FOR COUNTY JUDGE. We are authorized to announce ELIJAH BOARD as a candidate for County Judge, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

FOR COUNTY CLERK. We are authorized to announce JOHN D. WHEELER as a candidate for County Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

FOR JAILER. We are authorized to announce J. STUART DEJERNETTE as a candidate for Jailer of Breckinridge County, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

"Oh! they are wise Who advertise In winter, spring And fall; But wiser yet Are they, you bet, Who never let up At all."

JOHN P. Hopkins, a Democrat, has been elected Mayor of Chicago.

A new Atlantic cable will be laid between Ireland and Nova Scotia next spring.

Judge Samuel E. DeHaven, who died recently at Lagrange, Ky., left an estate valued at $500,000.

It is said that irregularities amounting to $1,000,000 have been discovered in the New York Custom House.

A New Jersey crank has threatened to kill Congressman Roger Q. Mills because of his vote on the Silver Bill.

The campaign for county offices is about to open up in Hancock. Mr. R. Y. Bush heads the list for county Judge.

Whistling women are becoming as numerous in the United States as Georgia electric girls were a few years ago.

A New York and New Jersey syndicate is acquiring large tracts of coal and timber lands in Morgan and Elliott counties of this state.

Gen. John B. Gordon, United States Senator, from Georgia will deliver his famous lecture, "The Last Days of the Confederacy" at Hopkinsville, today.

There is soon to be another judicial district in this state in which a United States Court will be held. The new district is to accommodate the eastern portion of the state.

The commissions of nine presidential postmasters in this State expire next month. The news from Washington that these positions can be had by Democrats, and that all they need to do is to apply.

The News hopes that something may turn about in a short time to lighten the financial straight among the people in this section. A good farmer said the other day that the Democrats had to bear the brunt of the whole business, whether they were in any wise responsible for it or not.

The annual report of Hon John G. Carlisle, Secretary of the Treasury, was transmitted to Congress last week. He says there is a deficit of $28,000,000 to meet the expenses of the government. He suggests several courses of action by which the deficiency may be met, one of which is an increase of ten cents a gallon on whiskey.

Another Pennsylvania manufacturer has come out for free trade. Whether or not absolute free trade will be best for this country causes various and sundry opinions. But one thing is certain, there is too much tariff, and a tariff is a tax which the people have to pay. It ought to be immediately revised by the present Democratic Congress.

Uniontown is just now one of the few towns in Kentucky that is enjoying a boom. This is caused by the erection and operation of new and large distilleries. The Union Local says: "The town is full of people who have no houses to live in, and some families have resorted to tents. There are no idlers—everybody is at work and making good wages." Uniontown has our congratulations.

A Blain Memorial Association, was organized, in the state of Maine last spring, composed of leading citizens of both parties, the object being to raise by volunteer contribution, from the people of Maine, a fund for the erection of a statue to the memory of James G. Blain. Up to a few days ago they had procured $115, and $100 of this amount had been given by a New York Democrat, who is a native of Maine. This is a specimen of the memory dear in which those big-hearted (?) people hold their great men.

The Louisville Commercial, that champion of corporations and monopolists, is just now devoting whole columns of its space to the fruitless task of trying to prove that about a half dozen wealthy residents of Louisville will be hopelessly ruined if the Wilson tariff bill should pass. However, it says nothing about the thousands of Louisville citizens who have been toiling for thirty years under the weight of an unjust taxation, that the wallets of these heartless, blood-sucking corporationists might be fattened. It is a fact that does not need proving that no body can be protected unless somebody else does the protecting, and the different conditions of these two classes in the city of Louisville plainly show who has been carrying the load.

IF FOUR BACK ACHES Or you are all worn out, really good for nothing if it is general debility, try BROWN'S IRON BITTERS. It will cure you, and give a good appetite. Sold by all dealers in medicine.

The Courier-Journal issued a handsome colored supplement with its last Sunday's edition.

PRESIDENT Cleveland and Secretary Dulles are spending their holidays duck hunting with the boys.

The Planter's House at Owensboro has gone into the hands of a receiver. Liabilities $13,000, assets $3,000.

A Daviess county grand jury has indicted the "Texas" road for a failure to comply with the separate coach act.

P. S. BARBER, of Barlow, Ky., the wealthiest man in Nelson county, is dead. He leaves an estate valued at $2,000,000.

CANDIDATES who want their announcements inserted should not fail to accompany same by a $5 bill if they want them to appear promptly.

SOME of the large cities are providing for their unemployed labor by giving them work on their streets, breaking rock at 10 cents an hour.

RECENT developments show that in the palmy days of Jesse James and his gang the science of train and bank robbery was only in its infancy.

A CRANE by the name of Schwartz attempted to kill Mayor Tyler, of Louisville, about 4 o'clock Tuesday. He objected to having the city limits extended.

THE new council ought to provide a sinking fund for the redemption of the shop bonds when they fall due. Five years have already passed and not a dollar is laid up for that purpose.

TWO well-known traveling men said in the presence of the NEWS the other day that there were no better or prompter paying merchants in the state than the merchants in Cloverport.

NEW. McElhool, of Irvington, is a candidate for dogkeeper of the State Senate with good chances, he claims, of being elected. The Senate couldn't get a more dutiful or attentive public servant.

COUNTRY sausage is plentiful in and around West Point since the big railroad wreck of porkers in that neighborhood. It is hinted that Stuart Young was up there and laid in a big supply and is supplying his friends bountifully.

BRECKENRIDGE county will not have a vote in the caucus to name the next speaker of the Kentucky House, but she will stand on the outside and send up as big a yell for Carroll as any on the inside. Breckinridge county is for the Hon. A. J. Carroll.

THE merchants of this town, especially those who advertise in the NEWS, say their Christmas trade was good, ever better than last year. They sold out their stocks cleaner and took in more ready cash than last year. The same is true of our out-of-town advertisers.

THIS government is now spending $6,000,000 a month more than she earns or the rate of $72,000,000 a year. The Wilson bill reduces custom duties $70,000,000, so there will be a deficit of $142,000,000 which will have to be provided for from some source. The question now is how to raise this revenue.

MAJOR elect Barry will have to work some sort of a scheme to get money enough to meet the ordinary expenses of the city government next year, as the outgoing council turns over an empty treasury, and a tax rate too low to meet current expenses. They got too good towards the wind up.

THIS issue contains the announcement of Joseph M. Mullen as a candidate for County Judge. Mr. Mullen, at the present time, is a Justice of the Peace in the Cloverport Magisterial district. He is a good Democrat and a clever gentleman as well, and will no doubt run a good race in this section of the county.

CLOVERPORT is fast redeeming herself in the line of good hotel accommodations. The new Heyser House is all that one could wish for in neatness, cleanliness and something good to eat. The weary traveler needn't pass this town by when he wants to rest his tired bones or tempt his failing appetite. We have two as good hotels as any town of our pretensions.

THAT was an excellent service at the Elm street Methodist church Sunday evening. The sermon, the singing and the music were worth coming miles to hear. The Skillman Bros. perform beautifully on the violin and cornet and their soul stirring strains reach heaven ward. The most astonishing thing to us is that more people do not turn out to these services. Whether you are sinner or sinner you could not spend an hour more profitably.

THE new law under the head of "Road and Passways" is important to the public, and we quote from Chapter 232, section 20 as follows: "The Fiscal Court at its first regular term in 1894, and every two years thereafter, shall appoint a county supervisor of roads, or such district supervisors as may be deemed best, and may appoint such overseers as may be necessary, who shall hold their office for a term of two years from the date of their appointment, and until their successors are appointed and qualified. Any vacancy occurring in the office of supervisor or overseer may be filled by the County Court until the next regular term of the Fiscal Court. The supervisor or supervisors shall execute bond in the County Court within thirty days after his appointment, with good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the judges of the County Court, for the faithful performance of his duties. The Fiscal Court shall make the supervisor or supervisors a reasonable allowance for services.

W. H. SHACKLEFORD & Co., one of the leading dry goods establishments of Owensboro made an assignment yesterday.

We hope next week to catch up with our correspondents. Don't be offended if your items do not appear promptly. We intend you shall all have a hearing. We appreciate your good work for the NEWS and intend you shall be heard. We wish you, one and all a happy and prosperous New Year.

STEPHENSPORT. R. A. Smith was in Louisville last week.

BRANDENBURG. Dick Ditto is very slowly improving. Mrs. Judge Rawlings' sister from Up-ton is with her. Some one painted Main street red last Saturday night. Mrs. B. F. Willett is spending the week in Louisville. Miss Lena Drury is here to see her sister, Mrs. John Frakes. Miss Blanche Jolly will spend this week with Mrs. Frakes. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Trent are at Wolf Creek to visit relatives. Ernest Fontaine, Harlinsburg Academy, is home 'till Jan. 1st.

The Union Missionary exorcise last Sunday night were interesting and instructive. Misses Nellie Lewis, Zula Malin, Minnie Casper, Allie Reid, Pearl Ditto, Ella Dowden and Eva Herndon were the ruling lights, and bright ones they are. Mrs. Frank Webb and Miss Allie Reid presided alternately at the organ with the choir rendering efficient service. Bro. Cherry concluded the programme with timely exhortations. Father Herbath celebrated High Mass Sunday at ten o'clock and Monday morning at four o'clock. They take their lesson from the shepherds who hastened before daylight to where the Christ-child lay to pay Him their adoration and HARNED.

Galloway & Co., moved their machinery from this place to Kirk, December 23rd.

We are about to lose one of our best citizens. We congratulate Cloverport for being the recipient.

Ward Davis has purchased the Lillard farm near Germantown, where he and Uncle Joe will keep "bach."

Mr. Hiram Driskell and others paid our town a skating visit. We ask the boys to give us another call soon.

Jonas Gray, late yard boss for the Jolly & Otto Stave Co., has gone to Ruth and Askins to ship about 16 car loads up here.

Mrs. Ben Gray was called to the bed-side of her sister in McDaniels. It seems like the death angel is not satisfied with one summons.

G. P. Hudson, general merchant of Market, is here probably looking out for a better location. We will be glad to have him with us as a business man.

Wm. Otto, one of the Hensly & Jolly Co., is here amid the roar of machinery, hurrahing the boys. Shipping staves to the north and east, receiving returns, as if there never had been a crisis.

C. D. Payne and Miss Mollie Payne were joined by the holy ties of matrimony at the bride's house last Tuesday night, the ceremony being performed by Bro. Dugins, of Grayson county.

Great excitement is prevailing in this section of the country over the loss of our late president of the Old Bachelor's Association. Without resignation or any cause on the part of the Association. The organization is feeling the effect of it by another refusing to serve. As the membership is getting so small (only 15 now), we adjourned to meet sine die, so seizing the opportunity by the forelock and drinking the bitter cup of repentance I will endeavor to make an open confession of the past:

Listen, maids and matrons, to a piteous tale of woe. Produce your dainty kerchiefs for your tears are bound to flow. I'm a bachelor of thirty-five and a millionaire beside. But for some unhappy reason, I've never found a bride; I don't think I'm bad looking and I know my heart is kind; But the sort of girl I want to wed is the sort I never find. The pretty girls are plenty and the clever ones not few. But to the girl who'd suit me it's hard to get a clew. Perhaps you think I'm fickle and very hard to suit; Likewise you may imagine that I'm more or less a brute. But the case is very simple and I think you'd soon admit. That the trouble rests with nature and I'm not to blame a bit. I've come from from Anton college to the plains of Kalamazoo; I've searched all over Hudson and Harned City too. I've sat out dances many with Custer's patrition belles. I've been in San Francisco where the miners' hordes dwell. In New Orleans and in Denver in Chicago and Detroit. In Peori and St. Louis in Cincinnati and Beloit. But I've never found a pretty girl who had an ounce of brains.

SAMPLE.

Miss Mollie McQuady is visiting near Mooreville. The La Grippe has made its appearance here again. Born to the wife of Vestor Brumfield, the 13th, a fine boy. Mr. J. T. McQuady, of Henderson, is on a visit to his home. Miss Mary Robbins was the guest of Mrs. A. J. Bennett Sunday. W. T. McQuady, of Falls of Rough, is visiting his father this week. Rev. Mead delivered an excellent sermon to a small but interested crowd here Saturday night. The protracted meeting that was to have begun last Sunday was postponed until after the holidays. We presume Christmas is going to be rather dull here this time. We hear some talk of a Christmas free over at New Bethel but nothing for Sample.

WELDON.

Well it is now Christmas and the noisy boy is on the warpath and he is making things lively. I thought while all this commotion was in progress on the outside I would try to write a letter to the good old News for I feel that more of my acquaintances will read it there, than I would be able to write letters to in a whole month. When the paper reaches us we have a lively scramble for it to see what has happened at home for we know if anything of importance occurs the News will report it. We form a circle and select one to read for the family circle to listen. I could not keep house without the News. Mr. Ed Jupp is sick. Mrs. C. Royalty has the la grippe. Mr. Hallit Royalty has the la grippe. Jim Keith, of Louisville, is spending the holidays here visiting his brother. Mr. Pearl Carr, operator at Irvington spent Sunday with his brother, W. W. Carr. Misses Mattie Pack, Belle Polk and Lizzie Hunt visited Mrs. C. Royalty, last week. Mr. John Pack, of Nelson county, was visiting his cousin, H. C. Pack last week. Messrs. James Royalty and Pemberton LeGrand have been visiting relatives here the past week. Miss Anna Carr, of Jeffersonville, Ind., is spending the festive holidays visiting her brother at this place. Mrs. Carr, wife of the operator here, returned home Sunday night from a visit to relatives in New Albany. Several pupils of our school are absent this week from their desks. Taking Christmas, what they call it. Mr. Lon Bryant will remove shortly with his family to Texas where he expects to reside in the future. On Sunday night, the 17th inst. the household of Mr. Joseph Jones was made brighter by the addition of a wee lady member. Rev's Jupin and Steve Jupin have returned from Bethel, Hardin county, where they have been engaged in a protracted meeting. Rev. Cherry filled his regular appointment at Cedar Grove Sunday and preached a most eloquent sermon to a crowded house. Bro. Cherry is a splendid preacher and his people appreciate him.

Appreciated Testimonial.

We are continually trying to impress upon the minds of the people that if they have anything to sell, it pays to advertise it. As a proof of what we say we take the privilege of publishing the following testimonial which comes to us unsolicited:

EDITOR OF NEWS—Find enclosed copy for change of my regular ad. Do the best you can with it. I see you know how to arrange things, for that Christmas ad of ours could not have been beat at all, and I tell you it boomed things at our house, and don't you forget it—a fine trade was ours. Wishing the News a happy and prosperous Christmas and New Year, we are as ever Yours most obediently T. C. Lewis & Co.

TOBINSPORT.

This is the warmest Christmas we have had for four years. Miss Kate E. Allen, of Chenault, was here during Christmas, the guest of Miss Etta Polk. Mr. Tom Allen is here from Louisville to spend the holidays with his uncle, Gill and Cass Whitehead. The meeting at the M. E. church still goes on. There is some rousing sermons being preached and that without gloves on. That rattling Till Groves. Well, what's the matter with Till now? Nothing now, only he bids fair to be the leading farmer of this community, being a student (by correspondence) of Purdue University, plenty of good land, push, and means, and with just a little more of "Cass Cockrell" nicety; I see no reason why he should not be a model farmer and one that we all might do well to pattern after. This is no joke, it is even so, if Till has been a little "off" on farming.

Running Chances

Of the baby breaking your watch may not result in damage or loss to your pocket. Some risks you can run without much danger where you can not. Missing an early inspection of our stock of Solid Silver Spoons, Butter Knives Napkin Rings and our elegant stock of Novelties and Jewelry is one of the chances you can not run without incurring a loss. This stock is superior to anything we ever offered before, and it is most assuredly superior to anything else now shown in this city and our prices are very low, you should call at once and make a selection before the rush sets in.
