

ANDERSON'S BAZAAR STILL LEADS!

This Grand Store has, by industry and honesty, built up a trade to be envied by all. The BAZAAR System is to have no "jewing" or "dickering" about the price on any article, but to have the price marked plainly on each article and that is the price at which said article is sold. "ONE PRICE TO ALL" is our motto. Here is where your Child can buy goods as cheap as the shrewdest, closest buyer.

The BAZAAR is now chock full of new, seasonable goods and is having a magnificent trade. We can't tell you all about our business here, but if you need any goods, we feel sure it will be to your interest to drop in at the Bazaar and post yourself on prices which are always right.

We have all the staple and fancy Dry Goods generally carried by a first-class store. Here you can buy Calicoes, Chilies, Lawns, Mulls, Toweling, Table linens, bleached and brown Cottons, Tickings, Shirtings, Sheetings, Drills, Cotton jeans, Wool jeans, Cottonades, &c., &c., and all go at correct prices. 50, 1.99, 2.25 and $3.00 Shoes before you buy. Nothing to compare with them in the county.

IN MILLINERY

The Bazaar does the business, and never before have we been so rushed in this department as we have been for the past month. We believe this is because our Miss Collins gets up a prettier and more stylish hat for less money than any other Milliner. If you want a hat that will suit you exactly, in both style and price, visit our Millinery department. Miss Sara never sells an unbecoming hat to a custom-

We have a large stock of Trunks, Valises, Hand Bags, Club Sachels, Umbrellas, Parasols &c., that are rare bargains, so if you need any of these articles, we invite you to inspect our stock, we have them at any price you may want and feel confident we can please you if you will only come in, and we also want your wool, feathers, ginseng and yellow root, for which we will pay you the highest market price, and give you more goods for them, than any other place in town. Don't fail to call on us when you are in town attending court, for we will give you a hearty welcome and feel confident we can please you.

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

FRIDAY, MAY 20, 1892.

The General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church is in session at Memphis.

If Protection is such a curse to labor, why are foreigners continually leaving the old countries and coming to make their homes in America, the greatest protective country in the world?

JUDG LITTLE has decided that the recent election held on the local option question at Hawesville was illegal and that the license issued since is void. This scores another victory for local option and a black eye for whisky.

The New York Press, of last Sunday has a supplement giving the likeness of several great horsemen, some fast horses and a number of jockeys. Among the latter may be seen the smiling face of Ohio county's great race-rider, Pikey Barnes.

HENRY WATTERSON is still busy telling the Democracy about the uselessness of nominating Cleveland for the Presidency. Right you are, Mr. Watterson, and if we mistake not, you might go further and say that it is useless to nominate anybody.

REPUBLICANS, remember that on Monday you are called to meet in the Court House here to nominate the next Sheriff and Circuit Clerk of Ohio county. It is the duty of every Republican to turn-out on that day and take part in the Convention. Come and bring your neighbor.

PRESIDENT HARRISON has accepted the invitation, conveyed to him by a committee, to attend the dedication ceremony of the Exposition building next October. It is believed certain that every member of the President's Cabinet and of the Supreme Court, and nearly every Senator, Congressman and Governor, also, will be present on that occasion. The President manifests very great interest in the Exposition and keeps himself thoroughly posted concerning it. He has repeatedly said that he stands ready at all times to do all within his power in its behalf.

FROM Holland an offer has been made to the Holland Society of New York and the St. Nicholas Society of Brooklyn to construct and present to them an exact reproduction of the Half Moon, the ship in which Henry Hudson discovered and explored the river which bears his name. The societies named have accepted the offer and are planning to fit up the ship as a club house and to take it to Chicago, both to be exhibited and to be occupied by their members during the exposition.

HELENA, Montana, will send to the Exposition a meteor, discovered near that city. It is composed of nickel and magnetic iron, and is in two pieces of ninety and seventy pounds, respectively. It is reported that when found these pieces were in a hole in the ground large enough to contain a house, from which fact it is inferred that the meteor exploded when it struck the earth.

The American farmer is asked to give his support to a policy which has destroyed the prosperity of his English neighbor. The Free-Trade policy of England has almost totally ruined agriculture in that country. Lord Salisbury in 1887 spoke as follows on this point:

"There is one subject so deeply hateful that I hardly like to touch it, precisely because I do not at present see any complete and sufficient remedy which I can offer to the evils I see before me. The state of agriculture in Great Britain is simply deplorable."

Commenting on this condition, and having particular reference to the report of the Royal Commission on the state of British agriculture, The London Financial Times describes the disease and implied the remedy as follows:

"On every page there was proof from all classes of witnesses connected with the cultivation of the land of falling rents, of the rapidly diminishing produce raised on English farms, and an enormous acreage for which no tenants could be found on any terms, and which was either taken into the landlord's hands or thrown out of cultivation altogether. Farms which a few years ago were in the highest state of cultivation are given up to weeds, and the homesteads, once the pride of the country side, are falling in almost every county into ruins. The Commission had no difficulty whatever in finding a satisfactory explanation for this disastrous condition of things. It was only the inevitable result of our system of Free Trade."

Where is the intelligent farmer who wishes to bring his employment to this "deplorable state"? Vote for Free Trade and you will do it. Vote for Protection and you continue the prosperity that is at once the envy and the wonder of the Nations.

KINDERHOOK.

May 17th.—Kinderhook is on a boom, several of the farmers are through planting corn and some are preparing for large crops of tobacco. Mrs. A. E. Barrett, Owensboro, is visiting in the Washington neighborhood.

Dr. J. Russel Pirtle was in Kinderhook one day last week, he was on his way home from Owensboro, where he had been on legal business. The Doctor looked sad, but we think it is because his girl has gone home.

Miss Ida Smith has returned to her home in Owensboro, after several weeks visit to her friends and relatives in this community.

Miss Annie Brown, Centertown, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Isaac Foster, at this writing.

Mrs. Jo. B. Rogers, Hartford, is the guest of her mother at this writing.

J. L. Barnett, Owensboro, was in Kinderhook, Saturday night.

Not long since, one beautiful Sabbath evening, there was a young man came to Kinderhook, and called at the home of a fair young lady, as he was accustomed to do. After spending a few hours chatting with the old folks, and as the girl did not make her appearance, he soon realized that the girl was not at home and thought it time to take his leave and not stay until the moon had risen as he had often done, but would return to his mother, for probably she wanted to see him worse than the young lady did. Kind sir, you should be careful how you make engagements and then you will not get left, but will find your "sweetheart" ready, and waiting for you instead of spending the day with a friend. As I am not capable of giving very much advice in regard to that, I will say, remember it is not

GRASSHOPPER.

ABBIEVILLE.

May 16.—Alex Hoover attended the burial of his brother, Cornelius Hoover, last Friday.

Aunt Lydia Turner, of near Livermore, returned last Wednesday from a very pleasant visit to her granddaughter, Mrs. Maud Peay, of Tennessee.

Levi Williams and son, Estell, went to Owensboro this week with some tobacco.

Orion Cox went to Hartford last Saturday.

Miss Josie Sandertur, No Creek, returned home Sunday after a very pleasant visit to relatives at this place. She was accompanied home by R. T. Sandertur.

Miss Lola Pile, Owensboro, is visiting friends in Hillside neighborhood. Aunt Judah Bennett and daughter, Miss Nannie, Owensboro, are visiting friends near their old home.

Jim Whitehouse went to Hartford Saturday, we hope, to make arrangements for the prosecution of the building of our new schoolhouse.

We hope the plan will not be given up. John B. Atherton has one field of corn planted, but most of the farmers are very discouraged over the continual wet weather, which has made them very much behind with their spring work.

We like the idea advocated by our worthy Superintendent, of having an exhibit of work done by the pupils of the common schools, exhibited at the Fair this fall. It is a feasible plan and one that if carried into effect will no doubt be a great encouragement to the pupils to persevere in such work.

My pupils are building maps of North America, as discovered, by each day's recreation in Barnes' History, that I think will merit a place in such display, and if the arrangement is made we will be glad to have them exhibited.

Mighty Small.

Last Saturday was the day set apart for the meeting of the "untrified" and unwashed in Mass Convention to select delegates to the State Convention, which meets in Louisville the 25th. About a handful of them gathered into the bar of the Court House—they had to get close together to keep their spirits up—and proceeded after organization to the painful operation of listening to a political harangue from the "oreless haranguer," J. Edwin Rowe.

A set of resolutions, long as a National platform, was adopted, in which as usual they "turn with pride" to the four years when the Democracy began to grow fat in the offices, and the people were cured of their desire for a change in the National Administration. A few soft words are thrown to the great Grover, but it's not said whether the delegates shall vote in harmony with the soft words or not. The principle of protection was attacked with all the virulence that could be expected from the disciples of Cobden and the Free Silver question was carefully straddled.

POTTER & CONDUCT.

McHenry vs. Hartford.

The McHenry base ball team came over Saturday afternoon and played a fine game with our boys. After a hard-fought battle they were defeated by the score of 10 to 12. They are a gentlemanly set of young men, and while they failed to be defeated they gave up like heroes. Both sides played splendidly. Campbell, for McHenry pitched a good game, and with a little more practice he will make as fine a pitcher as we have in our county. Hardwick and Hamilton did the curving for the home boys, and held their opponents down nicely. Quite a number of gentlemen and ladies saw the game and pronounced it the best game ever played in Hartford.

These two clubs will play again on the 28th, inst., at McHenry and a good game is expected. Come again boys, we are glad to have you come to see us, and we will treat you as nicely as we can.

Preston Morton Post G. A. R. Will hold memorial services on the 30th of May, 1892, at the Carson and Sandertur grave yards. All old soldiers and friends are cordially invited to attend and take part with us in strewing flowers over the graves of our dead comrades. Let each one bring his basket full of provisions and spend the day. Rev. J. P. Pell will attend and give us a talk. All that can bring flowers and will do so deliver them at the No. Creek Church early in the morning. Dinner will be on the grounds for all at the Church.

Solomon, His Temple and the Queen of Sheba.

The Enquirer, The Commercial Gazette and other leading papers, both German and English, of Cincinnati, are prolific in their praises of this new and most impressive of all spectacles, which at an expense that would seem fabulous, the enterprising management of John Robinson's Great World's Exposition produce this year in connection with their myriad other attractions. There is no sense so vivid, so lasting and so conclusive as the sense of seeing, and however studiously we may search the scriptures or other sacred history, the ideas we may form and the impressions we may receive concerning the patriarchs and sages, and the scenes, incidents and events consequent to their time, can be but fractionary and imperfect. To have reproduced those personages and events and placed with scenic-graphic effect, before your eyes Solomon, re-utter his wise and prophetic words; to see in person Sheba's illustrious Queen, and hear the pomp and circumstance of her surroundings; to view the great temple of Solomon, not by description, but by actual inspection; to witness personally the sumptuous and resplendent festivals of the great Solomon's courts—these are the inestimable privileges which the John Robinson Great World's Exposition accords its patrons in connection with the great circus, and managerie, and the royal Roman Hippodrome. The spectacle of Solomon, his Temple, and the Queen of Sheba will be displayed at Beaver Dam, May 25th.

Tracy will also handle the best Hay Rake made.

The Finely Bred Trotting Stallion

ODD STOCKING

Will make the season of 1892 at the Fair Grounds, at Hartford, Ky., at $15 to insure, money due when the mare is proven to be in foal or parted with. Season commenced February 20, 1892. A lien will be held on all colts until money is paid.

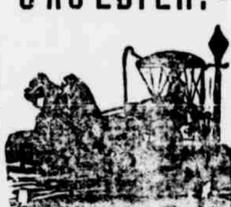

Old Stocking has the blood of the Wilkes family. He has two crosses of Hamiltonian 10 and two crosses of Gill's Vermont, and first dam Almet, which makes him a purely bred trotter. He is a natural trotter.

We ask the public to consider his fashionable blood lines, his great individuality, his high style, great speed for his limited amount of training, his endurance, and if worthy in your estimation, we solicit your patronage.
