

THE BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

ALL THE NEWS THAT'S FIT TO PRINT.

VOL. XXXI.

CLOVERPORT, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, MAY 1, 1907.

8 Pages

NO. 42

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

Of Cloverport High School Will Be Held Friday Evening, May 24.

The commencement exercises of the Cloverport High School will be held Friday evening, May 24. The program for the occasion is now being arranged. The graduates are Misses Edith Burn and Pauline Moorman.

Dr. J. C. Willis, president of the University of Louisville, will deliver the address. Another interesting feature of the evening's entertainment will be the music. This part of the program will be under the direction of Mrs. L. T. Reid, of this city.

YOUNG AMERICA

Gets Into the Police Court for the Strenuous Life Misapplied.

Young America figured prominently in police court circles the past week. Fourteen young boys of the town were before Police Judge Willis on the charge of disturbing the peace and with the exception of one or two, they plead guilty.

The boys were accused of breaking the window lights in the Cloverport Ice Factory. Sixty odd lights in the building have been perforated during the winter months, with rocks thrown by the urchins, it is said.

The boys were given the minimum fine of $1 and costs.

TAR FORK.

"Uncle Jack" Ewlitt, of McQuady, was here on pension business last Tuesday.

L. C. Taul, McQuady, was out here at his farm Wednesday.

The Misses Ryan attended the wedding of Miss Em Mattingly last week.

Miss Beulah Rice is home from school at Hardinsburg on account of measles at that place.

Mr. T. O. Ryan, who has been confined to his bed one month, is better. Dr. Simons, of Cloverport, and Dr. Howard were called in consultation to see him.

Mr. and Mrs. Dud Morton, of Beech Fork, visited her niece, Mrs. Eli Fisher, last Sunday.

Mrs. Asher Newby has been very ill, but is convalescing.

Eli Fisher sold some fine hogs recently to parties near Rock Vale.

Dennis Sherman sold a tract of land to Weedman Brothers. Consideration, $1,200.

GLENDANE.

Mr. E. L. Robertson shipped a fine carload of hogs to the city.

Miss Sallie Moorman is on the sick list this week.

Rev. Rogers preached at the Black Lick church last Sunday.

Dr. Rogers, of Fordsville, was here on business one day this week.

Franklin West, of Owensboro, is visiting Misses Sylvie and Edna Mattingly this week.

Miss Zephie Askins, of Oklahoma, is visiting friends here this week.

Prof. Pile is going to teach school here while Miss Reed is attending the institute at Bowling Green.

S. T. Smith went to Louisville Thursday.

Mrs. Enoch Kiper wove thirty yards of carpet in four and one-half days, which is unusual speed.

Death Removes Two Hancock County Farmers.

Hawesville, Ky., April 24.—Mr. W. Q. Adams, one of the wealthiest farmers of Hancock county, is dead at his home, a few miles below the city. Mr. Adams was sixty-two years of age, and was a descendant of John Adams, second President of the United States. A widow, two sons and a daughter are left to mourn his loss.

Hawesville, Ky., April 15.—Mr. John Emrich, a prominent farmer and Mason, died at his home, near Chambers, this county. He was seventy-six years of age. Mr. Emrich was a native of Germany, having moved to this county many years ago with a party of German settlers.

Hawkins--Payne.

Tobinsport, Ind.—Mr. Fred Hawkins and Miss Nellie Steward Payne were married at the Methodist Parsonage in Cannelton, Ind., Saturday April 27. Rev. G. F. Walls solemnized the ceremony. The bride is the second daughter of J. H. Payne, of Tobinsport, Ind., and the groom is a son of the late Jefferson Hawkins, and is a prosperous farmer, of Tobinsport, where they will continue to reside.

The young couple's many friends wish them a happy and prosperous journey through life.

Ater--Compton.

Raymond, Ky.—Miss Bessie Compton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Compton, of this place, was married to Mr. Carlton Ater, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Ater, Sunday afternoon, April 28, at 2:30 p. m., at the home of the bride. The Rev. I. C. Argabright officiated.

The bride wore a beautiful white swiss dress. The groom wore the conventional black. The bridesmaids were Misses Mary Cashman and Rebecca Hall. The grooms-men were Messrs. Charlie Brown and Edgar Compton.

The bride is one of the most popular young ladies of Raymond, gentle in manner and possessing a sweet, loving disposition. Mr. Ater is a prosperous young farmer and of a well known family. He is a sturdy young man and a life of success no doubt will be his.

The bride and groom left Sunday evening for the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Ater.

PARALYTIC STROKE

Suffered By Mrs. Jerry Murphy Last Sunday--Condition Is Critical.

Mrs. Jerry Murphy, of this city, was stricken with paralysis at an early hour on last Sunday morning and her condition is critical. The whole of her right side is affected, and it is feared that, owing to her advanced age, recovery is impossible. She is eighty-four years of age.

Mrs. Murphy resides with her son-in-law, Mr. John Lillard. Mr. Lillard is confined to his bed from the effects of a stroke of paralysis received last fall.

Pushing Work On the Tar Springs Church.

The new church of the United Brethren faith at Tar Springs is rapidly being pushed to completion. The doors and window frames have arrived and a great deal of work has been done on the structure. Rev. A. Whitten, of Boling's Chapel, Hancock county, is on the ground and supervising the work. Rev. Henry Craig is pastor of the congregation.

On Accredited List.

The Cloverport High School has been placed on the list of accredited schools by the State college. This is quite an advantage to graduates, as it enables them to enter the Freshman year at the above institution without examination. Also, a free scholarship will be given each year to the graduate having the highest grades.

SKIPPER--BIGHAM.

Wednesday evening, a short time before prayer meeting a quiet wedding took place at the Methodist church, Mr. Glenn Skipper and Miss Nina Belle Bigham being the contracting parties. The ceremony was witnessed by quite a number of friends and relatives and was performed by Rev. J. P. Hilburn, pastor of the church.

The bride was one of Bartow's fairest maidens, a lovable and popular young lady, and daughter of Rev. J. W. Bigham, presiding elder of this district. The groom is a rising young man and son of our postmaster, E. E. Skipper. He is identified with many business enterprises in this and DeSoto county, and has a bright future before him.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Skipper drove to the A. C. L. depot and took the train for a wedding trip through the west. The best wishes of a large circle of friends go with them and it is our hope they may find their wedded life prosperous and happy.—Florida Courier.

IRVINGTON INTELLIGENCE

Newsy Notes In General Of the People's Doings, Socially and Otherwise.

Mrs. Charlie McMullen (nee Ermine Munford), of Greenville, Ala., will arrive this week for an indefinite visit to her mother, Mrs. Mary E. Mumford.

Mr. and Mrs. Moremen returned to their home at Brandenburg after a several days visit to Dr. and Mrs. L. B. Moremen.

Mrs. J. F. Claycomb and son, Byron, were visitors in Louisville several days last week.

The Rev. J. W. Thompson, of Louisville, filled his regular appointment at the Baptist church last Sunday.

Miss Katie Musselman, after being the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Pomp McCoy, of Louisville, returned home last Wednesday.

Mrs. Jim Wardrop and children have returned from Weldon, where she was the guest of her parents.

Miss Nannie Childs spent Sunday near Weldon with her parents.

Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Marshall and daughter, Ruth, Mrs. N. B. Netherton and sister, Miss Annie Lee Bandy, returned Saturday from Louisville where they spent several days shopping.

Mrs. D. W. Henry and little granddaughter, Margaret, returned last week from Hawesville, after two weeks visit to her daughter, Mrs. Clint Beauchamp.

Mr. G. E. Drury spent last week in Cincinnati on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Coleman have returned from Stithon, where they were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Reesor for some time.

Miss Wilson, of McQuady, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Moremen, for several weeks.

Frank Carter, of Cloverport, was in town last week visiting.

Mrs. Virginia Calhoun, after spending the last two months in Owensboro, returned last Thursday to her home.

Mrs. George Woolfolk, of Louisville, is the guest of her sisters, Mrs. J. M. Herndon and Mrs. S. P. Parks for an indefinite time before she leaves for her home in Pennsylvania.

Several from here went on the excursion to Louisville last Sunday.

Miss Hallie Moore, of Louisville, will arrive today for a two weeks visit to Miss Willa Drury.

Mr. Frank Claycomb returned Sunday from New Haven, where he has been for two weeks working insurance.

Miss Mary Collins returned Saturday from Brandenburg after a short visit to Mrs. Hugh Green.

Mrs. Pomp McCoy came Sunday for a visit to her mother, Mrs. Nannie Bandy.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Kemper spent Saturday and Sunday at Big Spring the guests of Mrs. Kemper's mother, Mrs. Julia Clarkson.

Mrs. Nannie Wathen returned Tuesday from a month's trip through Oklahoma and Texas. She is very much delighted with the West.

Miss Ada Belle Henderson, of Webster, and Mrs. Lasham, of Owensboro, spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Graves.

Mr. A. B. Suter spent Saturday and Sunday in town.

The B. Y. P. U.'s had a very helpful and instructive meeting at the Baptist church last Sunday evening. Miss Essie Biggs was the leader for the evening and she conducted the service very beautifully. A special program of music, recitation and talks by the different ones, including the pastor, Rev. J. W. Thompson, the meeting adjourned to meet the next Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock with Mrs. H. H. Kemper. The subject for the evening is "The Power of the Contented Life."

The ball grounds are being put in first-class shape this week and will be ready in a few days for the umpire's "play ball." The opening game of the season on the local grounds is scheduled for next Sunday with the Cannelton team.

Leg Broken.

The little five-year-old daughter of Mr. James Roland, of near Dukas, suffered a severe accident Monday. She was playing around a cow when the animal stepped on her, breaking her right leg above the ankle.

Mrs. Bentley Entertained.

Mrs. George Bentley, of Hawesville, who made her first visit to relatives here last week since returning from her trip to the old country, was extensively entertained by her friends. Tuesday Mrs. Fred Ferry gave a re-union dinner party in Mrs. Bentley's honor. The guests included Mrs. Chas. K. Minary, of Benton Harbor, Mich.; Mrs. J. E. Matthews, of Philadelphia; Miss Elizabeth Skillman, Mrs. Bentley, Mrs. Ferry and Mrs. L. T. Reid.

Wednesday Mrs. Wick Moorman was hostess to a charming dinner given to the same guests in Mrs. Bentley's honor.

Mrs. L. T. Reid gave a delightful afternoon party Wednesday in compliment to Mrs. Bentley.

WITH THE CHURCHES.

The Sabbath In the Cloverport Houses of Worship.

Quarterly conference was held at the Methodist church on last Sunday. Presiding Elder Hayes occupied the pulpit both morning and evening.

Rev. Currie left Monday for Cadiz, where he is engaged in a protracted meeting. In his absence next Sunday the Methodist pulpit will be occupied by the Rev. W. F. Maylott, of Owensboro. Rev. Maylott is a highly recommended and widely traveled minister and all are urgently requested to hear him.

BAPTIST.

The pulpit at the Baptist church was occupied at both the morning and evening services by the Rev. J. T. Lewis. At the evening service Rev. Lewis preached the first of a series of sermons he will deliver on the Sermon on the Mount. These discourses will be delivered at the regular Sunday evening services. The sermon on Sunday was highly interesting.

CATHOLIC.

Regular Sunday morning services were conducted by the pastor, the Rev. Father Celestine Brev.

On next Sunday at St. Rose's church, this city, will begin a service known as the Forty Hours Adoration, in honor of the blessed sacrament solemnly exposed upon the altar. It extends over a period of forty hours, so arranged as to include portions of three days, to correspond to the time our Lord's sacred body remained in the sepulchre. It is opened with solemn mass, followed by a procession around the church during which the hymn, "Pange Lingua," composed by Thomas Aquinas, is sung. The Tantum Ergo is sung by the choir, and the Litany of the Saints and other prayers are chanted. The devotion will begin Sunday morning at 9 o'clock and after the mass a sermon will be delivered on The Eucharist, the greatest gift of God to man. Sunday evening at 7:30 the sermon will be delivered by Father Moss, of Cannelton, Ind. The services, continuing through Monday, will close on Tuesday morning with mass at 9 o'clock, procession and benediction. Rev. A. G. Meyering will preach the final sermon. Several of the neighboring clergy will assist in the service.

BUYS TURNPIKE STOCK.

Harry G. Newsom has purchased the Chapin holdings in the H. & C. turnpike road. Consideration not given.

WITH THE SICK.

Several cases of illness in the town have been reported.

David Owen Hall has been ill the past week with tonsillitis.

Lillian McCracken has been seriously ill for several days.

Mrs. W. L. McCracken has been confined to her bed from illness for the past week.

Two small children of Mr. C. S. Lamb, are quite ill.

A little girl of Mr. Curt Weatherholt is ill.

Forrest Weatherholt, son of Marion Weatherholt, is confined to his bed.

Mrs. Edward Boewn has been ill for several days.

Mrs. Isadore Popham is ill.

Mrs. Joe Sawyer has been indisposed for several days.

Stuart Babbage, who came home from Louisville on account of illness Sunday night a week ago, is much improved.

AVOID The INTERNAL WRONGS of ALUM

Alum in food causes stomach disorders—Its continued use means permanent injury to health.

Following the advice of medical scientists, England and France have passed laws prohibiting its use in bread making.

American housewives should protect their households against Alum's wrongs by always buying pure Grape Cream of Tartar Baking Powder.

Pure Grape Cream of Tartar Powder is to be had for the asking—

Buy by name—Royal

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

VALUABLE PHOTOGRAPH Of Historic Roman Ruins Purchased By Prof. King.

While in Louisville attending the Teachers' meeting recently Prof. J. P. King made a purchase that is of considerable value to the pupils of the Cloverport High School and one that is highly interesting historically. It is an enlarged photograph showing distinctly the ruins of the ancient Roman forum and memorial arch of Septimius Severus in the foreground, and in the background is seen the ruins of the Colosseum. The photograph is a facsimile of the ruins as they stand today, they having been restored by means of excavation.

The photograph is printed on sepia paper and in size is 22x40 inches. Prof. King now has it on exhibition at the college building.

NOTICE!

Cloverport, Ky., Apr. 15, 1907. On and after May 1st, 1907, the undersigned will do a Strictly Cash business. This change is made necessary on account of keen competition and small profits. We positively will not vary from this rule, and all our customers will please be governed accordingly. All persons owing us will kindly make settlement by cash or note on or before above date. Very respectfully, Cloverport Foundry & Machine Co., Inc.

Wallace Pierce was home from Louisville Sunday to spend the day with his parents.

Jamestown Exposition Rates.

Norfolk, Va., April 26, 1907 to Nov. 30, 1907. Season tickets $28.60, 60 days tickets, $27.25, 30 days tickets, $22.50, 10 days tickets, $15.50. From Cloverport to Norfolk, Va., and return. 15 day ticket for $22.50.

Special Week-end Excursion Fares.

Every Saturday trains 113, 114, 115 and 118, and all trains Sundays. Round trip tickets will be sold at reduced rates to local points, good to return Sunday.

L. H. & St. L. Rates.

One way Colonist Rates to California and the North-west and Old Mexico, March 1 to April 30. Sept. 1 to Oct. 31, 1907.

State Reunion G. A. R. Louisville May 15 and 16. $3.00 round trip from Cloverport May 13 and 14th and on No. 116 May 15. Good return May 18.

Lexington Spring Races.

On account of the Spring Races the Southern Railway will sell Excursion tickets to Lexington on April 27th to May 4th inclusive at rates of one and one third fare round trip, with return limit May 6th, 1907.

For information call on or address agent of the Southern Railway or, C. H. Hungerford, District Passenger Agent, Louisville, Ky.

Measles In the County.

Measles is prevalent in many sections of the county and in some instances whole families are confined to their beds with the malady. As yet no cases of a severe type have been reported.