GRAND TIME HALLOWE'EN NIGHT. Forty-Six Ghosts Entertained By The Epworth League Social Committee.

If you want to have a good time, join the Epworth League now while Miss Grace Plank is Third Vice President and has Miss Lula Severs, Miss Margaret Burn, Harold Murray and Virgil Babbage on her social committee. They can make folks enjoy themselves even when ghosts are around, at least they did at the Ghost Walk in the reception room of the Methodist church Halloween night.

Just before 8 o'clock in every part of the town ghosts began to appear and their white robes made their way to the church where they were numbered and fell in line for the grand march in the main room which was artistically decorated. Chrysanthemums were among the floral decorations, and jack-o-lanterns and old Miss Pumpkin lights were used to break the darkness in ghostland. The ghosts immediately got very sociable and tried to renew acquaintances, but when the guessing contest was closed few recognitions were recorded.

Some of the ghosts were tall and interesting, others angelic with graceful wings and many were as ugly as the old witch herself. Their presence made the occasion a very scary one, but Miss Ray Heyser, a courageous member of the B. Y. P. U., sang "Who's Afraid" and got the guests in brave spirits. An invitation was extended to those who had started going to the fortune teller as an exciting as the "Third Degree" at the White City in Louisville, and the only consolation to those who had started was "It's a long road that has no turn". When first entering the concession one went through cold and hot regions and were then sent over a freightful path that made you feel very queer. Finally this sensation subsided and the fortune-teller, who was heard and not seen, spoke many words of relief and encouragement. One girl was told "You have a dangerous rival, but you will all get him"; another, "You have seen sweet-hearts a long time and will be married this year."

There were several other attractions in the programme that contributed to the amusement of the guests and about 30 delicious home-made candy, fruit and popcorn were served in abundance. The popcorn was most attractively tied in yellow tissue paper in the shape of pumpkins with a little face pasted on each bundle. The crowd commenced making the social committee at 11 o'clock for the pleasant evening and is all thanking them.

PLEADED TO DIE. Miss Vina Bandy's Wish Was Granted And Death Came Thursday Night.

Miss Vina Bandy, the young woman who shot herself in the abdomen Wednesday morning died Thursday night. She was nineteen years of age and was the daughter of Mrs. Eliza Bandy.

The shooting occurred at Williams Hotel in West Point about 7 o'clock and it was Miss Bandy's intention to commit suicide. That afternoon she was taken to her home at Stephensport where every medical attention was given her, but she pleaded with the physicians to be allowed to die. She left a note saying a young man was the cause of her trouble that made her want to end her existence.

The funeral was held Sunday morning and the interment took place in the grave yard at Union Star. The services were conducted by the Rev. F. Roberts in the presence of a heart-crushed mother and two hundred sorrowing friends.

Quick Climatic changes try strong constitutions and cause, among other evils, nasal catarrh, a troublesome and offensive disease. Sneezing and snuffing, coughing and difficult breathing, and the drip, drip of the foul discharge into the throat—all are ended by Ely's Cream Balm. This honest remedy contains no cocaine, mercury, nor other harmful ingredient. The worse cases yield to treatment in a short time. All druggists, 50c., or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York.

Cloverport Teachers Entertained.

Mrs. L. T. Reid entertained at her home from 5 to 6 o'clock Friday afternoon, the faculty of the Cloverport Graded School. The guests were: Misses Margaret Wroe and Edith Burn, teachers of the primary department, Miss Cora McCoy, who has charge of the intermediate department, Miss Jennie Patterson, first assistant, and Prof. Edmond Wroe.

Interested In Cloverport.

Mrs. Eliza B. Webb, of Louisville, was an interesting passenger on the east bound train Friday morning. She was on her way home from Hawesville after a short visit to relatives there. Mrs. Webb had baskets filled with butter and eggs and other things good to eat that are scarce in the city. Although Mrs. Webb has traveled a great deal and seen many places, Cloverport still interests to her, and she got near a window that she might see the town as she passed through.

Mrs. Summers Dead.

Mrs. Rebecca Summers, widow of Frank Summers, died October 27, at her home at Garrett, Meade county.—Elizabethtown News.

CARRIE NATION AT KINGSWOOD.

"The Famous Kansas Cyclone in Skirts" Lectures to a Good Crowd Thursday.

People from Hardinsburg, Glendean and from several other places in Breckenridge county, went to Kingswood Thursday to hear Mrs. Carrie Nation speak. She delivered two lectures, one in the afternoon and the other at night. Mrs. Nation told the audiences the evils of drink, that are known only too well, then advanced her ideas as to how to cut out the evil and build up the good which she partially does with a hatchet. During her stay at Kingswood she was entertained by Rev. and Mrs. Hughes, principals of Kingswood College.

Mrs. Nation gave a wait-a-minute talk here at the depot Thursday morning while the east bound train on which she was a passenger was at the station, and her impromptu speech on whisky and tobacco was a treat to those who heard her.

HER FIRST HATCHET WORK.

The first time Mrs. Nation ever used her hatchet in a saloon was the night her son, who was under age, came home drunk. She became so indignant at the saloon keeper, who let her son have the whisky unlawfully, that she and another woman took their hatchets that night and broke up the saloon. That was what started her, and it is enough to start any mother. Though the fat little woman, with black eyes and hair that is thickly tinted with grey, has been put in jail thirty times and paid $5,000 in fines, she has been victorious and will be until the end.

Public Invited.

Everyone is invited to use the "Reading Table" at the Breckenridge News office. The daily newspapers, magazines and other good reading matter are kept on this table and all visitors, who will come in and quietly enjoy it without disturbing the office force are cordially welcome. Stationery, pen and ink will also be furnished free at this table upon request.
