DECORATE GRAVES K. OF P. MEMBERS

Annual Memorial Service of K. of P. Lodge Held Sunday. Two War Heros' Graves Decorated.

Members of the Cloverport Lodge of Knights of Pythias held their annual memorial service Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Cloverport cemetery.

The Hon. W. C. G. Hobbs, president of the Kentucky Knights of Pythias Home at Lexington, made the address in which he paid tribute to the deceased members of the lodge and to the lives of two World War veterans who are buried in the Cloverport cemetery.

At the conclusion of Mr. Hobbs' address, the Knights marched in a body through the cemetery and distributed flowers on the graves of their fraternal brothers. The members of the local Red Cross placed two floral wreaths on the graves of James Lynch who died in Russia and the son of John Lynch, of Patesville, Ky., and William L. Ahl, son of Mr. Sam Ahl of this city, who died in Camp.

Rev. E. C. Nall offered the opening prayer at the services and Rev. J. R. Randolph said the benediction. The song service was directed by Misses Eva and Eliza May.

Mr. John Burn introduced Mr. Hobbs, who in his address, dwelt upon the spirit of the teachings of the lodge. He stated that men did not become members of the Knights of Pythias in order to have flowers scattered on their graves, or for the sick benefit or burial expenses which the lodge provides, but that they might through the workings of the lodge, better serve their fellowmen and follow in the teachings of the Golden Rule. In paying tribute to the World War veterans, Mr. Hobbs related that he had a son buried in Flanders Field. He commended the work of the Red Cross. Mr. Hobbs spoke very briefly as the services were limited to an hour's time.

Plans For Forming "Kentucky Dark Tobacco Association" Formed in Owensboro

Tobacco growers in this section of the State have formed an organization known as the "Kentucky Dark Tobacco Association" and similar to the Burley Growers organization in the Blue grass section and the Kentucky-Virginia Tobacco Growers Association, with which the Kentucky Dark Tobacco Association will be affiliated.

The plans for the dark tobacco growers' organization were perfected in Owensboro on Wednesday at the meeting of representatives from the Green River, One-Sucker and Stemming Districts, following the conference of tobacco growers with Judge Robert Bingham, of Louisville, who spoke in Owensboro, Tuesday on the cooperative marketing plan.

The organization embraces twenty-one counties, and will be incorporated under the laws of North Carolina with headquarters at Henderson, Ky. Sometime later on another meeting will be held in Owensboro, when delegates from each of the twenty-one counties will attend and hear the plans of the Association. If the plans are approved the drive for pledges will be made and as soon as seventy-five per cent of the growers are pledged, the Association then becomes an active organization.

LOESER ESTATE TO BE SETTLED

Sisters of Mrs. Loeser to Share One-tenth of Estate. Three Heirs Will Get Less Than Thirty Dollars.

Forty heirs will share in the proceeds of the sale of two tracts of land in Beechmont, approval of which was given by Judge Samuel B. Kirby, Saturday to settle the estates of Jacob H. Loeser and Kathryn M. Loeser, his wife, both of whom met death by asphyxiation in St. Petersburg, Fla., in February, 1919. The interests of the heirs range from one-tenth to one five hundred and twenty-eighth. Three who will share to the latter extent will receive less than $50 each after cost of administration has been paid, according to Ben H. Sachs, attorney for the estate.

Following the death of Mr. and Mrs. Loeser it was the belief of the family and friends they had been murdered. Color was lent to the belief because many valuable articles of jewelry were missing, part of which was found where it had been pawned by a resident of St. Petersburg, an officer. No positive proof could be produced to connect anyone with the crime, however, and no arrests were made. The estate failed to collect $6,300 insurance from the Order of United Commercial Travelers, due to lack of proof to show a crime had been committed for the purpose of robbery.—Louisville Times.

Mrs. A. M. Miller, of Cloverport, Mrs. Olivia Lay, of Indianapolis, Mrs. Jarrett, of Salt Lake City, and Mrs. Paulin, of Stephensport, sisters of Mrs. Loeser will share in one-tenth of the estate.
