FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE.

GEN. D. L. ADAIR.

Gen. D. L. Adair, the Republican nominee for Circuit Judge, is a resident of Hancock county, where for the past forty years he has practiced law, farmed and run a newspaper. While he has never been a politician in the common acceptance of the term, he has always taken a deep interest in elections, and has always been found fighting on the side of the people against the bosses. He has held the office of County Attorney of his county, and has on several occasions been selected by the Hawesville bar, which is opposed to him, repeatedly, to serve as special Circuit Judge in the absence of Judge Little. He is considered authority on all points of law, and is perhaps the best qualified man in the District. In 1880 he was the editor and proprietor of the Hawesville Ballot, the only Weaver and Chambers organ in Western Ky., and it was through his paper's influence that Hancock county, which had always been strongly Democratic, was carried by the Greenbackers. Gen. Adair was also a member of the Greenback State Central Committee. At the dissolution of the Greenback Party, he became a Republican on account of its Protection ideas, and has since affiliated with that party, except on two occasions. Two years ago he supported Bourland, the People's Party nominee for Congress, against W. T. Ellis, the Democratic candidate, and last year, John Cullen, the People's Party candidate for the Legislature, against Tom Taylor, a Democrat. He stands well with the Republicans, as evinced by that Party giving him the nomination unopposed. Gen. Adair is not making an active canvass, but will see or reach all the voters by circular, before the election. Information from Hancock indicates that he will receive the support of his people regardless of politics and that he and Mr. Neal will receive a nice majority in that county. Let Ohio county do likewise.

The Chicago Ledger

Is twenty years old and has a circulation of 140,000 copies a week. It is a combined story and family paper, fully up to the times in every particular, and handsomely illustrated. There is a Fashion Department, and also a Young People's Department, either of which alone is worth the subscription price of $2.00 per year, $1.00 for six months, or 50 cents for three months. Send for free specimen copies and inducements for clubs. Boys and girls everywhere are making money selling the Ledger to regular customers. Write for particulars. Address the publisher, W. D. Boyce, 113, 115 and 117 Fifth avenue, Chicago.

Coughing Leads to Consumption. Kemp's Balsam stops the cough at once.

KINDERHOOK.

Oct. 23.—Miss Rhoda Hipsley, McLean county, is visiting friends and relatives in this and adjoining neighborhoods.

Miss Mattie Chinn, Beda, spent several days last week in this neighborhood, the guest of Mrs. Addie Ward.

Mrs. Wm. Ward, Sr., left last week for Hardin county, where she will be absent several weeks, visiting her brother.

Mrs. V. D. D. Stevens spent last week in Hartford.

Rev. J. R. McAfee spent Saturday and Sunday in this community.

Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Steele, of Hartford, were the guests of Mrs. A. C. Ellis one day last week.

J. W. Stevens, wife and son, David, went to Owensboro Friday, returning Saturday.

We can boast of having one of the best school teachers in the county.

Columbus day was highly enjoyed by the teacher and pupils of the Alexander school. At 10 o'clock Friday morning the students of this school, which is under the management of Prof. W. H. Barnes, assembled at the schoolhouse for the purpose of celebrating the day in honor of this wonderful man. The morning exercises consisted of flag-raising, declamations, orations and select reading, which were enjoyed by those present. After which a sumptuous dinner was enjoyed by the pupils and visitors. The afternoon services were opened with prayer by the Rev. McAfee, after which W. H. Barnes, in a few eloquent words introduced to the audience, Prof. O. M. Shultz, of Hartford College, who made a delightful address on Columbus and his wonderful works through life. After which R. Foster came forward and addressed the audience in his quiet pleasant way, telling them of the happy hours he had spent on the grounds of old Alexander. It is useless to tell how much his speech was enjoyed by those present for every word fired the hearts of his ex-schoolmates. L. R. Barnett then addressed the crowd in a few appropriate remarks, which closed the evening exercises. DAISY DEANE.

LIVERMORE.

Oct. 24.—Health is good here, except whooping-cough, there are several cases at present.

Rev. Campbell began a series of meetings at New Bethel Sunday. We wish him success in his efforts to win souls to Christ.

Mrs. Felix Harris is on the sick list this week.

Ed Burton and Shelby Buckler took part in a fist and skull knock-down Sunday. We think this is a delightful way in which so many keep the Sabbath. We think if the majority did not delight in intoxication it could very easily be abandoned.

C. A. Shaver made a flying trip to Pond Green Sunday. Miss Oma Hoover went to Owensboro Friday returning Saturday. Bill Ellis lectured here Saturday evening to a large crowd.

J. K. Shaver & Son happened to the misfortune of losing a fine horse Thursday. It died almost instantly while in the harness.

There was a mask party given at the hotel Wednesday evening by the young ladies. Several present and a nice time, well enjoyed by all.

Catarrh Cannot be Cured with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in the country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials, free.

TOWN TATTLER.

Hartford may not be free from bad boys, Blind Tigers and rats, but she is free from public enterprise, sidewalk and railroad accidents.

Snoring in church. Who ever heard of the like? It is an absolute fact that a man actually went to sleep in a Hartford church and snored so loud he woke another man who had dozed off into the arms of Morpheus. What lack of interest on the part of supposed christians. Is it possible that we have christian men in Hartford who are so full of religion as not to need more? Or was it the sermon was so good that his mental power failed to comprehend the full meaning of same, and he thought he would rest from the turmoil of every day life? The latter is supposed to have been the cause.

It happened recently at a neighboring Fair that a premium was offered for the "worst turnout." An editor of a paper in a rural district was to be the hero of the gallant struggle for the honors of carrying off the blue ribbon. Time rolled on till Saturday came and with it came this editor, with him came a colored man. He was all diked out in rags and tattered clothes, riding a poor old horse that even blushed to be caught in such a crowd. He was well masked and few knew who he was.

It is rather hard to believe there are such organizations as suicide clubs, yet a New York printer who took his own life recently, is said to have been a member of such an organization, and to have killed himself in accordance with the pledge he had made on joining. Each member was to set a time for ending his life and carry out the agreement. If there really be a suicide club in existence it bears witness to the maniacal tendency of human nature when it cuts itself loose from the bonds of moral restraint.

In certain classes of society there are individuals who ought to be excluded, and that is the timid, bashful young man, the one who seeks to stab an unsuspecting friend in the back and then sneak off, as any cowardly cur would, and then boast of his conquests and say how he had treated such a person, never thinking as to what steps he had taken to do so. Some young men are brave about whatever comes up, not caring what happens, nor whether anyone approves of it or not. This is the boy to be admired; this is one who will command the respect and confidence of his fellow beings. Not the one who will do anything, no matter what, just to rob another person of some pleasure that is due him and that he would have had had it not been for this blot on decent society.

A very funny incident has just recently come to light, relating to some of Hartford's young men while in attendance at the Owensboro Fair. Two young men were to take a couple of young ladies to the Fair one morning, and had prepared everything for starting, even had a team prepared, anticipating a grand time. Two other boys were "on to" the affair, and started out to the Fair on a car. Soon after them came the young ladies in question, leaving the other boys with their hired rig to come by themselves. Of course the joke was too good to keep so they told the girls about the arrangements after they had reached the grounds. The second two boys started back to town, meeting the other boys on the way, driving along by themselves, not thinking anybody knew about the affair. Upon being asked where the ladies were, they replied: "We took them out to the Fair and we are coming back to see you all." Everything was plain then. The gallant young men were left, and all they could do was to exact a promise that it should never be told. The Tattler is always on the inside of everything, consequently he caught on to the affair and it is too good to keep. The two gallant young men had gone to considerable expense to get left, but they can console themselves with the fact that they were not the only ones who ever got left. The Tattler readily sympathizes with them.

DANVILLE, IND.

Oct. 11.—To-day has been a gala day, the people of Danville and especially for all interested in the schools, both the High and Normal Schools.

At 8 o'clock the commemoration exercises of the C. N. C. began. The College was beautifully decorated. The front of the magnificent new college building was covered with flags. On the portico above the front entrance the College Band dispensed sweet music while the crowd was gathering. The entrance hall was gay with the National Colors. In the center of a flag draped arch suspended from the ceiling hung a large star, on which was a large letter C. in gilt. The Chapel was hung with flags. The stage was beautifully decorated with bright colored flags, flowers, pictures and autumn leaves in front. On each side of the stage was a large picture of Columbus, which were draped with flags. Viewed as a whole the scene was beautiful and well calculated to inspire into the heart a deeper love of patriotism and beside this, the heart and mind of the C. N. C. students with alaudable pride in their Alma Mater.

The exercises consisted of vocal and instrumental music, declamations and speeches, all of which were well rendered, especially the recitation, "What Columbus Taught" by Miss Dorsey, teacher of elocution in the C. N. C.

At the close of the exercises here everybody repaired to the public school building, where the township exercises were to take place. These exercises were exactly the program given in the September number of the Educational Courant of Louisville, Ky. They were well rendered and were enjoyed by the audience.

As I sit here at my table, my mind travels back to the schools of Kentucky and I wonder what some of them, whose teachers I know, are doing; and more than ever I feel a loss of something, I can hardly define, at being so far away from the field of labor that claims the best efforts of my future life.

While teacher and pupils are enjoying the fruits of their labors for the success of to-day, I hope they will not forget that ahead of them lies a rich goal. I mean the display of the children's work at our next Institute. This is something worth working for and something that should shape, to a certain extent, each day in the schoolroom. Miss Lucy Townsend writes me that she has two students preparing for the common school examination next spring. Miss Lucy is a wide awake teacher and will not fail to make her school all that an Ohio county school should be. How many others in the county will do the same? When I remember how many bright and progressive teachers were members of our Institute last summer I am constrained to believe that our schools this year will show a great stride forward in progress.

Only three weeks now until the close of the first term of school here. I find the work of the scientists very interesting and enough to keep me very busy at work.

Just now I am very much concerned about the writing of my first finale, the subject of which is "Grecian Art." It seems that nothing was ever so hard before. I will close now, but if I get my finale written, well I will come again during vacation.

The Saturday Blade is the greatest newspaper wonder of the age. It is four years old and has a circulation of over a quarter million copies a week. The latest sensations and the most marvelous events are written up in the best style and fully illustrated. Subscriptions received at $2.00 per year, $1.00 for six months, or 50 cents for three months. Send for free specimen copies. Boys everywhere are making big money selling the Blade on the streets. Write for particulars. Address the publisher, W. D. Boyce, 113, 115 and 117 5th avenue, Chicago.

No one doubts that Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy really cures Catarrh, whether the disease be recent or of long standing, because the makers of it clinch their faith in it with a $500 guarantee, which isn't a mere newspaper guarantee, but "on call" in a moment. That moment is when you prove that its makers can't cure you. The reason for their faith is this: Dr. Sage's remedy has proved itself the right cure for ninety-nine out of one hundred cases of Catarrh in the Head and the World's Dispensary Medical Association can afford to take the risk of your being the one hundredth.

The only question is—are you willing to make the test, if the makers are willing to take the risk? If so, the rest is easy. You pay your druggist 50 cents and the trial begins. If you're wanting the $500 you'll get something better—A CURE

SHINKLE CHAPLE. Oct. 26.—The Columbus celebration at this place was a success beyond all expectations. A program had been prepared and was carried out to the letter. Addresses and recitations were the order of the day, interspersed with vocal and instrumental music. A sumptuous dinner was served under the spreading trees while the Nation's colors floated in the breeze o'er the schoolhouse. It was an enjoyable affair and one long to be remembered.

One night last week a thief forced his way into the store of Mr. Hedlin, of this community, and by his ingenuity procured ninety dollars. Strange, but true, a ten dollar gold piece was left, not only in some pocket, but in the same purse, which the ninety dollars was taken.

A. C. Shaver and family visited relatives in Livermore Saturday night and Sunday.

Hon. Wesley Crowe attended Columbus exercises at this place Friday and gave an interesting talk, exhorting the young folks to a thorough preparation for the duties of life.

DISTRICT NO. 32.

Oct. 25.—Our school under the management of Prof. J. E. Davidson, celebrated the four-hundredth anniversary of Columbus' discovery of America with the following program: First, marching from the old schoolhouse to the new one. Second, saluting the flag. Third, recitations by the pupils. Fourth, a very able speech by Rev. J. W. Keown, who gave the pupils some good advice. He also spoke of the school being a success and encouraged the patrons to support their teacher. Prof. Davidson closed the exercises with an interesting talk, subject: "The meaning of Four Centuries." The school acquitted itself with honor, showing they had made progress while at school. We regard Mr. Davidson as one of the ablest teachers that has ever taught in Union District.

UNION.

Oct. 25.—Day Williams, who has been so near death's door for the past month, is improving.

Charlie Hocker and wife, and Miss Mary Brown, of South Carrollton, visited friends and relatives at Beaver Dam and Union, last week.

Miss Lilly Caloway, who was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Thomas Bennett, for the past two weeks, has returned to her home near Beda.

Miss Mamie Reed, accompanied by Thad Barnard, of the Liberty neighborhood, was the guest of her parents, George Reid and wife, of the Equality neighborhood Saturday and Sunday.

The social at C. T. Barnard's last night, was quite a pleasant affair.

Robert Plummer sold his crop of burley tobacco to Mr. Gordon, at $6 around C. T. Barnard sold his crop to John Nave at $5.50 around A. C. Stevens has stripped about five hundred pounds of his tobacco.

Jo, Henry Reid raised about $150 worth of tobacco and about the same of corn. Girls, Jo is a nice young man and has a good farm and would it not be nice for some nice girl to propose before leap year is out?

Several from Union attended the Columbian Celebration at Beaver Dam, Friday night. Superintendent, Rogers made a nice, appropriate speech, which was enjoyed by all. The exercises by the little ones in charge of Miss Gibson were splendid.
