Boone-Duncan.

One of the prettiest weddings that ever occurred in Ohio county took place Wednesday night, Nov. 30th, at the Presbyterian Church, McHenry, when the Rev. W. W. Boone, of Springfield, Mo., led to the hymenal alter one of our loveliest and most accomplished young ladies, Miss Ella Duncan, Miss Katie Bell Duncan entered and took her position at the organ, and when the sweet strains of music pealed forth the bridal party entered. Down the right aisle came the bride preceded by Misses Gracie Roll and Mame Duncan; Mr. Junkins and Miss Annie Baltzell, then came the bride on the arm of her sister, Marguerite Duncan. Down the left aisle came the groom and his best man, Rev. Gowan, of Eminence, Ky. The bride and groom met at the alter under a lovely bell of evergreens, where the marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Allen, of Princeton, Ky., assisted by the Rev. T. J. Mitchell, of McHenry. After the ceremony the friends of the bride repaired to the residence of Mrs. Mary Duncan, mother of the bride, where a delightful supper was served.

The bride wore a handsome white silk gown, trimmed with real lace and orange blossoms and carried a beautiful bouquet of white roses. The bride's maids wore pink and blue evening dresses and carried large bouquets of pink roses.

The presents were numerous and costly and showed how highly the bride was appreciated by her many friends. They left Thursday night for Springfield, Mo., their future home, where a reception will be tendered there by the members of the groom's church, Monday evening. We join in wishing them a happy and prosperous life.

Grover Arrested.

[Special to the Owensboro Messenger.] ELMOON, VA., Nov. 30.—The Sheriff of Northampton county to-day served a summons on Grover Cleveland to appear in chancery court at Richmond on Saturday. Neither Mr. Cleveland nor the sheriff knew what the trouble was. The sheriff thought it was a joke and wired Richmond. He received an answer that there was no joke about it and was ordered to serve the papers at once. It is believed that Mr. Cleveland has been violating some of the game laws. He will answer the summons as ordered.
