PLANS TO QUICKEN THE INTEREST IN SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK.

There are quite a number of plans that might be enumerated and discussed as to quickening the interests in Sunday School work. But I do not feel competent to give and thoroughly discuss this question so I will only speak of what I consider the most important.

First—It is a known fact that in our secular School it is essentially necessary to have apparatus for demonstrating and placing before the pupils the ideas in a correct way that can readily be acquired and easily retained, and even it is as necessary that we are provided with this in our Sunday school work. Two of the most important is the black-board and maps.

Blackboard and map illustrations will quicken and inspire a pupil when almost all else has failed, when the lesson leaflet is so hard to understand. The proper use of these help by the superintendent or teacher, will relieve the pupils mind of this burden and quicken the interest that without this help would have been lost.

Second—Officers and teachers. In these lie all the rule and control of the Sunday School. Then it is important that we have men and women of earnest effort and christian zeal to fill these places and impart inspiration to the school order, punctuality, and precision on the part of the officers and teachers, will awaken that interest in the school work.

The successful teachers in this field of labor are men and women of heart-power. Those who can love the erring and wayward. And their happy influence and success show that the heart knows the heart. And special emphasis needs to be given to the fact that the teacher's love is to be shown most conscientiously toward the pupils that need it most, not to the most deserving, but to the most needy. The love of the true teacher takes hold of the child's future, and it sees even in the wayward, the possibilities of a noble man or woman. It is this love that lifts up the fallen, carries light into moral darkness and sends the missionary to the heathen.

Third—There are many motives used as incentives to quicken the interest of the Sunday School of which I will only mention the most important.

First—A desire for advancement. The mind is endowed with a spontaneous craving for knowledge and this desire is especially keen and active in childhood, the craving for knowledge is as much an appetite of the soul as a craving for food is an appetite of the body, and it has just as definite, though higher, an ulterior purpose, and it may be added that it is only to those who seek her that she reveals her highest beauty and charm.

"The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge, but fools despise wisdom and instruction." Prov. 1:7.

Second—A desire to be useful. This is a very important incentive and each member of our Sunday School should feel that he can be of some use to the world. He must remember that God made him for some purpose. He can be thus useful by storing the mind with knowledge and filling up this life with little deeds of kindness. They are all great deeds in the eyes of the Lord, and at this moment comes to my mind the language of the poet.

If you castest on the ocean a mill Among the swiftest fleet Rocking on the highest billow Laughing at the storm you meet.

TO MY CHILDREN.

DAYS, months and years have passed away, But the past seems spread on the carpet to-day, When I think of busy little hands and tiny little feet Who were always ready any footsteps to greet. Where are those children who once sat on my knee, As sweet and dear as any children could be? Echo answers some are leading a business life, Others filling the place of dear, good house-wife, And others have been transplanted in a fairer clime, Whose lot is far better than yours or mine. A few yet linger around the old hearth-stone Who are yet too young to try opinions of their own.

Children, the old home is as it was when you went away, But mother and father are now turning gray. Did you ever picture mother when she's old With silver threads among the gold? Do not let your hearts grow cold, But love me dearer when I am old. My heart is as full of love to-day For the absent as when they went away, And I am just as proud of my girls and boys As I was when they played with their toys. But now it is a different kind of pride, Such as you find in this land so wide.

Children, your attention one moment I pray, Probably you may profit by what I have to say. Pay close attention, and I will tell How both boys and girls can always do well. As through Life's flowery pathway you glide, Seek Honor and Truth, but nothing to hide; Heaven be your watch-word, Zenith your day star, And there is nothing your life will mar. Be gentle and kind to each other Never forgetting you are a sister or a brother. In sickness, sorrow, weal or woe, Stick to each other wherever you go.

And, now, dear ones, when this earth fades from my view Remember the most of my life has been spent for you. And in so doing I have not forgotten to pray That He may reunite us some golden day. And when I am called to join the little band That has gone on before to the bright happy land, Think of mother's spirit hovering o'er you, Trying each one of your foot-steps to allure, Still pointing you to a Throne of Grace Divine, When a loving Saviour around you His arms entwine. And when we are again reunited, what joy! what pleasure! Our happiness and rejoicing will know no measure.

—MAMMA.

You can stand among the eulphs Anchored yet within the bay You can lend a hand to help them As they launch their boat away. If you cannot give the millions You can give the widow's mite, And the least you do for Jesus Will be precious in his sight.

Quicken the little people's with such thoughts and interest them in bits of sunshine from the gospel and inspire them with gems of literature that go to make up a better life. These committed to memory when young become a part of the child's life and helps him to see the beauties of Christ.

Third—A desire to do right. Do what conscience says is best. Do what reason says is best. Do with all your mind and might. Do your duty and be best.

Fourth—And last, but not least, comes the home influence.

Here is the place to quicken the greatest interest in Sunday school work. We cannot find anything that equals and wields such an influence as the home. This is the first great engine of education. This great engine put in motion by the love of Christ is what forces into the Sunday school the boys and girls of our land. In the home we find all the materials for Sunday school, and if this home is shedding its Gospel light and using its influence for Christ, we need nothing better to quicken the interest of a Sunday school.

But we must remember that every child is not so surrounded as to have every encouragement that is necessary to make its life happy and to enjoy the blessings God has designed for it. But the Sunday school is a means by which this Eternal Life can be attained, for there are

Gems by cruel hands defaced, Pearls in leather shadows dim, Jewels scattered in the waste. We must gather up for Him.

HARDINSBURG.

Prof. Fowler has closed his school at Custer and is spending a few weeks here in the R. N. College.

The Baptist people of Glendean are talking of building a new church at that place in the near future.

Miss Georgia McCubbins, of Stephensport, came over last Sunday to visit her sister, Mrs. Godfrey Haswell.

That evening train on the branch gives the railroad boys something to do. The public were glad to see it put back.

Dr. T. D. Renfrow will be in Hardinsburg, prepared to do painless, first class dentistry, the first Monday in June, Permanent location at Cloverport.

We will sell you bacon, flour, lard, canned goods, and many other things that you use in your family as cheap as you can buy it elsewhere, and deliver it to your door. ECLIPSE GROCERY.

Mr. Owen Cunningham returned last Thursday from a meeting of the Woman's Board of Missions, at Nashville. She spent a week there, and reports that she had a most delightful trip, besides enjoying the pleasure of meeting some of the most cultured women engaged in missionary work.

We regret to learn that Fraz'er Horley, one of the oldest citizens in the Lost Run neighborhood, is quite feeble in health and unable to be about. Mr. Horley is one of the old class of citizens in the county, and in days past was an

GLENDOWER—"I can call spirits from the vasty deep."
HOTSPUR—"Why, so can I, or so can any man."
"But will they come when you do call for them?"—SHAKESPEARE.

How quickly Hotspur's wise and witty retort tears the magic mantle in which Glendower stalks, and shows beneath the seer's robe, the motley of the mountebank. Most people would have taken the Welchman at his word, and called him seer, without noting the difference between call and command.

Certain points of comparison are suggested between Glendower's tragic claim and the comic claim made in some specious advertisements. "I am a woman, I know all about woman. I understand woman, and I can cure woman because I am a woman." The modern Mrs. Hotspur puts her finger right on the weak spot of that clamorous claim by saying: "Why if you can cure woman simply because you are a woman, then so can I and so can any woman." Which very plainly brings out the common sense fact that the cure of diseases does not depend upon being a man or being a woman but does depend upon being a trained and experienced physician.

There is, as far as is known, no qualified woman physician associated with any proprietary medicine firm. It is certain that there is no one, man or woman, who can show an experience or record equal to that of Dr. R. V. Pierce; more than thirty years of treatment of women's diseases with ninety-eight per cent. cured out of more than half-a-million women treated. Sick women can consult Dr. Pierce by letter absolutely free of charge. Every letter is held as strictly private and secretly confidential. All answers are mailed securely sealed in perfectly plain envelopes. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

active participant in matters of public interest.

I. H. Dewees, W. R. Moorman, D. C. Moorman, W. C. Moorman, G. W. Beard, R. N. Miller, C. E. Haswell, Will Hook, John P. Haswell, Jr., Owen Cunningham, Judge Ahl and Miss Maggie Ahl, Minor Compton, Robert Weatherford, A. A. Richardson, E. F. Lyons, D. R. M. Smith, Samuel Henninger, Irvin Payne, J. W. Pate and J. A. Gray were passengers on the train last Monday for Louisville off the branch.

Upon the return of Miss Tula C. Daniel from Nashville, Tenn., where she had been attending the meeting of the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions, she had the misfortune to stumble and fall in crossing the upper hall of her residence, fracturing a rib and bruising an arm, which will confine her to her home for several days. For this reason the meeting of the missionary society will be held at her home, instead of at Mrs. C. L. Beard's, Friday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock.

Glorious News.

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which has caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by Short & Haynes, Druggist. Guaranteed.

GUSTON.

Dr. Enchelor, of Indiana, visited Dr. A. A. Baxter and family last Saturday and Sunday.

Frank Miller and Miss Vaughn made a visit over to Vine Grove last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. George Lyddan and wife attended church here last Sunday and dined with Mrs. Adkinson.

Anel Carden and family visited his father and brothers who live near Irvington, last Saturday.

Ben Miller who is at present living near Big Spring visited his mother at this place Saturday and Sunday.

It is said that John Pike has the finest wheat crop in this section. I understand that he used no fertilizer on this crop.

Will Baskett and family, and Chas. Anderson and family went on a fishing tour above Brandenburg to the home of Wm. Baskett Sr.

Mrs. G. W. Smith and daughter Katie, are visiting her daughter, Mrs. James Mattingly of Dayton, Ohio. They will be gone two weeks.

Walker Brown will spend the latter part of this week at Holt with his family. Mr. Board's son and Col. A. J. Gross will run the store at this place.

Allen English (col) of Chicago who came here last week for the purpose of buying land, purchased 75 acres of Chas. Anderson and expects to buy more.

Miss Helen Pollock who is at present at Burns, Ky., visited her mother at this place last Sunday and attended church. We were glad to have Miss Helen back in our midst again.

Wm. Baskett's family received a letter from John Baskett who is in the regular army. He is in Glenfuegos, Cuba. They were glad indeed to hear from him for they didn't even know where he was stationed.

The strawberry crop of this season cannot be surpassed in this section of the country. Every one brags upon his or her patch but from what can be learned, Ferd McGhee holds the record to date, for family consumption purposes, his family having used and consumed 50 gallons.

If the engineers of freight trains who run through this town get any worse about whistling their engines the good country people will have to take to hitching their homes about 3 miles before getting to town, for it is an everyday sight to see someone with the remnant of a bridle chasing a 2-10 horse that has been scared out of his skin by the excessive blast of the locomotive. But the Rail Road people say they have been fixed pretty heavily for not tooting at this place. So now they propose to continue to toot until they catch even, so have your and your horses life insured before entering town, or else you won't even save the throat latch of your bridle.

No-To-Bac for Fifty Cents. Guaranteed tobacco habit cure, makes weak men strong, blood pure. 50c. B. All druggists.

FALLS OF ROUGH.

Mrs. Charlie Shreve, of Louisville, is very ill. Dr. Dempster talks of selling out his drug store.

Late Beauchamp went to Ohio county to church.

Mrs. Jones, of Glendean, died with consumption.

Mrs. David Howard entertained Saturday evening.

Miss Jennie Green returned from Louisville last week.

Willis Green and Dr. Harris went to Glendean Sunday.

Mrs. Mercer has gotten well and was out at church Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Dean is visiting her son, lawyer Dean, of Owensboro.

Miss Annie Head is spending the summer with relatives at Kirk.

Misses Ruby and Jessie Stone were guests of Mrs. Hughes Monday.

Miss Luther Shreve, of Shreve, went to Owensboro shopping last week.

Miss Vesels, of Hardinsburg, was the guest of Miss Dent Brown last week.

Dr. Harris continues very popular both as a physician and ladies' man.

The Chambliss Bros. sold a fine lot of fat hogs last week to Vick Robertson, Glendean.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thomas Davison and children are visiting relatives in Edmonson county.

Mrs. Mary Brack, of Short Creek, was the guest of Mrs. Belle Dewees, of Glen dean, last week.

While I was away quiet a number of distinguished guests honored our village with a visit.

M. W. Stone shipped a couple of fine Poland China pigs to parties in Louisville last week.

We still have several cases of measles, with a few others who have been exposed to them.

Miss Hanna Deane, of Owensboro, is a guest at her grand father's, Mr. Johnson Deane, Glendean.

The Falls of Rough is very much elated with their victory over the Macksaville base ball team.

Miss Helen Armstrong, a beautiful young lady, of Louisville, is the guest of Miss Jennie Green.

Mrs. Harris, (Dr. Harris' mother) of Richmond Va., was the guest of her son a few days last week.

Misses Jennie Green and her guest, Miss Helen Armstrong, visited Miss Amanda Dean, Saturday and Sunday.

The game of base ball between Fall of Rough and Macksaville scored sixteen to 29 in favor of Falls of Rough.

Mr. Robert Chambliss, Misses Mabel and Zelma Chambliss, Cora Winget attended church at Pleasant Grove, Sunday last.

Mrs. Dewees says she has sold more hats this season than ever before. She has lovely goods and people come from everywhere to Glendean to shop with her.

Madam Rumor says there has been a wedding, but it seems that the parties are playing a joke and will not gratify the public's curiosity by making it known.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Moorman, Mrs. Dempster, Misses Ella Robertson, Airie Robertson, Mary Moorman, Daisy Deane, Mrs. Lucy Hunter and a host of others whose names I did not catch, were out calling or shopping at Glendean Friday afternoon.

Died May the 14th, little Paul, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rodgers, of Third and Pearl Sts., Owensboro. Dear aunt and uncle let your consolation be that Paul has only taken his own and little Paul is a happy angel whom you may meet in that sweet home where there is no parting. We sincerely sympathize with you in your deep sorrow. The remains were laid to rest by the side of Grandma in the family lot at Elm Wood.

PEKIN.

I. L. Milner farms in the week and Halls on Sunday.

Your humble contributor was at Gardfield this week on business.

Some of the farmers are almost done planting corn in this section.

Misses Fannie May Glascock and Fronie Jolly went to Gardfield last Saturday shopping.

G. H. Hall was in our midst this week looking after a fine milk cow, which he bought of F. R. Glascock for $35.

W. J. Glascock and wife spent a few days at Hudson last week, visiting his wife's brother, Tom LeGrand and sister Mrs. Tom Drane.

The musical entertainment given by Preston Butler last Saturday night was quite well attended and pleasantly enjoyed by all present.

Most all the boys and girls in this and Cave Spring section contemplate a pleasant sojourn to the ever famous and most historical Sand Knob in the near future.

Your humble scribe shall not enter into the political arena at this date to any considerable extent. However, I beg leave to say a few words in this communication and in the next "epistol" to the News, look out, Republicans and other gold bugs! I shall spare neither hide, hair nor tail. Beef, rotten, roast nor refrigerated. Further more allow me to say "the cause is greater than any man," and I think it behooves every Democrat in Breckenridge county to see that Breckenridge goes instructed to the State convention for P. Watt Harlin for governor, first, last and all the time.

GOV. CANDLER PRAISES S.S.S.

He has Used it for Fifteen Years, and Declares it is the Best Blood Purifier and Tonic Made. Strong Words from Georgia's Chief Executive.

There is not one person in a hundred whose system can successfully withstand the severe drains of the Spring season without the aid of a tonic. All of the accumulated impurities of a year must now be eliminated, and this causes a struggle which usually results in a breakdown. A few bottles of S. S. S. just now will thoroughly purify the blood, improve the appetite and give tone and strength to the whole system. Most important of all, S. S. S. will so perfectly remove all impurities as to fortify the system for successfully resisting the many dangerous forms of sickness so prevalent during the summer.

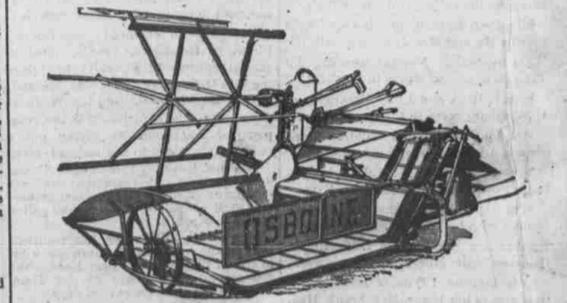

No Georgian is as near to the hearts of the people as their beloved Governor, and he has used S. S. S. for fifteen years; he knows that it is made of the native roots of Georgia—that it contains no drugs of any description—and he unhesitatingly says that it is the best tonic he ever used. For many years my digestion was bad, but the occasional use of a bottle of S. S. S. has entirely cured me of this malady, and I now eat with perfect impunity anything set before me.

A. D. CANDLER.

Allen D. Candler. Faithful to every trust, his rugged honesty is his shining virtue. His word is accepted far and wide, for he never gives an endorsement without an absolute knowledge of the merits of an article. Governor Candler has used S. S. S. for fifteen years; he knows that it is made of the native roots of Georgia—that it contains no drugs of any description—and he unhesitatingly says that it is the best tonic he ever used. S. S. S. is the only tonic which contains no potash, soda, arsenic or other dangerous stimulant. You need S. S. S. and take nothing else.

FARMERS!

HERE ARE SOME FACTS ABOUT THE Osborne Columbia Reaper.

A MACHINE WITHOUT A PARALLEL IN REAPER HISTORY. Every part of it is constructed of the best and strongest material procurable.

The platform, made of selected timber, is thoroughly braced; any tendency of the front sill and cutter-bar to sag or warp is fully overcome by a steel truss rod.

THE GEARING is of well tested strength, and being located with the rake-head and main frame close to the drive wheel, its compactness tends to the perfect balance of the machine and the total elimination of side draft. By the adjustable brace rods of the high rake-head the rakes can be regulated to make a clean sweep of the platform, leaving a perfect gavel.

The tripping device is a notable feature of this machine; it is extremely simple and accurate, an adjustment of the latch regulating the action of the rakes and allowing them to operate at intervals, or successively, as the driver may desire. When the crop is thin, and a proper sized gavel can only be obtained by allowing the cuttings to accumulate on the platform, THE RAKES CAN BE TRIPPED INTO ACTION BY THE FOOT OF THE DRIVER AT WILL.

THE DRIVER'S SEAT is adjustable to allow the driver's weight to balance the machine, and can be taken off by removing a bolt.

THE MAIN WHEEL IS STRONG AND SOLID, and gives to the reaper mechanism such perfect running as can only come from great power easily delivered.

THE EASE WITH WHICH THE RAISING, LOWERING AND TILTING MECHANISM can be operated cannot be improved upon. It is characteristic of the Osborne Reaper.

ALL POSSIBILITY OF CLOGGING THE GEARING IS PREVENTED BY THE HEIGHT OF THE INSIDE DIVIDER.

FOR TRANSPORTATION on the road or through narrow gate ways the platform can be quickly folded.

The thorough efficiency of the Columbia has been proven in innumerable contests, where its lightness, strength ease of adjustments, speed in cutting and forming of gavel is have made it victorious.
