OLD AGE STARTS WITH YOUR KIDNEYS

Science says that old age begins with weakened kidneys and digestive organs. This being true, it is easy to believe that by keeping the kidneys and digestive organs cleaned and in proper working order old age can be deferred and life prolonged far beyond that enjoyed by the average person.

swallow of water. The oil stimulates the kidney action and enables the organs to throw off the poisons which cause premature old age. New life and strength increase as you continue the treatment. When completely restored continue taking a capsule or two each day. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules will keep you in health and vigor and prevent a return of the disease. Do not wait until old age or disease have settled down for good. Go to your druggist and get a box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. Money refunded if they do not help you. Three sizes. But remember to ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand. In sealed packages.

U. S. SOLDIERS IN BERLIN

But One is Arrested, Others Sought by Police for Absence Without Leave.

Berlin, Jan. 8.—The ambition of five American soldiers to be the first of the American expeditionary forces to reach Berlin is likely to have serious results for them. The men, who arrived here Sunday, were attached to the 125th infantry regiment now at Coblenz. They were absent without leave and unexpectedly ran into members of the American military commission now here in connection with the repatriation of prisoners. One of the men has been captured and is being detained, while the Berlin police are seeking the four others.

POLAND IN SERIOUS PLIGHT

Allies Asked to Send Troops, but No Reply Has Been Received—Invaded by Bolshevik Troops.

London, England, Jan. 8.—Poland is in despair, owing to the invasion of bolshevik troops and the apparent indifference of the western powers to the plight of the country, according to a Warsaw dispatch to the Mail. "Telegrams are sent begging intervention by the allies," the dispatch states, "but no reply comes. The Poles admit the immensity of the numerous problems absorbing the allies, but complain that they do not receive the least sign of attention or a word of guidance."

Fire Destroys Hall.

Hanover, Ind.—Science Hall of Hanover College here was destroyed by fire. The loss of the building and contents is estimated at about $60,000. Dr. W. A. Mills, president of the college, said the cause of the fire was undetermined. The blaze started in the chemical laboratory. Students are at home for the Christmas vacation.

FEWER HOGS DIE OF DISEASE

Annual Death Rate for Year Ending March, 1918, Reaches Lowest Mark in 35 Years.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

The death rate of swine from all diseases for the year ending March, 1918, was 42.1 per 1,000, and is the lowest in 35 years, according to records kept during that period. This unprecedentedly low rate of mortality presents a great contrast with those of earlier periods, particularly with the losses of 133.8 per 1,000 in 1887, 144 per 1,000 in 1897, and 118.9 per 1,000 in 1914, years marked by severe outbreaks of hog cholera. This is even a remarkable reduction from the normal low rate of losses which has remained slightly above 50 per 1,000 when the disease was least prevalent.

The approximate number of hogs on hand January 1, 1918, was 71,374,000. The loss of 42.1 per 1,000 for the year ending March, 1918, therefore represented approximately 3,000,000 of these animals, equivalent to the consumption of pork and pork products by the entire population of the United States for 1917 for 25 days.

These recent losses should be compared with that of 7,000,000 hogs in 1914, which curtailed production to the extent of the national consumption for that year for 37 days.

The marked reduction in the losses of swine in 1918 over preceding periods, in view of the fact that 90 per cent of these losses are due to hog cholera, indicates clearly the benefit from the combined efforts of state and federal agencies in protecting the farmers against the ravages of this exceedingly fatal disease.

GIVE YOUNG PIGS ATTENTION

Care Given at Farrowing Time Has Important Bearing on Food Supply of Nation.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

The farrowing house or pen should be comfortably warm, well ventilated, and well lighted. Above all else, it should be well bedded. Do not allow any circulation of air under the floor. Too many hog growers make the mistake of bedding too lightly. Heavy bedding naturally makes the sow comfortable and warm—conditions necessary if she is to be quiet. Use wheat or rye straw. Wild hay is good, as is millet. Do not use oat straw unless there is absolutely nothing else at hand.

Do not confine the sow in her farrowing pen more than 48 hours before farrowing time if it is possible to avoid doing so. Reduce the heavy feed to some extent, probably about half, for that length of time.

Under no circumstances should the sow have any feed whatever for 24 hours after farrowing. She must, however, have plenty of water at frequent intervals. This water must not be icy cold—that drawn directly from the well is about the right temperature. Commence after 24 hours feeding lightly, increasing the feed gradually for probably a week or ten days, when she may be gotten onto full feed, conditioned on the size of the litter and the milking qualities of the sow.

A good herdsman, for the first week at least after farrowing, will look the pigs over carefully before each feeding. If any indications of scours appear, the sow's feed should be reduced immediately or possibly cut out entirely.

Farrowing Pen With Fenders Will Save Many Little Porks From Being Crushed.

If a heavy feed of rich slop given when scours begin to show up possibly may kill the entire litter. A little extra care for these few days is absolutely necessary.

When the pigs are from four or five to ten days old, be on the lookout for thumps. The best-looking fat little pig is the one to go first every time. An almost certain indication is a little roll of fat around the neck. While there is no known cure for thumps, the trouble is quite easily prevented. Plenty of exercise for the pigs is the answer. In cold, stormy weather out-of-door exercise is impossible, but if a central farrowing house with an alleyway, is used, get the little fat fellows into the alley and put in about ten or fifteen minutes three or four times a day chasing them with a buggy whip, until they are pretty well tired out. If this is impossible, try one or two of the little pigs at a time in a large barrel or hoghead, placed by the farrowing pen. The pigs will bear the old saw making a fuss and in running around the barrel hunting for a corner to climb out, generally will take the exercise necessary to ward off thumps. A considerable part of the battle is won if the litter gets past the first ten days or so with a good start.

Best of Dairy Feed. White clover is highly esteemed and makes the best of dairy feed.

If you want to know how the Sammies kitched the Kaiser see Paul Lewis.

Tearable Terry Couch is at home visiting his parents in Cloverport after nine months experience in the Navy. For large stories about sea serpents, whales, sharks, etc., call on Terry.

Walter Wisenberg and Joe Burke have been discharged from the army. They report the fighting around Hoboken, N. J., something fierce. The Jersey mosquitoes, was so bad they had to turn the hose and heavy artillery on them.

James McGovern writes something like this—I didn't get the Kaiser but I helped the boys get the Kaisers goat.

Turkey Moorman son of Hiram Moorman says I didn't get a shot at a Hun but I killed about 90 tons of Uncle Sam's grub.

Judge Henry Lee Haven Moorman wires us that he had killed several thousand coots but no huns.

We have some sal news by wireless from Mooleyville, Hurman O'Bryan is very low with the matrimony fever, Raphael Lewis and Lewis O'Bryan have lost their hearts somewhere between Cloverport and Hawesville. Don't think its worrying them very much as they have offered no reward as yet for their return.

Clestine O'Connell known to the boys as Slim has lots of business at Hardinsburg these days. Wonder if that boy is in business up there or is it just a common love affair.

Joseph Wisenberg of Elexis, Ill., and Paul Lewis of Cloverport was initiated into the bachelors New Year's Day. These two bachelors are handsome and wealthy and would make fine catches, so share girls.

Good night,
Joe Mulhastoon, Jr.

REFUSE PHONE RATE RAISE

State Railroad and Warehouse Commission of Minnesota Deny Application for Increase.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 8.—The state railroad and warehouse commission made public a decision denying the application of the Tristate Telephone and Telegraph company and Northwestern Telephone Exchange company for an increase in rates in the state. The companies asked an increase in rates that they might increase wages. The commission holds an increase in wages can be made without increasing rates.

Schooner Is Stranded.

Lewes, Del., Jan. 8.—The three-masted schooner Geneva, Kathleen, Norfolk for Boston, is stranded on a bar ten miles south-southwest of life-guard station No. 186, Virginia. The vessel is in no immediate danger and the crew is still aboard.
