The annual conference will meet Sept. 30th, at Owensboro with Bishop E. R. Hendrix presiding.

Jim Jackson Going to Wed.

James Jackson, known to his host of friends at "Jack Jimson," who has been in the city for the past week getting the Pryor and the Burley and the night rider bacilli boiled out of his system, leaves this afternoon for Hawesville on the Ohio and another try at the beautiful bell of Stanley. "Jack" says he feels once again the joy of living and the throbbing of rich red blood in his veins, and goes back to his native land, fully resolved to sell more fireworks and cabbage than any of the boys traveling out of Owensboro. The date of the wedding has not been officially announced, but—Hot Springs Bulletin.

Prompt Settlement.

The following letter from Mr. John E. Hillyard, Fredonia, Ky., is another proof of the good standing and sound basis of the order of "The Ladies of the Maccabees of the World." Mrs. Hillyard, formerly Miss Cassie Riley, was a member of Sunshine Hive, No. 12, Hartford, Ky., and carried a policy for two hundred and fifty dollars in this order, which amount was paid thirty days after death.

Fredonia, Ky., Sept. 18, 1908.
Mrs. Lula K. Pendleton, Record Keeper Sunshine Hive, No. 42, Hartford, Ky., Dear Madam:—Peg to acknowledge receipt of draft on Port Huron Office in settlement for my wife's policy in L. O. T. M. order. You have done splendid work in so quickly executing above claim, for which accept my thanks.
Yours respectfully,
JOHN E. HILLYARD.

In Memory.

Mrs. Millie Hoover, or "Aunt Millie," as she was called, departed this life on Sept. 18th, 1908, after a long suffering illness. She bore her sufferings well, and left a pleasant consolation behind that she was going home to rest with God in peace. She was seventy-one years and four months old at her death. She was known throughout this country as a kind, and loving old lady. We laid her to rest in old Barnett Creek cemetery in the presence of a large crowd of relatives and friends, who mourn her sad departure, and who will miss her here. God knoweth best, he gives and can take away. But we know that she is done with her troubles and is now around a dazzling throne. All that loving hands could do, was done for her, but it was her time to go. Her chair is vacant, and her face will never more be seen on earth, but we know that we can meet Aunt Millie on the other shore. A Friend, PEARL HOOVER.

The "Square Deal" Method.

The foundation upon which we are working and upon which we expect to continue to build up our business is the SQUARE DEAL method. Truth and honesty are no longer old-fashioned. They are modern scientific mercantile principles. No merchant can afford to practice deception. You cannot fool all the people all the time. Unfair dealing is folly. We cannot sell to a new set of customers every day, so we cannot afford to lose even one by taking advantage of him in any way. We expect to hold and continue to build up our trade by treating it right in matters of quality and prices and square dealing. We keep our promises and guarantee satisfaction. If you have any complaint to make, don't wait until to-morrow. Make it to-day. It can only be adjusted satisfactorily while it is fresh in our minds. Come to us and buy what you want. We will see that you get what you buy. Yours for a square deal.
