

Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1892.

L. & N. TIME TABLE. TRAINS GOING SOUTH. No. 31, Louisville Fast Mail, 7:50 a. m.

O. V. Passenger Trains. NORTH BOUND TRAINS. Hopkinsville, 10:40 a. m.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Miss Annie Trice went to Cerulean Wednesday. Mrs. W. C. West has gone to Madisonville to visit friends.

August Arrests. Breach of peace, 36. Drunkenness, 20. Disorderly conduct, 9.

DEATHS.

McCARTY—Sam McCarty died near Gracery Wednesday night, aged 80 years.

TOBACCO NEWS.

HOPKINSVILLE MARKET. Sales by Gaither & West of 20 hds. leaf $7 10 6 90 7 60 6 50.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

John L. Wells to Sarah Armstrong, colored.

CITY COURT NEWS.

Lavinia Moore, col. b. p., fined 1 cent and costs. John McCoy, col., drunk, given five days in the work house.

HERE AND THERE.

School Books at Hopper Bros.* Call on Blakemore & Wood for pure drugs.*

School books and school supplies at Gaither & Wallace's.* Sells Bros. Circus is in Kentucky, Danville gets it Sept. 15.

Hopper Bros' Book store, is the place to buy School Books.* Zine Wines and Liquors for medicinal use at Gaither & Wallace's.*

A comfortable home on North Main street for sale. Apply at this office. Especially handsome souvenir spoons, all the latest styles at Yates.*

Frank Zinder will make your pants of Mayfield Jeans from $2 50 up.* Quarles & Keatts, the Cadiz jewelers, handle diamonds, watches and jewelry.*

Born, to the wife of Mr. A. C. McGeehee, at Gracery, a fine girl Saturday last.

The July asylum draft, for $19,500, delayed for two months, has just been received.

Dr. A. J. Knapp, the celebrated optician, will be at Dr. Young's office Sept. 1, 2 and 3.

Necklaces, all the new kinds and styles, just received from the importers at T. G. Yates.*

The Sunbeam Society will meet at B. F. College this evening at 7:30. Admission 15 and 10c.

Gold spectacles $4.50 to $20.00, finest lenses made, at Quarles & Keatts, the Cadiz jewelers.*

A complete line of Perfumes, Toilet Articles, Combs and Brushes, at Blakemore & Wood's.*

Book Stitches, Pencil Sharpeners, Rules, Blotters, etc., free to all who buy their School Books of Hopper Bros'.

Mr. C. M. Southall and wife, of Florence, Ala., have been visiting the family of Dr. J. A. Southall this week.

The circle of Kings' Daughters will meet at Grace Episcopal church Saturday September the 3, at 5 o'clock p. m.

Mr. A. Hille and family and Mrs. W. A. Long have returned from a two weeks' visit to relatives in Virginia.

That Celebrated Black Berry Brandy at Gaither & Wallace's will check cholera at once. We are always in time for panics.

Mr. R. M. Woodruff, who has been dangerously ill for some weeks, is now rapidly recovering and will be out in a few days.

L. & N. will sell round trip tickets to Evansville, Ind. Sept. 5th, good returning Sept. 6, at one fare $2.00. Account Labor Day. J. M. ADAMS.

The tobacco factory of Jas. Hayden, near Golden Pond, Trig county, was burned by an incendiary one night last week. Loss $1,200, insured in the Royal.

Dr. A. P. Campbell, dentist, McDaniel building, up stairs, next door to Judge Landor's law office. Operating a specialty.*

The new colored Baptist church on Virginia street will be built at once. The contract has been let to Dalton Bros., who will erect an elegant brick structure.

Louis B. McWhorter, a former citizen of Clarksville, Tenn., was assassinated at Fresno, Cal., Monday night by an unknown party. He moved to California six years ago. He carried $50,000 life insurance.

Rev. A. W. Meacham, of Gracery, has been severely ill for a week with inflammation of the stomach. He is now somewhat improved and hopes to be well enough to fill his next preaching appointment.

On account of Hopkins County Fair the L. & N. will sell round trip tickets to Madisonville at one fare on Aug. 31st, Sept. 1st, 2d and 3d, good returning until and on Sept. 5.

Mr. J. J. Vanelev sold a thoroughbred registered shorthorn Durham bull to Mr. H. F. Porter, of Hopkins county, last week at a fancy price. Mr. Vanelev is a great stock man and raises some of the finest animals in the county.

Rev. S. N. Vail was elected a member of the Executive Committee of the State Sunday School Union by the Convention in session at Princeton last week. The committee, consisting of 17 members, meets in Louisville once a month.

Mr. Robt. H. Buckner has accepted a position in the dry goods establishment of A. A. Metz and entered upon the discharge of his duties yesterday. Bob has had much experience in the dry goods business, is quite popular and will add much strength to the already efficient corps of clerks in this mammoth store.

Officers from Eddyville captured an escaped convict at Woodville Saturday and returned him to the branch "pen" to serve out the unexpired term. This is the third time the fellow had made his escape from that prison, and he is reported as being an all round shik one and hard to handle.

The new Eckstein Norton University, at Onse Springs, Ky., 29 miles from Louisville, will be dedicated next Sunday. It is a gift to the colored people by the gentleman whose name it bears. It was founded in 1890 and destroyed by fire last January and has just been rebuilt. The University has 100 pupils to start

CREAM OF NEWS.

Married in a Tobacco Field. J. W. Weakley and Miss Martha A. Crozer, both of Montgomery county, Tenn., decided to marry, and calling on Esquire Smith, who was in his tobacco patch at work, had him tie the nuptial knot then and there.

The grading of West Seventeenth street has been completed and the work of metaling was begun yesterday.

Our neighbor, the New Era, issued a very handsome double number last Saturday, to celebrate the completion of the O. V. Railroad.

Irving Jones, the rapist, who assaulted Mrs. Jas. Story in Calloway county Aug. 17, has been captured and is in jail at Murray.

The work of planting the telegraph posts between here and Gracery has now been completed to a point in sight of town and will soon be finished and the wire stretched.

Reports from Cerulean are to the effect that the camp-meeting at that place is drawing large crowds every day and interest in the meeting is steadily increased.

Farmers Living over near Pond River report considerable frost Tuesday night. It was not sufficiently heavy to do much damage to the growing crops, however.

Mr. Julian Hord has contracted with Forbes & Bro., for the erection of an elegant dwelling on his lot recently purchased on South Virginia street and work will begin at once.

Mrs. Geo. Sandon, of Allensville, lost all her jewelry and fine wearing apparel in the Hotel Belmont, which burned at Asheville, N. C., two weeks ago. Her loss will reach $1,000.

The melon crop in this county is the most abundant for years. A large number are brought into the city every day. Some peddle them out and others sell to the merchants.

The lawn party at the residence of Mr. E. B. Long Tuesday evening was quite a success financially as well as socially. The handsome sum realized goes to the fund for repairing South Kentucky College.

Squirrels are said to be very plentiful in the bottom lands of North Christian and put hunters are having a regular feast. One gentleman living near Larkin killed thirty-seven one morning this week.

Guthrie has organized a volunteer fire company with about fifteen members. H. M. Bumgarner, a prominent merchant of the place was elected chief. The company is composed largely of merchants.

The many friends of Mr. C. E. Tandy will be gratified to learn that he has so far recovered from his recent accident, in which he lost his left leg, that he is able to be up and has been moved from Uniontown to Princeton.

The earnings of the L. & N. Railroad Company at this point for the month of August show an increase of $2,500 over the earnings in August '91. This fact alone indicates an increase of business in our city in every way, and that it is in a very prosperous and healthy condition.

A very enjoyable dance was indulged in by the young people invited to Mr. M. A. Mason's near Beverly last Friday night. Quite a crowd from the city attended and were highly entertained. Elegant refreshments were served at the hour of midnight, after which the merry dance was continued until far into the morning.

Norris, who murdered the Hayes brothers at Mannington about two months ago, and made his escape, has been heard from. He boarded a freight train near Earlington Tuesday and came some distance when he left the train and took to the woods. There is a reward of $300 offered for his capture and delivery to the authorities.

The Holiness Camp-meeting at Kuttawa has closed. It was in session ten days and immense crowds were in attendance every day. It was estimated that seven thousand people were on the grounds the last day of the meeting. Interest during the entire meeting was intense and religious excitement was kept at fever heat. A number of church members professed sanctification and a large number of sinners were converted.

The Fair Hop club of Bowling Green will give their eighteenth annual hop Friday evening next, Sept. 9. The event is given during the fair at that place and is always a fashionable one, attended by the best people from all over the state. In this connection we will add that the Warren county Fair this year is expected to be better than ever before. Good premiums are offered and this will attract fine stock and large crowds.

Agent J. M. Adams, of the L. & N., and agent J. F. Pickett, of the O. V., are now occupying cottages on Ninth street side by side, with only a law fence between them. They have become not only close neighbors but good friends. Both of them are clever, accommodating business men, capital agents and good citizens, and what is still more to their credit both are dyed-in-the-wool Democrats in the closest ward in town.

Mr. Buckner Leavell, who was endorsed as the Democratic candidate for Circuit Court Clerk of Christian county by the County Committee last Saturday, publishes a card in this issue retiring from the race, for reasons which he sets forth. Mr. Leavell is a staunch Democrat, a popular gentleman and a useful citizen and would have commanded the full strength of his party. The many friends who have proffered him their support will learn with disappointment that he has de-

CREAM OF NEWS.

Married in a Tobacco Field. J. W. Weakley and Miss Martha A. Crozer, both of Montgomery county, Tenn., decided to marry, and calling on Esquire Smith, who was in his tobacco patch at work, had him tie the nuptial knot then and there.

The grading of West Seventeenth street has been completed and the work of metaling was begun yesterday.

Our neighbor, the New Era, issued a very handsome double number last Saturday, to celebrate the completion of the O. V. Railroad.

Irving Jones, the rapist, who assaulted Mrs. Jas. Story in Calloway county Aug. 17, has been captured and is in jail at Murray.

The work of planting the telegraph posts between here and Gracery has now been completed to a point in sight of town and will soon be finished and the wire stretched.

Reports from Cerulean are to the effect that the camp-meeting at that place is drawing large crowds every day and interest in the meeting is steadily increased.

Farmers Living over near Pond River report considerable frost Tuesday night. It was not sufficiently heavy to do much damage to the growing crops, however.

Mr. Julian Hord has contracted with Forbes & Bro., for the erection of an elegant dwelling on his lot recently purchased on South Virginia street and work will begin at once.

Mrs. Geo. Sandon, of Allensville, lost all her jewelry and fine wearing apparel in the Hotel Belmont, which burned at Asheville, N. C., two weeks ago. Her loss will reach $1,000.

The melon crop in this county is the most abundant for years. A large number are brought into the city every day. Some peddle them out and others sell to the merchants.

The lawn party at the residence of Mr. E. B. Long Tuesday evening was quite a success financially as well as socially. The handsome sum realized goes to the fund for repairing South Kentucky College.

Squirrels are said to be very plentiful in the bottom lands of North Christian and put hunters are having a regular feast. One gentleman living near Larkin killed thirty-seven one morning this week.

Guthrie has organized a volunteer fire company with about fifteen members. H. M. Bumgarner, a prominent merchant of the place was elected chief. The company is composed largely of merchants.

The many friends of Mr. C. E. Tandy will be gratified to learn that he has so far recovered from his recent accident, in which he lost his left leg, that he is able to be up and has been moved from Uniontown to Princeton.

The earnings of the L. & N. Railroad Company at this point for the month of August show an increase of $2,500 over the earnings in August '91. This fact alone indicates an increase of business in our city in every way, and that it is in a very prosperous and healthy condition.

A very enjoyable dance was indulged in by the young people invited to Mr. M. A. Mason's near Beverly last Friday night. Quite a crowd from the city attended and were highly entertained. Elegant refreshments were served at the hour of midnight, after which the merry dance was continued until far into the morning.

Norris, who murdered the Hayes brothers at Mannington about two months ago, and made his escape, has been heard from. He boarded a freight train near Earlington Tuesday and came some distance when he left the train and took to the woods. There is a reward of $300 offered for his capture and delivery to the authorities.

The Holiness Camp-meeting at Kuttawa has closed. It was in session ten days and immense crowds were in attendance every day. It was estimated that seven thousand people were on the grounds the last day of the meeting. Interest during the entire meeting was intense and religious excitement was kept at fever heat. A number of church members professed sanctification and a large number of sinners were converted.

The Fair Hop club of Bowling Green will give their eighteenth annual hop Friday evening next, Sept. 9. The event is given during the fair at that place and is always a fashionable one, attended by the best people from all over the state. In this connection we will add that the Warren county Fair this year is expected to be better than ever before. Good premiums are offered and this will attract fine stock and large crowds.

Agent J. M. Adams, of the L. & N., and agent J. F. Pickett, of the O. V., are now occupying cottages on Ninth street side by side, with only a law fence between them. They have become not only close neighbors but good friends. Both of them are clever, accommodating business men, capital agents and good citizens, and what is still more to their credit both are dyed-in-the-wool Democrats in the closest ward in town.

Mr. Buckner Leavell, who was endorsed as the Democratic candidate for Circuit Court Clerk of Christian county by the County Committee last Saturday, publishes a card in this issue retiring from the race, for reasons which he sets forth. Mr. Leavell is a staunch Democrat, a popular gentleman and a useful citizen and would have commanded the full strength of his party. The many friends who have proffered him their support will learn with disappointment that he has de-

CREAM OF NEWS.

Married in a Tobacco Field. J. W. Weakley and Miss Martha A. Crozer, both of Montgomery county, Tenn., decided to marry, and calling on Esquire Smith, who was in his tobacco patch at work, had him tie the nuptial knot then and there.

The grading of West Seventeenth street has been completed and the work of metaling was begun yesterday.

Our neighbor, the New Era, issued a very handsome double number last Saturday, to celebrate the completion of the O. V. Railroad.

Irving Jones, the rapist, who assaulted Mrs. Jas. Story in Calloway county Aug. 17, has been captured and is in jail at Murray.

The work of planting the telegraph posts between here and Gracery has now been completed to a point in sight of town and will soon be finished and the wire stretched.

Reports from Cerulean are to the effect that the camp-meeting at that place is drawing large crowds every day and interest in the meeting is steadily increased.

Farmers Living over near Pond River report considerable frost Tuesday night. It was not sufficiently heavy to do much damage to the growing crops, however.

Mr. Julian Hord has contracted with Forbes & Bro., for the erection of an elegant dwelling on his lot recently purchased on South Virginia street and work will begin at once.

Mrs. Geo. Sandon, of Allensville, lost all her jewelry and fine wearing apparel in the Hotel Belmont, which burned at Asheville, N. C., two weeks ago. Her loss will reach $1,000.

The melon crop in this county is the most abundant for years. A large number are brought into the city every day. Some peddle them out and others sell to the merchants.

The lawn party at the residence of Mr. E. B. Long Tuesday evening was quite a success financially as well as socially. The handsome sum realized goes to the fund for repairing South Kentucky College.

Squirrels are said to be very plentiful in the bottom lands of North Christian and put hunters are having a regular feast. One gentleman living near Larkin killed thirty-seven one morning this week.

Guthrie has organized a volunteer fire company with about fifteen members. H. M. Bumgarner, a prominent merchant of the place was elected chief. The company is composed largely of merchants.

The many friends of Mr. C. E. Tandy will be gratified to learn that he has so far recovered from his recent accident, in which he lost his left leg, that he is able to be up and has been moved from Uniontown to Princeton.

The earnings of the L. & N. Railroad Company at this point for the month of August show an increase of $2,500 over the earnings in August '91. This fact alone indicates an increase of business in our city in every way, and that it is in a very prosperous and healthy condition.

A very enjoyable dance was indulged in by the young people invited to Mr. M. A. Mason's near Beverly last Friday night. Quite a crowd from the city attended and were highly entertained. Elegant refreshments were served at the hour of midnight, after which the merry dance was continued until far into the morning.

Norris, who murdered the Hayes brothers at Mannington about two months ago, and made his escape, has been heard from. He boarded a freight train near Earlington Tuesday and came some distance when he left the train and took to the woods. There is a reward of $300 offered for his capture and delivery to the authorities.

The Holiness Camp-meeting at Kuttawa has closed. It was in session ten days and immense crowds were in attendance every day. It was estimated that seven thousand people were on the grounds the last day of the meeting. Interest during the entire meeting was intense and religious excitement was kept at fever heat. A number of church members professed sanctification and a large number of sinners were converted.

The Fair Hop club of Bowling Green will give their eighteenth annual hop Friday evening next, Sept. 9. The event is given during the fair at that place and is always a fashionable one, attended by the best people from all over the state. In this connection we will add that the Warren county Fair this year is expected to be better than ever before. Good premiums are offered and this will attract fine stock and large crowds.

Agent J. M. Adams, of the L. & N., and agent J. F. Pickett, of the O. V., are now occupying cottages on Ninth street side by side, with only a law fence between them. They have become not only close neighbors but good friends. Both of them are clever, accommodating business men, capital agents and good citizens, and what is still more to their credit both are dyed-in-the-wool Democrats in the closest ward in town.

Mr. Buckner Leavell, who was endorsed as the Democratic candidate for Circuit Court Clerk of Christian county by the County Committee last Saturday, publishes a card in this issue retiring from the race, for reasons which he sets forth. Mr. Leavell is a staunch Democrat, a popular gentleman and a useful citizen and would have commanded the full strength of his party. The many friends who have proffered him their support will learn with disappointment that he has de-

CREAM OF NEWS.

Married in a Tobacco Field. J. W. Weakley and Miss Martha A. Crozer, both of Montgomery county, Tenn., decided to marry, and calling on Esquire Smith, who was in his tobacco patch at work, had him tie the nuptial knot then and there.

The grading of West Seventeenth street has been completed and the work of metaling was begun yesterday.

Our neighbor, the New Era, issued a very handsome double number last Saturday, to celebrate the completion of the O. V. Railroad.

Irving Jones, the rapist, who assaulted Mrs. Jas. Story in Calloway county Aug. 17, has been captured and is in jail at Murray.

The work of planting the telegraph posts between here and Gracery has now been completed to a point in sight of town and will soon be finished and the wire stretched.

Reports from Cerulean are to the effect that the camp-meeting at that place is drawing large crowds every day and interest in the meeting is steadily increased.

Farmers Living over near Pond River report considerable frost Tuesday night. It was not sufficiently heavy to do much damage to the growing crops, however.

Mr. Julian Hord has contracted with Forbes & Bro., for the erection of an elegant dwelling on his lot recently purchased on South Virginia street and work will begin at once.

Mrs. Geo. Sandon, of Allensville, lost all her jewelry and fine wearing apparel in the Hotel Belmont, which burned at Asheville, N. C., two weeks ago. Her loss will reach $1,000.

The melon crop in this county is the most abundant for years. A large number are brought into the city every day. Some peddle them out and others sell to the merchants.

The lawn party at the residence of Mr. E. B. Long Tuesday evening was quite a success financially as well as socially. The handsome sum realized goes to the fund for repairing South Kentucky College.

CREAM OF NEWS.

Married in a Tobacco Field. J. W. Weakley and Miss Martha A. Crozer, both of Montgomery county, Tenn., decided to marry, and calling on Esquire Smith, who was in his tobacco patch at work, had him tie the nuptial knot then and there.

The grading of West Seventeenth street has been completed and the work of metaling was begun yesterday.

Our neighbor, the New Era, issued a very handsome double number last Saturday, to celebrate the completion of the O. V. Railroad.

Irving Jones, the rapist, who assaulted Mrs. Jas. Story in Calloway county Aug. 17, has been captured and is in jail at Murray.

The work of planting the telegraph posts between here and Gracery has now been completed to a point in sight of town and will soon be finished and the wire stretched.

Reports from Cerulean are to the effect that the camp-meeting at that place is drawing large crowds every day and interest in the meeting is steadily increased.

Farmers Living over near Pond River report considerable frost Tuesday night. It was not sufficiently heavy to do much damage to the growing crops, however.

Mr. Julian Hord has contracted with Forbes & Bro., for the erection of an elegant dwelling on his lot recently purchased on South Virginia street and work will begin at once.

Mrs. Geo. Sandon, of Allensville, lost all her jewelry and fine wearing apparel in the Hotel Belmont, which burned at Asheville, N. C., two weeks ago. Her loss will reach $1,000.

The melon crop in this county is the most abundant for years. A large number are brought into the city every day. Some peddle them out and others sell to the merchants.

The lawn party at the residence of Mr. E. B. Long Tuesday evening was quite a success financially as well as socially. The handsome sum realized goes to the fund for repairing South Kentucky College.

Squirrels are said to be very plentiful in the bottom lands of North Christian and put hunters are having a regular feast. One gentleman living near Larkin killed thirty-seven one morning this week.

Guthrie has organized a volunteer fire company with about fifteen members. H. M. Bumgarner, a prominent merchant of the place was elected chief. The company is composed largely of merchants.

The many friends of Mr. C. E. Tandy will be gratified to learn that he has so far recovered from his recent accident, in which he lost his left leg, that he is able to be up and has been moved from Uniontown to Princeton.

The earnings of the L. & N. Railroad Company at this point for the month of August show an increase of $2,500 over the earnings in August '91. This fact alone indicates an increase of business in our city in every way, and that it is in a very prosperous and healthy condition.

A very enjoyable dance was indulged in by the young people invited to Mr. M. A. Mason's near Beverly last Friday night. Quite a crowd from the city attended and were highly entertained. Elegant refreshments were served at the hour of midnight, after which the merry dance was continued until far into the morning.

Norris, who murdered the Hayes brothers at Mannington about two months ago, and made his escape, has been heard from. He boarded a freight train near Earlington Tuesday and came some distance when he left the train and took to the woods. There is a reward of $300 offered for his capture and delivery to the authorities.

The Holiness Camp-meeting at Kuttawa has closed. It was in session ten days and immense crowds were in attendance every day. It was estimated that seven thousand people were on the grounds the last day of the meeting. Interest during the entire meeting was intense and religious excitement was kept at fever heat. A number of church members professed sanctification and a large number of sinners were converted.

The Fair Hop club of Bowling Green will give their eighteenth annual hop Friday evening next, Sept. 9. The event is given during the fair at that place and is always a fashionable one, attended by the best people from all over the state. In this connection we will add that the Warren county Fair this year is expected to be better than ever before. Good premiums are offered and this will attract fine stock and large crowds.

Agent J. M. Adams, of the L. & N., and agent J. F. Pickett, of the O. V., are now occupying cottages on Ninth street side by side, with only a law fence between them. They have become not only close neighbors but good friends. Both of them are clever, accommodating business men, capital agents and good citizens, and what is still more to their credit both are dyed-in-the-wool Democrats in the closest ward in town.

Mr. Buckner Leavell, who was endorsed as the Democratic candidate for Circuit Court Clerk of Christian county by the County Committee last Saturday, publishes a card in this issue retiring from the race, for reasons which he sets forth. Mr. Leavell is a staunch Democrat, a popular gentleman and a useful citizen and would have commanded the full strength of his party. The many friends who have proffered him their support will learn with disappointment that he has de-

CREAM OF NEWS.

Married in a Tobacco Field. J. W. Weakley and Miss Martha A. Crozer, both of Montgomery county, Tenn., decided to marry, and calling on Esquire Smith, who was in his tobacco patch at work, had him tie the nuptial knot then and there.

The grading of West Seventeenth street has been completed and the work of metaling was begun yesterday.

Our neighbor, the New Era, issued a very handsome double number last Saturday, to celebrate the completion of the O. V. Railroad.

Irving Jones, the rapist, who assaulted Mrs. Jas. Story in Calloway county Aug. 17, has been captured and is in jail at Murray.

The work of planting the telegraph posts between here and Gracery has now been completed to a point in sight of town and will soon be finished and the wire stretched.

Reports from Cerulean are to the effect that the camp-meeting at that place is drawing large crowds every day and interest in the meeting is steadily increased.

Farmers Living over near Pond River report considerable frost Tuesday night. It was not sufficiently heavy to do much damage to the growing crops, however.

Mr. Julian Hord has contracted with Forbes & Bro., for the erection of an elegant dwelling on his lot recently purchased on South Virginia street and work will begin at once.

Mrs. Geo. Sandon, of Allensville, lost all her jewelry and fine wearing apparel in the Hotel Belmont, which burned at Asheville, N. C., two weeks ago. Her loss will reach $1,000.

The melon crop in this county is the most abundant for years. A large number are brought into the city every day. Some peddle them out and others sell to the merchants.

The lawn party at the residence of Mr. E. B. Long Tuesday evening was quite a success financially as well as socially. The handsome sum realized goes to the fund for repairing South Kentucky College.

Squirrels are said to be very plentiful in the bottom lands of North Christian and put hunters are having a regular feast. One gentleman living near Larkin killed thirty-seven one morning this week.

Guthrie has organized a volunteer fire company with about fifteen members. H. M. Bumgarner, a prominent merchant of the place was elected chief. The company is composed largely of merchants.

The many friends of Mr. C. E. Tandy will be gratified to learn that he has so far recovered from his recent accident, in which he lost his left leg, that he is able to be up and has been moved from Uniontown to Princeton.

The earnings of the L. & N. Railroad Company at this point for the month of August show an increase of $2,500 over the earnings in August '91. This fact alone indicates an increase of business in our city in every way, and that it is in a very prosperous and healthy condition.

A very enjoyable dance was indulged in by the young people invited to Mr. M. A. Mason's near Beverly last Friday night. Quite a crowd from the city attended and were highly entertained. Elegant refreshments were served at the hour of midnight, after which the merry dance was continued until far into the morning.

Norris, who murdered the Hayes brothers at Mannington about two months ago, and made his escape, has been heard from. He boarded a freight train near Earlington Tuesday and came some distance when he left the train and took to the woods. There is a reward of $300 offered for his capture and delivery to the authorities.

The Holiness Camp-meeting at Kuttawa has closed.