Guy Kelly, of Nashville, challenged Carl Hordman, of Bowling Green, to fight a duel over a girl. Hordman accepted and named lists as the weapons.

Near Milan, Tenn., one night last week two boys went coon hunting. Their dogs soon layed. On cutting the tree a dozen coons sprang out of the hollow in different directions and fought the dogs to death.

It will be remembered that during last spring a great many from this city ordered baking powder from a Chicago firm known as The Western Pearl Baking Powder Co.

Masses—Mrs. Dora Messer, wife of Mr. J. D. Messer, Sr., of Dawson, died of consumption Monday evening last, aged about 27 years.

Deaths. Lovino—Eliza Lovino died near Casky, Tuesday night, aged 38 years.

CREAM OF NEWS.

Casky Grange. There will be a called meeting of Casky Grange on Friday Dec. 2nd.

The little village of Neodromo, on the C. & P. division of the L. & N., has brought herself into unenviable prominence frequently of late.

Very few birds have so far appeared in the markets. Owensboro is preparing to build a $30,000 school building.

Corn is selling at $2.00 a barrel and is not very plentiful at this price. J. H. Anderson & Co.'s new store, on the corner of Main and Tenth, is rapidly nearing completion.

There is talk of establishing a post office at Vowell's, on the Butler road, eight miles out from the city. The dance at Anderson's Hall Tuesday evening was a very pleasant affair.

A protracted meeting has just closed at Eddy Creek Baptist church, in Caldwell County, that resulted in 22 conversions. Appropriate Thanksgiving services were held at the Episcopal church, yesterday, by the rector, Dr. J. W. Venable.

An effort will be made to have the mail route from Pembroke to Fairview changed to run from this city to Fairview daily. Any gentleman purchasing a reserved seat for the opera house, Monday night next, will be entitled to one ticket free, to be used by any lady he may wish to carry.

Harry Scott, who was shot on the 18th inst., is now a bout out of danger and rapidly improving. He will be able to be taken to his home at Madisonville within a few days. Rev. S. P. Forgy returned Wednesday from Caldwell county, where he had been assisting in a protracted meeting at Harmony Baptist church.

Union Thanksgiving services were held at the Methodist church at 10 o'clock yesterday. Rev. Chas. H. Nash preached the sermon for the occasion. A collection for the poor was taken up. The sunrise meeting of the local Endeavor Union will be held, next Sunday morning at the Christian church, beginning at 6:45. Everybody is invited to attend and carry Bibles.

Quite a number of farmers took advantage of the cold weather of Wednesday and killed their hogs. There was never a better season for the business, and they have the assurance that all killed that day will keep first-class and make good bacon. Mr. J. W. Yancey settled his $2,000 loss on furniture at $1,000 and was allowed to retain the furniture saved. The $5,000 on the building is a total loss and will probably be settled at full figures, Mr. Yancey has not decided upon his future plans.

The State Sunday-school convention will be held in the First Presbyterian church, Nov. 30th and December 1st. Rev. S. N. Vail is president and Judge Joe McCarrill secretary. An interesting programme has been prepared and the meetings will be participated in by the different ministers of the city, and others. Equivo W. B. Brewer, of Fairview, is a candidate for the office of Postmaster at that place. There are several other applicants, also—among them Mr. Everett, the present incumbent. Equivo Brewer was at one time postmaster at the place and gave such universal satisfaction that he will be a hard man to beat this time. Surveyor Kirkman, of Todd county, with two assistants, has been engaged for several days in re-surveying the county line between Christian and Todd. The work was begun at the Muhlenberg line and for the first six or seven miles showed a gain of about 250 yards for Christian county. The strip found to be in this county took in several residences and 12 or 15 voters. Jesse West's house and part of his farm, Henry Butler's house and part of his farm and several others were taken from Todd. The intention was to survey to the Tennessee line and the same change of line all the way would take in the Todd half of Fairview, and some valuable farm lands to the south. It was not learned by what authority the survey was being made, or whether the result would be taken as binding.

People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action, but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.

Wanted! To hire an office boy and hostler, white preferred. Address: Dr. J. N. METCAL, Garretttsburg, Ky.

LIPSCOMB & CENTER.

"Snok up" people and fools said J. Bacon & Sons couldn't carry the trade away from 4th street, Louisville, and establish a first-class business a mile up Market street, but cheap rents, no expenses and "git up and git" knocked the b-tom out of 4th street high rent prices and sensible people saw it and J. Bacon & Sons lead Louisville in low prices and big sales.

The same class of folks said the trade of Hopkinsville was too "stuck up" to leave Main street and its high rent prices and patronize Lipscomb & Center's "up town" double store, where it costs them nothing to do business, but their last Friday and Saturday's $600 sale and their cool average of $100 per day since their opening in September tells another J. Bacon & Sons story and Lipscomb & Center are "in it" and they propose leading this town in low prices and quick sales if they have to "whip 'em again" to do it.

Since Grover got there last first, and it is forever settled that the blasted foreigner doesn't pay the tax, Lipscomb & Center are determined that their customers SHALL NOT pay it, and down go our goods to a low tariff basis, and until the first of Jan. propose making it red hot. Mr. Center goes east in tendays to look up bargains, and during the next week everything in our house must move out to make room for the incoming goods.

And lasting until

DECEMBER 1ST,

SALE begins.
