Why was Ayer's Sarsaparilla admitted?
Because it is not a patent medicine, nor a nostrum, nor a secret preparation, nor dangerous, nor an experiment, and because it is all that a family medicine should be.

Fembroke Items.
PEMBROKE, Dec. 4.—We congratulate the Kentuckian on such evidence of prosperity as recently have marked its issue. The new dress and enlarged form are a wonderful improvement in make-up. And then the beautiful and imposing building from which it is issued tells wonderfully of its growing prosperity. The building is an ornament to the city and a most fitting abode for such an excellent exponent of true Democracy as the Kentuckian has shown itself to be.

We have had several events to eliven the monotony of our slow-going village life of late. Gov. Bob Taylor was here on Saturday night of the 24th inst. in his new lecture on "Dreams and Visions." He was greeted with a full house, representing largely, the culture and beauty of the town and surrounding country.
Though laboring under severe indispositions of cold and hoarseness he fully sustained his reputation as one of the most instructive and fascinating lecturers on the boards. We are to have his colleague, Mr. March-banks, with us on the night of the 10th inst. Mr. Marchbanks is a lawyer of brilliant talents, and like Governor Taylor, has strayed from his profession, by reason of the strong demands made on him in the lecture field by the general public.

On last Saturday night we were treated to a delightful entertainment given in the Presbyterian church by a troupe of singers from "York State" called the Pomroy Family. This family consists of the two parents and five children, three sons and two daughters, ranging in ages from eight to 16. They are each endowed in a high degree with musical talent, and have been trained with greatest care and skill for their work. They attended the Baptist house of worship on Sunday morning and evening and delighted the worshippers with choice selections on both occasions.

Quite a number of our people attended the burial and funeral service of Esq. Josiah Gray, who died suddenly on the 1st inst. Rev. Mr. Hardy of South Kentucky College, Hopkinsville, conducted the service.

The ladies of the Baptist church sent last week, as a Thanksgiving offering to the Orphans' Home at Louisville, two large and well filled boxes, one of clothing and the other of provisions. The church also raised $150.00 for the same object.

The members of the Hunting Club from this place, returned last week from their annual outing, renewed in health and in excellent spirits. They also brought to their friends some substantial reminders of their success in the chase in the way of tempting portions of choice venison.

The young people of the Baptist church have organized a "Young People's Union," which meets every Sunday evening at 6 o'clock. They have started off with a fine roll of membership and their meetings are characterized by much interest and zeal.

Our High School, under Prof.
Barnes' management, is doing most excellent work, and is growing in favor with all of our people.

Thanksgiving morning dawned upon us cold and cloudy, but in the evening the sun came out, and at 2 o'clock a large crowd assembled at the Locust Grove church to witness the marriage of Mr. Leslie Summers and Miss Fannie Carter. It was quite a brilliant affair, and linked the destinies of two of our leading society people. While we hate to part with Miss Fannie, she has our best wishes for future happiness and prosperity.

On Friday evening last the young people of our community gathered at the home of Mr. M. R. Bradshaw, and enjoyed a social party, given in honor of Miss Lizzie and Susan Donnell.
Mr. John Strouse will leave for the south in a few days, and will go by Lafayette and bid farewell to relatives; we wish him a pleasant visit and a safe return in the spring.

There will be a big concert at Liberty church sometime in the near future.
It was a jolly crowd of young people that took Mr. and Mrs. Howard Major by surprise on last Thursday night. We enjoyed ourselves in a social until a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Adams are visiting relatives in Paducah.
We will close this letter and don't think it will be long before we will give you another, telling you of a wedding before the close of 1894.
