Kelley's army 250 strong, after starting at Vanceburg until they became desperate, forcibly took possession of a C. & O. freight train Saturday and started by rail for Washington.

The news comes from Washington that all eyes are turning to Vice President Stevenson as the logical candidate for 1896. "Ally and his ax" will be the war cry and free silver one of the prominent planks in the party platform.

Mr. L. L. Ebbott, formerly of the Monitor, is now editor of the Princeton side of our double-barreled contemporary the Republican Banner. If the new editor will Ebbott next November, he will be Sutton to learn what it is to be hit by a Democratic pile-driver. This is the year for Caldwell county to stop her foolishness and reform her politics.

Hon. Marcus C. Lisle, Congressman from the Tenth district, died at his home in Winchester, Ky., of consumption, aged 32 years. He was the youngest man ever elected county judge in his county or sent to Congress from his district. Mr. Lisle is the third Congressman from the Tenth district to die in office within the last five years.

The Henderson Gleaner's little inwards are disturbed because Christian county is a "Republican county" and Dr. Clardy could not "beat Lige Sebree in his own county." Dr. Clardy has made but one race before the people of Christian county and then he defeated his Republican opponent by 352 majority, receiving 252 votes, or 577 more than Sebree did when he was elected county attorney in 1882. Dr. Clardy is 600 votes stronger than any outside man could hope to be in Christian county, and his nomination would not only be equivalent to election but his name would be a tower of strength for the local ticket and for this reason the district democracy ought to be willing to help the Christian county Democrats hold the ground they won with Clardy's help in 1890.

The conviction is forcing itself upon the public that the Democrats committed a blunder when they nominated and elected Alfgold Governor of Illinois. He recently pardoned a lot of convicted anarchists who ought to have been hung instead of imprisoned and when the present disturbance arose in Chicago last week he dilly-dallied and neglected his plain duty until the President took the thing in hand and ordered out federal troops to suppress the anarchists. He is now occupying his time in firing cards at the President and trying to convince him that he exceeded his authority in stopping the interference with interstate commerce and the transmission of the mails. Right or wrong the people will endorse the President's course and Gov. Alfgold should subside before anybody accuses him of being in sympathy with anarchy.

There are too many sneering allusions to Christian county as a "Republican county." The Uniontown News is informed that Christian county judge for twelve years, a Democratic jailor for twenty years and now has a Democratic judge, attorney, school superintendent, assessor, surveyor, jailor, fiscal court, work house keeper, county physician and two road superintendents. Hopkinsville, the county seat, has a government Democratic in all its branches, executive, legislative and judicial. There are more Democrats in Christian than there are in any other county and there are more Democrats for the work of the year than in any other county.

The indiscreet editor of Mr. Vance's organ at Uniontown blew in the muzzle of Col. Ad. Young, who is supporting Mr. McClain. The result was painful in the extreme. The Colonel was loaded, and the explosion that followed in Sunday's Journal left nothing recognizable of the New man and precious little of Mr. Vance.

The Henderson Candidates
Morganfield Sun.

Handicapped as he is by his inability to carry his own county, Judge Vance becomes the weakest candidate on the track, which weakness is added to by his "gold bug theory" of money and personal indifference and idleness. He has failed to make any addition to his forces by the speeches he has made over the district, while he has turned many from him by his aristocratic exclusiveness and opposition to silver.

If Mr. McClain should withdraw from the personal unpopularity and anti-silver views of Judge Vance before them, Union, Daviess, Hancock, McLean and Webster counties, would fall into line for Dr. Clardy, while Henderson would go to Vance, Christian to Clardy and Hopkins would be divided.

Those Remarkable Figures.

Sturgis, Ky., July 7.—I have just noticed some of the most astounding figures in the Owensboro Inquirer showing that Mr. Vance would carry Henderson. This is a most remarkable thing that Henderson should be classed doubtful, and no precinct claimed positively for Vance. They unhesitatingly claim 3 votes in Christian, but not one in Henderson. My supposition is that this is intended for Henderson county people, believing that if they can persuade Hendersonians that there is no chance for McClain that they would fly to Vance, but this is not true, for they would vote for Clardy first. The truth is McClain has more strength in that county than Vance and as much in Union. If they were to claim as much of Henderson as they do in Christian, the Henderson voters would know it was not true and therefore their theory would explode. This is the incentive of not claiming his home county. I noticed in the Gleaner that an Earlington correspondent is counting on you for good work for Vance after the Owensboro convention. I suppose he means in your trying to prevail on him not to leave the State like he did when defeated last.

This same Owensboro paper gives Vance 6 votes in Union. I cannot see why he did not say 10, he would not have stretched much harder than he did. To give you an idea, I will say that he will miss his 6 in Union as much as he will his 3 in Christian. Mr. Vance is a good man, but it seems to be Clardy's time. I will do better by Mr. Vance than his organs—which seem to be afraid to take a stand in Henderson—Mr. Vance will get 5 votes in Henderson, 3 in Union and none in Christian, as you and Mr. Vance both well know. Hopkins probably loves Vance because he worked so hard for Clay over Lafayette. DEMOCRAT.

Another Republican Ticket.

The Equal Rights Republican Convention Saturday turned out to be a tremendous uprising of the rank and file of the Republican party, both white and colored, and the result was an eye-opener to the ring candidates. The meeting was attended by a crowd that left no standing room in the City Court room and the gathering notwithstanding its size was orderly throughout. It was presided over by Chas. S. Ware, Pembroke, and a large number of speeches were made by some of the most prominent Republicans in the county, endorsing the movement to ignore the state-chamber proceedings of the self-perpetuating ring and nominate a representative ticket in which the wishes of the voters themselves would be consulted. The following ticket was then nominated:

Eq. T. C. Tinsley, county judge; Arthur C. Banks, county clerk; Hiram Smith, sheriff; Robt. N. Lauder, attorney; Adam Robinson, Crofton, jailor; W. W. Gray, assessor; Samuel D. Reese, surveyor.

All of the nominees excepting Messrs. Tinsley and Reese are colored men, representing the 3,400 colored voters of the party. They are among the most prominent leaders of their race and are fully equal in intelligence, education and respectability to their opponents on the ring ticket. Indeed it is the universal opinion that the anti-ring ticket is the stronger of the two and there is hardly a doubt that it will receive more votes than the slate fixed up by the town clique of the party.

THE STRIKE SITUATION.

Several Conflicts in Chicago Followed By Quiet.

MARTIAL LAW DECLARED SUNDAY.

Chicago, July 7.—Up to midnight last night eight known deaths had resulted from the fearful disorders prevailing in Chicago. In addition to the two strikers killed at Kensington in the morning four men were killed in a fight at Forty-third street. A B. & O. train was being escorted into the city by Deputy Marshals. The mob fired on the guards, who returned it with the above mentioned fatality. A fireman who was on his way to take the place of a striker, accompanied by his wife, met the man he was about to supplant. The two men became engaged in a fight and the woman grabbed the striker's pistol and shot him through the breast. A watchman on the Fort Wayne road was stoned to death by strikers because he refused to desert his post.

After dark the fiendish firebombs did their utmost to destroy property. In the Panhandle yards from 1,000 to 2,000 cars standing on ten tracks were burned. In the Grand Truck yards 500 cars were destroyed. Forty cars were burned at Hyde Park, and every car in the yards of the Illinois Central at Kensington was swept away by the incendiary flames.

Chicago, July 7.—The strikers and State military came together this afternoon, and a pitched battle was the result. The number of killed and injured will never be known, as the mob carried off a number and more were seen to fall, but whether they were dead or wounded, or how many of them fell, it is impossible at this time to ascertain.

A still worse fight took place a little later between 25 policemen and the mob at Loomis street. The ground over which the fight occurred was like a battlefield. The mob shot by the troops and police by the mob like logs. On the Loomis street crossing, where the eight police officers had made their stand, were fully 500 large stones that had been thrown by the mob. In all forty-one shot and bayoneted were taken to the drug store at the corner of Forty-eighth and Loomis streets. The local hospital was improved and the wounds of the least hurt were dressed.

Chicago, July 7.—The number of cars on the Panhandle road between Fifty-fifth and Sixty-third streets, destroyed by fire last night, is estimated to have been from 1,200 to 1,500. The total loss is said to be not less than $1,000,000. It is estimated that besides the loss of rolling stock at least ten or twelve miles of track is ruined.

Chicago, July 8.—Comparative quiet prevailed as a rule within the city to-day, though there was, as might have been expected, a number of instances where little knots of malcontents gathered, became belligerent and were finally scattered by actions of the police. A number of small mobs were formed, went rioting, firing and overturning trams. Heads were cracked, and small-rye bowls, mostly the result of too much bad whisky, were frequently reported at police headquarters.

There was, however, no concerted effort at burning or violence, although at a number of places individual cars were fired, several of which were destroyed. A coal train on the Eastern Illinois was derailed at Rock street by a switch being misplaced after the engine and four cars had passed over.

Chicago, July 8.—A serious fight occurred at 3 o'clock this afternoon at Hammond, Ind., between a mob of 5,000 men and Company B, of the Fifth United States Infantry, in which two of the mob are known to have been killed and several others, including one woman, are said to have been fatally wounded.

That Tired Feeling

So common at this season, is a serious condition, liable to lead to disastrous results. It is a sure sign of declining health tone, and that the blood is impoverished and impure. The best and most successful remedy is found in

They Differ Widely.
"Believing that the re-establishment of our currency on the old bimetallic basis is the only way to rescue the country from the maelstrom of misfortune into which the gold standard spoliation has swept agriculture, manufactures, commerce and industry of every kind, the Gleaner regards this as a matter in which party considerations are of only secondary importance. The West and the South should unite on whatever lines are possible, regardless of party and insist on a return to financial sanity, and insisting that silver shall have its old place in our currency."

"What the ratio of the two metals should be no one can tell. A proper measure would provide that the coinage should begin at some future day, so remote as to allow the recovery of silver from any depreciation caused by the suspension of its free coinage by this country, and would fix the ratio by the relative price of the two metals at that date."—Judge Vance himself.

Adams Family Reunion.

On Saturday the 7th inst. there was a general reunion of the descendants of the late John Adams and wife, at the old family homestead on the Palmyra road, four miles south of the city.

The gathering was in a picturesque grove on the hillside surrounding the spring near the house and was attended by about one hundred persons.

John Adams was born in 1816 and died in 1881. His wife was born in 1818 and died in 1883. To them were born five children, Mrs. T. J. Terrell, (formerly Mrs. Evans), Montgomery Adams, Jas. M. Adams, Wm. H. Adams and Mrs. Jas. W. Ford.

These were all present with their respective families. Of the 28 descendants of the second generation, 23 are living and 22 were present. Several grand-grandchildren were also present. In addition to the direct descendants, which included the families of Messrs. John T. and Jesse Evans, the old grand old iron, the following family connections were in the party: G. R. Cayce and family, Lewis Cayce and family, J. M. Cayce and family, E. D. Jones and family, M. R. Bradshaw and family, J. D. Howell and family, J. W. Cayce and family, Edwidge Cayce and family, John B. Clark, W. E. Adcock and family, L. M. C. M. Clark and wife, W. H. Campbell and an invited guest, E. G. M. D. Davis, Rev. Rev. V. M. Meekins, Mr. A. W. Pyle, a representative of the Kentuckian and a few other friends.

Mr. Montgomery Adams was master of ceremonies and up to the day's exercises with a list of names of the family, followed by a song and prayer. Social features then occupied the time until noon, when a delightful repast was spread, including the most tempting edibles that the good housewives of the Adams family know well how to prepare. The dinner embraced barbecued meats of several kinds, a great variety of other meats, cakes, salads, pickles and other good things too numerous to mention.

After dinner all returned to the stand where comfortable seats and a barrel of lemonade had been provided and for two hours the time was most pleasantly passed in listening to speeches appropriate to the occasion. Remarks were made by Messrs. M. Adams, Jas. M. Adams, W. H. Adams, John T. Evans, G. R. Cayce, M. D. Davis and others.

Firebombs made another attempt, and this time a successful one, to burn the World's Fair buildings last Thursday. The Administration, Agricultural, Manufacturers, Mining and Electricity buildings were totally destroyed.

In the Third district the race is red-hot between Helm and McElroy. Helm carried Todd and Logan Saturday, though Logan is also claimed by McElroy. There will be two sets of delegates from Muhlenberg and perhaps Logan, and the Committee on Credentials will have its hands full when the convention meets on the 18th.

The great strike, the most serious that has ever disturbed the country, has not been improved any, although there have been no actual hostilities since Saturday. It is estimated that 75,000 workmen have already struck and it is not improbable that 150,000 Knights of Labor will also quit work before this approach of the end of the month. It is already bad enough, promises to grow worse from day to day.

BYRANT'S EXPEDITION.

It Will Sail from New York on the 24th of June.

Its Object Is to Meet Lige Perry and His Party at Honolulu Bay.—The Able Young Man in Charge of the Enterprise.

The announcement was made at the monthly meeting of the Philadelphia Geographical club, that an expedition, to be known as the Perry Auxiliary expedition, will sail from New York on June 24, 1894, for Honolulu. The party will consist of seven persons. Lige Perry, before leaving Philadelphia, deposited funds and instructions with Prof. Angelo Hellprin covering this relief project.

The leader of the party, says Harper's Weekly, will be Henry G. Bryant. They expect to reach St. Johns, N. F., in time to leave that port in the Falcon, which they will there find awaiting them, on July 4. The first stop will be at Udoahau, on what is called Disco Island, in North Greenland. This is a Danish settlement, and recognition of the expedition by the officials at that point will be secured through the state department at Washington.

Continuing north, Melville bay will be crossed as quickly as the condition of the ice will permit, and Cape York visited. From here the run will be direct to Perry headquarters at Boulder bay, in the middle reef, in latitude 69° 30' north, longitude 159° 30' west. They calculate to reach this harbor by July 25.

Lige Perry and his companions are not expected to return to this point from their long sledge trip through the ice-lands to the end of August. In the meantime the Falcon will be employed in official research. The Indian sag shore of Ellesmere Land will be explored for some trace of the young Swedish explorers, Bjorning and Kallstenius, whose schooner was wrecked on the Cape York islands in the summer of 1892, and who left a message on these islands, which was recovered by a Scotch whaler in October, 1893, stating that they proposed to seek refuge among the Esquimaux of Ellesmere Land.

Jones' sound will also be explored for a greater distance than has yet been attempted, and the effort made to map out the 200 miles of unknown coast-line forming the northern shore of Jones' sound and the western border of Ellesmere Land. This triangular area of 100,000 square miles, known as Ellesmere Land, is one of the few large territories the outlines of which have not yet been determined. Mr. Bryant publishes are said to inhabit this land who have not so far come in contact with explorers.

The Falcon will be back at Boulder bay on September 1, and expects to reach Philadelphia with the Perry party on September 15. Dr. Axel Ohlin, a Swedish naturalist, representing the friends of Bjorning and Kallstenius, will accompany the auxiliary expedition.

The leader will be Henry G. Bryant, who was born in Allegheny, Pa., on November 7, 1859. He is the son of Walter Bryant, a well-known Pittsburgh merchant. Young Mr. Bryant graduated from Princeton college in 1883, and after studying law in the city of New York, he was admitted to the Philadelphia bar in 1886, and is now a member of the Philadelphia department of the University of Pennsylvania in 1886.

He has been an insatiable traveler. In 1887 he visited the northern countries of Africa. Subsequently he employed much of his time in hunting trips in the Rocky mountains. In 1891 with Prof. C. A. Keaton, he started north to Labrador, penetrating a distance of 350 miles inland from the coast, reached the Grand falls after many privations and hardships, and found their height to be 316 feet.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

It is excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly laxative properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.
