

CREAM OF NEWS.

Archie Baker Shot. Geo. Coffey accidentally shot and badly wounded Archie Baker yesterday while they were hunting in the country. A colored man brought in the news yesterday afternoon and said the lead took effect in his bowels, forcing a hole from which the entrails protruded. He was taken to a cabin near by. No later reports. Both live in town.

Thanksgiving Services. Union Thanksgiving services were held at the Ninth Street Presbyterian church yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. Most of the local pastors who were in the city took part in the program. Services were also held at the Episcopal church at the same hour. The banks and all public offices were closed, but none of the merchants closed their business houses.

A Serious Cutting Affray. Last Saturday Virgil and Andrew Hancock, brothers, engaged in a fight on the road near Lafayette, which resulted in the serious cutting of the latter. Virgil Hancock, their father, also engaged in the fight, but was not hurt. Andrew received six cuts about the neck and may not recover. Virgil was struck with a rock and badly bruised up. No arrests have yet been made.

The Hunters' Return. The Christian County Hunting Club returned Sunday from Old Napoleon, Ark., where they went Nov. 5, on their annual deer hunt. They had great luck, killing fourteen deer, one bear and any amount of game and fish. The members of the party were Capt. Sam R. White, J. R. Caudle, W. W. West and Hamilton Hyde, Julian; W. A. Lowry, Hopkinsville; Pete Barker, Barker's Mill; Sam Stegar, Trenton; P. B. Pendleton and W. D. Garnett, Pembroke; Austin Peay, Clarksville; and T. P. Burke, New York.

Burglars Again at Work. Ben Rosenbaum's dry goods store was burglarized Tuesday night some time before 10 o'clock. The thief must have been accompanied by a small boy from the way the house was entered. An ordinary trunks over the back door was broken out. This had an iron bar across the middle and through this space a boy was probably shoved, who opened the door from the inside. About 10 o'clock the door was found open and as near as can be estimated about $10 or $12 worth of clothing and shoes had been taken. Other goods were scattered on the floor and in the back yard.

Dr. Thomas Gets a Place. The Sinking Fund Commissioners met at Frankfort Monday night, and in a session lasting until after 10 o'clock, effected an organization and drew up the necessary orders looking to the control and use of the branch penitentiary at Eddyville. The officers elected to take charge of the institution are: Gen. H. B. Lyon, of Eddyville, Warden; Dr. Ormsby Gray, of Louisville, Clerk; and Dr. J. Q. Thomas, of Hopkinsville, Physician. The salary of the Warden is $2,000 per annum and term of office four years, unless sooner removed by the board for good and sufficient reasons. The other officers, whose salaries are $1,200 each, are subject to the pleasure of the board.

Children Enjoy. The pleasant favor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative and if the father or mother be constipated or bilious the most gratifying result follows its use, so that it is the best family remedy known and every family should have a bottle.

MATRIMONIAL. A marriage license was issued Mr. Eugene Coleman Wednesday, to wed Miss Cora Pankey. Both parties live in the Church Hill neighborhood. The Russellville Herald says a wedding between a young couple occupying "the top round of the social circles of Todd county" has been declared off because the groom-elect caught his girl in the act of kissing another fellow, a few days before the wedding was to take place. Names are withheld, but the girl is described as a beautiful 19-year-old brunette whose father has "broad acres, fine herds and a fat bank account," while the youth is a "sturdy young farmer living on an adjoining farm." Who are they?

Page-Tuck. Mr. Fisher Page, of Todd county, and Miss Lula Tuck, of Lafayette, will be married at the Christian church at the latter place, next Wednesday. Elder Mobley will officiate.

Mr. C. D. Settle, of Kennedy, in this county, was married Thursday to Miss Marian Farmer, of Clarksville. The wedding took place in the Cumberland Presbyterian church, Rev. J. W. Sullivan officiating. Tuesday morning at the North-ton House by the Rev. Mr. Early, W. S. Morris, of Pembroke, Ky., and Miss Bettie Whit, of Lincoln county, Ky., were united in marriage. The groom was about 60 years old and the bride 17. -Clarksville Progress.

MARRIAGE LICENSES. B. R. Nixon to Mary C. Miles. Jno. E. Cooper to Miranda J. Graco. H. M. Anderson to Mary Reeco. Eugene Coleman to Cora Pankey. COLORED. Charlie Herring to Bettie Kendrick. John Burnett to Sedonia Clark.

Thanksgiving services were held yesterday at the colored Baptist church, on Virginia street. It took eighty turkeys to feed the patients at the Asylum yesterday at the Thanksgiving dinner.

The first freeze of the season changed the monotony of Indian Summer yesterday morning. The long expected "hog killing spell" came this week and the farmers are availing themselves of it.

For Sale or Rent. A house and lot on corner 3rd and Virginia Sts. Apply to B. F. SIMMONS. The public schools adjourn Wednesday evening until Monday morning, on account of Thanksgiving day.

Moseley & Tribble are still paying highest market price for all good fat, hogs. Offices, Wily & Burnett's drug store.

Rev. A. W. Moseham has been conducting a protracted meeting at Little River church for the last two weeks.

The young ladies of the Christian church will hold a reception at the residence of Mrs. Nannie Moore this evening. The public is invited. Admission 10 cents.

Large numbers of turkeys were brought in from the country this week and sold at prices ranging from 50c to $1.00, according to size and condition.

Cliff A. Clark has opened a stock of groceries and general merchandise at Bellevue. He will occupy the Clark store house, the former stand of Clark & McGehee.

The first reception of the young ladies' Matinee Club will be held at Mrs. E. V. Gant's next Tuesday evening and promises to be a very tony affair. More than one hundred invitations have been issued.

Al Field's minstrels more than met the expectations of the public. His show is decidedly the best of its kind that has ever been here and contains more and better original features than any minstrel company on the road.

Rev. Chas. H. Nash, who is still at Bowling Green, will return again Sunday to hold his regular morning and evening services at the Baptist church. The meeting in which he is engaged at Bowling Green is proving a very successful one.

The Bellevue property of McGehee Bros., consisting of 28 acres of land, dwelling house of six rooms, blacksmith's shop, stable, two cabins, ice house and other buildings, is offered for sale. It is a splendid location for a doctor. Eight miles from Hopkinsville. Call on or address McGehee Bros., Clarksville, Gracey or Pembroke.

The manager of the Peerless Minstrels has received a proposition to play the towns of Cloverport and Havesville, Ky., and Cannelton, Ind., on a guarantee during Christmas week, to show six nights in all. It is not likely that the proposition will be seriously considered, as the boys will all be too busy during the holidays to quit their business.

Mine Host Cooper, of the Phoenix Hotel, spread one of his "big dinners" yesterday and not only feasted his regular guests but a large number of invited friends. It goes without the saying that the dinner was a good one. In fact Mr. Cooper serves 365 good dinners every year and when he adds a few extra touches his meals become banquets of the most sumptuous character.

Mr. George Wills, of the firm of Davis & Wills, of Beverly, and Mr. M. A. Mason, of Newstead, have bought the McGehee Bros' store property and stock of general merchandise at the latter place. Messrs. Prentiss and Clarence Salcoe, who have been clerking for McGehee Bros., will remain with the new firm, which will be known as Mason & Wills. The business will be conducted by the junior partner, and his eight years' experience in merchandising and Mr. Mason's popularity will, no doubt, cause the new firm to receive a lucrative trade. Possession will be given Dec. 1st.

A breach of promise suit was filed this week by Miss India Hays against E. W. Merritt, asking $10,000 damages. Plaintiff in her petition claims that she was seduced by defendant, under promise of marriage, in February last, and that as a result a child was born unto her on the 9th of this month, and further that Merritt failed to comply with his promise to marry her at the appointed time and has refused since to do so. Sensational developments will likely be made if the suit ever comes to trial, it is understood. Judge Joe McCarroll and Col. A. H. Clark have been retained as counsel to prosecute the suit.

Catarrh in the head is a constitutional disease, and requires a constitutional remedy. Like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which purifies the blood, restores health. Try it now.

DEATHS.

COLORED. Lewis Campbell died in the city Tuesday afternoon, aged about 60 years.

Died at the residence of her son-in-law, Richard Smith, on the Clarksville pike, Nov. 19th, Aunt Hannah Williams, aged 87 years and 8 months. She was formerly owned by the late Mrs. Mary P. Moore. A devoted and faithful servant, she was held in high esteem by all her friends, both white and colored.

It is dangerous to neglect catarrh, for it leads to bronchitis and consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures catarrh in all forms.

Three damage suits aggregating $3,000, have been filed with the Circuit Clerk, against Mr. J. S. Summers a prominent farmer of the Longview neighborhood. The first is brought by Susan West, the second by W. A. West, next friend of Frank West, an infant, and the third is brought by W. A. West. The allegations in all the petitions are the same, and charge that on the night of Oct. 16th last, Mr. Summers assaulted and fired upon the plaintiffs with intent to kill and in each petition $10,000 is asked as damages. The plaintiffs live immediately on the road near Longview. Mr. Summers denies the allegations set forth in toto, and the general impression is that there is nothing in the case.
