HERE AND THERE.

Rogers & Davis' livery stable. Fritz's old stand. Telephone 143. Buy goods of M. G. Lee Bros.—Clarksville, Tenn., and save money. Walter Seates, of Crofton, had a horse killed by lightning the other night. E. S. Adams procured a license to wed Miss Margaret Ann Graves, Tuesday. Miss Annie Sybert has been engaged to teach the public school in the Concord district this fall. Buckner Lodge, Knights of Pythias, was organized at S. Broe last week with 17 members. Dr. and Mrs. Andrew Seargent will entertain the young people this evening from 8 to 12 o'clock. Charles Downey, col., mashed three fingers off Tuesday, while handling plank at the depot. Mr. James M. Long, who has been dangerously sick at his home near Poe Dees, is reported much better. Prof. C. B. Pittman will be principal of the Crofton academy next season. He will have three assistants. Any one desiring to buy a small place one mile south of the city would do well to call on L. L. Buckner. J. E. Croft's store was broken into at Crofton a few nights ago and a considerable amount of merchandise stolen. A "big meeting" is in progress at the colored Baptist church at Crofton and there have already been many additions. Policeman O. A. West is back on duty from a week's vacation. In his absence his place was filled by Malbert Long. Young Mr. Brumfield was baptized by the pastor of the Christian church after prayer meeting, Wednesday night. A portion of Mr. A. C. Overshiner's yard caved in yesterday morning and landed in the street below. Mrs. C. M. Latham was called to Hernando, Miss., yesterday, by a telegram announcing the serious illness of her father. Wm. Singler, formerly P. H. M., the Christian county horse, entered in the trotting races at Detroit Wednesday, was distanced. BOARDING—Four pleasant rooms with board. Day boarders wanted. Apply to Mrs. B. T. USDENWOOD, 501 Campbell St. WANTED—To sell our entire Livery outfit. Satisfactory reasons for selling. ROGERS & DAVIS. Fritz old stand. L. L. Buckner has two fine harness horses for sale cheap that can trot in three minutes or better. Also several good gentle ponies. S. B. White & Co., Julien, Ky., are agents for the Hecla, Empire and Mud River Coals. See them before purchasing your winter supply. The next theatrical season will open Sept. 12 with Cleveland's Minstrels. A fine line of splendid attractions have been booked for this season. The passenger trains on the N. N. & M. V. road will begin on a new time table Sunday. The eastbound train will arrive in Louisville in the day time hereafter. The Baptist Church building at Church Hill has been torn down and an elegant structure is being erected in its stead. G. O. Meador is the contractor. Quite a pleasant party was given the younger ladies and gentlemen of Church Hill by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stone at their elegant residence near that place Wednesday night. We understand it is a fact that the Christian County Union Turnpike Co. has earned 10% net per annum, on the preferred stock since its completion. This is one of the safest and best paying investments in the State. Prof. Schooby is still making an energetic canvass for his school and is sending back the best of reports. South Kentucky College is expecting a genuine boom in September. The Erlington Colored Brass Band of thirteen pieces spent yesterday in the city and at night entertained a crowd of picnickers in a grove near the city. They are on a tour advertising an excursion to be run from Trenton to Erlington Aug. 3rd. The cheap rates offered on the Old Point excursion will be taken advantage of by many who desire to visit their relatives at Richmond and other places throughout the State. If you intend going, hand your name in to T. E. Bartley or the agent of the L. & N., no provision can be made for you. The new Presbyterian church at Gracy has been completed and Thompson & McElroy, the enterprising furniture merchants of this city, were awarded the contract for furnishing the church, including pulpits, chairs, pews and seats. The whole interior presents quite an imposing appearance. "Old Dick," the asylum buggy horse, who had served the State faithfully for twenty odd years, dropped dead in the harness while being driven along Seventh street a few days ago. He was apparently as well as usual and was jogging along at his customary gait when he fell and expired in a few minutes. Stephen Pollard, col., aged about fifty-five years and Kittie McKelly, white, aged about forty years, were arrested by Sheriff Staton yesterday and lodged in jail, charged with unlawful cohabitation. It is said that they have been quietly living together in the old field near the seventh mile ferry for about four years.—Clarksville Chronicle.

A SUICIDE.

Chas. Slaughter Slaughters Himself On Account of Family Trouble. A young man named Charles Slaughter living near Kirkmansville committed suicide Sunday morning. He was married and the father of one child. His domestic affairs did not get along smoothly and on Saturday he had a quarrel with his wife and both of them left home, spending the night with different parties. They returned the next morning and after leaving further words the wife told Slaughter to hold the baby while she cleaned up the house. He refused, saying he was going to kill himself, and picking up a pistol walked out in the yard and shot himself in the right breast. He lived about three hours and talked freely of the deed. He explained that he had shot himself in the right instead of the left breast so he would have time to repent of his sin before he died. He professed conversion during the day and died "shouting." Inquiry about the city fails to throw any light upon who Slaughter was. The news of the killing was brought to the city by Mr. Jno. W. Wicks, who lives some distance this side of Kirkmansville. Nobody in the city knew him and he must have lived over the line in Todd county. Dr. Dulin Would Decline. HOPKINSVILLE, Ky. July 23, 1889.—To S. G. Buckner, chairman, and C. M. Neacham, secretary, of the Christian County Democratic Committee: Gentlemen—Your committee did me the honor on the 3d instant to recommend me to the voters of Christian county, Ky., for the office of coroner at the election the 5th of August next. For this mark of your confidence and esteem I return my sincere thanks, but inasmuch as the duties of my profession and official obligations are incompatible, and as I seek my first allegiance to the former, I feel impelled to forego the honor and emoluments of the office for which you recommend me, however tempting they may be, to court those in my chosen profession which, though probably not so alluring at present, yet are more permanent and substantial. Very respectfully, J. L. DOLAN, M. D.

Carefully Looked After.

These personally conducted excursions which have long been a feature of the Chesapeake & Ohio R. R. must not be confounded with the "rush" excursions run from all over the country by other roads, where every one is expected to look out for himself and do the best he can. Great pains will be taken to make everyone as comfortable as can be, and ladies who desire to make the trip need have no fears about lack of attention. MATRIMONIAL. Ed Auenburgh and Miss Ties Johnson, of Crofton, expect to be married Saturday night and after a good deal of bother and delay succeeded in getting married Monday. They were accompanied by John McCaughey and Miss Nelsie Auenbaugh. Todd Institute. Prof. C. H. Dietrich went to Elkton Ky. Tuesday and conducted the Todd county Teachers' Institute, which was in session for three days. The meeting was a very interesting and profitable one. Kiss it. (Henderson Gleaser.) A woman writes a column to a Boston paper on the subject: "How to Treat a Pretty Mouth." A man would have thoroughly exhausted the subject in two words. House Burned. The dwelling house of Jacob H. Hammonds, of the Bainbridge district, 12 miles northwest of town, was burned last Monday night while Mr. Hammond and his family were at church. The fire broke up the services before the place could be reached the house with all its contents was totally destroyed. Mr. Hammonds is a poor man and the loss ruins him. His furniture, clothing and provisions for the year and in fact everything in the way of family supplies was burned, leaving him with a scanty condition that a paper-acknowledged for him was being circulated in the city this week. His losses amounted to about $300. Dr. P. C. Woolton, the old druggist and practicing physician at Lafayette Ky., desires to thank the people in and around that place for their past liberal patronage and respectfully solicit a continuance of same, promising to deal in the future as in the past—squarely, honestly and earnestly. He assures the public that he will retail drugs and medicines cheaper than similar houses in the surrounding cities and towns. An experience of 40 years in the business is a sufficient guarantee that the above statement can be relied upon. Mr. W. E. Anglen, an experienced practitioner, has been retained in that capacity. DEATHS. Dr. E. R. Cullom Died. Dr. E. R. Cullom, of Gracy, died Tuesday night after an illness of six weeks. He had almost recovered from a severe spell of illness and had been up a few days when he suffered a fatal relapse and lived but a short while. Dr. Cullom was about 45 or 50 years of age and was an excellent physician and a popular gentleman. He enjoyed a large practice in the western part of the county, where he had been the resident doctor for many years. He lived at Old Bellevue until the railroad was built and then moved to Gracy, a mile or two away. He leaves a wife and several children. Will H. Brown, a prominent young man of Princeton, who married Miss Grace Goodwin, a pretty 18-year-old girl, a few weeks ago, died at Princeton Monday night, of typhoid fever. Mr. Brown was a conductor on the O. V. Railroad. COLORED. Small child of Hudson Morris, in the Antioch neighborhood, Tuesday. What May Be Expected From the Trip to Old Point. With the exceedingly low rates at the Hygeia Hotel—$2.50 per day, and the cheap railroad fare, one can for a very small amount visit the coast, which will enable him to enjoy sun-bathing, sailing and various little side excursions which add largely to the pleasure of the trip. The Hygeia is one of the best appointed hotels in the United States, surrounding the guest with every comfort and luxury and spreading before him an elaborate bill of fare, which affords such delicacies as are seldom enjoyed. A large and commodious ball room with an outlook upon the bay, where the lovers of the dance may roundly revel in the music of the military band. There are many pleasant drives to Hampton, the Indian School, Soldiers Home, Fortress Monroe and other points of easy access. This excursion is the most liberal that can possibly be given, allowing three weeks limit and stop over privileges returning at any station between Huntington and Old Point. You can not afford to miss it. FOR THE BLOOD. MOWEN'S IRON BITTERS. It cures quickly. For sale by all Dealers in Medicine. Get the genuine. SPECIAL LOCALS.
