CREAM OF NEWS.

Filled With Squirrel Shot. Jesse Pyle was shot at Kelly Saturday night by John Fortner. They together with Joe Fortner and Tom De Armon, Jr., were engaged in a game of cards and came to hot words about midnight. Pyle does not know which one shot him, but John Fortner admits having fired the gun. Pyle says he heard a noise behind him and turned just in time to receive the lead in his breast and stomach. Fortner was about ten or twelve steps off and the gun was loaded with No. 3 squirrel shot. The shot scattered and 45 of them took effect. Dr. Moore was summoned and dressed the wounds. Reports received yesterday were favorable to Pyle's recovery. The doctor is of the opinion that the shot did not enter the hollow of the stomach and that none of the wounds will prove fatal. Both of the Fortners left for Henderson Sunday. Warrants were sworn out for them yesterday and also for De Armon's arrest, before Ev. Tinsley. De Armon has not left. He states that Joe Fortner did the shooting and denies any complicity in the affair. The warrants for the Fortners were sent to Henderson yesterday.

Union Services.

According to a long established custom, the various churches of the city will unite in a union Thanksgiving service on next Thursday at 11 a. m. The program will be as follows: Doxology, congregation; invocation, Rev. W. L. Nourse; reading of Scripture, Elder J. E. Seobey; prayer, Rev. J. W. Lewis; sermon; Rev. J. W. Poindexter, D. D.; benediction, Rev. Thos. Bottomley. Prof. Pendley Acquitted. At the conclusion of the examining trial of Prof. W. Pendley, charged with murder in the killing of Jas. Averitt at Nortonville on the afternoon of the 18th, the County Judge decided to discharge Pendley, the evidence going to show a clear case of self-defense. Pendley was not put upon the stand to testify in his own behalf, the evidence of bystanders only being taken. This was done at his own request.

The Spotted Fever Scare.

There has not been a single arrest by the police since Nov. 10th and our city is now one of the quietest and most orderly to be found anywhere. Some months of this year there were as high as 76 arrests made, but the vigorous way in which the laws have been enforced has at last had a salutary effect as shown by the records and law-breaking is now the exception rather than the rule as was formerly the case. Chief Campbell is without a doubt the right man in the right place.

A citizen of Trigg county has gone to John Drame. The Telephone says: Mr. W. D. Langston, of this county, has offered a reward of $100 for the apprehension and delivery of Theo. Dunn to the jailer of this county. Dunn stands charged with having murdered Joseph Lancaster on the 13th of Oct., 1889. Dunn is supposed to be in hiding in Tennessee. He is about 5 feet 10 inches high, weighs 135 or 140 lbs., is 30 or 35 years of age, has light hair, is spare made, has blue or gray eyes, and there is a little stoop in his gait. He is a little addicted to drink, and is rather glib and fussy when under the influence of whisky.

SMITH LYNCHED.

THE MURDERER OF MARSHAL WILLIAMS HANGED BY A MOB AT ELKTON.

Fifty Quiet and Determined Men Swing Him in Sight of the Court House.

Particulars of the Tragedy.

Jas. O. A. Smith was taken from the Todd county jail at Elkton Saturday night and hanged to a tree a mile from town.

Smith was the murderer of W. T. Williams at Trenton several weeks ago. After being at large some time he was arrested in Tennessee about two weeks ago and placed in the jail at Elkton. His brother-in-law had engaged Hon. H. G. Petrie, one of the best lawyers of the Elkton bar, to defend him and his trial was set for Dec. 2 in the Todd Circuit Court.

Ever since the killing of Williams there has been a very strong feeling against Smith. The citizens of Trenton and Pembroke raised the reward of $450 which secured Smith's apprehension and the murderer had been fearful of violence ever since he was lodged in jail. He begged to be sent to some other jail and was very anxious for a speedy trial, hoping to be sent to the penitentiary and out of reach of violence.

About midnight Saturday night a mob of 50 determined men rode into Elkton and went straight to the jail. The leader in a business-like manner demanded the keys to the jail from Jailer John Riekman. It was useless to resist and in a few moments the doomed man was in the hands of the avengers of Marshal Williams.

The details here are lacking as the execution was witnessed by none but those in the mob. Early Sunday morning the dead body of Smith was found hanging to a tree. He had been hanged to a limb and the crowd had quietly dispersed and disappeared as silently as their work had been done. The crime for which Smith was hanged is fresh in the memory of our readers. Williams was sent to serve a warrant upon him which he did in a quiet and respectful manner. Smith, who was a blacksmith at Trenton, was found at his shop and started to walk away with Williams but suddenly jerked out a pistol and shot him dead. The warrant was for his arrest in a whisky case at Pembroke. Smith was about 35 years old and leaves a family in Trenton.
