PALE LUNA, GLORIOUS ORB, Made This Excursion a Delightful One. Young People Enjoy a Moonlight Outing. The tug Alfred Hennen has contributed very largely to the happiness and enjoyment of the young society folks of Cloverport and Hawesville. Last Wednesday evening was no exception to the rule and the fortunate guests of Captain James Hennen, who were invited to a moonlight excursion on the river, enjoyed it to the utmost.

EXCELLENT! The difference between Douglas Shoes and other makes is not so much in the leather as in the making. This is their strong hold. The most style and comfort is thus given because they know how it should be done. They know what is required to give the most strength and wearing qualities. TRY A PAIR. . . . You'll Like 'Em. THE STYLES THIS SEASON ARE GREAT SULZER'S.

HE SAW THINGS.

Wm. Easton Committed to the Insane Asylum.

A Crazy Young Colored Girl also Sent to Frankfort.

Two lunacy cases were tried before County Judge Ahl, in the city hall last Wednesday afternoon.

The first case was that of Mertia Collier, a fourteen-year old colored girl who was afflicted with hereditary insanity.

The jury returned a verdict as to her being insane without leaving the box.

The next trial was that of Wm. Easton, a well-known character about town. His was a sad case.

By his own evidence and that of several witnesses it was shown that he "sees things."

He had the hallucination of seeing big gangs of men at work constructing a new railroad along the river bend below town.

There will be a party of "cyclers" from this city go to Cannelton this week and return by way of boat.

Fred D'Hay, who was accidentally shot with a Flobert rifle last week, is able to be around on crutches.

The infant baby of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Orlis died Sunday and was buried Monday in the Cloverport cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Halfpenny, a former resident of this county, died in Henderson, Thursday. She was in her 90th year.

The higher our taxes become the more they will be dodged, but dodging the taxes on our homes is impossible.

The City Tax book for 1898 is now in my hands for collection. Please call and settle G. W. Snow, City Tax Collector.

The latest whim of the owners of dogs is to make them wear shoes in the house for the purpose of protecting the polished floors.

Dr. John H. Larabee, one of Kentucky's most prominent physicians, died at his home in Louisville, Sunday. He was 50 years old.

The fifteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Tucker died Monday of inflammatory rheumatism. He had only been a sick two weeks.

At this period of the year it is necessary to look after your interest in purchasing fruit jars. Our prices are the lowest—Gregory & Gibson.

There is one gentleman in this town who has the happy faculty of carrying a knife some ten or twelve years. Is not this an excellent record?

Miss Minnie Boultinghouse will leave Addison this week for Bethany, Ill. She will spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. Lydia Auber.

The farmers are making every preparation to begin the harvest of wheat. They say, "that this year's yield will surpass all previous ones."

Local ninrads report an exceedingly large crop of young squirrels this season and dainty squirrel pot-pie is an every day luxury in this city now.

Mrs. William Embry is quite low at her home with a complication of diseases. Her condition is not alarming yet she is in a low stage of health.

Judge J. R. DeHaven who has been confined to his home for sometime with a complication of diseases has so much improved that he is able to be out.

The horse buyers in this city Friday attracted a large number of farmers with horses and mules for sale. They did not want any animals, however, and left without making a purchase.

The funeral of Mrs. Barnett Bohler, which took place Wednesday afternoon, was largely attended. The services took place at the Baptist church and the interment at the Cloverport cemetery.

Probably one of the most patriotic young men, resides in Cloverport. It is some other than Charley Fallon, the accommodating and faithful grocery clerk, who is connected with the well established firm of Sulzers. He was out Tuesday evening wearing a beautiful and artistic coat embracing all the colors of the American flag.

Courtney V. Duncan whose health for the past month has been on the decline, will leave this month for Brandenburg to visit his brother, D. M. Duncan.

Mr. James P. Tucker came to the city yesterday enroute to Evansville, Ind., where he went on important business. He stated to a News reporter that in his section the tobacco crop was poor and not an average crop would be planted.

There should be some movement towards making July 4, the biggest day ever witnessed in Cloverport. With an unusual amount of enthusiasm on the part of the business and professional men, an undertaking of this character can be accomplished.

Rev. W. C. Brandon, a former pastor of the Elm St. M. E. church in this city, but now of the Main St. Methodist church in Louisville delivered a discourse at the Elm St. M. E. church Tuesday evening. His sermons are always enjoyed, logical and to the point.

It is a universal saying, "Let the farmer have a prosperous year and the whole country will be likewise." This is quite true and the prevailing conditions for a prosperous year were never more favorable, which has instilled into them an unusual supply of industriousness.

HEADLIGHT FLASHES.

Engineer Bob Lindley will move his family to Louisville and make that city his future home.

Pat Cain, one of the most skilled and trusted employes of the "Henderson Route," has been promoted and is now traveling engineer for the road.

The new coal chute for the L. H. & St. L. R. R. at Basket will be completed and all the road engines will be taking coal from there by the middle of next week.

The "Henderson Route" is making preparations to use the town well at Irvington to supply the tank at that place with water. A deep well pump will be used and a hydrant will be attached so that the citizens of the town will have an unlimited supply of water at all times.

When the improvement is made it will do away with two other tanks.

Colonel A. A. Powell, of Texas was in the city on business Monday and Tuesday.

Who is Colonel Powell? He's a giant. He'd make two ordinary men. He only measures seven feet, three inches in his stocking feet. He weighs 265 pounds and wears a number 15 shoe.

The colonel was born and raised in Johnson county, Texas, where the cucumbers grow so fast that a man who was caught in the vines was dragged to death.

He comes by his title of Colonel honestly as he served on Governor Hogg's staff and was a member of the Houston Light guards.

The colonel finds it difficult to get a bed at a hotel to fit him. He takes up the whole shooting match and in summer has to hang his feet out of the window. In the winter he requires two beds.

Colonel Powell represents the Arm & Hammer Soda Company, of New York and gets about his business as sprightly as if he were built on a more economical plan.

MIRTH AND MUSIC.

Will Make This Picnic a Happy One.

The parishioners of St. Rose's Catholic church, of this city, will make Saturday, July 2nd, a glorious one. They are to give a picnic and barbecue, for the benefit of the church, at LaHeist's woods.

There will be music and dancing and all kinds of outdoor amusements. Hon. David R. Murray will deliver a patriotic address if he is not in Cuba. Everybody is invited to help enjoy the day.

Horae Drowned. Saturday was quite an exciting day in the city and one of the liveliest incidents was the drowning of a horse owned by Wm. L. Galloway at the lower wharf.

The animal had been led to water by Pointexter Galloway, who had occasion to leave it a few moments and during his absence the horse got tangled up in a rope and was drowned before it could be rescued.

Glorious Time Promised. Through the generosity of Manager H. V. Harris, of the Breckenridge Cannel Coal Company, the members of the Methodist Sunday-school, are to enjoy a picnic at Tar Springs, July 4th. Mr. Harris has placed an engine and cars at the disposal of the school and will transport them free of charge to the grounds. A delightful time will be had.

Avitt—McGehee. Invitations are out announcing the approaching nuptials of Mr. Mack Everette Avitt, of Abbeville, Miss., to Miss Ellen Washington McGehee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. McGehee, of Irvington. The ceremony will take place at the First Baptist church at Irvington, Wednesday morning, June 22nd at 10:30.

One Minute is not long, yet relief is obtained in half that time by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. It prevents consumption and quickly cures colds, croup, bronchitis, pneumonia, legrippe and all throat and lung troubles.—Short & Haynes.

Dislocated Her Wrist. Mrs. Amanda Fisher met with a painful accident last Friday morning. In descending the steps at her home she slipped and fell. She sustained a dislocation of the wrist but is getting along nicely.

Seven miles of road between Hardinsburg and Garfield have been graded and put in splendid condition for travel at a cost of $104. This sum covers the entire expense for teams and men. This is a practical demonstration of what can be done with road machines and one can readily appreciate their value when it is known that the cost of improving a mile of road in Hardin county is $170.

A "Klondike Social" will be given at the Baptist parsonage, by the ladies of the church, on the "Dewey" eve of Friday, June 17th. The admission will be free. The menu for the evening will consist of suggestions of cake—baked snow soup—highly flavored lemon and pineapple snowballs—served à la Hobson—pickles—gold claims and Klondike drinks.

Electric Light Franchise. On June 10th I will sell to the highest and best bidder an electric light franchise to run for a term of 20 years from date of its approval by the City Council. Sale at City Hall at 10:30 a. m. F. M. D'HAUY, City Clerk.
