

YOUNG COL. T. R. IS CHIP OF OLD BLOCK

Prediction That Lieutenant
Governorship May Go To Him.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 24.—"A chip of the old block!"

That's the terse summing up New York State legislators and high officials make of Lieutenant Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, son of the late former President, who took his seat in the State Assembly at the opening of the 1920 session as a Republican from a Nassau County district.

Big things, politically, are expected of him. The political eyes of the state are glued upon him. His every word and action are being closely followed. Already followers of the game in which votes count are linking him with the Republican state ticket as candidate for lieutenant governor when the party seeks success at the polls this coming fall.

Three Candidates For Governor.

The head of the Republican state ticket is still behind the veil of uncertainty and has not yet taken definite shape. Three candidates for the governorship loom up strongest at this time—Speaker Thaddeus C. Sweet, of the Assembly; Secretary of State Francis M. Hugo and State Comptroller Eugene M. Travis.

Colonel Roosevelt is close to Sweet. In fact, with the campaign now practically under way, he has many speaking engagements with the speaker, and if Sweet gets successfully by the primaries Roosevelt is expected to be lined up with him on his ticket.

The colonel has the decision of his late father. He is grooming himself rather than being groomed for whatever the political world holds out for him. And there is promise at this early date of having the shoes of his father ready for him to jump into, and they landed the father into the governorship of this state before leading him to greater things and ultimately the presidency of the United States.

Quiet and Unassuming.

Colonel Roosevelt is quiet. He is unassuming. He is interview-proof, and in this respect says of himself: "I'm like the Sam Weller in 'Pickwick Papers'—dumb as a drum with a hole in it."

He adds: "I'm studying the entire situation. When I speak I'll act, too."

And that's all that can be gotten from him on his plans as an assemblyman and possible candidate for the lieutenant governorship.

However, it would not be surprising, close friends say, if the colonel should sponsor and lead the fight for whatever "welfare" legislation the lawmakers will pass. One of the bills he is expecting to introduce early in the session is a measure calling for the establishment of a minimum wage for the workers of the state. Friends say it will have "teeth" in it. It will differ from the one advocated by the Democratic minority and backed by labor.

TAFFY

The heavy rains and sleet did considerable damage here. Most of the telephone lines were put out of use.

Mrs. Ira D. Funk closed her school at Clear Run Friday. Those in attendance each day were Misses Clara and Isabella Hoover and Ida Ruth Park, Masters Herschel and Marvell Funk and Claudie Hoagland.

Mr. Estill Funk and family and Beola Lake and family visited here Saturday night and Sunday.

Miss Gladys Taylor has been the guest of relatives at Pleasant Ridge for several weeks.

Miss Cova May Kirk will enter school at Hartford this week.

Mr. Ishmael Bartlett and family spent Sunday with J. A. Kirk and family.

Mrs. Ira D. Funk spent Saturday with her mother, Mrs. J. A. Raymond, who has been sick for several days.

Miss Thelma Patton is on the sick bed.

BEADS ODDLY STRUNG

(By I. D. Claire.)

The strikers appear to have at last struck out.

The League of Nations appears to be going like a morning frost before a rising sun.

Calamities never come singly. The Kentucky legislature is in session and the flu is breaking out again.

With all doubt of the result dissolved in advance, the presidential election will be a tame affair.

A long and violent bombardment with vulgar epithets and coarse calumny has failed to dislodge Lodge.

To the daily newspaper writer "old times" as a pleasant memory, harks back to his days of elegant leisure on a country weekly.

Broken in health, balked in his ambition to become president of the League of Nations, and forced to watch daily defections from his leadership in the ranks of his party, the President presents a pitiable spectacle of the shattered dream of human ambition.

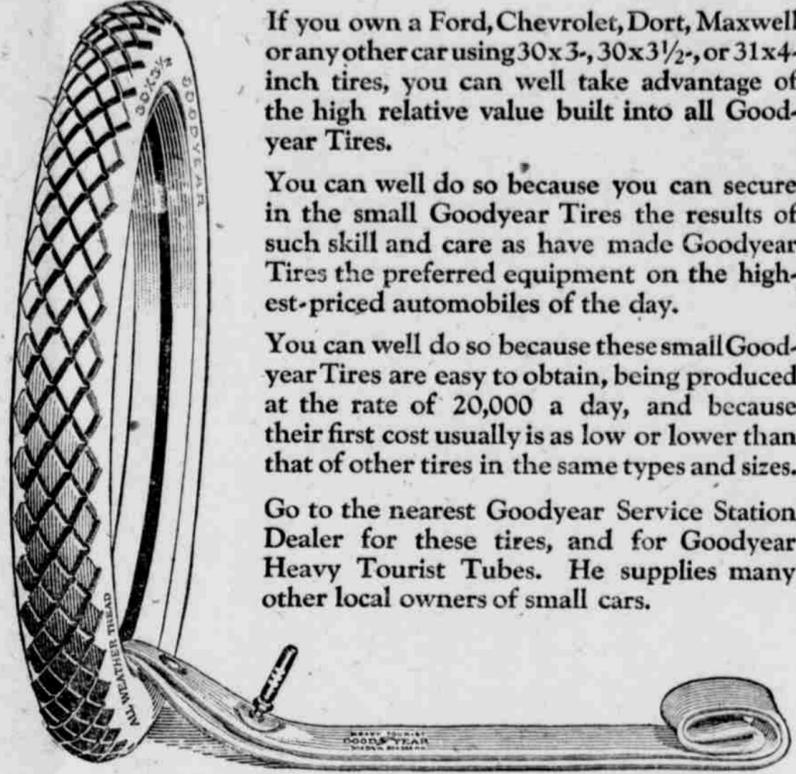

It takes a woman to know women. I had always believed that women powdered and painted and flounced and frilled to make themselves attractive to men, and now comes a very bright lady and tells me it is nothing of the sort; that a woman's effort to appear attractive arises out of jealousy to outshine the other woman.

We are given to complaining about how little our dollar will buy, but compared with the purchasing power of the currency of Europe we have a cinch. The American dollar will buy twenty-five per cent more than the British, two and a half times as much as the French, three times as much as the Italian and six times as much as the German dollar.

When the spring time comes again I am coming over to revisit the glimpses of the moon, and spend a few happy days in the "old home town." It will have been almost a year since I have heard the familiar sound of the old courthouse bell or seen the familiar sight of Eck Rial's old gray horse, and I shall expect to find many changes. But among them I shall not expect to find Ben Taylor married, Battle Nall at work, Tins staying home of nights, Claude Smith attending Ed Barrass' show, Sim opening his drug store at 8 A. M. or closing it at 8 P. M., or Albert Cox shaved, or Dills Ward—but what is the use? The list is too long.

I witnessed Judge Wells tie two nuptial knots with one string the other day, and I then and there resolved that when the roads get clear again I would bring him over to Hartford and have him take lessons under Judge Cook in the fine art of knot-tying. Judge Wells' ceremony was scholarly, elegant, impressive and instructive, but what the young couple most wants is brevity. I know, for I have gone through with the ordeal myself. The Judge gave those young people much salutary and use-

Equip Your Small Car With Goodyear Tires

If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or any other car using 30x3, 30x3 1/2, or 31x4-inch tires, you can well take advantage of the high relative value built into all Goodyear Tires.

You can well do so because you can secure in the small Goodyear Tires the results of such skill and care as have made Goodyear Tires the preferred equipment on the highest-priced automobiles of the day.

You can well do so because these small Goodyear Tires are easy to obtain, being produced at the rate of 20,000 a day, and because their first cost usually is as low or lower than that of other tires in the same types and sizes.

Go to the nearest Goodyear Service Station Dealer for these tires, and for Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes. He supplies many other local owners of small cars.

30x3 1/2 Goodyear Double-Cure
Fabric, All-Weather Tread $20.00

30x3 1/2 Goodyear Single-Cure
Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread $17.65

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes are thick, strong tubes that reinforce casings properly. Why risk a road casing with a cheap tube? Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost little more than tubes of less merit. 30x3 1/2 size in water-proof bag $3.90 ful advice; did it gracefully and well, but it prolonged their embarrassment. He told them that when God made woman he did not take her from man's head to be lorded over, nor from his foot to be trampled on, but from under his arm as a symbol of the duty of protection, and from close to his heart as an emblem of John's; John, you are Mary's, in the name of God, amen."

DE LAVAL
The World's Standard.

You will do yourself an injustice if you don't try the De Laval before buying. It has few parts, therefore longer life; makes a better quality of butter fat, having taken all premiums for butter at the Creamery Conventions for the last 25 years; and there are more De Laval's in use than all other makes combined, which is sufficient evidence of the superiority of the De Laval. Call us for demonstration.
