

Red Cross Workers Given A Delightful Surprise More Workers Needed.

The Red Cross Society workers of Cloverport, who assisted in the sewing at the R. C. Work-room on Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 29, were delightfully surprised toward the close of the day, with delicious refreshments served by Mrs. S. P. Conrad and Mrs. Frank Payne. The workers had no idea that the treat was in store for them so the meeting proved a very social one.

The Cloverport Red Cross Chapter has on hand a large amount of material to be made into garments, and an urgent plea is being made for more women to come to the work-room on Tuesday afternoons to help get up all of the sewing.

PARALYSIS FATAL TO A PROMINENT COUNTY DOCTOR

Dr. Hart Dies Short Time
After Stricken. Lived At McDaniels Came From Hardin.

The death of Dr. J. H. Hart of McDaniels removes from the county one of its oldest and leading physicians. Altho Dr. Hart has not been actively engaged in profession for the past few years only locally, yet his counsel was sought, and was considered a very fine physician.

Dr. Hart came to Breckinridge county from Hardin county quite a number of years ago. He was sixty-seven years old at the time of his death which was caused from a stroke of paralysis that struck him last Tuesday and he died on Friday. The funeral and burial took place Sunday at McDaniels. The Masons had charge of the last services.

Dr. Hart was twice married, his first wife was Miss Mary Hicks. Several years after her death he married Miss Pearl Mays of Webster, who taught in the Cloverport Public School at one time. Cannon of Hardinsburg, the latter has been ill and was unable to attend her father's funeral.

New Seats At The Movies Prove A Great Joy To The Movie Devotees.

New seats at last! And perfectly comfortable seats at that, for the movie devotees of Cloverport. Since last Autumn, Mr. Oscar Holder, manager of the Bushman Theatre, has been promising his patrons that they would have some comfortable new seats—the next movie night. But the "next night" was a long time coming never-the-less it did arrive, and last Thursday evening proved the eventful night. And now, these new seats which flop up when you get up, and also work on a pivot turning around so that an easy exit can be made in case of fire, are proving a great joy to those who love the movies.

The Bushman has been having some of the movies most famous stars, and showing them in their latest productions. Charlie Chaplin, who is a favorite with the men is booked for the Bushman very soon, and there will possibly not be standing room for the women on that evening.

The basket dinners that are given away every Saturday night as a prize for the one holding the lucky number are a great source of a lot of entertainment for the patrons, as well as helping out on the Sunday dinner.

Dr. Hart owned a large farm at McDaniels, and made quite a success of farming.

Has The Happiest Recollections Of Mr. Bowmer.

Dear John: I am sending you my check for your paper, The Breckinridge News, for another year. I want it, else I would let it drop. It brings me the news that I love to read. I was at school in your city in the Fall and Winter of 1878-79, and since that time I have read and subscribed to your paper. Those of us who are from home realize many things that home people do not.

I note the death of Mr. Bowmer. He was kind to me a boy at school later as a grown up he was equally so, and in the later years I had the pleasure of spending a part of the winter with him at St. Petersburg, his winter home. I sympathize with his wife who was all she could be to him. I am not able to say what I would most be pleased to say about him, and them. Their home was always open to me—I enjoyed their hospitality and it was their nature to offer it to "strangers in a foreign land." I shall never forget the kindness of their household to me.

With best wishes for your continued prosperity, I am, Very truly, R. C. Richardson.

FORMER STEPHEN- SPORT WOMAN ASPHYXIATED

Mrs. Jacob Loeser, Sister Of
Mrs. A. M. Miller Of This Place Meets Tragic End.

Leaking gas from a small heater resulted in the asphyxiation yesterday of Jacob H. Loeser, a salesman for James Thompson & Bro., a Louisville whisky firm, and his wife, Mrs. Catherine Loeser, in their apartment in St. Petersburg, Fla., where they were visiting. The Loesers live at 4811 Southern Parkway, Louisville.

News of their death was received in Louisville through an Associated Press dispatch and in telegraphic inquiry to the Elks' Lodge here of which Mr. Loeser was a member. In the newspaper dispatch the name was given as "Lasser."

Mr. Loeser had been a salesman for the Thompson firm for fifteen years and was well known in Louisville. He formerly conducted a shoe factory here. Mrs. Loeser, who was Miss Catherine Perigo, was from Stephensonport, Ky.

Two brothers of Mr. Loeser are in business in Louisville, Isaac Loeser, 736 South Preston street, being a traveling salesman for Shuttleworth & Co., and Joseph Loeser, 764 South Preston street, being a salesman for Loevenhart & Co.

Officers of the Thompson firm agreed with the verdict of Coroner Carter in St. Petersburg that the death of Mr. and Mrs. Loeser was accidental. Mr. Loeser was quite a dog fancier and owned for some years "Kentucky Girl," champion Irish setter of the United States.

Mr. Loeser, when he left Louisville, had in his possession $6,000 worth of Liberty bonds. These were not found when a search was made following discovery of the bodies. It was pointed out that the bonds may have been disposed of by Mr. Loeser.

It is expected that the bodies of both Mr. and Mrs. Loeser will be brought back to Louisville for burial. Definite funeral arrangements will be announced to-morrow—Courier-Journal.

Mrs. Loeser was a sister of Mrs. A. M. Miller of Cloverport. She made a visit here last fall and was entertained in quite a few homes. Mrs. Miller with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Perry, went to Louisville, Sunday to be there when the remains of Mr. and Mrs. Loeser arrived from Florida.
