

THE LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY PAPER IN A CITY OF 8,000 AND A COUNTRY OF 10,000 POPULATION

Hopkinsville Kentuckian

A Live, New, and Progressive WEEKLY AT ONLY $5 PER YEAR Complete Job Office IN CONNECTION.

VOL. XII.—NO. 55.

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, JULY 15, 1890.

$2.00 A YEAR.

OUR STOCK IS TOO LARGE.

Goods must be sold.
Another week of Bargains.
Come and see us.
We offer great values.
Every department complete.
We want your trade.

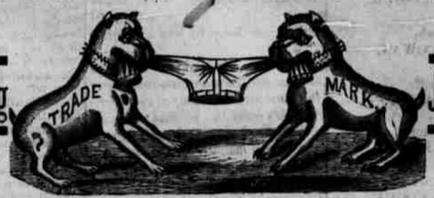

BASSETT & CO.,

"WRECKERS OF HIGH PRICES."

HOPKINSVILLE, KY.

"THE LAST OF THE MOHICAN" SALE

Is booming and the people are flocking to it. Good news as well as bad news travels rapidly. Many are buying shoes and laying them away for future use. Why don't you?

40 Doz. Bull Dog

JEANS PANTS

GO ON SALE:

THURSDAY MORNING AT 7 O'CLOCK,
At 50c, 75c, and $1.00, worth $1.50 and $2.00.

J. H. ANDERSON & CO.

Nos. 1 and 3 Main St. Glass Corner.

What is

CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Sam'l Pitche's old, harmless and quick cure for Infants and Children's Complaints. Superior to Castor Oil, Paregoric or Nuxvom's Emetics. Children cry for Castoria. Mothers of Mothers bless Castoria.

Castoria cures Colds, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Indigestion, Biliousness, Headache, Teething, and all ailments of Infants and Children. It is a healthy sleep; also aids digestion; without narcotic sleeplessness.

"I recommend Castoria for children's complaints, as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ANDERSON, M. D., 111 St. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

THE CASTORIA COMPANY, 77 Murray St., New York.

Central Tobacco Warehouse.

J. C. KENDRICK, J. H. PETTUS, GEO. S. IRWIN, T. W. SPAW

Kendrick, Pettus & Co., TOBACCO SALESMEN.

All Tobacco Insured unless we have written instructions to the contrary.

CLARKVILLE, TENN.

COLLECTING YOUR PATRONAGE.

JOHN T. BODDIE, Boddie, Ky., Agent.

W. G. WHEELER, W. H. FAXON, Book-keeper, JOHN N. M.

WHEELER, MILLS & CO., TOBACCO.

Warehousemen and Commission Merchants.

HUTSELLVILLE AND RAILROAD STREETS, HOPKINSVILLE, KY.

Liberal Advances on Consignments. All Tobacco sent us Covered by Insurance.

T. C. HANDEY, M. F. SHRYVER.

PEOPLES' WAREHOUSE,

HANBERY & SHRYVER, PROP'RS,

HOPKINSVILLE, KY. R. R. St. Bet 10th and 11th.

Central Tobacco Warehouse,

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY,

E. E. Abernathy, Prop'r.

Personal attention paid to sampling and selling tobacco.

NAT GAITHER, Manager.

PLANTERS WAREHOUSE.

The Nat Gaither Co., Proprietors.

TOBACCO COMMISSION MERCHANTS.

Hopkinsville, Ky.

Liberal Allowances on Tobacco in Store.

Four Months Free Storage on Plantery.

M. H. NELSON, F. W. DABNEY.

NELSON & DABNEY,

TOBACCO, GRAIN & COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

R. R. and 11th Sts. Hopkinsville, Ky.

Liberal advances made on Tobacco in store. All tobacco insured at cost of owner unless written instructions to the contrary.

THE AFRICAN FEVER.

One of the deadly Fevers Encountered by Explorations Far West.

Once or twice we heard the reports of typhoid, around our host when we moved for the night. As we slept, each wrapped in his blanket, lying awkwardly on his back, it was not pleasant to be wakened near midnight by these unaccountable sounds, and to hear the water along the ground, caused by these monsters.

We were not a little thankful that they confined themselves to grunts of defiance and forbore any actual attack. For by this time we were all suffering from African fever, and a good night's sleep was very precious to us. Our host was small and overworked, and we all got sick in a few days. It required considerable ingenuity and much coaxing and coaxing of legs before spaces could be found in which to lie down at all, in the stern-sheds of our craft.

One of the stoutest men, who had served twenty-one years in the British navy, suffered more than any of us; and by the time we reached many of the fever had taken so strong a hold on him that his eyes became hopeless. We did all we could for him, but our small knowledge was of no avail. We hoped that he would rally when we got ashore again, but five days after we had landed he succumbed after a few hours of delirium. This was indeed a great loss to me, for although there was a great difference in our ages, Milne and I had been fast friends on the voyage out. He had been of good me in many ways, instead of ridiculing my inexperience, and on several occasions had helped me out of difficulties into which I had been led through ignorance. He never lost an opportunity of giving me such information as he thought would be of use to me when I should be away in the interior and alone. It was Milne who first showed me how to handle a rifle, how to use a sail needle, and, even more important, how to cook the few articles that have for years figured with such monotonous repetition in my simple bills of fare.

In return, I would assure him and the others on the way by drawing rough portraits which they sent home to their friends, or, at night, I would sing a few comic songs to the accompaniment of my banjo. And here, at the commencement of our new career, the man who to all appearances was the strongest of our party was snatched away by death, while I, a not particularly robust man, was left to ponder who would be the next victim to the dreadful fever that was burning in every vein and tracking every fibre.

I felt then that it was necessary for me to "brace up." Keep a stiff upper lip, and fight every advance of the enemy. To my surprise I found myself day by day growing stronger, while my companions weakened and fell; at last, one day I was able to announce myself as prepared to continue the march.—H. J. GILVER, in St. Nic. Glas.

CHURCH HILL.

Church Hill, July 7.—Softly o'er the gentle zephyr stealing, and that the woe of the wheat thresher is heard and it is a busy time for the farmers.

The Fourth was not celebrated in this vicinity.

Miss Lizzie Owen paid a flying visit to Guthrie this week.

The "handsome, gallant and gay" Mr. A. Elmo Stegar, of Paducah, who has been visiting relatives here, returned home Monday much to the regret of a host of friends.

Miss Anna Chalkley, a charming young lady who has been visiting for quite a while, left for her home Saturday. What a sad late "B."

"Down by the summer S. E. A." the favorite song of a Duke now.

Miss Annie Darle and Nell Fox of your city, are the guests of Mr. Cecil Holloway.

Mr. and Mrs. Wholer Cayce will entertain a number of young friends at their pleasant home near here Thursday evening, in honor of their guests, Misses Cross and Sherrill, of Bennettsown.

The Lawn party at Mr. Geo. Pierce's the evening of the 4th was a most enjoyable affair. Miss Sallie Pierce, the charming hostess, never acted her part more perfectly and everybody had a lovely time.

The young ladies in attendance were: Misses Willie Barr, Bowling Green; Ora Collins, Fla.; Annie Dade, Nollie Fox, Cecil Holloway, Kimpie Sherrill, Cora Finkley, Pearl Cayce, Browning Cross, Ethel Duke, and Minnie Stegar.

The young gentlemen were Messrs. A. E. Stegar, Paducah; George Willis, Herbert Shanklin, Will Gary, Fox Holloway, Ward and Dan Claggott, Jas. Johnson, Handy Mason, Jim Adams, and Willie Fierce.

Adieu for the present.

MAMMA'S GIRL.

HEREDITARY BLOOD POISON.

Many of the evils of life are inherited. Parents transmit to their children a state of blood impurity. What a fearful heritage to bequeath an innocent child! Scrofula, skin diseases, erysipelas, sore eyes, ringworm, tetter, eczema, scald head, scabby surfaces, syphilitic symptoms, ulcerative and consumptive tendencies, etc., all of which make life miserable, and the victim a prey to desponding thoughts. It is surely a disgrace that this should be so. It is manifestly the duty of every one to keep their blood pure and their systems in a condition of good health. Nature has given us kindly herbs that will accomplish this properly used. The best are used with careful selection in that compound known as Dr. Bull's Sarsaparilla. There is no phase of blood poison this incomparable alternative will not relieve. If a sufferer from blood disease, you do yourself great injustice if you fail to try it.—Springfield Express.

DRUNKENNESS—LIQUOR HABIT—IN ALL THE WORLD THERE IS BUT ONE CURE, DR. HAINES' GOLDEN SPECIFIC.

It can be taken in a cup of tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it, effecting a speedy and permanent cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been cured who have taken the Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge, and today believe they quit drinking of their own free will. No harmful effect results from its administration. Careful guaranties. Send for circular and full particulars. Address in confidence, GOLDEN SPECIFIC CO., 185 Race Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

NEW LINCOLN STORY.

He Played Ball the Day Before He Was Shot.

One among many memories of pleasant public characters stored away by Mr. Edward W. Cox, of the Denton House, is a recollection of having played hand-ball at Springfield, Ill., with Abraham Lincoln the day before the latter was nominated for the Presidency.

Before the nomination of Mr. Lincoln, Mr. Cox was traveling in the West for an oil house. During his travels he for several days used trains which were full of people bound for the Chicago convention.

Mr. Cox and a fellow drummer, who was out for a Zanesville ink box, pulled all the travelers they could reach and found the utmost enthusiasm for the Illinois lawyer.

Thoroughly convinced that Lincoln would be the nominee, the pair of drummers took a run down to Springfield to see the counting men. They found no excitement there, and on asking to see Mr. Lincoln were told he could be found on that day, which was the one before the convention, down at the ball park playing hand-ball, a game of which Mr. Lincoln was passionately fond. Next day they started for the city and there they found the man of destiny busily engaged in chatting a bonnet against a blank brick wall and endeavoring to strike it in such a way that it would rebound out of reach of his opponent. There was quite a crowd sitting about watching the game.

CHURCH HILL.

Church Hill, July 7.—Softly o'er the gentle zephyr stealing, and that the woe of the wheat thresher is heard and it is a busy time for the farmers.

The Fourth was not celebrated in this vicinity.

Miss Lizzie Owen paid a flying visit to Guthrie this week.

The "handsome, gallant and gay" Mr. A. Elmo Stegar, of Paducah, who has been visiting relatives here, returned home Monday much to the regret of a host of friends.

Miss Anna Chalkley, a charming young lady who has been visiting for quite a while, left for her home Saturday. What a sad late "B."

"Down by the summer S. E. A." the favorite song of a Duke now.

Miss Annie Darle and Nell Fox of your city, are the guests of Mr. Cecil Holloway.

Mr. and Mrs. Wholer Cayce will entertain a number of young friends at their pleasant home near here Thursday evening, in honor of their guests, Misses Cross and Sherrill, of Bennettsown.

The Lawn party at Mr. Geo. Pierce's the evening of the 4th was a most enjoyable affair. Miss Sallie Pierce, the charming hostess, never acted her part more perfectly and everybody had a lovely time.

The young ladies in attendance were: Misses Willie Barr, Bowling Green; Ora Collins, Fla.; Annie Dade, Nollie Fox, Cecil Holloway, Kimpie Sherrill, Cora Finkley, Pearl Cayce, Browning Cross, Ethel Duke, and Minnie Stegar.

The young gentlemen were Messrs. A. E. Stegar, Paducah; George Willis, Herbert Shanklin, Will Gary, Fox Holloway, Ward and Dan Claggott, Jas. Johnson, Handy Mason, Jim Adams, and Willie Fierce.

Adieu for the present.

MAMMA'S GIRL.

HEREDITARY BLOOD POISON.

Many of the evils of life are inherited. Parents transmit to their children a state of blood impurity. What a fearful heritage to bequeath an innocent child! Scrofula, skin diseases, erysipelas, sore eyes, ringworm, tetter, eczema, scald head, scabby surfaces, syphilitic symptoms, ulcerative and consumptive tendencies, etc., all of which make life miserable, and the victim a prey to desponding thoughts. It is surely a disgrace that this should be so. It is manifestly the duty of every one to keep their blood pure and their systems in a condition of good health. Nature has given us kindly herbs that will accomplish this properly used. The best are used with careful selection in that compound known as Dr. Bull's Sarsaparilla. There is no phase of blood poison this incomparable alternative will not relieve. If a sufferer from blood disease, you do yourself great injustice if you fail to try it.—Springfield Express.

DRUNKENNESS—LIQUOR HABIT—IN ALL THE WORLD THERE IS BUT ONE CURE, DR. HAINES' GOLDEN SPECIFIC.

It can be taken in a cup of tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it, effecting a speedy and permanent cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been cured who have taken the Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge, and today believe they quit drinking of their own free will. No harmful effect results from its administration. Careful guaranties. Send for circular and full particulars. Address in confidence, GOLDEN SPECIFIC CO., 185 Race Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

NEW LINCOLN STORY.

He Played Ball the Day Before He Was Shot.

One among many memories of pleasant public characters stored away by Mr. Edward W. Cox, of the Denton House, is a recollection of having played hand-ball at Springfield, Ill., with Abraham Lincoln the day before the latter was nominated for the Presidency.

Before the nomination of Mr. Lincoln, Mr. Cox was traveling in the West for an oil house. During his travels he for several days used trains which were full of people bound for the Chicago convention.

Mr. Cox and a fellow drummer, who was out for a Zanesville ink box, pulled all the travelers they could reach and found the utmost enthusiasm for the Illinois lawyer.

Thoroughly convinced that Lincoln would be the nominee, the pair of drummers took a run down to Springfield to see the counting men. They found no excitement there, and on asking to see Mr. Lincoln were told he could be found on that day, which was the one before the convention, down at the ball park playing hand-ball, a game of which Mr. Lincoln was passionately fond. Next day they started for the city and there they found the man of destiny busily engaged in chatting a bonnet against a blank brick wall and endeavoring to strike it in such a way that it would rebound out of reach of his opponent. There was quite a crowd sitting about watching the game.

CHURCH HILL.

Church Hill, July 7.—Softly o'er the gentle zephyr stealing, and that the woe of the wheat thresher is heard and it is a busy time for the farmers.

The Fourth was not celebrated in this vicinity.

Miss Lizzie Owen paid a flying visit to Guthrie this week.

The "handsome, gallant and gay" Mr. A. Elmo Stegar, of Paducah, who has been visiting relatives here, returned home Monday much to the regret of a host of friends.

Miss Anna Chalkley, a charming young lady who has been visiting for quite a while, left for her home Saturday. What a sad late "B."

"Down by the summer S. E. A." the favorite song of a Duke now.

Miss Annie Darle and Nell Fox of your city, are the guests of Mr. Cecil Holloway.

Mr. and Mrs. Wholer Cayce will entertain a number of young friends at their pleasant home near here Thursday evening, in honor of their guests, Misses Cross and Sherrill, of Bennettsown.

The Lawn party at Mr. Geo. Pierce's the evening of the 4th was a most enjoyable affair. Miss Sallie Pierce, the charming hostess, never acted her part more perfectly and everybody had a lovely time.

The young ladies in attendance were: Misses Willie Barr, Bowling Green; Ora Collins, Fla.; Annie Dade, Nollie Fox, Cecil Holloway, Kimpie Sherrill, Cora Finkley, Pearl Cayce, Browning Cross, Ethel Duke, and Minnie Stegar.

The young gentlemen were Messrs. A. E. Stegar, Paducah; George Willis, Herbert Shanklin, Will Gary, Fox Holloway, Ward and Dan Claggott, Jas. Johnson, Handy Mason, Jim Adams, and Willie Fierce.

Adieu for the present.

MAMMA'S GIRL.

HEREDITARY BLOOD POISON.

Many of the evils of life are inherited. Parents transmit to their children a state of blood impurity. What a fearful heritage to bequeath an innocent child! Scrofula, skin diseases, erysipelas, sore eyes, ringworm, tetter, eczema, scald head, scabby surfaces, syphilitic symptoms, ulcerative and consumptive tendencies, etc., all of which make life miserable, and the victim a prey to desponding thoughts. It is surely a disgrace that this should be so. It is manifestly the duty of every one to keep their blood pure and their systems in a condition of good health. Nature has given us kindly herbs that will accomplish this properly used. The best are used with careful selection in that compound known as Dr. Bull's Sarsaparilla. There is no phase of blood poison this incomparable alternative will not relieve. If a sufferer from blood disease, you do yourself great injustice if you fail to try it.—Springfield Express.

THE NEWSPAPER OF THE FUTURE.

Perhaps every thoughtful journalist feels that the American newspaper is in a stage of transition, and that the newspaper of the future, in several important respects at least, will be very different from the newspaper of today.

Mr. Noah Brooks, himself a veteran journalist, takes up the question of newspaper development, in the July Forum, and makes a prediction as to what the newspaper of the future will be. The line of his main prediction is this: that accuracy and dignity will be the place of sensationalism and party spirit, and that the newspaper will return to its proper function of printing news, and will cease to be the organ of parties or the vehicle for a few views. The advertising department will have a separate development.

SELF-DENYING WIVES.

The Devoted Helpmate of Four Justly Famous Individuals.

Disraeli dedicated one of his novels "to the most severe of critics—but a perfect wife." Once, at a harvest-home of his tenants, he spoke of her as "the best wife in England." In a speech delivered at Edinburgh, he alluded to her as "that gracious lady to whom I owe so much of the success and success of my life." Edmund Burke, on the anniversary of his marriage, presented to Mrs. Burke a beautifully descriptive paper, "The Idea of a Wife," reading the manuscript thus: "The Character" leaving her to fill up the blank. He repeatedly declared that "every ear vied the moment he entered under his roof."

Mrs. Disraeli was a pretty little woman, a voluble talker, and much older than her husband. Mrs. Burke was spoken of, even by her own sex, as all that was beautiful and amiable among women. But it was not a beautiful face, nor refined tastes, nor mental culture that gave these two women their wonderful influence over the two statesmen. The secret of their power lay in their thoughtful and intelligent sympathy.

Once Mrs. Disraeli rode to the House of Commons with her husband, when he was expected to make a great speech. On leaving the carriage he crushed her fingers in closing the door. Without an exclamation of pain, she laid him "Good-evening," but he might be so unmoved as to fall in his speech, and went to her place in the lady's gallery.

Mrs. Burke kept her husband's accounts, regulated his pecuniary transactions, soothed his natural irritation, and made his home happy, that he might remain free and plastic from his public duties.

The wife of Sir William Hamilton, professor of logic and metaphysics, also illustrated the devotion of self-denying love. She identified herself with his work, and by her energy kept him from yielding to a naturally indolent disposition.

During the session of the University, he wrote his lectures on the night before the morning he delivered them. She sat up with him, and copied what he had illegibly written on rough sheets. The gray dawn of the morning often found the devoted amanuensis hard at work. She was his wise counsellor, and his playful, amusing friend. He learned to be self-reliant, and she learned to be self-reliant. That was the only reward she cared to receive.

The late William E. Forster, one of the most conscientious and industrious of modern English statesmen, married Jane Arnold, the daughter of Doctor Arnold, of Rugby. For doing so he was expelled from the Society of Friends, which did not tolerate mixed marriages.

Many years afterwards, when he was one of her Majesty's Ministers, he said to a deputation of Quakers, who had waited upon him, "Your people turned me out of the Society for doing the best thing I ever did in my life."

His wife was his constant adviser, to whom he submitted the most difficult questions, that she might guide him to the right solution. In his library, he wrote one table, and she at another. He loved to have her near him, even when at work on social and political problems.—Youth's Companion.

TO NERVOUS DEBILITATED MEN.

If you will send us your address, we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dyspepsia's Electro-Voltaic Belt and Appliances, and their charming effects upon the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor, and manhood. Pamphlet free. If you are thus afflicted, we will send you a Belt and Appliances on trial.

VOLTAIC BELT CO., Marshall, Mich.

ADVERTISING HAS FURNISHED ME WITH A COMPETENCE.—AMOS LAWRENCE.

My son twelve years of age, has been afflicted with scrofula for eight years. His hip joint protruded through the skin, and he could not walk except on crutches, and he was also nearly blind. I had him under the care of the best doctors without avail, and had given him up to die, when I was urged to try Bull's Sarsaparilla. He has used eight bottles and already his eyesight is restored and his limb much better. His appetite is now good, he looks well and is quite cheerful. I think with a few more bottles he will be completely cured.—James Lee, Nashville, Tenn.

A REMARKABLE CASE FROM ILLINOIS.

"I suffered for five years with Mercurial Rheumatism, which was the result of rheumatism and mercurial treatment by physicians, for constitutional Blood Poison. They not only failed to cure me but made me a physical wreck and my life a burden. I then commenced taking Swift's Specific (S. S. S.), and after using a few bottles was entirely cured of the Rheumatism, and the Blood Poison by their remedies, and the Blood Poison which they failed to cure. I cheerfully commend S. S. S. to any one similarly afflicted."

JOHN H. LYLES, Sorento, Ill. No Trace Left.

MR. AND MRS. LITTLE, OF HUNTINGBURG, IND., SAY:

"That about one year ago, their little girl was entirely cured of an annoying eruption of the skin and a local blood disorder, by the use of three bottles of S. S. S. There is no trace of the skin disease left, and the blood has been in perfect order ever since, and the general health of the child was never as good as now. They will take pleasure in answering any letters regarding the child's case."

JOHN H. LYLES, Sorento, Ill. No Trace Left.

ADVERTISING NEEDS TO BE DONE PROMPTLY.

What would be thought of the farmer who simply put his grain in the ground and did nothing further?—Geo. F. Rowell & Co.

CAN'T SLEEP NIGHTS.

Is the complaint of thousands suffering from Asthma, Consumption, Coughs, etc. Did you ever try Dr. Acker's English Remedy? It is the best preparation known for all Lung Troubles. Sold on a positive guarantee at 25c and 50c.

H. B. GARNER, Druggist.

THE DEVOTED HELPMATE OF FOUR JUSTLY FAMOUS INDIVIDUALS.

Disraeli dedicated one of his novels "to the most severe of critics—but a perfect wife." Once, at a harvest-home of his tenants, he spoke of her as "the best wife in England." In a speech delivered at Edinburgh, he alluded to her as "that gracious lady to whom I owe so much of the success and success of my life." Edmund Burke, on the anniversary of his marriage, presented to Mrs. Burke a beautifully descriptive paper, "The Idea of a Wife," reading the manuscript thus: "The Character" leaving her to fill up the blank. He repeatedly declared that "every ear vied the moment he entered under his roof."

Mrs. Disraeli was a pretty little woman, a voluble talker, and much older than her husband. Mrs. Burke was spoken of, even by her own sex, as all that was beautiful and amiable among women. But it was not a beautiful face, nor refined tastes, nor mental culture that gave these two women their wonderful influence over the two statesmen. The secret of their power lay in their thoughtful and intelligent sympathy.

Once Mrs. Disraeli rode to the House of Commons with her husband, when he was expected to make a great speech. On leaving the carriage he crushed her fingers in closing the door. Without an exclamation of pain, she laid him "Good-evening," but he might be so unmoved as to fall in his speech, and went to her place in the lady's gallery.

Mrs. Burke kept her husband's accounts, regulated his pecuniary transactions, soothed his natural irritation, and made his home happy, that he might remain free and plastic from his public duties.

The wife of Sir William Hamilton, professor of logic and metaphysics, also illustrated the devotion of self-denying love. She identified herself with his work, and by her energy kept him from yielding to a naturally indolent disposition.

During the session of the University, he wrote his lectures on the night before the morning he delivered them. She sat up with him, and copied what he had illegibly written on rough sheets. The gray dawn of the morning often found the devoted amanuensis hard at work. She was his wise counsellor, and his playful, amusing friend. He learned to be self-reliant, and she learned to be self-reliant. That was the only reward she cared to receive.

The late William E. Forster, one of the most conscientious and industrious of modern English statesmen, married Jane Arnold, the daughter of Doctor Arnold, of Rugby. For doing so he was expelled from the Society of Friends, which did not tolerate mixed marriages.

Many years afterwards, when he was one of her Majesty's Ministers, he said to a deputation of Quakers, who had waited upon him, "Your people turned me out of the Society for doing the best thing I ever did in my life."

His wife was his constant adviser, to whom he submitted the most difficult questions, that she might guide him to the right solution. In his library, he wrote one table, and she at another. He loved to have her near him, even when at work on social and political problems.—Youth's Companion.

TO NERVOUS DEBILITATED MEN.

If you will send us your address, we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dyspepsia's Electro-Voltaic Belt and Appliances, and their charming effects upon the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor, and manhood. Pamphlet free. If you are thus afflicted, we will send you a Belt and Appliances on trial.

VOLTAIC BELT CO., Marshall, Mich.

ADVERTISING HAS FURNISHED ME WITH A COMPETENCE.—AMOS LAWRENCE.

My son twelve years of age, has been afflicted with scrofula for eight years. His hip joint protruded through the skin, and he could not walk except on crutches, and he was also nearly blind. I had him under the care of the best doctors without avail, and had given him up to die, when I was urged to try Bull's Sarsaparilla. He has used eight bottles and already his eyesight is restored and his limb much better. His appetite is now good, he looks well and is quite cheerful. I think with a few more bottles he will be completely cured.—James Lee, Nashville, Tenn.

A REMARKABLE CASE FROM ILLINOIS.

"I suffered for five years with Mercurial Rheumatism, which was the result of rheumatism and mercurial treatment by physicians, for constitutional Blood Poison. They not only failed to cure me but made me a physical wreck and my life a burden. I then commenced taking Swift's Specific (S. S. S.), and after using a few bottles was entirely cured of the Rheumatism, and the Blood Poison by their remedies, and the Blood Poison which they failed to cure. I cheerfully commend S. S. S. to any one similarly afflicted."

JOHN H. LYLES, Sorento, Ill. No Trace Left.

MR. AND MRS. LITTLE, OF HUNTINGBURG, IND., SAY:

"That about one year ago, their little girl was entirely cured of an annoying eruption of the skin and a local blood disorder, by the use of three bottles of S. S. S. There is no trace of the skin disease left, and the blood has been in perfect order ever since, and the general health of the child was never as good as now. They will take pleasure in answering any letters regarding the child's case."

JOHN H. LYLES, Sorento, Ill. No Trace Left.

ADVERTISING NEEDS TO BE DONE PROMPTLY.

What would be thought of the farmer who simply put his grain in the ground and did nothing further?—Geo. F. Rowell & Co.

CAN'T SLEEP NIGHTS.

Is the complaint of thousands suffering from Asthma, Consumption, Coughs, etc. Did you ever try Dr. Acker's English Remedy? It is the best preparation known for all Lung Troubles. Sold on a positive guarantee at 25c and 50c.

H. B. GARNER, Druggist.

THE DEVOTED HELPMATE OF FOUR JUSTLY FAMOUS INDIVIDUALS.

Disraeli dedicated one of his novels "to the most severe of critics—but a perfect wife." Once, at a harvest-home of his tenants, he spoke of her as "the best wife in England." In a speech delivered at Edinburgh, he alluded to her as "that gracious lady to whom I owe so much of the success and success of my life." Edmund Burke, on the anniversary of his marriage, presented to Mrs. Burke a beautifully descriptive paper, "The Idea of a Wife," reading the manuscript thus: "The Character" leaving her to fill up the blank. He repeatedly declared that "every ear vied the moment he entered under his roof."

Mrs. Disraeli was a pretty little woman, a voluble talker, and much older than her husband. Mrs. Burke was spoken of, even by her own sex, as all that was beautiful and amiable among women. But it was not a beautiful face, nor refined tastes, nor mental culture that gave these two women their wonderful influence over the two statesmen. The secret of their power lay in their thoughtful and intelligent sympathy.

Once Mrs. Disraeli rode to the House of Commons with her husband, when he was expected to make a great speech. On leaving the carriage he crushed her fingers in closing the door. Without an exclamation of pain, she laid him "Good-evening," but he might be so unmoved as to fall in his speech, and went to her place in the lady's gallery.

Mrs. Burke kept her husband's accounts, regulated his pecuniary transactions, soothed his natural irritation, and made his home happy, that he might remain free and plastic from his public duties.

The wife of Sir William Hamilton, professor of logic and metaphysics, also illustrated the devotion of self-denying love. She identified herself with his work, and by her energy kept him from yielding to a naturally indolent disposition.

During the session of the University, he wrote his lectures on the night before the morning he delivered them. She sat up with him, and copied what he had illegibly written on rough sheets. The gray dawn of the morning often found the devoted amanuensis hard at work. She was his wise counsellor, and his playful, amusing friend. He learned to be self-reliant, and she learned to be self-reliant. That was the only reward she cared to receive.

The late William E. Forster, one of the most conscientious and industrious of modern English statesmen, married Jane Arnold, the daughter of Doctor Arnold, of Rugby. For doing so he was expelled from the Society of Friends, which did not tolerate mixed marriages.

Many years afterwards, when he was one of her Majesty's Ministers, he said to a deputation of Quakers, who had waited upon him, "Your people turned me out of the Society for doing the best thing I ever did in my life."

His wife was his constant adviser, to whom he submitted the most difficult questions, that she might guide him to the right solution. In his library, he wrote one table, and she at another. He loved to have her near him, even when at work on social and political problems.—Youth's Companion.

TO NERVOUS DEBILITATED MEN.

If you will send us your address, we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dyspepsia's Electro-Voltaic Belt and Appliances, and their charming effects upon the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor, and manhood. Pamphlet free. If you are thus afflicted, we will send you a Belt and Appliances on trial.

VOLTAIC BELT CO., Marshall, Mich.

ADVERTISING HAS FURNISHED ME WITH A COMPETENCE.—AMOS LAWRENCE.

My son twelve years of age, has been afflicted with scrofula for eight years. His hip joint protruded through the skin, and he could not walk except on crutches, and he was also nearly blind. I had him under the care of the best doctors without avail, and had given him up to die, when I was urged to try Bull's Sarsaparilla. He has used eight bottles and already his eyesight is restored and his limb much better. His appetite is now good, he looks well and is quite cheerful. I think with a few more bottles he will be completely cured.—James Lee, Nashville, Tenn.

A REMARKABLE CASE FROM ILLINOIS.

"I suffered for five years with Mercurial Rheumatism, which was the result of rheumatism and mercurial treatment by physicians, for constitutional Blood Poison. They not only failed to cure me but made me a physical wreck and my life a burden. I then commenced taking Swift's Specific (S. S. S.), and after using a few bottles was entirely cured of the Rheumatism, and the Blood Poison by their remedies, and the Blood Poison which they failed to cure. I cheerfully commend S. S. S. to any one similarly afflicted."

JOHN H. LYLES, Sorento, Ill. No Trace Left.

MR. AND MRS. LITTLE, OF HUNTINGBURG, IND., SAY:

"That about one year ago, their little girl was entirely cured of an annoying eruption of the skin and a local blood disorder, by the use of three bottles of S. S. S. There is no trace of the skin disease left, and the blood has been in perfect order ever since, and the general health of the child was never as good as now. They will take pleasure in answering any letters regarding the child's case."

JOHN H. LYLES, Sorento, Ill. No Trace Left.

ADVERTISING NEEDS TO BE DONE PROMPTLY.

What would be thought of the farmer who simply put his grain in the ground and did nothing further?—Geo. F. Rowell & Co.

CAN'T SLEEP NIGHTS.

Is the complaint of thousands suffering from Asthma, Consumption, Coughs, etc. Did you ever try Dr. Acker's English Remedy? It is the