

"YOUNG MAN, LET WHISKY ALONE"

Says Mr. J. E. Keith—Six of His Companions Have Died Drunkards,

THO HE EATS 70th BIRTHDAY DINNER.

"Let whisky alone, young man," are the words of Mr. J. E. Keith, who ate his 70th birthday dinner last Wednesday. Mr. Keith is a living example of temperance. As he was passing the corner at the Jordan House, where once stood the old brick hotel a strikingly vivid picture came to Mr. Keith, and he remarked to a News representative, "when I first came to Cloverport fifty years ago, I boarded at that hotel and went to school with six other boys about my age of well known families. At nights we would go into the saloon which stood there (pointing to the site on which is built Mr. Curt Weatherholt's store) and play games as to who should pay for our drinks of wine and other decoctions. All of us had plenty of money and lived high. This ran on for awhile. After a few years I married and left off my frivolities. The other six boys continued, and drank more and more as they grew older. And what is the result? All of them are dead now. Some dying at an early age, as the result of drink. The others soon passed away confirmed drunkards and useless men. I say, young man, leave whisky alone. It will kill you. I know it. I have seen enough sin committed in my seventy years as the results of whisky to curse a town; I have seen this demon almost tare the very heart strings out of many a mother, and now young man, take my advice, leave whisky alone."

These words coming from so respected a man as Mr. J. E. Keith should be heeded by every boy. The results of intemperance he makes plain and the result of temperance, he himself is an example. We doubt if there is a man in the county who can stand more manual exercise for the same length of time than Mr. Keith at seventy. To ride a horse is mere play for him, and a half day or even a day in the saddle is a common occurrence in his program of life.

Life Guards.

The Life Guards are two regiments of cavalry forming part of the British household troops. They are gallant soldiers, and every loyal British heart is proud of them.

Not only the King's household, but yours, ours, everybody's should have its life guards. The need of them is especially great when the greatest foes of life, diseases, find alias in the very elements as cold, influenza, catarrh, the grip, and pneumonia do in the stormy month of March. The best way that we know of to guard against these diseases is to strengthen the system with Hood's Sarsaparilla—the greatest of all life guards. It removes the conditions in which these diseases make their most successful attack, gives vigor and tone to all the vital organs and functions, and imparts a genial warmth to the blood. Remember the weaker the system the greater the exposure to disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the system strong.

1904 Crops Sold.

The 1904 crop of Burley tobacco pooled at Havesville has been sold, and the money will be ready on and after Monday for distribution to those entitled to same. The prices are said to have been good.—Clarion.

Women's Kidneys.

Women are more often afflicted with kidney disorders than men, but attribute the symptoms to diseases peculiar to their sex, while in reality the kidneys are deranged. Nervousness, head ache, puffy or dark circles under the eyes, pain in the back, are signs of kidney trouble that must not be ignored, or a serious malady will result. Foley's Kidney Cure has restored the health of thousands of weak, nervous, broken down women. It stops irregularities and strengthens the urinary organs. It purifies the blood and benefits the whole system. A. R. Fisher.

Fifteen Indictments.

Fifteen indictments against officers of the Mutual Reserve Life Insurance Company were handed down by the grand jury in New York. Those indicted are Frederick A. Burnham, president; George D. Eldridge, first vice president, and George Burnham, second vice president. The grand jury probably will enter upon a general investigation of insurance affairs.

ST. LOUIS LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Reported by Evans-Snyder-Buel Co., Live Stock Commission Agent.

(Special to the News.)

National Stock Yards, Ill., March 7.—Light runs of cattle Monday indicated a stronger market and a few of our early sales show did a little advance, however, when it became evident the packers were not anxious to increase their already over supply of dressed beef the market settled down to slow steady basis as compared with the decline noted the latter part of last week and continued in his unsatisfactory condition until today when such beef steers as are selling from $4.00 to $4.75 are 10 to 15 lower than a week ago and the better kinds, those ranging from $4.80 to $5.50 are 15 to 25 lower.

A moderate run of butcher stuff met with a weak demand at unevenly lower values,—anywhere from 10 to 25 cents below a week ago. The bulk of the fair to good heifers sold from $4.00 to $4.50 and cows of the same description $3.25 to $3.90. Veal calves took a jump skyward and touched the $8.50 per cwt. mark.

As has been the case each week since the latter part of January a new "high" has been reached on hogs. Several loads sold at $6.50 and lots of good hogs going at $6.40. Good 180 lb lights sold up to $6.40 while the bulk of the good ones under 150 lbs sold from $6.15 to $6.25 and best pigs at $5.65, although most of the pigs sold from $5.00 to $5.25.

Receipts of sheep continue light. Colorado lambs are selling from $6.25 to $6.75,—bulk around $6.50. Good native sheep sold up to $6.50 and good western ewes on the stocker order at $4.25.

We would appreciate hearing from any reader of the News as to the amount of live stock being prepared for market, including names of those who have stock for shipment and conditions generally appertaining to the live stock industry.

Cured Hemorrhages of the Lungs.

"Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hemorrhages," writes A. M. Ake, of Wood, Ind. "I took treatment with several physicians without any benefit. I then started to take Foley's Honey and Tar, and my lungs are now as sound as a bell. I recommend it in advanced stages of lung trouble." Foley's Honey and Tar stops the cough and heals the lungs, and prevents serious results from a cold. Refuse substitutes. A. R. Fisher.

Biggest Stock in County.

J. E. Keith & Son have at their marble works in this city the largest stock of granite and marble in Breckenridge county. Buyers by coming to this shop will save 25 per cent. on foreign prices on every stone purchased. The largest monument ever brought to Cloverport is on its way to J. E. Keith & Son now from Aberdeane, Scotland. The duty on this stone was $40.

FOUR MORE TRAINS TO PASS TOWN.

With the advent of the L., H. and St. L. railroad trains into the Tenthstreet station about the middle of April, the L. and N. railroad will inaugurate a system of through service between Knoxville, Tenn., and St. Louis by the way of Louisville and the Henderson Route from Louisville to Evansville. No plans for such through service have been completed, but they have been in contemplation for some months and the final arrangement will be completed as soon as the Henderson Route connections over the new line from West Point to Louisville are completed.

According to the present ideas, two trains each way will be run through from Knoxville to St. Louis, about twenty or twenty two hours being required to make the trip. The trains will be operated from Knoxville over the L. and N. through Jellico, Lebanon and Louisville, and will connect at Evansville with the Nashville-St. Louis trains giving through service.

It is planned to make the trains operate direct and the service will be in addition to the two St. Louis trains operated daily by the L., H. and St. L. The route laid out for the L. and N.-Henderson Route trains is about the same distance as that of any other trains operated by other roads from the Knoxville territory.

Although plans have not been completed for the entrance of Henderson route trains into Tenthstreet station, it is believed by the officials of the line that the extension from West Point to Louisville will be ready for use about April 1. Although a few light freight trains have been operated over the extension during the winter, the roadbed has not been generally used. As the ballasting has just been completed, and this will be allowed to settle before the regular trains are operated over the branch. Several slight changes in the time table will be made when the extension is opened, but these changes will not materially affect the operation of trains.—Wednesday Courier-Journal.

The best way to rid the system of a cold is to evacuate the bowels. Kenned's Laxative Honey and Tar acts as a pleasant yet effectual cathartic of the bowels. It clears the head, cuts the phlegm out of the throat, strengthens the bronchial tubes, relieves coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough etc. Sold by all druggists.

The New Church Assured.

Solicitors for the building fund of the proposed new Christian church are now at work and are meeting with splendid success. Dr. V. O. Standish, Rev. Hudspeth and George Bentley pledge $100 each; Thomas and James Ireland, of Skillman, $150 each. Numerous smaller amounts, of course, will be given. The Messrs. Ireland, we understand, will also donate a handsome Memorial Window to the building in honor of their father and mother. With the fund of about $500, brought into the organization by the Baptist element, this makes the amount now on file above $1,000, and there is no doubt of the new building going up. Several locations are being considered, but none has been agreed on.—Clarion.

The inauguration of these trains will enable the people of Danville, Harrodsburg and other stations on the Danville Branch to leave their homes at a convenient hour in the morning and arrive at Louisville at 10:40 a. m. and they can then do their shopping and leave Louisville at 3:30 p. m., arriving Harrodsburg at 6:47 p. m., Danville at 7:10 p. m. and other stations correspondingly earlier. The new trains will be accommodations trains making local stops. The train arriving at Danville at 10:10 a. m. will connect with Q. & C. train No. 5 for all local stations on Q. & C. Route south of Danville.

These local trains will be in addition to the present through trains, which are now being operated between Louisville and the Southeast, via Lawrenceburg and Danville, and should prove a great convenience to the Traveling Public. Train No. 1 will leave Louisville at 7:50 a. m. instead of 8 a. m. and will reach Danville at 10:55 a. m., connecting with Q. & C. Train No. 23, carrying observation sleeper, which is operated through without change from Louisville to Jacksonville and St. Augustine Fla., in connection with "The Chicago & Florida Special" from Danville, will continue to leave Louisville at 7:45 p. m.

This New Train Service should prove a great convenience to people of Danville, Harrodsburg and other points, as it will enable them to do their shopping in Louisville and return home the same day and it is thought that it will have the effect of causing shoppers to go to Louisville instead of Cincinnati and other points.
