MUSIC OF BEAZLEY SUNG IN CLOVERPORT

Sacred Cantata Rendered With Unusual Merit at the Methodist Church Sunday Evening

350 ESTIMATED ATTENDANCE

The sacred oratorio—cantata, "Jehovah," given Sunday evening in the Methodist church—was music of delightful character and rendered with unusual merit. The libretto is by Laurence Highfield and music by Samuel W. Beazley. There was such a large audience that those present wondered who stayed at home. The Rev. W. C. Frank opened the program with the invocation and the Rev. E. O. Cottrell closed it with a prayer. Rev. Cottrell prayed with gratitude for the music of nature, but most of all for the gift of song. An offering of $11.00 was taken up, which will go to cover the expenses.

There was nothing but enthusiastic praise for the music, which gladdened the hearts of all.

Mr. Ira D. Behen was director, the pianist was Miss Lula Severs.

Those who sang were: Mrs. W. C. Frank, Misses Edith Plank, Margaret Burn, Ray Lewis Heyser, Mildred Babbage, Cleona Weatherholt, Mrs. J. Proctor Keith, Misses Susie and Rosa Newton, Mrs. G. R. McCoy, J. Proctor Keith, Emmett Edmonson, John A. Burn, W. A. Roff, William Mitchell, Vivian Vierce, Lafe Behen, G. R. McCoy, Marion Denton and Ira D. Behen.

Frank Plank, Leonard Gregory, Andrew Ashby, Mike Tucker and Marion Denton.

SPOILED BY PROSPERITY

Home Broken Up When the Money
Began to Come.

New York, Nov. 30.—Another case similar to that of W. E. Corey and his wife was revealed in the testimony of Mrs. Margaret Robinson in her suit for separation against her husband, Ernest Robinson, superintendent of the U. S. Metal Products company, before Judge Newburger.

"Because," she testified, "my husband claimed I was uneducated, thick, and did not know how to converse, he turned to more polished women acquaintances when he became prosperous. He told me I had no taste, and when he permitted me to buy a gown he picked out some other woman to accompany me."

Mrs. Robinson was awarded $25 a week alimony and $200 counsel fee, pending a suit for separation on the ground of abandonment.

ARGUMENT OVER THE WAR

Knives Were Drawn and One Man
Was Killed at Michigan City.

Michigan City, Ind., Nov. 30.—Paul Dresker, thirty years old, was stabbed to death in a street fight and Harry Swerzleck, eighteen years old, is under arrest as the slayer. Five other foreigners are held as witnesses. The fight was the outcome of a quarrel after the crowd had left a saloon. It is said that an argument over the European war started the row.

Twenty-Five Houses Destroyed.

Tionesta, Pa., Nov. 30.—Fire supposedly started by a spark from a passing train wiped out the business section of Marienville, this county, entailing a loss of $150,000 and rendering 100 persons homeless. Twenty-five buildings were destroyed.

TO THE PUBLIC

Having been a student at the American College, Louvain, Belgium, I am in receipt of an urgent appeal from the Relief Committee of that stricken city, to come to the aid of its starving inhabitants.

In case you desire to make a donation for a certain district in that unhappy country, in preference to giving to the General Relief Fund, this will be a good opportunity for you to carry out your wish.

Please to leave your offerings, great or small, with Mr. Paul Lewis, cashier of the Bank of Cloverport, who will forward them promptly to the Presidents of the Relief Society, Monsieur A. Nerinex, provisional Mayor of Louvain, and Mgr. J. De Becker, Professor at University of Louvain.

Kitty Of Coleraine

As beautiful Kitty one morning was tripping
With a pitcher of milk from the fair
of Coleraine,
When she saw meshe stumble; pitcher
it tumbled,
And all the sweet buttermilk watered
the plain.

O what shall I do now, 'twas looking at you now.

Sure, sure, such a pitcher I'll ne'er
meet again;

'Twas the pride of my dairy, O, Barney
McLeary,

You're sent as a plegue to the girls
of Coleraine.

I sat down beside her and gently did chide her,

That such a misfortune should give
her such pain;

A kiss then I gave her — before I did
leave her,

She vow'd for such pleasure she'd break it again.

'Twas haymaking season I can't tell
the reason,

Misfortunes will never come single—
thats plain,

For very soon after poor Kitty's disaster
The devil a pitcher was whole in Cole-raine— Edward Lysaght.

AN EXPLANATION.

The reason that the trained nurse was not placed in Breckenridge county this fall is, as we have been informed by Mr. French, Secretary of Tuberculosis Commission of Kentucky, that the nurse, who was to have been sent to this county, had to go to the hospital for an operation, and in another field he thought one nurse would be enough, but the work demands two, therefore, there was not any nurse to send to Breckenridge county. But he says he will have one for this county next spring, and the spring will be as good a time to start the work as this fall.

All the money, which amounts to $126.56 is on deposit at the Cloverport Bank.

J. B. HERNDON,
President, Health League of Breckenridge county.

W. C. FRANK,
Secretary and Treasurer, Health League of Breckenridge county.

Gold Fish Go Quickly.

The seventy-two bowls of gold fish put on sale to introduce the Penlar liver pills at Wedding's drug store went quicker than any sale ever advertised. Seventy bowls, two fish in a bowl, were sold Friday.
