CIRCUIT COURT IN SESSION

Still in Session But Politics Claims
The Attention of Clients and Bar at Hardinsburg--
Candidates Busy.

NEARLY ALL CASES CONTINUED

Nearly all of the prosecutions on the Criminal Docket were continued on account of sickness and other lawful excuses; only about eighteen of the petit jury qualified the first day and the Court had to go to the wheel to complete the first panel.

Practically all of the civil cases of importance were continued. Nobody seemed inclined to try this term and this idea prevailed the first day.

The present term will be a record maker in as much as there will probably be fewer cases tried than ever before.

The Grand Jury returned eleven indictments the first week. None were of a sensational nature, however. The court, on request of that body, extended the usual time allowed them and they convened again Tuesday to investigate certain alleged unlawful whiskey selling and other things that will probably create some interest in their deliberations.

The action of Hall vs. L. H. & St. L. railway company was tried on the company's counter-claim and the jury brought in a verdict, under the court's instructions, for the sum of $3,000 for the railroad. The Hall case has been a rather unusual one. Hall sued the company for injuries received in a wreck as engineer. The company denied liability and put in the counter-claim for $3,000 damages to the train equipment. Hall got a $5,000 verdict in this court. The Court of Appeals reversed the case and practically said there could be no recovery by Hall. The lower court on the new trial, peremptorily instructed the jury to find for the railroad, which instruction was affirmed by the Court of Appeals. This verdict is the end of the case.

The action of J. H. Glasscock vs. The Louisville Tobacco Warehouse Co., was continued for the plaintiff.

The case of Casey vs. L. H. & St. L. railway company, the case involving the death of a small child by pulling a large wheel over on it, has been appealed, the railroad having won the case in this court.

The petit jury is made up of the following, viz: Daniel Spradlin, Alex Eskridge, J. R. Mays, J. W. Storms, Leo Alder, H. P. Pool, Peter Bennett, J. Seaton, E. C. Burton, Wm. Jarboe, John Pile, Henry F. Beard, Chester C. He, Wm. Head, R. L. Adkisson, Milt Brown, Logan Hickerson, Taylor Bandy, Ice Henderick, Calvin Hendrick, Joe Stewart, Henry Davis, Forrest Miller and C. C. Black.

The McCracken case was set for trial Wednesday, the Grand Jury having returned the indictment on an early day of the term. The Commonwealth insisted a trial at this term.

HAD MANY FRIENDS HERE.

William Tennent Boden, the well-known piano tuner, who had advertised his coming to Owensboro and was expected to arrive to-day, died of heart disease in the lobby of the Hayden House at Lewisport Saturday morning shortly before 8 o'clock. Mr. Boden was working towns between Louisville and Owensboro and had only arrived in Lewisport Friday night. Shortly after breakfast he was seized with what he thought was acute indigestion and lay down on a bench in the hotel lobby. ## WELL DESERVED.

The Praise That Comes From Thankful Cloverport People.

One kidney remedy never fails. Cloverport people rely upon it. That remedy is Doan's Kidney Pills. Cloverport testimony proves it always reliable.

J. C. Weatherholt, High St., Cloverport, Ky., says: "Two years ago I did not think it possible that I could ever be well again, in fact, I had settled up my affairs. I cannot describe the misery I endured from pains through my back and whenever I stooped, they became so sharp that it really felt as if someone were thrusting a knife into my kidneys. I was often very dizzy, dark spots floated before my eyes and I had to grasp something to keep from falling. My joints became swollen to twice their natural size and I lost weight rapidly until I was a skeleton. The doctors' medicines or the many guaranteed cures that I tried, did not help me and finally it was my good fortune to hear about Doan's Kidney Pills. I immediately procured a box at Fisher's drug store and I was greatly surprised at the results received. Before I had taken the contents of the second box, there was a marked improvement and I continued using them until completely cured. I am now as well as any man in this county and I give Doan's Kidney Pills the credit." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

LEE BISHOP WRITES SERIOUSLY.

Democratic Nominee For The Office Of Coroner Will Appreciate Support Of All
Voters--Invites All To Investigate His Record.

DEVOTED TO HIS PARTY.

To The People of Breckenridge County: I am the Democratic nominee for the office of coroner of Breckenridge county. I recognize the fact that this office is one that pays only a normal salary and one that does not especially profit the man who occupies it, however, as my party has named me as its candidate for the same I will appreciate your support as much as if it were for the most remunerative office in the county. I invite you to investigate my record and when you have done so you will find that I have never allowed my politics to interfere with my official duty. I have always responded to any call made upon me without regard to distance, weather or other conditions that relate to personal comfort. I did not seek the nomination but now that I have been named I trust that after examination of my record I will merit your support. I have only one more argument to make, namely, my opponent against whom I could not say one word personally, lives at Mook, one of the most distant points from the county seat. I ask you to consider whether the office of coroner should be placed in the hands of a man who lives at such a distant point from the county seat that affairs with which the coroner must deal should be delayed until a messenger can be sent to Mook to notify the official. I live at the county seat and I am sure that no man can move there for the office alone. I have a business from which I expect to receive support for myself and family. I do not and can not hope that the office will any more than pay expenses. With this argument I shall submit my claim for the office.

I am Respectfully,
Lee Bishop.

BRABANDT

Will Leave Cloverport This Week
Has Been Most Successful
Here And Will Probably Return.

C. G. Brabandt reluctantly leaves Cloverport this week to look for a new field for location. Mr. Brabandt says he intends to spend several weeks in search of a place to establish his photograph studio and if he cannot find a city better than Cloverport in a business way, he will return here directly. He is planning to go to South-western Kentucky, thinking opportunities are more promising there for his work.

Mr. Brabandt has been most successful here, but he is ambitious for larger territory. Not only in his art has he made good, but he has won the friendship of the young people of Cloverport. His friends certainly loathe to see him go.

He will be missed socially, but he will also be greatly missed in the Baptist church of which he was a member, and has always co-operated with the Baptist Young People's Union in their work. The News sincerely wishes him success and hopes he will find it greater in Cloverport than any place else.

POOR OLD DAVE

Makes Many Mistakes--Mr.
Rowland Smith Thinks The Hon. D. W. Henry Has Gotten On The Wrong Track.

Dear Mr. John:

Did you see the letter in the Fourth District Leader from D. W. Henry? Ye Gods! When a paper controlled by a big party begins publishing letters of advice from men like D. W. Henry don't you think things are getting in bad shape? Kicked out of the Democratic party, (he claimed to be a democrat) he took up with the Republican party, who did not want him and only took him, as their leader stated, time and time again to work the nigger but as stated by the party leader, also by the county chairman, they are very careful not to let him get hold of any of the campaign funds and will always say, Dave is alright, but we do not propose to let him get his hands on the party money sent to Irvington, Ky. Not two weeks ago the Republican leader at Irvington was heard to say that he would bet five cents that the Hon. D. W. would vote the Republican ticket. What do you think of that opinion of the precinct chairman? Thrown down at every turn, not at loved even a little "take out" of the campaign funds, but as Party Leaders say, good to work the nigger. I tell you Mr. John, no negro who has any respect for himself, will even listen to the Hon. D. W., much less take his advice. A political out cast, grasping at straws and all because of treachery and deception.

Yours Very Respectfully,
Roland Smith.
Irvington, Ky., Oct. 14th., 1909.
