Walter A. Radford left Saturday for Lake Weir, Fla., where he will spend the winter and do some drumming in the South for Rice & Co.'s tobacco house.

CREAM OF NEWS.

Minstrels Coming.
There is a difference between minstrel shows and a few years ago. A latter day minstrel performance covers all the salient features of comic opera, burlesque and farce comedy. Some of the highest class specialty artists are being introduced to our stage by enterprising minstrel managers. Edward Estus, a German equibrist of great skill and daring; Leozzo, who is termed the Egyptian wonder-worker, are two of the latest importations. Both of them are touring the country with Al. G. Field & Co.'s Operatic Minstrels. The performances of these two people are said to border on the marvelous. Leozzo performs feats of juggling and high-class magic. Estus builds a towering pyramid from stage to dome of theatre, using glass bottles, chairs, etc., in its construction. The press everywhere terms with praise of their novel performance. This company will be here Thursday, Nov. 7.

A Buggy Thief Captured.
Jim Barker, col., was arrested last Tuesday near Longview by special constable H. B. Trice, and lodged in jail here Wednesday. Barker is charged with grand larceny, in stealing a buggy from Mr. Jesse T. Harris, who lives near Hinsleytown, on the night of the 1st of May last. Mr. Harris offered a reward of $50 for the capture of the thief and buggy at the time. The buggy was identified by Mr. Dugan in Clarksville, having been traded to a Mr. Cherry by Barker a short while ago. Mr. Harris has recovered the buggy and it will be used in evidence against Barker, who claims he bought it of a man living in Providence.

Brass Band.
A meeting was held at Postell's hall Friday night, Nov. 1st, for the purpose of organizing a brass band club. The following officers were elected: A. C. Banks, President; H. J. Hubbard, Secretary; H. P. Phelps, Treasurer. A resolution was unanimously adopted that all money raised by subscription be held for the purchase of instruments, and that the same be refunded should the club cease to work. A. C. Banks, H. J. Phelps, J. H. Hargrave and R. P. Hubbard were appointed a committee to solicit subscriptions.

A Primary Election January 11th.
The Democratic County Committee met yesterday, all the members being present excepting the member from Wilson's. Mr. S. G. Buckner resigned his position as a member from Hopkinsville and Mr. E. M. Flack, was elected to take his place. Dr. Jno. L. Dulin was elected chairman of the committee.

The Committee after a good deal of discussion settled upon a primary election as the method and Saturday January 11 as the time for selecting a ticket for the various county offices.
A False Alarm.
An obstructed fire in the new Planters Warehouse on Ninth Street caused the smoke to fill a portion of the building yesterday morning at 10 o'clock and an alarm of fire was sounded. The engine turned out, but the mistake was discovered at once and they did not reach the scene.

HERE AND THERE.

Dr. Seargent, office over City Bank. Drs. Seargent & Blakey have dissolved partnership.
Ninth street is being remodeled from Main to Virginia.
Robt. M. Woodriddle, livery and sale stable, Fritz' stand. Telephone 144.
Squirrels and birds are plentiful and hunters are having grand sport.
Sheriff West collected $10,000 of county and state taxes in four days last week.
Headquarters for city transfer is still at Jno. G. Ellis' livery stable. W. S. Davison.
Louis James, the tragedian, is booked for Nov. 25. He will probably play Hamlet.
Mack Rivers will open a grocery store near Noah's Spring, this county, about the 20th inst.
Rev. J. T. Barrow will assist in conducting a protracted meeting at Franklin, Ky., next week.
Morris Cohen will move into the Bramham house, corner of Main and Second streets, this week.
The oyster supper given at the court house Friday night was a success and a good sum was realized.
Last Sunday was a beautiful day and a large number of people spent part of the afternoon in the cemetery.
Mr. E. M. Flack denies the statement of the Clarksville Chronicle that he contemplates moving to that town.
Will Bamberger had two fat shoats stolen from his pen at his residence at 526 Liberty street, Thursday night.
Gov. Buckner has pardoned Berry Shaw, col., sent to the penitentiary for larceny last month from Hopkins county.
Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Webb will entertain the young people Friday evening in honor of her guest, Miss Ellen Johnson, of Louisville.
The "Peerless Fire Company" will give an entertainment some time in the near future. The best local talent will participate and a good show is promised.
F. M. Whitlow and not W. H. Whitlow is the proprietor of the new ten-pound boy whose arrival was mentioned in this paper Friday.
The sawing frames in front of the burned block adjoining this office have been dropped down and hang so low that they are a great inconvenience. Let them be removed.
There have been several additions to the West Union church since the protracted meeting commenced there. The meeting will probably continue throughout this week.
Mr. Charles Johnson has purchased an interest in C. R. Clark's grocery and the firm name is now Clark & Johnson. They will do business at the old stand in future.
We have heard of some tobacco crops being sold at $2 around on the stalk. This is equivalent to about $3 stripped and shows the market to be lower than for a long time.
Prof. C. H. Dietrich is teaching a night class in shorthand at the depot. Five young men employed by the railroad and three others out in town are taking the course.
On the morning of the 1st a large number of partridges were brought to the city and sold. They were all from "Todd" however, as the game law expired in that county on the 20th ult.
The Baptist church building is very much improved by its new coat of paint. Collins & Pross did the work, which accounts for the excellent taste displayed in the selection of colors.
The Latham Light Guards will have a target practice one evening this week. We believe the boys are afraid of having to go to Harlan, and in case they do, would like to be the best marksmen.
A large crowd was in the city yesterday and the merchants who have advertised their goods did a good business. Horse trading square was also thronged throughout the day and there was much "swapping."

The series of meetings held at South Union Church closed last Thursday. There were ten additions to the membership. Dr. Dickson, who assisted in the meeting, did able service and made many warm friends.
Jesse's third addition to the city of Hopkinsville will shortly be put on the market. The plot is situated between Elm street and Jessup Ave., and will contain some very desirable lots. Judge McCarroll has the matter in charge.
The Christian Women's Charity Association have elected the following corps of officers for the ensuing year: Mrs. S. G. Buckner, president; Mrs. Jno. R. Green and Miss Mary McTherson, vice-presidents; Miss Fannie Phelps, treasurer; Mrs. E. M. Flack, chairman of visiting committee; Mrs. F. J. Brownell, assistant; Mrs. Nat Galtner, chairman of special committee, Mrs. G. E. Galtner, assistant.

The recent warm weather has caused many trees, both fruit and shade, to bud, and there is danger of next year's fruit crop being injured. We have seen two or three parties who told us that some of their trees were already in bloom. It will be remembered that peach trees especially were laden with blooms last spring but after the fruit formed and got to be as large as peas it fell off in certain localities altogether and certain orchards yielded no peaches whatever. It is highly probable that the peach crop next year will be an entire failure.

An English admiral, says: "It is true, the life-saving service of America is not equalled anywhere in the world." It is also true that Ayer's Cherry pectoral saves, annually, thousands of lives. Invaluable in sudden colds, throat, and lung troubles.

THE TYPEWRITER.
The Rapidity With Which It is Coming Into Use.
Quite a Number of Them Here.
About two years ago the first typewriter machine brought to Hopkinsville was introduced in the law office of the late R. W. Henry. For a while it was quite a novelty, but regarded as rather an expensive luxury. But soon its good points and many great advantages began to attract attention, especially from such scribes as Judge Landes, whose manuscript is by no means so legible as that from a typewriter. In fact the Judge's handwriting, as well as that of many of our other legal lights, bears a striking resemblance to the hieroglyphics of ancient Egypt and this device by which their chirography could be made legible was hailed with pleasure as the very thing to fill a long felt want. But its legibility is but one of the many advantages of the typewriter. It is easily worked, is rapidly operated and in large business establishments where letters are dictated hastily by the busy head of the house it is almost indispensable. They are bound to come into general use everywhere as they become cheaper. At present there are about a dozen machines in Hopkinsville and they range in value from $100 down to $17 for the cheapest ones. As far as we have been able to learn, the following is a list of the machines now in use here:
Landes & Clark, lawyers, have a Smith-Premier, which cost $100.
Long, Winfree & Kelly, insurance agents, have a Calligraph, worth $100.
Joe McCarroll, lawyer, has a Hammond, also worth $100.
Abernathy & Long, warehousemen, H. J. Stites, lawyer, and S. W. Forgy, lawyer, the Hemingtons, worth from $75 to $100 each.
Wood & Bell, lawyers, have a Cranston, a $75 machine.
A. D. Rodgers, manager of the Opera House, has the Hemington formerly owned by the Feland, which cost $75.
Prof. C. H. Dietrich, superintendent of the Public School, has two, both cheap machines. One is a Hall worth $40 and the other a World Double Case, worth $17.
Willie Bramham also has a $40 Hall machine.
Of course there is a diversity of opinion in regard to the respective merits of these various machines, but all of them are giving satisfaction and their value to business men is becoming recognized more and more. The typewriter has been before the public but a few years but its success is already assured and it has come to stay.

The Dance Friday Evening.
The young gentlemen of the Pleasure Club gave a dance last Friday evening at the Army, which was a highly enjoyable affair. Music was furnished by the local string band. A nice little crowd was in attendance, considering the inclemency of the weather, as will be seen below:
Misses Mamie Small, Nannie Barnes, Male Quins, Grace Barr, Lizzie Mercer, May Faulkner, Julia Yenable, Mamie Barbour, Lillie and Kate Woodriddle, Lizzie Withers, Mary Clark, Ellen Johnson, Mary Green, Edith Boulware, Lela Winfree, Carrie Fouqua, and Messrs. H. M. Bryan, Harry Tandy, J. W. Ware, Sherwood Buckner, Chas. Anderson, Owsin Steinhagen, Will Withers, Alex Cox, Jno. Campbell, Walter Campbell, Jonett Henry, Homer Prince, Frank Bell, Gerahom Cox, Sam Heister, Walter Radford, Jas. Cooper, Kay Grundy, Bob Buckner and Henry Tandy.

COMMON PLEAS COURT.
Jury List for First and Second Weeks.
Marion Meacham, D. M. Whitaker, Ben Jackson, col., Marion Ford, Dave Dulin, col., Henry M. West, O. B. Griffin, Jno. Talley, Jas. Pyle, Alex Ferrill, G. C. Brasher, J. H. Martin, W. H. Sizemore, H. E. King, Jno. M. Dulin, N. T. Nixon, H. B. Ferrill, Jno. T. Hockett, L. L. Nichols, J. E. Jones, D. T. Brown, J. F. Smith, A. M. Laub, Marion Moore.

There is a large number of suits docketed for this term of the court, but none of special importance to the public.

CROFTON.
Fire at Marion's Gap—Two Deaths—Two Marriages—Other Items.
CROFTON, Ky., Nov. 3.—Ed. J. E. Scooby, of your city, preached to a large audience at the Christian church here to-day.

G. R. Hancock, formerly of this place, but now of Morton's Gap, Ky., had his residence with contents burned last Thursday night. The family awoke just in time to escape from the flames.

Miss Edna Kistner died at the residence of her father, J. H. Kistner, at 4 a. m., Nov. 2, of consumption. She leaves many relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

Died, Nov. 1, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Bowles.

Mrs. Yates and Miss Allie Croft, of Dixon, Ky., are visiting the families of A. R. and J. G. Croft.

One of Hopkins county's popular young men has for some time been making frequent visits to this place and has at last persuaded one of our young ladies to be queen on his hearthstone. Their vows will be made next Tuesday. One of our young men, not wishing to be thus treated, made his way to Hopkins county and persuaded one of her fair daughters to come and be a Christianite and next Wednesday is the day set apart by them to pledge eternal fidelity to each other. The names are withheld by request. We wish for them all a long life of prosperity, unclouded by sorrow and undimmed by tears. Buck.

FAIRVIEW.
FAIRVIEW, Nov. 2d.—The Primitive Baptists are holding a series of meetings at Cave Spring near here.

Mr. D. C. Hancock and family, of Union county, are visiting near here.

Dabney is a Brother of J. M. Hancock and son-in-law of Ben Layne and has 7 boys, none of them having reached their majority. He has not visited here before in 10 years.

Mr. J. W. Falcher has sold his fine farm to his brother, Mr. Alex. Falcher.

Rev. T. H. Shaw showed his house and lot in Fairview to Mr. J. W. Moodie. He will probably move to Clarksville to live.

Mr. J. P. Hancock and wife, of St. Bethlehem, Tenn., are visiting relatives and friends near here.

The matrimonial market is dull around here. There has been but one wedding here this fall.

Miss Lela Mosely has gone to Florida to spend the winter. She is visiting her cousin Miss Lee Moodie who spent the summer here.

Rev. Dr. E. N. Dicken has returned home after being engaged in a two weeks' meeting at South Union Baptist Church in Christian county.

Born to the wife of C. E. S. White, a boy.

The little daughter of Mr. H. B. Hancock is quite sick with fever.

MATRIMONIAL.
WEDDING PRESENTS.
One of the most notable marriages that has occurred in this county for many years was the marriage of Mr. William D. Summers and Miss Mary Lacy, which was solemnized by the Rev. Dr. Ford, Thursday, October 31st, at Wood Lawn, the home of the bride.

Immediately after the ceremony, which was witnessed by a number of friends, Mr. and Mrs. Summers came to their home three miles west of this city.

Among the number of elegant presents that were received was a magnificent China dinner service from the bride's mother; silver tea set, Mrs. and Mrs. J. S. Summers; solid silver ladle lined with gold, Dr. and Mrs. Gunn; three dozen silver spoons, bride's mother; silver jewelry case, Miss Lizzie Hall; elegant toilet set, Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Black.

Mr. William Barnes, of Mississippi, a native of this county, reached this county last Friday on a visit to relatives. He met with Miss Mit Lawrence, of the Maple Grove neighborhood, and was captivated by her charms, made a proposal of marriage to her and was accepted. Their union of hearts and hands was consummated yesterday at the County Court Clerk's office, Rev. J. Freeman performing the marriage ceremony. Mr. Barnes had been twice married before, but had lost each wife, besides all of his children, eight in number except one little daughter. The parties will make their future home in Christian county, Ky.—Clarksville Chronicle.

Married, at the Northington House, by the Rev. A. D. Sears on the 31st October, Jas. C. Jones to Miss Laura Bala, both of Caldwell county, Ky.—Clarksville Tobacco Leaf.

Miss Mattie Holland, eldest daughter of Mr. W. A. Holland, editor of Emancipation Constitutional, was married Friday to Rev. Wm. H. Stephenson, of Tiffin, Ohio.

Mr. Nockels, Trenton, Ky., and Miss Mattie Bell, daughter of the late Caleb Bell, were married at Mr. John Rosche's near Guthrie Thursday.—Clarksville Chronicle.

Miss Rynia Boales, of this city, and Mr. W. M. Carter, of Texas, will be married at the Methodist church on the 20th inst.

Rev. E. N. Dicken will begin a protracted meeting at New Providence Baptist church on the fourth Sunday in November.—Tobacco Leaf.

To The Trade of Christian and Adjoining Counties!

Having determined to make a change in my business next season, I am bound to sell my stock as near out as possible and in order to do that, I will place on sale today 25 pieces all wool Henriettas at 50 cents, these cloths you can't buy in any market for less than 85 or 90 cents; besides I have the best assortment of Fancy Dress Trimmings ever shown and they must go at a price to move them. I have about 15 pieces of all wool flannel suitings that are good value at 50c, but out they go at 35 Cents.

My Carpet sale I will continue for a few days longer to give those that want Carpets an opportunity to get them right down at New York cost less carriage; this is no Advertising Scheme but a bona fide Sale, if you doubt it, come and see and I am ready to show you that I mean business. I can save you money if you will come and price my goods. No trouble to show them.

DEATHS.

Miss Elma Kistner, at Crofton, Friday, of consumption.
Infant child of A. H. Bowles, at Crofton, Saturday.

There is not always luck in odd numbers. Judge Parker of the United States District court for the western district of Arkansas on last Friday sentenced nine Indian Territory murderers, of this year's crop, to be hanged on Jan. 15. These wretches can probably explain what it is to be in a nine-hole.

Dr. Jno. D. Clardy and wife, E. J. Jno. W. McGaughey and Mr. V. M. Metcalfe left last night for Sacramento, Cal., to attend the National Grange meeting. They will be gone for several weeks. They will go by the Santa Fe route on a return through Texas by the Southern Pacific.

There is a project on foot to remove Gen. Grant's body from New York City to Arlington. It is planned to make good the project to erect a monument over the grave.

Several professional beggars made a house to house canvass of the city last week.
