

CREAM OF NEWS.

Killed Him After Church.

Felix Kerrick and Chas. Leachman attended church services near Calhoun, Ky., Saturday night. After services they renewed an old quarrel out in the yard and Kerrick drew a knife and stabbed Leachman to death. They were boys 18 years of age.

Pythian Officers.

Evergreen Lodge No. 38, K. of P., elected the following officers for the ensuing term at the regular meeting Thursday night: Jno. P. Campbell, C. C.; G. H. Champlin, V. C.; S. R. Dielen, P.; Frank Bell, M. A.; S. C. Wright, K. of P. and S. R. West, M. of P.; M. L. Ebb, M. of E.; Trustee for long term D. G. Wiley; Trustees W. & O. Fund, W. R. Bowles, T. C. Williams, D. L. Johnson; District Deputy, Chas. M. Meacham.

Burned to Death.

Little Lucy Adams, the 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Adams, of Longview, was burned to death last Friday. Her dress caught while she was standing by the fire, the blaze soon reaching her back, burning it to a crisp before assistance could be rendered. She lingered only a few hours when death relieved her of her agonies. The almost heart broken parents have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad misfortune. The remains were interred at the Adams burying ground near Beverly Saturday.

Gored By a Mad Bull.

Esq. Geo. W. Winfree, of Caskey, narrowly escaped being gored to death by a Holstein bull Sunday, while in his lot. The animal for some cause became infuriated and attacked him, throwing him to the ground and hounding him into insensibility. A colored man, named Nolan Crafton ran to his assistance and beat the bull off with a large stick and carried Esq. Winfree into the house. Dr. Anderson was called and found one rib broken and some ugly bruises on his side, face and head. The wounds, fortunately, are not very dangerous and unless internal injuries were sustained the Esquire will soon be about again.

The Wound Proved Fatal.

Archie Baker, the young man who was shot by Elza Cofer, on Nov. 27, died the following day from the fearful wound in his bowels. As stated, they were hunting together four miles west of town and a flock of birds flew up. Baker was about eight feet in front of Cofer, who attempted to raise his gun but in the excitement pulled trigger before he got it up and Baker caught the load in his side. Baker was 20 years old the 28th day of last March and was a grand son of Y. J. Means. Cofer is about 14 years old and until recently worked in Bush's shoe store. He is at present attending the Public School. Both parties lived with their widowed mothers on Elm street. The boy is, of course, much distressed over the affair.

The Cowan-Prosse Contest.

The taking of depositions in the contest of Wm. Cowan, Dem., vs. Jno. P. Prosse, Rep., who is county clerk by the narrow margin of five votes, was concluded Saturday and the case came on for trial yesterday, before Judge Morrow and Esq. Davison and Myers. By agreement the case was continued till next Monday, to accommodate the lawyers who have other business on hand. The mass of manuscript filed contains 2,730 pages of legal cap—1,230 by Prosse and 1,500 by Cowan. Since the last adjournment Prosse has taken 69 depositions and Cowan 46. The total number of depositions is 339. Of these Prosse took 183 and Cowan 206. This work has been going on nearly every day for almost four months. It is calculated that the trial of the case will take about three weeks.

They Die Hard, But Must Die.

It comes pretty straight that the Republicans will have a meeting this week and put out a full ticket for the approaching city election. They are already laying their plans and while many of them know when they have had enough the office holders are willing to risk one more knocking out, rather than quietly let go their hold upon the public trust. The scheme is to run a full ticket, but no hopes are entertained of defeating the Democratic nominees in the Second, Fourth or Sixth wards. All efforts will be devoted to holding their own in the Fifth and trying to defeat Dennis, Petree and Withers in the First, Third and Seventh. In the First there is but one white Republican who is eligible and he has assured the KENTUCKIAN that he will most positively not be a candidate. In the Third there is a safe and very respectable Democratic majority and Judge Petree will besides get a number of Republican votes. He can't be defeated. In the Seventh ten out of the forty Republicans in the ward have publicly pledged themselves to support the Democratic nominee. The ward is, on a party vote, reliably Democratic without Republican assistance and with ten Republican votes Withers will be absolutely certain of election. For the further information and discouragement of the enemy, we will state that the Democrats are in the light to win and intend to elect not only the seven councilmen, and perhaps all of them, as well as the city attorney. They understand the situation thoroughly and are too wide-awake to be caught napping.

HERE AND THERE.

Born to the wife of John Feland, Jr., of Owensboro, a boy, last week. R. M. Woodriddle, livery, feed & sale stable, Fritz' stand. Telephone 144. Miss Della Fuqua has been ill with malarial fever for two weeks or more. A marriage license was issued S. M. Hume to wed Miss V. D. Tirray, Friday.

Jno. L. Renshaw who shot and wounded J. R. Shelton at Crofton, was tried Saturday before Esq. Lockhart and acquitted.

Mrs. Mollie C. McGehee, widow of the late John Q. McGehee, has purchased Mr. A. J. Roeder's cottage on North Main street and moved to the city to live.

A brakeman named Williams had one of his hands so badly mashed while weighing a coal car at the depot Friday that the amputation of three fingers was found necessary.

A protracted meeting will begin at the Cumberland Presbyterian church to-morrow night. The pastor, Rev. A. C. Biddle, will be assisted in his work by Rev. Mr. Flanagan, who will be here next Sunday.

Esq. M. D. Davie has gone to Ocala, Fla., to represent the Kentucky State Union in the National Union, which meets to-day and will continue in session all the week. Esq. Geo. H. Myers was also appointed an alternate delegate but did not go.

Gov. James, the negro murderer who was to have been hanged at Hickman last Friday, has been declared insane and sent to the asylum at Hopkinsville. James was examined by a jury on the day set for his execution and escaped the hangman's rope by a scratch.—Mayfield Monitor.

McGehee Bros. have sold their Oak Grove store to Messrs. Hugh McGehee, of Oak Grove, and Prontiss Sallee, of Newstead. Both young men have been salesmen in their employ for several years. This makes two of their five country stores that have been disposed of.

Special attention is called to the warehouse care of Abernathy & Co., which appears elsewhere. This staunch firm asks a share of the patronage of the farmers, and will all ways protect the interests of their patrons, securing best prices and early sales. Try them once. Their sales will hereafter appear regularly. Lock out for them.

The Bowling Green Times says: "From all over Warren county comes the distressing news that horses are dying, and the only cause assigned for their death is the new crop of corn which is just now being generally used by the farmers. It is said the corn is rotten and unfit to be fed, all of which is due to the excessive rains which fell on the grain before it matured. About twenty horses, so far as heard from, have died in the county in one week."

The Little River Baptist church closed a meeting of fifteen days continuation on the fourth Sunday in November. The pastor, Rev. A. W. Meacham, did all the preaching till the night of the ninth day, when Elder J. H. Sparlin came to his assistance and did efficient work to the close. The result was the church revived and strengthened by fifteen accessions. The converts were baptized by the pastor on Sunday morning in the presence of a very large audience.

The next lecture of the Chautauque series will be by John Henry Barrows, on Dec. 11. Subject, "America; or Christianity in Our National Life." Mr. Barrows is a stranger to the public in this section of the country and the subject he will discuss is one that will almost certainly lead him into what should be the forbidden paths of politics and religion, upon both of which subjects the average audience will hold a great diversity of opinion. However, some lecturers possess the happy faculty of entertaining with good judgment even on badly chosen subjects and Mr. Barrows may belong to this class.

CROFTON.

CROFTON, Ky., Nov. 13, 1890.—J. L. Renshaw arrested J. R. Shelton yesterday evening under a warrant charging him with carrying concealed deadly weapons. After the arrest Mr. Shelton asked him to walk with him to the store of Long & Brasher. Shelton turned his back to Renshaw and spoke to Mr. Brasher. At that moment he heard the clicking of a pistol and turned and Renshaw was in the act of shooting him. He caught the pistol just in time to knock it down but it was discharged. The ball cut its way through the muscular portion of his thumb and into the floor near him. Shelton held the pistol and wrenched it out of Renshaw's hand. Renshaw was arrested by Marshal Higgins and placed under bond for shooting and wounding with intent to kill.

L. D. Burkholder, now has charge of the Crofton Mills, and his many friends here are glad to welcome him back and wish for him success. We are without a policeman now and are fast drifting back to the good old days of yore when men could load themselves with whisky and paint the town a vermilion hue without the fear of molestation.

For lame back there is nothing better than to saturate a flannel cloth with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it on the affected parts. Try it and you will be surprised at the prompt relief it affords. The same treatment will cure rheumatism. For sale by Buckner Lovell.

COMMON PLEAS COURT.

Much Business Transacted and a week's Extension found necessary.

Owing to the length of time consumed in disposing of several suits in this Court, it was found necessary to extend the session six judicial days in all. The following cases have been disposed of since our last report: Donaldson & Major vs. L. & N. Railroad Co., continued until the next term.

E. L. Long vs. D. Boyd continued at defendant's cost. Milton White vs. J. J. C. McKnight, verdict for plaintiff for $16.25.

Northern Bank of Tennessee vs. Sawyer, Wallace & Co., action dismissed without prejudice.

Wheeler, Mills & Co., vs. W. E. Ragdale, motion for new trial overruled and appeal taken.

Rachel McReynolds vs. Adam McReynolds, divorce granted.

Israel Herring vs. Jno. McKnight, dismissed, settled.

Jo White vs. J. J. C. McKnight, verdict for defendant for $111.75.

Several other cases of importance, some of them continued at this term, will come up before the adjournment of court.

W. T. Hill vs. City of Hopkinsville, motion for a new trial overruled and appeal to Superior Court granted.

W. S. Wilson vs. L. & N. R. R. Co., appeal taken.

J. H. Witty vs. W. J. Withers, continued at defendant's cost.

Hon. A. D. Moore, of Crofton, was sworn in as a practicing attorney at this bar.

Jno. T. Boddie vs. Jim Giles, col. judgment for plaintiff for $61.25.

Annie McRae vs. Toke Coleman, dismissed without prejudice.

L. L. Dulin vs. Margaret Pepper, stricken from the docket.

S. R. Crumbaugh vs. Jno. McKnight, verdict for plaintiff for 1 cent and the costs of the action.

The most important case tried since our last report was that of R. S. Hester vs. L. & N. R. R. Co. After all the evidence was in and argument by counsel for both sides, the Judge instructed the jury peremptorily to find for the defendant, which they did. The instructions delivered to the jury were objected to by plaintiff's attorneys, and exceptions to the ruling were filed praying an appeal to the Court of Appeals of Kentucky, which was granted. Mr. Hester lost a leg while coupling cars at Springfield, Tenn., some time last summer, and sued the company for $20,000 damages. He is confident of a reversal of the decision of the lower court, and the company is equally as confident that the decision will be sustained.

Jas. Monroe vs. Luther Lowry, judgment for defendant for costs of suit.

Thirty equity cases were continued for various reasons, and nine were stricken from the docket.

The juries for the last two weeks were discharged Saturday and this week will be consumed in disposing of chancery cases. The docket is well up a large amount of business having been transacted during this term.
