Meet Me at "The Fair" Next Tuesday

MASONS BARBECUE THURSDAY THE BIGGEST YET.

Crowds and Crowds of People Thronged Into Cloverport to Meet at "The Prettiest Natural Park in the State."

EXCELLED EVERY ANTICIPATION.

The Mason's barbecue Thursday—there has never before been one just like it—because the crowd was never so large, the day never so fine, the dinner never so good, the amusements never so many. To think of the crowd of moving humanity that came into Cloverport in parties of two, tens, dozens and half dozens, makes the head swim. The L. H. & St. L. brought in 999 people off the branch and just how the 7000 got here is a puzzle, but they were "sure" here for the conservative estimate of the attendance was 8000 people. The great crowd of people that came into Cloverport was amazing. The Owensboro Enquirer has the following to say:

Crowds, crowds, crowds, were all that could be seen Thursday at Cloverport, on the grounds where the Masons of Cloverport held their ninth annual barbecue. It is estimated that there were 8000 people on the grounds, and that an exceptionally good time was had by all. The crowd ate the meats and all other refreshments and eatables to be had. One hundred and twenty-five gallons of cream were shipped from Owensboro to the grounds, and so great was the rush on this that another supply was ordered about 10 o'clock in the morning.

A special train of six coaches was run to the grounds by the L. H. & St. L., over the Fordsville branch, and trains passing here carried one and two extra coaches for the accommodation of those who went from here and other points along the "Texas."

BARBECUE NOTES.

Chas. B. Skillman, of Morganfield, came a few days before the barbecue to assist the Masons in making arrangements for the occasion. His services were appreciated and his many friends would have been disappointed had he not "come back" home for the great day.

An elegant dance was given in honor of the visitors in Cloverport Thursday night by the young society men of this city. Those who attended from a distance were: Misses Louise Aud, Hannah Beard, Mary Franklin Beard, Henry Moorman, Dr. Lex, Franklin Kincheloe, Mr. Haswell, Ed. Dillon, Preston Ford, Miss Della Winchell, Luther Reeves, Mrs. Frank Sanders, Miss Clair Jolly, Miss Steward, Allen Long, Tom Hale, Elmer Trumbo, Chas. Williams, Walter R. Hensley, Mr. Goering.

Must Have The News.

Dear Mr. Babbage: Enclosed find twenty-five cents to pay for three more months. John Shrewsbury, Irvington, Ky.

JAKE HANKS

Dies at His Home at Stephensport Monday morning--Was Well Known Business Man.

News was received here as the paper was going to press of the death of Jacob Hanks, one of the best known business men of Stephensport and the county. His death was caused from typhoid fever. He is survived by his wife, one brother, several sisters and his mother.

The funeral arrangements have not been made, but the services will be held in Cloverport by the K. P. Lodge. Mr. and Mrs. John Weisenberger went to Stephensport yesterday to be with the family.

GETS $8000.

Dallas Springgate, through his attorney, Claude Mercer, recovered $8000 for personal injury in an accident on the Big Four Railroad at Sanford, Ind., on April 22, 1910. In this same accident Harmon Driskell, of this county, was killed and recovered $1150. Mr. Springgate's injuries are very severe, but it is hoped an operation on the head will relieve brain pressure and that eventually Mr. Springgate will be about well again.

Meet her at the Fair!

House Party At Carter's.

Miss Margaret Carter has been hostess to a week end house party at her home on the pike. Her guests were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carter during their stay. They were: Misses Willa Hill and Nell Livers, of Paris, Texas; Miss Mary Nevitt, of Basin Springs; Miss Myrtle Lyddan, of Webster; Miss Rhena Roberts, of Irvington; Mr. Wm B. Schmitt, of Louisville, and Mr. Conley Carter, of Huntington.

Do the right thing if you have Nasal Catarrh. Get Ely's Cream Balm at once. Don't touch the catarrh powders and snuffs, for they contain cocaine. Ely's Cream Balm releases the secretions that inflame the nasal passages and the throat, whereas medicines made with mercury merely dry up the secretions and leave you no better than you were. In a word, Ely's Cream Balm is a real remedy, not a delusion. All druggists, 50 cents, or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York.

Everybody Should

Dear Mr. Babbage: Enclosed find 25 cents for the News. I cannot do without it. Every home should have the News as one can hear from so many through it. I would be lost without it. I think everyone should take the News for I know they would enjoy it. Yours Truly, Mrs. Myrtle white, Cloverport.

Given Away. In addition to nice building lot and $5 in gold, there will be given away to the ladies some nice presents. Be sure to be on hand, Aug. 27th, Saturday at 2 p. m.

AN EASY WAY TO MAKE FIVE DOLLARS

Send in a Name For The New Addition That Will be Annexed To Cloverport Saturday

CAN'T YOU THINK HARD?

The Ohio Valley Improvement Company will give $5. Saturday to any lady, old or young, pretty or ugly, married or single, who suggests the most appropriate name for the new addition on the hill. For further particulars read the ads in this issue of the News about the big lot sale.

Leonard Walton and Robert Paull are here with Mr. Robert L. Paull in the interest of the said Saturday. This will be another great day in the life of Cloverport and the citizens are delighted over having the "old fair grounds turned into beauty spots for happy homes in this city. Suggestions for naming the new addition have been received as follows as we go to press:

"Do you like "Fair View" for a name for your pretty New lots?"—Mrs. R. N. Hudson, Versailles.

"You will find enclosed a name I have selected for the new addition. "Hilldale" is my choice.—Mrs. J. H. Willis."

Please call the new addition "The Towers."—A. Louise Babbage.

"I suggest the name Johnson or Highland for the new addition to Cloverport."—Mrs. Wm. McGovern, Free, Ky.

"I feel a double interest in the name to be given to the new addition to Cloverport. First the interest I feel in the town, second, it adjoins my home. I hereby suggest Clover Heights Laura Satterfield."

Name the new addition Crestwood—Addie G. Ditto, Louisville, Ky.

"Please call the new lots Paul Addition in honor of Mr. Robert S. Paull, who has opened the place."—Mrs. J. D. Babbage.

Floral Hall Siftings

Remember, all articles for Floral Hall must be in not later than Saturday noon the 27.

No danger of loss or damage to articles in Floral Hall this year.

You will feel mighty proud of that blue ribbon centerpiece scarf or some other article of fancy work. Send them in.

Your cakes, pickles, jellies etc will be as well preserved when the Fair is over as when entered.

In addition to the regular premiums The Bank of Hardinsburg will give $5. in gold to the lady receiving the greatest number premiums in Floral Hall. Pretty nice, isn't it?

Articles for Floral Hall are coming in rapidly. Deliver or mail them to P. M. Beard, Hardinsburg, Ky.

We lack a few quilts and counterpanes to fill in the space. Can't you help us out.

Floral Hall belongs strictly to the ladies and it will be no better than you make it. If our men folks could contribute it would be a hummer.

It would be a shame for The Bank of Hardinsburg Floral Hall premium to go to one of our sister counties. Better look out Breckenridge!

If the best is not too good for you Lewisport BEST flour is the flour you ought to use.

GREATEST EVENT OF THE GOOD OLD SUMMER TIME.

Begins Next Tuesday When the Breckenridge County Fair Association Meets at Hardinsburg--Everybody Planning to Go.

CLEAN SHOWS--NO GAMBLING.

One can hardly realize that next Tuesday is that eventful day—the opening of the Breckenridge County Fair—for which thousands of people have been waiting three hundred and sixty-five days. And it will be worth the waiting and the working for prospects for a great fair have never been so flattering as they are now.

Secretary Highly Pleased

In speaking to Secretary, M. B. Kincheloe, about the Fair he said: "We have the assurance of the best live stock exhibit ever made at a county Fair in the State. Everybody I have heard from or seen is coming. We have two or three stables of horses on the grounds now and by this time next week the place will be crowded. Our grounds are all ready and we are only waiting for the time to arrive. Everybody in this section is very enthusiastic."

President Assured of Success

President C. V. Robertson, who attended the Bluegrass Fair at Lexington and the Grayson County Fair at Leitchfield says he expects the Breckenridge Fair to excel both in every way. Mr. Robertson says that efforts have been exerted to the limit to make this year's Fair the best agricultural show and the best farmers all over the county are manifesting great interest to make a fine display of products.

A Real Home Coming

The best part of the Breckenridge Fair is that it is a real home coming.

family and neighborhood reunion, a meeting place for the young and old. People who get to see each other but once a year, meet there and exchange pleasant and profitable ideas. Mr. C. H. Drury, vice president of the Association, expects to see more of his good friends this year than he has ever met there before.

All Have Good News

Messrs J. M. Howard, W. R. Moorman, Jr., John O'Rielly, P. M. Beard, J. F. Mullen, Mike Miller and H. M. Beard, the Directors, all have been fully convinced that this will be the biggest show in the history of the Association. Each one has received sufficient information in regard to every department of the Fair that assures them that next week will be the red letter week for old Breckenridge.

Meet us at The Fair

Thursday at the Mason's barbecue one could hear "Meet us at the Fair" every time he turned around. One who must have said that a hundred times was Mr. John D. Babbage, editor of the News. He will have his usual stand at the grand stand and the "dear old News" will be opened to everybody. If anyone has any notes of interest about his display of products, cattle, etc at the Fair, bring them to the News booth. The editors of the News are always glad to learn everything pertaining to people and their interests. Visit the News booth at the Fair!

Was it The Regulars?

Jolly took a good game from the Hardinsburgers Saturday, the score being 5 to 4. Lain did some fine twirling for Hardinsburg and Bowman was right there with the goods on third. Curtis Pate played a good game for Jolly. He is as good a left fielder as ever walked out over third and has a splendid wing.

Baldwin-Davis

News has been received here of the marriage of Miss Blanche Baldwin to Mr. Bernie Davis. The wedding took place in Evansville August the seventeenth. The bride formerly lived here and was a charming member of the younger set.

Bruner's Plan Adopted.

At a meeting of the directors of The Farmers Bank of Hardinsburg August 15th, Dr. Ben L. Bruner's plan of bank examination was unanimously adopted the following members being present: Dr. Wm. L. Milner, A. C. Glasscock, J. W. Guthrie, Allen R. Kincheloe, Houston Alexander and J. W. Teaff.

Lot Given Away at Cloverport Lot Sale, Saturday, Aug. 27th. You do not have to buy and you don't have to even bid, all we ask is that you be out on the grounds.

NOTICE

We the undersigned Commissioners will meet at Cloverport, Ky. on Saturday, Sept. 3rd 1910, for the purpose of receiving plans and bids for the erection of wood or iron bridges across Town creek and Gohagan creek on the Cloverport and Stephensport road. Bids will also be received for repairing the West abutment of the Cloverport bridge.

We reserve the right to reject any or all bids.

Commissioners: Mike Miller, H. A. Oelze, Julius Duttschke

Entertain For Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Smart entertained at their beautiful country home Saturday night in honor of Miss Ida Waggoner, of Stephensport, Miss Melissa Pumphrey, of McGavock and Miss Amelia Compton, of Henderson. A guessing contest was a delightful feature of the entertainment and the prizes were won by Miss Ollie Waggoner and Mr. Simons Smart. During the evening the young men found their partners by numbers corresponding to numbers held by the girls and took them to the dining room where handsome refreshments were served. The guests present were: Misses Ida, Ollie, Dora and Ada Waggoner, Melissa Pumphrey, Amelia Compton, Francis and Jennie Smart, Messrs Allen Jennings, Simons and Scott Smart, James Allen and Heman Waggoner.

Building Lots in Cloverport are Scarce

No Vacant houses for rent. This speaks well for a town. Vacant lots and lands bought now in Cloverport will double in value. What can you invest a few dollars in that will be so safe and so sure as a few town lots. Come out Saturday to the big lot sale at 2 p. m.; will give away nice lot, $5.00 in gold and other nice presents. Don't fail to be on hand, you will be the looser if you are not there. See big ad on last page
