UNCLE SAM GIVES ANOTHER APPOINTMENT

E. Murray Blanford--Goes To Texas As Special Agent Of The United States Department Of Justice--Preparation For Law Equips Him For The Place.

NATIVE OF BRECKENRIDGE

Each year there is always someone making more of his opportunities than ever before, and it is the very young man, efficient and energetic, who is carrying off the honors nowadays. Information comes from Washington of the appointment of E. Murray Blanford as Special Agent of the United States Department of Justice and for the present he will be located in San Antonio, Texas, spending some of his time at El Paso. Five years ago Mr. Blanford went

E. MURRAY BLANFORD

Washington, D. C., to accept a position in the United States Department of Agriculture. He recently resigned, to accept his new appointment. In the fall of 1908, Mr. Blanford entered the law school at Georgetown University and graduated from the institution in 11, receiving the degree of L. L. B. He passed the bar examination and was admitted to practice in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, and the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia. Mr. Blanford has always had great faith in education and took every advantage to broaden it. Before he went east, he was graduated from the Southern Normal School of Bowling Green, now the Eastern Kentucky State Normal School, receiving the degrees of B. S. and A. B. One might say that the son of Charles Blanford has gotten a place where he is recognized by those who dish out appointments worth anything.

Mr. and Mrs. Blanford and their baby son are in Texas now. Mrs. Blanford was Miss Lillian Burch, of Washington, D. C., and she is a delightful young woman.

Plans On Foot For A Big Grocery Store Here.

Subscriptions are being taken to organize a large grocery company in this city. The organization has not been perfected, but a meeting will be held Friday night to complete plans for it. It is being promoted by employees of the L. H. & St. L. R. R. Company and will be known as an economy club.

Telephone Man Hurt

Carl Koerner, a member of the Cumberland Telephone crew, got his right leg broken Wednesday. Mr. Koerner is a Mt. Vernon, Ind., man and is well liked here. He is at the Cloverport, Hotel and is getting along fine. Every attention is given him and his friends hope he will not get lonesome during his recovery.

Distinguished Kentuckian To Be In Cloverport

Col. E. Polk Johnson and Mrs. Johnson, of Louisville, will arrive here this evening to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Randall. Col. Johnson is the author of a history of Kentucky just recently published. He has been a member of the Kentucky Press Association over forty years.

Mrs. N. J. Morrison Dies.

Mrs. N. J. Morrison died at 11 o'clock Monday night at her home on South Breckenridge street, after a long illness. Her infirmities incident to advanced age caused her death.

The deceased is survived by four children, who are Mrs. J. W. Day, Mrs. G. N. Milligan, James Morrison, of Owensboro, and Mrs. C. B. Cauley, of Hancock county. No arrangements have been made in regard to the funeral.—Owensboro Messenger.

Annual Hunting Trip.

J. B. Randall, master mechanic of the L. H. & St. L. R'y, went for his annual outing last Wednesday on the private car 99. He was accompanied by Mrs. J. B. Randall, Mrs. Emma H. Skillman, Miss Katherine Moorman, Messrs. R. W. Hensley, E. W. Weber, Dwight Randall, James T. Skillman, and porter, Joe Bradford. No. 99 was side-tracked at Reeds, three miles from Green river, which is a great hunting field. The men hunted and kept the table bountifully supplied with all kinds of game. Mr. Randall's friends at Reeds showed their appreciation of his coming by sending in dressed hens, ducks, milk, butter, eggs, celery, lettuce, etc. While the men hunted, the ladies drove, walked and returned the calls of Mr. Randall's many friends. Messrs. Randall, Joe Ross and Miss Donna Ross went down to Reeds Saturday morning to spend the day with the party. The party returned to Cloverport Saturday evening rejoicing over their delightful trip, praising Mr. and Mrs. Randall's hospitality and regretting that the fine trip was over.

Little Miss Hutton.

Perhaps she will be a journalist, little Miss Mary Elizabeth Hutton, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mac Hutton of Harrodsburg. Her father is a well-known member of the Kentucky Press. She surely must be as lovely as the dainty cards announcing her arrival of November the sixth.

ASSIGNEE WANTS NOTES RETURNED

Bank Of Hardinsburg Files Suit Against J. N. Alsop--Alleged That Notes Were Wrongfully Delivered.

NEWS NOTES OF THE COURT

The Bank of Hardinsburg, assignee of the Two States Bank, has filed suit in the circuit court of this county against J. N. Alsop for the collection of a number of notes, which are said to be in the possession of the defendant and which the plaintiff claims were illegally and wrongfully delivered to him.

The notes are about ten in number and total $1,650, the largest of them being a note made by Miss Dood Adair for $715. The plaintiff charges that the notes were wrongfully delivered to Alsop and ask the court to order that they be returned to the bank, the defendant having declined to deliver them to the assignee of the defunct bank. The suit is filed by Claude Mercer, of Hardinsburg.—Owensboro Messenger.
