Judge Jackson Dead—Judge Morrow's Lyon County Prospects—Sims' In a Canter—Hot City Election.

EDDYVILLE, KY., Aug. 10, '95.—To the Democrats of Lyon county: I see and read a great many things about the circuit judge's race as between Judge Linn and Judge Morrow; who this county will give a majority and who that county will give a majority, and especially old Lyon county. I have been a pretty close observer of the Democracy of Lyon county since Hon. Thos. J. Morrow received the requisite number of votes in convention assembled at Eddyville, Ky., on July 11th, 1895, to nominate a candidate for circuit judge of this judicial district, but alas, as is too often the case, was counted out.

I am here to say to you, stand to Judge Morrow, go to the polls on the 31st of Aug., every mother's son of you, cast your vote for Judge Morrow and against rings, cliques and combinations. I am here to say to you that Judge Morrow will carry Lyon county by a handsome majority. He will carry it by the vote of the horny-handed Democrats of the county. The mechanics are for him, the farmers are for him. He is not backed by any ring, clique, or combination in this county. We know Tom Morrow, we know that he was raised on a farm; we know he will make us a good judge, and by the eternals we will elect him. We are for him because he won the nomination and deserves it. We are for him because he is a Democrat. We are for him because he is an honest, upright citizen, lawyer and farmer, and can beat any Republican in this district.

We are not for Judge Linn because he is backed by all the rings, cliques and combinations and banks in Lyon county. We have our court house ring and clique headed by a small knotty-headed editor. In its own estimation as broad as Tammany Tiger. We have corporations, penitentiary and two banks in our county backing Judge Linn.

Democrats, what are you fighting? Is it not rings and cliques? Is it not combinations and monopolies? Must we sit still and let such corporations as the penitentiary gang and 16 or 18 state hirelings at the penitentiary shape our political destinies for us and dictate to us who we shall vote for? No, our answer on the 31st day of August must be no. They have no interest in common with us. In twelve months they will be scattered to the four winds of the earth.

Judge Linn is a nice, clever gentleman and personally we like him, but we owe Calloway county nothing. She has never shown Lyon county any favors, she has always refused to support a Lyon county man. If we remember right, at one time several years ago, we offered our fellow townsman and friend, Gen. H. B. Lyon, as a candidate for the state senate. And still later, when our own county man, Hon. W. J. Stone, went down in defeat by about 1,050 votes including Republicans, carpet-baggers, rings, cliques, combinations and monopolies, where do we find Calloway county? Did she come to our rescue? Lo and behold what did we find? When the county of Calloway was called she rolled up a majority of about 800 against the Captain, enough to have changed the result and made the Captain the nominee. Do you think we owe her any favor for that? Certainly not. Still later, only a few days ago, we offered them a candidate for the state senate from Lyon, Dr. G. W. Williams, as good and as pure a Democrat as ever breathed the breath of life. Calloway gave him only 65 votes; now in the face of all this, we find them crying out, vote for Judge Linn of Calloway. We never forgot about asking Calloway to support Hon. W. J. Stone for temporary chairman at the state convention, a few weeks ago, when eleven votes would have changed the result and Calloway refused to support him. Vote for Judge Linn, no, when the roll is called you will find us in line and the final result will be a majority and victory for Tom Morrow. DEMOCRAT.

Sims an Easy Winner.

In the senatorial primary in the Trigg district Col. Fenton Sims won an easy victory, notwithstanding the fact that Livingston cast nearly all of its vote for Judge Thos. P. Cook, although he was not a candidate. This was intended as a personal compliment from the friends of Congressman Hendricks for Judge Cook's support in 1894. The vote by counties was as follows:

	Sims.	Williams.	Cook.
Calloway	90	65	458
Livingston	72	72	458
Lyon	33	236	458
Trigg	611	64	458
	1043	487	458

JUDGE JACKSON DEAD.

The Trip to Washington Hastened the End But the Great Jurist Hesitated Not

NASHVILLE, TENN., Aug. 8.—The Hon. Howell Edmunds Jackson, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, died at his residence at West Meade, six miles west of this city at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, in the 64th year of his age.

Judge Jackson had been in failing health for the past four years, but it has been only in the past eight or nine months that the progress of disease began to cause his family and friends uneasiness. Last year he went on a lengthy trip to the far West in search of health. Later he went to Thomasville, Ga., where it was hoped the mild and yet bracing climate would restore his one-time vigorous constitution. The trip did him little good, and after a time he was brought home. At his old home, and surrounded by the scenes he loved so well Judge Jackson seemed to improve steadily until he went to Washington to sit in the second hearing of the income tax cases. He stood that trying trip only fairly well, and after his return home appeared to lose strength rapidly. Nevertheless, Judge Jackson never took to his bed until last Wednesday a week. Since that time his family and friends realized that the end was near, and his death yesterday was not unexpected.

Judge Jackson was twice married, the first time to Miss Sophia Malloy, daughter of David B. Malloy, a banker, of Memphis, who died in 1873. To this union were born four children, as follows: Henry, Mary, William H. and Howell Jackson. Henry Jackson is at present Soliciting Freight Agent of the Southern Railway, with headquarters at Atlanta. W. H. Jackson, Jr., is District Attorney of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway at Cincinnati. Howell E. Jackson is manager of the Jackson Cotton Mills at Jackson, Tenn. In 1876 Judge Jackson married Miss Mary E. Harding, daughter of the late Gen. Wm. G. Harding. Of this union three children survive—Misses Elizabeth and Louise Jackson and Harding A. Jackson. With the exception of Miss Elizabeth Jackson and Wm. H. Jackson, Jr., who are in Europe, the children were at the bedside when the distinguished sufferer passed away.

The news of Judge Jackson's death caused general sorrow in the city where he was so well known and admired.

The arrangements for the funeral have not been fully completed, but it is known that it will take place next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Judge Jackson was elected to the lower house of the Forty-second General Assembly from Madison County in 1880, and by that assembly elected to the United States Senate.

On the 12th of April, 1886, he was nominated by President Cleveland to be Circuit Judge of the United States for the Sixth Judicial Circuit, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of the Hon. John Baxter.

On Feb. 2, 1894 Judge Jackson was nominated by President Harrison to be Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, vice L. Q. C. Lamar, deceased.

FOR CHARITY

A Grand Entertainment—The Kirmess. Aug. 19 and 20.

Misses Rousseau and Blocker, who came with high testimonials, the former a graduate of the Delsarte school and are now rehearsing for the Kirmess to be given at the Opera house, Aug. 19th and 20th, have made a most generous offer, which will allow the charity treasury to be increased with little or no trouble beyond those who take an active part—the patronage of the public being the main point. This however is assured, if one may judge by past proofs of their liberality in such respect.

These young ladies have been giving the Kirmess in various towns in Kentucky and Texas, meeting with marked success, but anxious to establish this style of entertainment, they occasionally give a worthy cause the advantage of personal sacrifice, which is the case in their proffer to present the Kirmess here for the benefit of charity. Miss Emily B. Perry and Miss Georgia Flack recognizing this saw an opportunity to add to the charity fund and have consented to give their aid to Misses Rousseau and Blocker, and with such a combination there is no reason to anticipate only a most attractive entertainment. The program is made up of numerous special features, consisting of marches, drills, dances, exhibiting national characteristics and songs. All serving to make the performance both unique and entertaining.

The stately minuet will be presented by eight prominent young ladies and gentlemen in colonial costume. The Kirmess is often compared to a trip around the world, because of the different nations being minutely represented in their style of dress and entertainment. As such unusual offer is made to lend aid to the needy, will not every one evince appreciation by giving these young ladies "standing room only" at the opera house Monday and Tuesday nights, Aug. 19th and 20th. Price of admission 50 cents, with no extra charge for reserved seats. Tickets will be on sale at Galbreath's on Thursday.

A HOT CITY ELECTION.

The Contests for Councilmen Will be Settled Tomorrow.

The Democratic nominations for city councilmen in six of the wards of Hopkinsville will be made tomorrow in a primary election between the hours of 8 a. m. and 4 p. m. In some wards there will be close and doubtful contests, while in others the result is clearly foreshadowed.

In the first ward Councilman Holland is a candidate for re-election and the ward seems to be well satisfied with him. There have been some efforts to get out another candidate, and it is said Dr. J. M. Dennis, who is absent in Virginia, will be voted for by those opposed to Mr. Holland.

In the second, Councilman Forbes is opposed by Mr. J. D. Ware and a hot contest is on between them.

In the third, Councilman Steele and Mr. Dennis R. Perry are having a lively race with the excitement getting to a white heat.

In the fourth there seems to be but little opposition to Councilman Dalton. Nearly all of the voters have signed a call upon him, but there is some talk of an opposing man being put out against him, but who it will be could not be learned yesterday.

The fifth is the Republican stronghold and no candidates are after the nomination in that ward.

In the 6th, calls were circulated last week upon several gentlemen to run against Councilman Flack, but the opposition finally centered on Mr. Harry Hopper and the race will be run out between them.

In the 7th, Councilman Pool has two opponents, Mr. W. J. Withers from his own end of the ward and Esq. Alex Campbell from the North end. There are 18 voters on North Main street who met and endorsed Mr. Campbell and asked both of the other candidates to let them have the councilman, but this was not agreed to and the contest will be fought out at the polls.

It is likely that in some of the wards the old members will be defeated, though a majority of them are pretty certain to pull through.

The Letter Carrier's Association of the United States, which numbers fourteen thousand members, has asked that Wednesday, November 20, be set aside as their special day at the Cotton States and International Exposition. It is probable that on that date nearly two thousand letter carriers from all over the Union will visit the Exposition.

All danger in the Indian country has passed.
