ANNOUNCEMENT.

Harrison's Instructed Vote.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—All the Republican State conventions have now been held, except one, Montana, which is due Monday. Two Territorial conventions, Arizona and Oklahoma, are also to be held next week. Those three conventions aggregate ten votes, six in Montana and two in each of the Territories.

The conventions in which the four delegates-at-large were instructed for Harrison are, with the number of votes cast by the States in the National convention, as follows: Alabama, 22; Arkansas, 16; Florida, 8; Illinois, 48; Indiana, 30; Kentucky, 26; Maryland, 16; Mississippi, 18; Missouri, 34; Nebraska, 16; South Carolina, 18; South Dakota, 8; Tennessee, 24; Texas, 30. Total, 314. It should, of course, be understood that the action of the State convention in instructing the delegates-at-large does not bind the delegates elected by the Congressional districts in some of the States in the above list. The Harrison strength will be confined to the delegates-at-large and to the few district delegates who have been instructed.

In Missouri, for instance, at least five districts have sent uninstructed delegates, and in two of these districts the conventions absolutely refused, on a direct vote, to instruct for the President's re-nomination. Five other districts have instructed, so that of the total of thirty-four votes in Missouri, the President will receive about twenty. Of the fourteen States which instructed their delegates-at-large to vote for the President, ten are Democratic States in the South, where the Republicans are mainly confined to the officeholders.

Conventions which did not instruct are as follows: California, 18; Colorado, 8; Connecticut, 12; Delaware, 6; Georgia, 26; Idaho, 6; Iowa, 26; Kansas, 20; Louisiana, 16; Maine, 12; Massachusetts, 30; Michigan, 28; Minnesota, 18; Nevada, 6; New Hampshire, 8; New Jersey, 20; New York, 72; North Carolina, 27; North Dakota, 6; Ohio, 40; Oregon, 8; Vermont, 8; Virginia, 24; Washington, 8; West Virginia, 12; Wisconsin, 25; Wyoming, 6; New Mexico, 2; District of Columbia, 2; total 574.

The medical fraternity, backed up by carefully compiled statistics, is almost unanimous in declaring that a moderate use of stimulants conduces to long life. It is also admitted that old whiskey is by far the best stimulant that can be used. Leading physicians recommend the I. W. Harper Whiskey, because it is pure, possesses a superior flavor and bouquet, and is not offered for sale until it is old and thoroughly matured. Sold by J. W. Smith, and W. R. Long, Hopkinsville, Ky.

Those who will go to the National Press Meeting at San Francisco are R. E. Morningstar, member of the National Executive Committee, and his wife, of Bowling Green; Will A. Wilgus and wife, of Hopkinsville; Starling Marshall, of Henderson; John A. Bell, of Georgetown, H. E. Woolfork, of Danville, and T. O. Chisholm, of Adairville. The party left St. Louis yesterday.

At a meeting of the Lexington Press Club the following was promulgated by the President, Col. John O. Hodge: "The impression abroad that ladies accompanying delegates to the Kentucky Press Association will not be expected at the banquet is erroneous. They will be cordially welcomed to all the festivities of the occasion."

Third party conventions were held Saturday in four Kentucky districts. At Paducah Ben F. Keys, of Calloway, was put out for Congress in the First district. At Henderson Thos. S. Pettit was named for this district. At Glasgow Dr. C. W. Biggers, of Barren was nominated in the Third and at Elizabethtown W. B. Gardner of Hardin, was made the nominee in the Fourth. On the same day the Prohibitionists of the First district nominated Dr. J. D. Smith for Congress.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Burkholder have gone to Troy, Ohio, to spend a month with the former's parents, and the mill is being run by Mr. J. Boxley and Willie Gray.

M. V. Dulin received a telegram this morning announcing the death of Mrs. Walter Dulin at Earlinton, Ky.

Joe P. Clark, of Glasgow, Ky., came home yesterday to visit his father, Esq. J. M. Clark.

Louis and Pete Payne were tried before Judge Clark yesterday for disorderly conduct and fined $5 and the trimmings.

Died, at his residence near here May 6, Mr. Strander Moore. The deceased leaves a wife and several children to mourn their loss.

The John V. Boyd Post met yesterday with a full attendance.

Mr. C. S. Jackson, of White Plains, Ky., was in town yesterday.

Ed Higgins has been offered $200 for one of his fine Plymouth Rock corks (not in cash but a judgment on a living man). He will likely accept the offer.

Weather prognosticators are crying out that we are on the eve of a drouth. What do they take us for? Don't they know that we expected dry weather here after it rained?

Miss Fannie Rogers, of your city, came down yesterday and one of our best boys' heart is "way up in his throat" to-day.

Misses Birdie Johnson and Mollie Rowe are visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Mann at Pembroke, Ky.

THE GRANGE SALE.

A Good Crowd Attend and Stock go off at Satisfactory Prices.

The 13th annual Church Hill Grange sale took place on the grounds last Friday a good crowd being present. The sale was the largest for some years, between six and seven thousand dollars worth of stock changing hands. The best of order prevailed and although the crowd was not so large as on former occasions there were enough present to enjoy themselves to the fullest extent. The dinner spread for the crowd was an excellent one, and was sufficiently abundant to have appeased the appetites of several hundred more. This Grange sale is always looked forward to as an event of much pleasure and on this occasion it fairly excelled itself. The weather was all that could be asked and the sale, in every respect, was a satisfactory one. Below we give a list of the stock sold, owner, purchaser and amount paid.

SCHOOL AND CHURCH.

The Congressional week of self-denial in England has reached $10,000 for the London Missionary society.

Following the example of India and Japan, the Siamese are about to establish a school for native girls of high rank under the management of English ladies.

Chaplain McCabe is said to have made forty thousand dollars out of his lecture on Liberty, all of which he has given to the Methodist church or to charity.

The minister of education in Germany has passed a decree that the definite engagement of a schoolmistress ceases at the end of the school-year in which she marries.

The incorporators of the new Congregational academy at Ashland, Wis., have decided to call for bids, and the cornerstone will be laid some time during the summer.

During the last year about 60,000 copies of the Holy Scriptures were circulated in Germany. In Berlin there are 108 Sunday-schools, with 35,356 children and 1,715 teachers.

The late Miss Julia Dickinson, a Michigan woman, left Oberlin college $40,000, one-half to endow the chair of archaeology in memory of her husband, said chair to be filled by Miss Alice Fletcher, noted and honored for her studies in archaeology.

Timothy Hopkins has presented to Stanford university a valuable collection of books and pamphlets, all of them treating of various phases of railway interests. The bound volumes number 1,000, and an equal number of pamphlets was included in the gift.

Mrs. Sprague has sent the following message to those who have offered their condolences on her husband's death: "All that was choice, generous, and Christ-like seemed to be gathered together in him and to be lived out in his life. The Lord grants us both three months of earthly happiness in Mentone before taking him away."

Official reports state that between the years 1870 and 1887 the Russian Orthodox missionaries baptised 71,372 heathen, 3,807 Jews and 4,294 Mohammedans. From 1870 to 1877 the number of heathen converts increased steadily; since that time this contingent grows less, while the number of Jewish converts increases.

The Roman Catholic union among the Dyaks of North Borneo has now eight stations with six hundred Christians. There are four hundred priests, two brothers and one Franciscan sister.

The two sisters who were instructed by their father to be good and to be true, and to be true to their father, are now in the New York Normal college has a Stodd class, which the girls, who have made use of their opportunities to learn how to handle carpenter tools, pronounce a great success, and visitors to the class say that the tools are used with such grace and dexterity that it is a pleasure to be a looker-on. These girls also learn how to cook, and these two practical accomplishments do not in the least interfere with the brain furnished supplied by the "brains" and the "ologies."

BEGIN ANEW. A Wise Woman's Observations on Uncompleted Work.

Every woman in America has just that tiny, nobody has any more. Twenty-four hours a day; that's all there is. Six working days a week; that's all you can get unless you steal from Sunday, and if your business requires you to steal either time or money, you'd better give it up and get into something with more honesty and less profit in it. What you can't finish this week postpone until next, or forever, and what sticks out over the end of a year saw off and put in the store.

Four seasons have passed and that's all there is. You must make a fresh start every year. It isn't an easy matter to learn how to do this, but you've got to learn it some time, either before you die or when you die; why not learn early and get the good and the comfort of it? Every day of my life the evening is apt to find something on my programme that I haven't got to. I say, "Maybe I won't do this tomorrow," and as a rule I don't. I go to sleep and forget about it. Every year closes with uncompleted work on my hands, and that year ends that work. I'm not going to drag it along with me into a new year. I used to do that, so that about half the time I was working six weeks ago instead of to-day, and dragging, wearisome business it was. When you close the door on your work and start on new plans on your hands. Then what are you going to do? Take it to Heaven with you and bother and drag along with it there? Not much you won't. Well, then why not learn it now? It is a better, it is a lesson not so easily learned, but, once learned, it is more refreshing than a glass of cool milk to the lips of the man with the grip—Ladies' Home Journal.

CONSUMPTION in its early stages can be cured by the prompt use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It soothes the inflamed tissues, aids expectoration, and hastens recovery. Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co. Lowell, Mass.

TABLET'S BUCKEYE OINTMENT CURES NOTHING BUT PILES. A CURE AND CERTAIN CURE KNOWN FOR 15 YEARS AS THE BEST REMEDY FOR PILES.

OPPIUM and Whisky Habits are an insupportable burden, and are an inflexible barrier to all improvement. Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., have a cure for these habits, and every man, woman and child should have a copy of their book on this subject.

PERSONS calling for any of the above letters will please say advertised. JOHN W. BREATHTY, P. M.
