Only the truly righteous can evade and defy the law.

Is the Congressional session to end with a fight or a frolic?

No man knows what a secret service agent may bring forth these days.

Is the president trying to drag Congress into the Ammanis club as a whole?

If Mr. Hancock surrenders the national committee chairmanship, what will he do with the steam roller?

When a muckrake and a pitfall become involved in a moral combat, is it a good time for hyacinths to move on.

The question is not does the constitution follow the flag? Does the constitution even stay at home with the flag?

As a motorist, John D. Rockefeller has declared against speeding. However as financier his dividends cannot come too fast.

It looks as though Charles P. Taft is to get nothing for his $200,000 beyond a kind smile and the consciousness of duty well done.

If we can promote a Navy with a life saving record instead of a life destroying record, it will be something for which the nation may be proud.

Is the attempt of Congress to raise the President's salary to $100,000 an indication that we may be able to get qualified men to take the job?

A number of members of Congress have been down to Panama and have discovered that the Panama Canal is on the isthmus of Panama. They will now turn in their expense bills.

Every local union in Ohio county can and should be revived between now and the first day of April. It is upon the local union that the superstructure of the American Society of Equity is built.

Those who failed to hear the speech of National President, C. O. Drayton, at the court house here last Saturday in the interest of the A. S. E., missed one of the greatest treats with which the people of Ohio county have ever been favored.

As has often been predicted President elect Taft has already turned against Roosevelt's policies. He has gone square back on the President's well known ideas on race suicide, by declaring that old maids are a pleasure and marriage not necessary.

Tennessee still has the Mississippi river on the west, the Tennessee, Cumberland and any number of smaller streams of fresh water in the interior. In case the famine becomes too sore, we could loan them water from the Kentucky and Green rivers.

The Owensboro Inquirer in its issue Tuesday of this week, contains the following reference to one of our prominent citizens: M. L. Heavrin Postmaster at Hartford, who is an applicant for the Second District Collectorship, is said to feel himself slipping as some of his friends are anxious to sidetrack him in the contest for Collectorship and give him the place of United States Marshall. While Mr. Heavrin is eminently qualified for either position mentioned, his friends here feel that he has a "clinch" on the Collectorship and that he will be appointed to that position soon after President elect Taft takes his seat. Mr. Heavrin does not generally "slip," when he goes after anything and Ohio county Republicans are all anxious to see him land this position, which they feel justly belongs to Ohio county as one of the banner Republican counties in the Second Collectional District.

The fact that the business men of Hartford so willingly closed their houses during the A. S. E., speaking last Saturday, should commend them to the farmers of Ohio county as never before. It is the first time in our knowledge that such an act of courtesy was ever extended to a speaker in our town and this on the busiest day of the week, at a time when the merchants usually make their largest sales. However, looking all it from the right standpoint, it was also to the interest of the merchants, for they should encourage an organization in every possible manner, which does not propose to interfere with their business and even teaches its members to patronize our home people. In the long run our people make no profit for themselves, even though they can send abroad and purchase small articles for the household at half what they could be bought at home. But, we maintain that these prices when the articles are compared are never cheaper abroad than at home, when purchased by retail. Again when our citizens send a dollar to Chicago, St. Louis, or New York, to purchase some article from a mail order house, at least half of that dollar usually finds its way into channels, which are used to fight the farmer and his interest. If spent at home, it helps to pay our taxes, build our school houses, keep up our roads and maintain our churches. Sears & Roebuck, have never furnished a penny to build a church, maintain a school, pay a preacher, build a bridge or work a road in Ohio county. There is milk in this "cocoanut" for every farmer.

The Democratic Tariff Bill.

The Democrats of Congress are going to construct a Tariff bill of their own. They are going to present it as a formulation of their views. We are glad of that. We shall thus be given an opportunity to see what Democrats really hold on this important question. So far they have dealt largely in resolutions and in denunciations. Once upon a time when they were in full power in the Government, they passed a Tariff law, but it fell so far short of their own theories and standards that President Cleveland called it a piece of party perjury and dishonor. When they get their new bill assembled in Congress we shall see how far they have progressed away from that kind of perjury and what kind of dishonor. But they will find, as they progress in their work, that the road is beset with difficulties. They may provide a Tariff that will produce the required revenues, but will they at the same time provide a Tariff that will conserve the business and industrial interests of the country? Of what benefit is it to have a Tariff that will produce the revenues if that Tariff transfer the manufacturing largely to foreign countries? We can buy our shoes, for instance, in Europe. Europe will be glad to send over here all the shoes that we can wear and the Government by collecting a few cents on each pair may be able to get revenues to pay its own expenses, but what are we going to do with the thousands of men who have been making American shoes in America? We cannot express how glad we are that the Democrats are going to give us a record of what they believe on this question of the Tariff.—Cedar Rapids Republican.

VERIABLE HOME-SEEKERS PARADISE

Is the Great South-west Where Land is Cheap and Soil Exceedingly Fertile.

After several visits to northeastern Texas, and a careful study of climate, soils, resources and conditions, Prof. L. N. Gray has become so impressed with the country and its future that he has this to say of Bowie county whose natural resources have scarcely been touched and whose fertile soil, when tilled by the hand of the skillful farmer, can be made to yield untold wealth.

Bowie county is situated in the extreme northeastern part of Texas, has a population of about 35,000 and many thriving towns, the largest of which is Texarkana with a population of 22,000. It is a beautiful woodland country studded with small prairies, and bounded on the north by Red river and on the south by Sulphur river. The surface is undulating just enough to drain well. There are no rocks, no hills and the public roads are excellent, except in very rainy seasons. Much of the merchantable timber has been removed while there still remains vast quantities of red oak, white oak, burr oak, water oak, post oak, and some sweet gum, black gum, ash, Hickory and pine.

There are two kinds of soil, the deep red sandy loam and the dark gray and black loam with a clay subsoil. These soils are fertile and yield per acre, a half to three-half bales of cotton, 30 to 40 and 50 bushels of corn, 150 to 200 bushels sweet potatoes, 200 to 300 bushels Irish potatoes. Among other crops which have been very profitably grown are cow peas, gopher peas, alfalfa, all kinds of vegetables, small fruits, pears, peaches, and the like. In fact, northeastern Texas is the home of the Alberta peach, and the big red strawberry. Two crops of potatoes can be grown every season, while many vegetables, such as lettuce, onions, turnips and mustard and turnip greens can be grown almost the year round. The writer of this article relished onions, lettuce, greens, turnips and sweet potatoes fresh from the garden while in Texas last Christmas.

Mr. Bazell, a farmer living near De Kalb, Texas, told the writer he grew 285 bushels of Irish potatoes on 1-4 acres last season. The first crop was sold at 80 cents and the second crop at $1 per bushel and yielded an income of $250. The writer saw on the market some of those same potatoes which were as fine as ever grown in Michigan.

Bowie county is a great stock country. Cattle live fat on the range for nine months in the year, and not infrequently they go through the entire year without feed. There is large profit in growing and marketing cattle. The climate is mild, the temperature rarely ever falling to the freezing point. The rain fall is abundant for all purposes and the seasons are fine. The health of the people is good, except in a few places where the timber is thick and rank, traces of malaria are still found in very wet seasons.

Lands have doubled in price within the last few years, though prices are still low in comparison with what they will be within the next five years. Lands are now selling from $4 and $5 up to $20 per acre.

Taxation is very low in Texas, and the public school fund is the largest of any of the States. Railroad facilities are good, there being six roads running into Texarkana.

THE OLDEST MAN IN AMERICA

Escaped the Terrors of Many Winters By Using Pe-ru-na.

"I Attribute my Extreme Old Age to the Use of Pe-ru-na."

IN speaking of his good health and extreme old age, Mr. Brock says: "After a man has lived in the world as long as I have, he ought to have found out a great many things by experience. I think I have done so."

"One of the things I have found out to my entire satisfaction is the proper thing for ailments that are due directly to the effects of the climate. For 119 years I have withstood the changeable climate of the United States."

"I have always been a very healthy man, but, of course, subject to the affections which are due to sudden changes in the climate and temperature."

"As for Dr. Hartman's remedy, Pe-ru-na, I have found it to be the best, if not the only reliable remedy for these affections. It has been my standby for many years, and I attribute my good health and extreme old age to this remedy."

"It exactly meets all my requirements. It protects me from the evil effects of sudden changes; it gives me strength; it keeps my blood in good circulation. I have come to rely upon it almost entirely for the many little things for which I need medicine."

"When epidemics of the grippe first began to make their appearance in this country I was a sufferer from this disease."

"I had several long sieges with the grip. At first I did not know that Pe-ru-na was a remedy for this disease. When I heard that the grippe was epidemic catarrh I tried Pe-ru-na for the grippe and found it to be just the thing."

In a later letter, Mr. Brock writes: "I am well and feeling as well as I have for years. I would not be without Peruna."

Yours truly,
Isaac Brock,

Mr. Isaac Brock, 119 Years Old Last Birthday.

ISAAC BROCK, a citizen of McLennan county, Texas, has lived for 119 years. For many years he resided at Boque Falls, eighteen miles west of Waco, but now lives with his son-in-law at Valley Mills, Texas.

Some time ago, by request, Uncle Isaac came to Waco and sat for his picture, holding in his hand a stick cut from the grave of General Andrew Jackson.

Mr. Brock is a dignified old gentleman, showing few signs of decrepitude. His family Bible is still preserved, and it shows that the date of his birth was written 119 years ago.

HARTFORD COLLEGE.

Third Term Opens Jan. 4, 1909
Board $2.50, and $2.75 per Week.

Special classes will be organized in all common school branches for the benefit of teachers and those preparing to teach. Classes will be organized in many higher branches to meet the demands of those seeking a good education. In addition to the regular work in Pedagogy, a course of lectures will be given on organization, classification, graduation, management and discipline of a school. Prof. and Mrs. Gray will be in charge of most of the classes for teachers. Mr. Lawrence Gary, an experienced teacher who attended State University last year and who holds a life diploma to teach in Kentucky, has been employed to assist in the collegiate department.

For catalogue and information, address: PROF. L. N. GRAY, 2216 Hartford, Ky.

Among the Lodges.

Hartford Lodge No. 675 F. & A. M., had an interesting session last Monday evening, although no degree work was done. The lodge voted to accept the invitation of Joel Ellis Lodge to attend an all day meeting at Bells Run Jan., 30th, for instruction, and as many of the brethren as can do so will attend. The following committee was appointed to fix the time for holding a meeting at Hartford for instruction, to which two representatives of all the Masonic lodges in the county will be invited; C. M. Crowe, G. B. Likens and C. M. Bennett.

Rough River Lodge No. 110, held its regular meeting Tuesday evening and went through the usual routine of business. It has been discovered that the lodges are being interfered with considerably by reason of the fact that members attend the bowling alley during lodge time. Tuesday evening, almost all of the members who bowled formed a resolution that they would not hereafter bowl during the meeting time of their respective lodges. This is a good resolution and we hope the members will carry it out. There has been some friction heretofore on this account and if not remedied will eventually injure both the lodges and bowling club.

Odd Fellows Install New Officers.

At the last meeting of Acme Lodge No. 339, I. O. O. F., the following officers were installed for the ensuing year:

- Past Grand—G. B. Likens.
- Noble Grand—L. N. Gray.
- Vice Grand—A. B. Riley.
- Secretary—D. D. Schneider.
- Treasurer—W. E. Ellis.
- Conductor—Y. L. Moseley.
- Warden—W. M. Hudson.
- R. S. N. G.—W. F. Schlapmire.
- L. S. N. G.—J. T. Davis.
- R. S. V. G.—B. W. Rhak.
- L. S. V. G.—E. T. Moseley.
- R. S. S.—C. G. Baxter.
- L. S. S.—James Nance.
- I. G.—W. C. Wallace.
- O. G.—T. P. Williams.
- Chaplain—O. M. Shultz.
- Host—W. F. Schlapmire.

This lodge has been instituted less than a year, but has done a great amount of work. The members are enthusiastic and the work is exceptionally good. Two petitions were filed at the last meeting, and the prospects are for a great deal of work in the next few months.

For that Dandruff

There is one thing that will cure it—Ayer's Hair Vigor. It is a regular scalp-medicine. It quickly destroys the germs which cause this disease. The unhealthy scalp becomes healthy. The dandruff disappears, had to disappear. A healthy scalp means a great deal to you—healthy hair, no dandruff, no pimples, no eruptions.

The best kind of a testimonial—
