

IT'S DOLLARS TO CENTS

That you part with your money with some reluctance. After getting money the difficulty is to keep it, isn't it true that you are constantly tempted to part with it. If you ask us if we are putting temptation in your way, there is nothing left for us but to own up, that's just what we are doing. You know it may easily be as foolish to keep money as it sometimes is to part with it. Never resist temptation when it comes in the tempting form of our immense Bargains purchased for spot cash. Printing prices in an advertisement conveys but an indistinct idea of the qualities you are to receive for those prices.

Nothing flows so freely from the facile pen of some advertisers as falsehoods. It is just as easy to write a big lie or a little one as to tell the truth. To write "Reduced from $2 to $1" is no more labor than to write "Reduced from $2 to $1.50," but in the minds of some merchants is deemed more effective. In many instances the phrases "Marked Down," "Reduced to," "Worth so and so," are meaningless expressions when "Sifted Down." Quoting an article as being reduced from a certain high price to a specified low price is no evidence of worth unless there is intrinsic value in the article. Good quality and low price must be linked together in order to produce a bargain. It is an easy matter to mention prices, but a very difficult thing to describe qualities—the latter must be seen to be correctly judged. If an advertiser could attach a sample of the goods advertised at a certain price to each copy of the newspaper in which his announcement is published they could see at a glance how near the truth the description came, but as this is impossible, resort is had in many instances to the reckless use of superlative adjectives in describing qualities, styles and values that are proven to be ridiculously false when the goods are seen.

When you want dry goods, notions, clothing, boots and shoes, hats, caps, furnishing goods, groceries, trunks, valises, etc., see our goods before you spend your money.

Yours for best values,
J. B. BIR, Beaver Dam, Ky.

CLOSING mills furnish the strongest argument as to the result of Democratic tariff legislation.

REMEMBER your precinct convention meets to-morrow. Delegates should be instructed for Hon. John W. Lewis for Congress.

THE meeting of the farmers Monday was very commendable and they should come to some agreement by which their condition could be bettered.

Oh! yes, that Democratic tariff ought to be loved, especially by the workers in the woolen mills which are either working on part time or altogether closed.

REPUBLICANS should not forget that the only hope the Democrats have is based upon Republican mistakes they expect to be made at the St. Louis convention.

THE house in which Andrew Jackson had his headquarters during the battle of New Orleans was destroyed by fire recently. More sympathy for the dead Democratic party.

SOME people seem to have an idea that because the Democrats are licked in advance this is a good year for Republicans to administer a few thumps to each other. It's a bad idea.

THE latest Democratic excuse for the unsatisfactory business condition of the country is to charge it to jingoism. The voters know who is responsible, and they will make sure that punishment is meted out next November.

SOME friend of ex-Congressman Breckinridge cast an uncalculated slur upon Kentucky by saying that the success of Breckinridge as the defender of murderers had made his return to Congress certain.

THE demand for the renewal of the reciprocity treaties made by the late James G. Blaine and wiped out by Democratic legislation, is growing stronger all the time. They not only benefited us materially, but they added to our National prestige.

BROUSING last week the Louisville Post presented a pen picture of a Kentucky editor and has kept it up and will continue until every editor in the State is included. The work has attracted much attention and is a commendable feature in that enterprising journal.

Mr. Cleveland may be willing to try to keep the Democrats in the Federal offices by extending the civil service rules, but it's a big red apple to pebbles that he wouldn't try to keep more than three or four of the Democratic members of the Senate in office, if he had the power to do so.

PISO'S CURE FOR CONSUMPTION

COME to the County Convention Monday.

THE Easter bonnet has the call now; the bill collector will later on.

RIVER and Harbor Committee has recommended an appropriation of $43,000 for the completion of the work on Rough River. Congressman John W. Lewis has been untiring in his efforts to get the appropriation.

THE Hartford Herald goes into spasmodic fits this week in denouncing Dr. Coleman for expressing his action in regard to Gov. Bradley's action in calling out the militia, and leaves the impression that the Doctor is a Republican. Take it the way the Herald does a number of Democrats would be read out of that party. The militia was not called out from any political motive by the Governor, but was pressed into service to preserve the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth, the silly twaddle of the Herald to the contrary notwithstanding.

If the Hartford Herald would open its blinded eyes and look at the credits on articles appearing in THE REPUBLICAN they would not make such blunders in publishing pieces taken from THE REPUBLICAN. The article referred to was taken from the Louisville Sunday Star, a Democratic paper, and along comes the Herald, the Louisville Times and ex-Gov. Brown and denounces THE REPUBLICAN as a liar. Wake up, gentlemen, look to your arms, we stand ready to defend any thing that appears in this paper. No doubt it Gov. Brown had had the moral courage to act he would have done the same thing under the same circumstances.

THE financial question has nothing to do with that state of things, known as hard times, which hard times, the American people have now experienced for two years or more. Hard times were unheard of until our protective tariff system was struck down by the Democratic party. That unholy party seeing the havoc it had wrought immediately began the financial agitation for the sole purpose of diverting public attention from the real cause of business prostration. But the people can be deceived no longer. They intend to return to the protective system as taught by Republicanism. Who among Republican aspirants for President represents best the Republican idea of a protective tariff? The people know.

Gov. Bradley deserves the united and hearty support of all Kentucky Republicans, not only because he carried the party banner to victory, but because he represents the Kentucky idea in National politics. The free silverites of all political denominations would be delighted to see Gov. Bradley beaten, because he stands today as the foremost sound money advocate in the United States. To him more than any other public man is credited due for the repudiation of free silver, and the straddles on the subject that both parties had, up to last year, been guilty of. The people of Kentucky will not forget his utterances at the Auditorium last year that electrified the people not only of Kentucky, but of the country; and they will not forget that Gov. Bradley had both the courage to take this advanced position, but the ability to defend it against the assaults of Democrats.

THE Hartford Herald cannot see a credit on an article or else it is so prejudiced as to not want to see it. Here is what it says: "The following statement occurred in last week's REPUBLICAN: 'Ex-Gov. Brown is said to have remarked several days since that if he were Governor he would have acted just as did Gov. Bradley, surrounded the capital with troops and drove every mother's son of the lawless element out of the building.' The Herald says: 'A statement from ex-Governor Brown is to the effect that he remarked nothing of the kind. Mr. Bradley must bolster up his falling fortunes with Democrats less loyal to free government and less true to Democratic instincts than is the greatest man who has occupied the chair of Kentucky's Chief Executive.'"

THE piece referred to was not original with THE REPUBLICAN, but was taken from the Louisville Sunday Star, a Democratic paper. We have nothing to say in defense of the Star, but do say that we will defend everything appearing in the editorial columns of this paper. Read more carefully and then you will not be led into a trap.

SINCE the appropriation for Rough River has been assured and the money will be made available by the first of May, the prospects for the business interests of Hartford are very flattering. Situated as we are in the midst of a fine agricultural country, surrounded by vast fields of coal and fine forests of timber, and with the early prospects of natural gas, and with the best and most enterprising business men in Western Kentucky, our prosperity is assured without a doubt. Now that we will have a navigable stream and with the proposed railroad completed Hartford will be the most desirable place in the State. This is a splendid place for a manufacture, being at the head of the navigation, and good material to work with, some enterprising capitalist should at once avail himself of the opportunity and open up in our midst. We call for a re-organization of our Commercial Club, and let's push things until we hear the hum of busy machinery.

HARDINSBURG.

A Few Suggestions From Rob-in Hood--Personals, &c.

HARDINSBURG, April 1. Miss Lora Kincaid, of Elizabethtown, is the guest of Mrs. A. M. Kincaid.

Mr. James Warfield, of Cloverport, is the guest of Misses Scott.

Miss Alice Murray, of Cloverport, visited Mrs. M. H. Beard this week.

Mr. James Shellman, a successful farmer of this county, recently died at his home of pneumonia. Mr. R. A. Shellman, his son, a prominent business man of Stephentown, has qualified as administrator. Mr. Shellman left an estate valued at about twenty thousand dollars.

Masonic Lodge No. 67, of this place, will give a supper at their hall on May 11th. The proceeds of the supper will be used for the benefit of the lodge. All are cordially invited to come.

Murray Post G. A. R., of this county, will observe Decoration Day, which is May 30th. The exercises will be held at Hardinsburg. Prominent speakers have been or will be invited to be present and a notable event is expected.

There is no regular appointment for preaching in this place on the 5th Sunday. Last Sunday however Rev. Eldred E. Pate occupied his pulpit, both morning and evening, and delivered an interesting and edifying discourse.

Mr. Charles Mattingly and ex-Deputy Sheriff C. B. Miller have recently made a real estate trade. Mr. Miller takes Mr. Mattingly's farm which lies about two miles from town on the Louisville road. Mr. Mattingly has taken possession of the property here in town and will open up a meat shop.

Our Fiscal Court will meet here Tuesday week. This county has gotten into a bad shape regarding our road tax and unless we have careful management the matter will get worse. Tax payers are tired of being the victims of defaulting sheriffs and ignorant County Judges, which we had previous to our last county election.

Green Dowell, of this county, has gotten himself into trouble again. Some years ago he forged some checks on the Citizens' Savings Bank, was tried, convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of two years. Some time ago he broke into the store of Mr. Asia Hardin, over at Ludburg, and fled the country. He was recently captured and lodged in jail here where he is now awaiting his trial.

Your correspondent had the pleasure of visiting the Breckinridge Normal College last Friday. Upon invitation of Prof. Cashman, he lectured to the Civil Government class on Deeds and Conventions. The college is now in a flourishing condition and a large increase in the number of students this year is a matter of great satisfaction to our people. Prof. Cashman who has charge of the Civil Government class is a bright young teacher and will make his mark in his profession. The Literary Society connected with the school met last Friday night and discussed the Separate Coach Bill. Oratory was turned loose in large and copious streams. We thought from the argument that the bill was a good one and ought to stand.

The tobacco growers of this county met in convention at the Court House on Monday to select a delegate to attend the State Convention to be held in Louisville. The object of the State Convention will be to discuss ways and means to protect the interests of the tobacco growers of the county. Mr. Tice Jolly was chairman of the convention. Mr. Linn Coomes was chosen to represent this county and Mr. Smith Waggoner was selected as alternate.

A mass convention of Sunday School workers was held in the Baptist Church of this place Sunday. These conventions are non-sectarian and are held at the end of each quarter. The object of the meetings is to promote the general welfare of Sunday Schools in this town. Addresses were made by Mr. John P. Haswell, Jr., who spoke on John the Baptist. Rev. Eldred E. Pate addressed the meeting on "The teaching of Christ." Hon. G. W. Beard made an address on how to get more people to attend Sunday School.

EX-Gov. Brown is said to be growing in interest and activity. He is said to have been in the city of Louisville, and there are reports that he is planning to visit this county. There are reports that he is planning to visit this county.

OHIO County Republicans. Don't forget your precinct convention to-morrow evening at 2 o'clock. When you go to your Precinct Convention to-morrow, select a good earnest willing worker for your committee.

In reorganization of County Committee we should select only men who will sacrifice time if necessary to attend to political business. We need earnest studious men, not dummies on the committee.

The entire watching Kentucky, give us true earnest patriots men for Precinct Committees and we will show them where we are at next November.

With Gov. W. O. Bradley at the head of our Presidential ticket and earnest patriotic committeemen in each precinct, we are confident that we would triumph in the coming year.

Mass Convention here yesterday. Seventh Senatorial District Convention at Beaver Dam to-day. Precinct Conventions all over the county to-morrow April 4th, Congressional District Conventions at Hodgenville Tuesday April 14th, State Convention at Louisville Wednesday April 15th, and election of State Senator from Ohio, Munlenberg and Butler counties April 21st. We are busy now.

If there is a man that Ohio county Republicans desire it is Gov. W. O. Bradley. He has stood by us visited and encouraged us in times of adversity, has often entertained our citizens and enlightened them on perplexing questions and by his arguments has induced many voters to have been reduced to join our ranks and make our county safely Republican and next Monday we will show him that we have not forgotten him.

Officers of election who served at last November election April 21st. Election officers are appointed to serve one year and will serve at Special elections if any are ordered. Polls open at 7 o'clock a. m. and close at 4 o'clock p. m.

Mayor Todd, of Louisville, a few days ago lectured on the subject of office seekers most not all voters claiming to be Democrats and their newspapers are trying to make it appear that Bradley will not get the endorsement of old Kautuck but daily news shows they know nothing about it. McKinley musters conform the action of Todd who has by flattering letters to thousands of voters all over the State tried to bait our honored Governor by having our voters to ignore the man we all love as a brother and friend. We will not desert our great leader but will send a solid delegation for him and thus rebuke the enemy.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION. The Republican voters of Ohio county are called to meet at their respective voting precincts at two o'clock p. m. on Saturday, April 4, and select delegates to the County Convention which is hereby called to meet at the Court House in Hartford on Monday, April 6, 1896, at 12:30 o'clock p. m., for purpose of appointing delegates to the District Convention which has been called to meet at Hodgenville on Tuesday April 14, and to the State Convention which is called to meet at Louisville on Wednesday, April 15, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the National Convention at St. Louis, &c.

Ohio county is entitled to 22 delegates, and votes in both District and State Conventions, said set of delegates will no doubt be expected to attend both of said Conventions.

In the County Convention it is hereby ordered that each precinct shall be entitled to 1 delegate and one vote for every 25 and fraction over 12 cast for Hon. W. O. Bradley for Governor at the November election 1895, provided that no precinct shall be entitled to less than two delegates and votes. This will allow precinct delegates and votes as follows:

- West Hartford 5

East and West Fordville precincts may hold a joint convention as may East and West Hartford precincts.

County Delegates to the District Convention will be authorized to cast the vote of Ohio county to nominate a candidate for Congress if said convention deems it best to make a nomination at that time, to save trouble and expense of another convention for that purpose alone. Furthermore, as a very important campaign fronts it is no doubt best to re-organize the County Committee, therefore each precinct convention is hereby requested to select one good man who is willing to work, canvass and organize his precinct and serve as a member of County Committee.

The County Convention will select two Committeemen from the county at large. Delegates are requested to have their credentials properly attested by the Chairman and Secretary of their precinct conventions immediately after adjournment of said conventions.

The new County Committee will meet and organize immediately after the adjournment of the County Convention and every member is most earnestly requested to be present and take part in the organization.

MR. S. L. LEACH has a gripe. Sunday School every Sunday evening at Deniah Church.

Mrs. Belle Davis is slowly improving.

Prof. W. R. Carson returned from Illinois Saturday.

We heard a life long Democrat say this week that he was going into the convention and vote for James A. Park for County Judge. This shows how strong he is at home. A valiant soldier, industrious farmer and scholarly gentleman. The Republican party could not make a wiser choice than to nominate James A. Park for County Judge. AUST MARCH.

Mothers

Anxiously watch declining health of their daughters. So many are cut off by consumption in early years that there is real cause for anxiety. In the early stages, when not beyond the reach of medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla will restore the quality and quantity of the blood and thus give good health. Read the following letter:

"It is but just to write about my daughter Cora, aged 19. She was completely run down, declining, had that tired feeling, and friends said she would not live over three months. She had a bad and nothing seemed to do her any good. I happened to read about Hood's Sarsaparilla and had her give it a trial. From the very first dose she began to get better. After taking a few bottles she was completely cured and her health has been the best ever since." Mrs. Anna P. Beck, 12 Railroad Place, Amsterdam, N. Y.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria. Democratic Feature. The failure of the Bronston-Goebel Senate to pass the revenue bills has forced the School for Deaf Mutes at Danville to close its session a month earlier than usual. There are two hundred pupils in this excellent institution, but no consideration for these schools or any other institutions of the State had any influence with the Bronston-Goebel Senate. The closing of the school at Danville is the first of a number of illustrations of the effects of giving over one branch of government to revolutionists to rule it in the name of the Democratic party. Yet there are men, and newspaper men at that, who think the Democratic party can escape public condemnation for such things by censoring Bradley in a State Convention. —[Louisville Post.

Call on Ballington, the barber. Danger Signals. More than half the victims of consumption do not know they have it. Here is a list of symptoms by which consumption can certainly be detected: Cough, one or two slight efforts on rising, occurring during the day and frequently during the night. Short breathing after exertion. Tightness of the chest. Quick pulse, especially noticeable in the evening and after a full meal. Chills in the evening, followed by slight fever. Perspiration toward morning and pale face and languid in the morning. Loss of vitality. If you have these symptoms, or any of them, do not delay. There are many preparations which claim to be cures, but Dr. New's Castile Ready for Consumption has the highest endorsements, and has stood the test of years.
