Brashear, of Owensboro, was a passenger on Sunday's East bound train for Stephensport. He returned that night. The Young Ladies Parsonage and Home Mission Society will meet with Misses Maggie and Bettie Bownier this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Next Saturday morning at 8 o'clock the children of St. Rose Sunday school will meet at the church to make preparations for Easter Confession and Communion. Miss Annie May and Mr. Jas. B. Fisher are working on an entertainment that promises to be the best the Presbyterian church has had for a long time. Watch for the date. If the weather permits, Messrs Grant and Gregory will give a Stereoscopic entertainment in Tobinsport school house Friday night, this week, for the benefit of the Cloverport Presbyterian church. Rev. M. M. Carroll will hold services at the house of Mrs. Friel, in Victoria, next Tuesday morning, March 16, at 8:30 o'clock. This will be an excellent chance to comply with the Easter duty. All should take advantage of it and be on hand promptly at the appointed hour. Miss Mayme Calloway, who has been in the millinery business for quite awhile here, has closed her interest out to her sister, Miss Jennie. She left Monday for Louisville to take charge of the trimming department for a large concern in that city. Door-keeper Q. K. Groves, of the House of Representatives, at Indianapolis, arrived here yesterday enroute to his home at Tobinsport, Ind. Mr. Groves showed a News representative an exceedingly handsome and beautiful gold headed cane mounted on black ebony wood. It was presented to him by the assistant doorkeepers of the House. The river rose here yesterday some three or four inches. In March 1890 it came over the Clover Creek bridge the second time and a number of river men predict the same thing will occur again. It was raining in torrents last night and has been raining constantly for the past two days. This will, in all probability, start the river with a mad rush again. Five traps secured a box car yesterday for shelter. Among them was one who could whistle most anything out of wood, and began to make music. The others by some means got a bottle of gift and a bottle of paint. While one would cut out the others would give them the finishing touches. They almost flooded the city with them yesterday.

The scare of the big river is over. Those parlor cars are paying expenses. Three nice rooms to rent apply at this office. Father Carroll went to Louisville Thursday. Miss Annie Bartles went to Louisville, Thursday. Garden seeds, all kinds at Martin's pharmacy. Merchants are now receiving their spring goods. Eugene Guiland, of Holt, spent Sunday in the city. All of the livery rigs were out for Hardinsburg Monday. William Beard, Hardinsburg, was in the city Thursday. For pure white lead, paints, oil &c, go to Martin's pharmacy. Everybody seemed anxious to go to Hardinsburg, Monday. Judge and Mrs. W. D. Holt returned from California last week. Best roofing paint in town warranted at C. C. Martin's drug store. Mrs. G. T. Payne, of Lodi, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Gus Gibson. When you want pure drugs, medicines and chemicals call on C. C. Martin. The Ladies Cooking Club meets at Mrs. Chas. B. Skillman's Thursday night. Miss Lillie Scott, of Hardinsburg, is in the city with friends and relatives. J. E. McClure publisher of the Hardinsburg Leader was in the city Thursday. Mart Dyer, who lived near here, has moved to Dick Mason's farm below Hawesville. Mrs. E. H. Briedenbach, of Owensboro, was up last week visiting her aunt, Mrs. Chas. May. Miss Lida Haynes came in from Pateville, Sunday evening, enroute to her home at Brandenburg. Alex Hambleton, of Cannelton, Ind., came up to spend Saturday with his uncle Dudley Hambleton. Manager Heron, of the Breckenridge Company, limited, says we had a six inch rain fall Monday. Forrest Gordon and sister, Agnes, of Pateville, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Short Sunday. Malcolm Bullitt, of Louisville, was a passenger on the west-bound train yesterday enroute to Hawesville. Mrs. Charles Mook, of Louisville, spent two days of last week very pleasantly visiting Mr. and Mrs. Chas. May. Elisha Ashcraft, candidate for State Senator, from Meade county, has been here for several days getting acquainted. Mrs. Marion Hambleton went to Henderson Saturday morning, to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hambleton. Ira DeHaven came up from Owensboro Sunday evening, where he had been visiting his brother, Orville DeHaven. Samuel Beavin, of Jolly's Station, who had not been here for nearly a year was in the city last week, just as talkative as ever. G. P. Napper went to Stephensport yesterday evening to see his brother Dr. R. J. Napper, who is very low with consumption. Mr. and Mrs. Will Mattingly and little daughter, Agnetto, Miss Clara Lewis, of Hardinsburg, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Lewis. Master Taylor Babbage and Allie DeJernette, of Hardinsburg came down Thursday to see the big river. They returned Friday. Sheriff Silas Pate returned from Washington Sunday looking bright as a new coined gold dollar. He reports a most excellent trip. John Muldoon, Dan Gillian, Jack McCoy and Hiram Gabbert, all former miners at Victoria, have returned and secured positions. J. D. Beeler and J. W. Guthrie came down from Hardinsburg Sunday. Mr. Guthrie had not been here for some time and noted some changes in the city. Mrs. Wigginton, after several months stay with her daughter Mrs. W. B. Rutledge, left Monday accompanied by Rev. Rutledge, for her home at Mt. Washington. Manager Heron, of the Breckenridge Company, limited, has not shipped his barge load of coal. He hopes to get it off this week. He says the high water will not do it any damage. Mr. C. W. Moorman received a letter written from New Orleans last Monday from his son, Charles, who is making a tour of the south in the interest of his uncle's house, Mr. C. P. Moorman, of Louisville. W. G. Smart went to Louisville, Sunday, and rode all the way in one of those parlor cars. Mr. Smart said, "They are just simply out of sight, and make one feel as though he had just taken his seat in the White House." Peyton Bristow, a farmer residing near Pellville, and who had been ill for quite awhile, died, Saturday of dropsy. He was in his sixtieth year. He was a prominent citizen of that section and had held the office of Magistrate in that district for some time. He was buried Sunday. To appreciate the value of the News more, you should read our correspondents. They are all up-to-date in their profession and might be the means of your obtaining some important news. You'll find in their columns, nothing but real genuine occurrences. The city was pretty lively, Saturday, the occasion being the day set for conventions to be held in the three different wards to nominate candidates and elect delegates to meet at Hardinsburg, Monday. The respective places for holding the convention were all crowded, and all present seemed to take great interest. It was one of the most harmonious meetings ever held in the city.

Mrs. William Sahlie is quite sick. Tobacco will begin to move again. Minor's speech Friday tickled the boys. Hon. W. E. Minor carried off the banner here. Wm. Ashby went to Hardinsburg yesterday. The high water, did very little damage in this city. C. P. Vittoe, of Irvington, was in the city Monday. The bridge crew are working on Clover creek trestle. D. H. Severs was in the city Sunday enroute to Hardinsburg. Geo. C. Patton, after a week's illness went to Louisville Monday. Offices that have been overflowed by water are now being cleaned up. Those who constantly use the columns of the News, reap a good harvest. Geo. H. Baker went to Hardinsburg last week, his home to visit parents. For SALE—Extra clean country clover seed, by ADDISON & DICK, Addison, Ky. Edward English went to Franklin, Tenn., Friday, to visit his sister, Mrs. LaNeave. P. Schlemmer, of Cannelton, Ind., and Dr. Jones, of Hawesville, were here Thursday. The Breckenridge Co. Limited, are employing an average of sixty men at Victoria. James A. King and John Carter left Monday, for Louisville, to enlist in the regular army. They were sent to Ft. Sheridan, Ill. Wm. Mattingly, who has been employed at Cornwell's quarry below the city as timekeeper returned to Concordia, his home Saturday. At 10 o'clock yesterday morning the river had fallen two feet the last twenty-four hours at Louisville, but was still rising at Cincinnati, Ohio. W. Scott Morrison, of Owensboro, will arrive in the city Thursday to take depositions in the case of Vest & Smart against M. Jarboe and others. Mrs. R. N. Hudson and daughter, Virginia, with her sister, Miss Nellie Gregory, left Thursday, for Mobile, Ala., to visit Mr. R. N. Hudson's relatives. Geo. H. Baker, operator at the depot, has received a new typewriter. Geo. intends to take down messages with it and is already getting to be quite an expert. To be successful in business you must tell the public something about the values you have stored away on your shelves. No better way to do this, than to advertise in the News. Henry DeBus, of the Cincinnati Cooperage Company's tow boat arrived here, Sunday evening, and took the barge loaded with staves out of the creek. Quite a crowd was out to see her. For SALE—10,000 Schaffer's Colossal raspberry plants. $1 per 100 or $8 per 10,000. It is one of the largest, most prolific and finest flavored berries ever grown.—L. D. ADDISON, Addison, Ky. Justin Sippel, of Rome, Ind., and a nephew of Conrad Sippel, of this city, came down yesterday to visit him. Mr. Sippel will be married next Thursday to Miss Minnie Schwartz, of that place. Hon. Jonas Wilson, who was mentioned as demanding the stubs from R. T. Polk in last week's issue says he did not have anything to do with it and that the News was wrongly informed in regard to the matter. How's This! We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props, Toledo, O. We the undersigned, have known F. J. WASHINGTON, March 5.—President McKinley Saturday afternoon issued a proclamation convening congress in extra session Monday, March 15. The proclamation in full is as follows: By the President of the United States of America: A Proclamation: WHEREAS, Public interests require that the Congress of the United States should be convened in extra session at 12 o'clock on the fifth day of March 1907, to receive such communication as may be made by the executive: Now, therefore, I, William McKinley, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim and declare that an extraordinary occasion requires the Congress of the United States to convene in Washington at the fifteenth day of March 1907, at 12 o'clock noon, of which all persons who shall at that time be entitled to act as members thereof are hereby required to take notice. Given under my hand and the seal of the United States at Washington, on the sixth day of March in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and twenty-first. WILLIAM McKINLEY. By the President: JOHN SHERMAN, Secretary of State. HANS IS NOW SENATOR. WASHINGTON, March 6.—The senate was in session only about two hours yesterday, and the greater part of the time was spent in executive session in confirming Mr. McKinley's executive appointments. While in legislative session the credentials of Mr. Hannas as senator from Ohio to succeed Mr. Sherman were presented by Mr. Foraker and he was sworn in by Vice President Hobart. Mr. Davis was also designated acting chairman of the committee on foreign relations to succeed Mr. Sherman. Beyond the usual notification to the president nothing further was done.

L. N. & W. TIME TABLE. GOING WEST. Passenger Daily arr. Hardinsburg, 12:35 p.m. GOING EAST. Passenger Daily arr. Hardinsburg, 7:50 a.m. HARDINSBURG. County Court next Monday. Frank Haswell was at home one day last week. Burrel Beard returned to Eddyville last Friday. The E. Pile store-house at Harned will be sold March 17. J. A. Witt and two daughters went to Cloverport last Sunday. Miss Lula DeJernett came in to enter the B. N. College, Monday. Robert Smith has been quite ill several days with pneumonia. B. F. Beard & Co. are busy this week opening up their spring stock of goods. George Baker, Cloverport, was here last Saturday visiting his father's family. Mrs. Frederick, of Louisville, is here attending her sister, Mrs. Pickard, who is ill. P. Schlemmer, of Cannelton, Ind., and Dr. Jones, of Hawesville, were here Thursday. Fred Daniel, of Arkansas, was here Saturday to visit his mother, Mrs. V. Daniel. Canny DeHaven purchased a vacant town lot from J. R. Johnson last week at $75.00. Mr. Barns has the material on hand to give the brick hotel a fresh coat of paint. Mrs. Pickard, who has rooms at the Lennin Hotel, has been quite ill for the past week. Reva Kelly and Breeding began a protracted meeting out at West View last Sunday. The third quarterly meeting of the M. E. church, will be held at Sample, March 20 and 21. Sol Jolly, colored, got a $10.00 fine in the City Court for being drunk and disturbing the peace. Miss Hattie May writes back that she arrived safely in Montana, and hopes to be improved by the trip. Minor Compton, of Garfield, says the Asphalt mines, near that place will be worked on a larger scale this year than usual. Superintendent Driskel has fixed the joint Teacher's Association for Breckenridge, Meade and Hardin counties at Big Spring, April 17. Rev. W. B. Sneed's family are expected to move here from Louisville next week. They will occupy the house opposite their son-in-law's property. There will be an executive committee appointed to arrange a program for the County Sunday School Convention, which meets at Bewleyville this year. It is hoped that the meeting this year will be an improvement on any yet held. If Reva Kelly and Breeding fail to get up a big revival out at West View this week it will not be their fault. They are good earnest workers along this line. West View should remember this and get down to things spiritual for one week. S. K. Breeding had a good congregation last Sunday night and his sermon was one of great spiritual power. The Sunday School at the M. E. church South has had a decided increase in membership in the last few weeks. The lessons are quite interesting now and both scholars and teachers are making it a point to be regular in attendance. There are three little boys who ride in two or three miles from the country each Sunday morning and they are never a moment late. This information might be used profitably by some of the town folks. Hood's Sarsaparilla is known to be an honest medicine, and it actually cures when all others fail. Take it now. GUSTON. Candidates spoke here Friday. G. N. Lyddan was in town, Thursday. Miss Clara Loeb is visiting her sister, Mrs. S. Loeb. Dave Duncan, editor of the Messenger, was here Friday. Miss Enla Davis and her brother were here Thursday. Miss Maud Adkisson attended the Bay View celebration at Irvington Thursday. George Smith and Miss Helen Pollock visited at Vine Grove Saturday and Sunday. Erskine Munford and Miss Eva Herndon were visitors at the Endeavor Wednesday night. H. W. Cain left Friday, Feb. 26th, for Sumter S. C., to visit his daughters, Mrs. Parrott and Mrs. Flowers. He will be gone several months. Hugh Hardaway, Z. T. Stith, Overton Blandford and Roy Cain, gave a fine rendering of a most beautiful quartette at the Consecration meeting Sunday night. The Topic Party was a "chattering" success. However, the social committee was hardly diligent enough, an eavesdropper heard a certain topic changed to love. He remarked that the young lady's face was "coming and going." The annual election of officers took place at the Christian Endeavor Wednesday night. The result was as follows: President, Miss Carrigan; Vice President, Mrs. G. H. Anderson; Secretary, Hugh Hardaway; Treasury, Miss Adkisson. That Catarrh is a Local Affection of the nasal passages, is a fact established by physicians, and this authority should carry more weight than assertions of incompetent parties, that catarrh is a blood affection. Ely's Cream Balm is a local remedy, composed of harmless medicaments and free of mercury or any injurious drug. It will cure catarrh. Applied directly to the inflamed membrane, it restores it to its healthy condition.

Tutt's Pills Cure All Liver Ills. Prevention better than cure. Tutt's Liver Pills will not only cure, but if taken in time will prevent Sick Headache, dyspepsia, biliousness, malaria, constipation, jaundice, torpid liver and kindred diseases. TUTT'S LIVER PILLS ABSOLUTELY CURE. GLENDEANE. Lippincot axes July 40c. at Brown's. Your correspondent visited his old home Sunday. Seven pounds of Arbuckles coffee for $1 at Brown's. Mr. Stevens, section boss at Falls of Rough, was here Saturday. Dr. Dempster and wife go to Louisville to-morrow for a week's stay. Mrs. Bob Crider came up from Fordville Saturday. She will remain here several months. Wonder if anybody forgets that lap year with leap year's privileges ended more than two months ago. P. D. Milner, who recently moved from here to his old home near Hudson, was back last week on business. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Howard, of Rock Vale, entertained a few couples of their young friends Saturday night. Miss Katie Butler went to her home in the country Saturday, to entertain two visitors, the Misses Bradshaw, of Short Creek. Rev. Mr. Duggin, of Millwood, was here Saturday on business. He reports a successful meeting at Shady Grove, not far from Falls of Rough. Dean's tobacco warehouse is about full of tobacco. The receipts last week were heavy. Mr. Dean has purchased some very fine tobacco this year. Both our merchants have lately received new goods. Their shelves are full and counters stacked with a fresh, bright-looking stock. Business is good. Rev. J. B. Haynes preached here Sunday morning and night. I understand the Presbyterians will make an effort to have monthly preaching hereafter. Willie Robertson reports the sheep crop good this year. One ewe of his recently gave birth to three lambs all of which are living and growing finely. The newest inhabitant of Glendean is David C. Moorman, Jr. This little fellow arrived at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Moorman, on the 5th. The Utopians will give but one more literary exercise for the year. In this they will be assisted by Dr. Dempster and Miss Nannie Owen. Announcement will be made next week so that all may come out. Two hearts that did beat as one were made one on Saturday night when Mr. Phonso Willoughby and Miss Joanna Laceyfield were pronounced man and wife. The happy couple live near Mr. Chas. Robertson's. Col. Eli Dean's numerous admiring friends are very enthusiastic over making him our next Coroner. His delicate modesty served him very creditable Saturday while he was getting the full vote of the convention. The Precinct Convention Saturday was well attended and encouragingly harmonious. Some of us were disappointed in not getting the instructions for our favorites, but no dissatisfaction exists. Glendean will give more than the usual Democratic vote next November.
