very slowly. Her attack of pneumonia was a severe one.
 John Redman was tried Saturday for selling the beef of a cow said to have been diseased. Verdict—$1 and costs.
 Mr. Howard Roberts, living a few miles below town, sold out his stock, household effects, &c., Saturday. He will move to Illinois shortly.
 Messrs. Paul Buren and Paul Mills were here Saturday on business. Mr. Buren wants the post-office at Concordia. If Mr. Cleveland will listen to me, he'll get it.
 Marriage license issued last week are, D. F. Shumate to Miss Eldora Lamkin, Ben. F. Neafus to Miss Louisa Stannett, Jas. E. Stewart to Miss Josephine T. Ballard, John H. Bennett to Miss C. E. Turner, S. L. Redmon to Miss Kate Norris, and Davis Watts to Miss Mary M. Wathen.
 Mr. Dick Boling's wife died in Louisville last Wednesday. Mr. Boling is telegraph operator at West Point. He has had an offer made him to go to St. Louis, which he will probably accept. His two children, a girl and a boy, aged 9 and 5 years respectively, are here with their grand-mother, Mrs. Wm. Boling.
 Since Joe Miller made the lucky guess, which brought him five twenty dollar gold pieces from the Courier-Journal—he hit Iowa square in the middle—most everybody wants to get his fingers in that chicken pie. Some time ago, Mr. Dick Nevitt gave Coop Dooley $50 for a half interest in his guess on the total for the C. J., $10,000-price. Coop says he made a mistake of several thousand votes in his calculation, and that's the way he has come to be so close to the result. Last week a small syndicate was formed among the boys, who gave Mr. Nevitt $100 for half of his interest in Coop's guess. Nevitt and Doley are both $50 ahead of the game now, and by the judicious manipulation of Nevitt's rabbit's foot and Dooley's snake skin they hope to scoop in the big prize.
