

Inventory Sale

An invoice always brings to light odds and ends and sometimes full lines of seasonable good that a merchant prefers to sell at cost and even at less than cost rather than carry them over.

We have just finished our January invoice and it has brought out an unusually large lot of odds and ends that we are very anxious to close out and if prices will do it it will be done.

Haven't room to itemize, but you can count on finding tremendous bargains in every department in our store.

CREAM OF NEWS.

IF IT IS NEW AND TRUE THIS COLUMN HAS IT.

Garrott Makes a New Bond—Ed Dabney Recaptured—Many Assessments Raised—Etc.

Slight O. V. Wreck.

The local freight on the Ohio Valley railroad was wrecked near Fredonia. An oil tank car got across the track and the oil had to be pumped out before the wreck could be cleared. All trains were delayed several hours. No one was hurt.

Railroad Man's Mishap.

Princeton, Ind., Jan. 11.—James L. Berry, a well-known switchman on the Louisville, Evansville & St. Louis railroad, had a leg crushed by a car running over it to night. Mr. Berry is master of the Brotherhood of Trainmen of this city. Amputation of the limb will follow the injury.

Henderson Negroes Not Tried.

Dave Powell, Will Dixon and Will Loving, the three negroes who attempted to kill Louis Metzner at Henderson, are still in jail here and will not be taken to Henderson for trial until the result of Metzner's wounds is finally determined. They have been indicted for malicious shooting.

Another Lynching in Order.

Chas. Taylor, col., enticed a colored girl 14 years old from her home near Frankfort and after repeated assaults, murdered her and buried her naked body face downwards in a hole in the ground. He has been jailed and the negroes threaten to lynch him under the Governor's nose. A special guard is protecting the jail.

The Board of Equalization.

The County Board of Equalization adjourned yesterday after raising about 400 lists and lowering some. It is impossible to tell the amount of the changes, as no calculation has been made. The Board will re-assemble Jan. 26 to hear complaints from those whose assessments have been raised.

Bryant Brothers Brought In.

Bob and Lawrence Bryant, colored, (brothers.) who got into a row at Gracey on last Christmas day and fired five shots apiece at each other, were arrested near Montgomery Tuesday by Constable Brame and lodged in jail here about 8 o'clock the same night. The date of their examining trial has not been set and it is likely that the matter will go before the grand jury. Bob Bryant, one of the prisoners, who received a bullet in his arm, has about recovered.

Ed Dabney Captured.

Ed Dabney, the negro who escaped from jail here some time in October last, was arrested by Constable Brame Wednesday, near Pee Dee, and returned to prison. Dabney was in jail charged with carrying a pistol and gaming, and while Turnkey Kinney Tyler, col., was feeding the prisoners Dabney managed to pass out and escaped into the darkness and had since been at large. He entered a plea of guilty yesterday in both cases and was sent to the work house for 75 days.

The Murray Poisoning.

Last Thursday night Mr. Milton Booker, who lives two or three miles south-east of town, was awakened by one of his children who was very sick and in convulsions. Mr. Booker gave the alarm and when some neighbors came they discovered that another child was already dead. Mr. Booker and the remaining child were also sick but finally recovered. The symptoms were as from poison and can only be accounted for from something they ate for supper. Canned fruit was first suggested, but the doctors think possibly the poison was in the milk they drank—probably tyrotoxin, resulting from impure vessels in which the milk had been kept.—Calloway Times.

Clifton Garrott Surrenders Again.

Clifton W. Garrott came in yesterday from Bolivar and surrendered to County Judge Breathitt.

He has not yet had an examining trial on the old warrant, but learning that a new warrant charging him with homicide had been issued, he came in and waived examination. The trial set for next Monday will of course not be held.

He at once gave two new bonds. One for $5,000 for killing Tom Leavell, col., and one for $1,500 for wounding Reuben Leavell.

The following bondsmen signed both: J. J. Garrott, Tom Garrott, Walton Garrott, P. C. Sallee, C. C. Carter, Douglas Bell, Jno. W. Garnett and Jas. H. Bradshaw. The bond is worth at least $160,000. The matter now goes over until the February grand jury investigates the facts.

JUDICIAL DISTRICT POLITICS.

Messrs. Harding, Garrott, Molloy and Wash, the four Democratic county chairman constituting the district committee of the fourth judicial district, will meet at Eddyville next Monday for the purpose of calling a convention or primary election to nominate candidates for circuit judge and commonwealth's attorney.

This meeting will be one of much importance to the Democratic party and no mistake should be made by the committee.

If we may be permitted to suggest what ought to be done, our opinion is that a convention should be held early in the spring and that the Populists and other bimetalists be invited to co-operate with the Democratic party in electing men who will represent the principles of the majority in this important district. We say a convention should be held, because it is less expensive, is less liable to be objected to by those who are expected to co-operate with us, is a fairer method of securing the will of the majority, and it affords a better plan for avoiding mistakes and getting a strong and properly located ticket. If the pro rata plan, based on the precinct vote, be adopted, the convention will have all the advantage of a direct expression from the people at their voting places. We would further suggest that this convention meet in Murray, in order that the delegates may have an opportunity to visit that remotely situated county and exchange views and greetings with the voters of the county having the largest number of silver men outside the Democratic party. If such a plan be adopted, and a convention called to meet at Murray not later than the middle of April, all supporters of Bryan to be allowed to participate in the primary meeting, we believe the Committee's action will receive the approval of the united opposition to Republicanism in this district.

As to the personnel of the ticket, that is a matter of easy and satisfactory solution. Any good and well qualified men, who stand with both feet upon the Chicago platform, and who have the confidence of the people, can make a winning race. But there must be no stoddling, no temporizing, no double-dealing. No goldbug need apply, for the party must make square issue with the Republicans on the question that has brought about the present condition of the country. The candidates must be men able and willing to meet the Republican candidates upon the stump and force them to defend their unholy principles.

There will be candidates in perhaps each of the four counties meeting these requirements and at least one of the nominees should by all means come from Calloway county. If the people of that county can present a good man with the solid endorsement of his county, he will be nominated. Let us hear from Calloway.

DEATH OF REV. N. LACY.

Preached the Gospel 50 Years, and Married Three Hundred and Sixty-Four Couples.

Rev. Nick Lacy, one of Hopkins county's oldest and most respected citizens, died at his home one mile west from this city Monday morning of pneumonia.

Mr. Lacy was born in Christian county, near Pilot Rock, in November, 1816, and was therefore more than eighty years of age. He has been preaching the gospel for more than fifty years, and was one of the oldest preachers in the Baptist church. He was very popular with young people, and during his ministry had married three hundred and sixty-four couples, marrying his last couple while he lay in bed a few days ago.

Mr. Lacy's first wife was a Miss Meacham, and the result of their union was six children. They are Mr. Will Lacy, of Evansville; Dr. John Lacy, of Nashville; Mrs. C. Rice, of Louisville; Mrs. H. D. Boyle; Mrs. C. H. Young and Mrs. Sallie Prewitt, of this city. After his wife's death he was married to Miss Georgia Proctor several years ago, who survives him.

Rev. Lacy was a Mason, and the funeral services were conducted by that order at Odd Fellows' cemetery yesterday afternoon, where the remains now lie. Rev. J. C. Hopewell conducted brief funeral services at the family residence.

Rev. Lacy was a good man and was loved and respected by all who knew him. His life has been a shining example to those who followed his footsteps. His loss is universally mourned.—Madisonville Mail.

Poor Old Louisville.

Louisville, Ky. Jan. 13.—Kleinhaus & Simonson, proprietors of the Mammoth clothing and furnishing goods store, have decided to retire from business in this city, and will sell out their establishment at once. Mr. Kleinhaus will go to Buffalo, where he owns a large store, while Mr. Simonson will not engage in business. The loss of such an enterprising firm will be felt by the city.

The nomination of W. M. Farrington to be postmaster at Memphis was confirmed Tuesday.

SPLIT HER HEAD.

REUBEN SERGEANT ATTACKS HIS WIFE WITH AN AXE.

Escapes From The Work House and Attempts Murder—Still At Large—His Victim Not Dead.

Reuben Sergeant made a desperate attempt Wednesday morning to kill his wife.

Tuesday he was sent to the work house on the testimony of his wife for drawing a pistol and threatening her life. He was put in for 36 days.

Wednesday morning he escaped by climbing the fence and went straight to his house in the third ward, across the railroad from the Ellis Ice Factory. He picked up an axe in the yard and rushed into the room and before his wife could escape struck at her head with the axe. She dodged and the weapon grazed the skull and cut off part of one ear. The blow knocked her down and thinking he had killed the woman Sergeant threw down the axe and made his escape.

He is still at large. Detective W. T. Brame started out yesterday to look for him. Sergeant came from Pembroke and it is probable he went in that direction. He is a bad man to be at large and ought to be sent to Eddyville. His wife was not fatally hurt and will recover, but she will be disfigured for life.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Miss Myrtle Lindsay, of Madisonville, is visiting Mrs. Chas. M. Meacham.

Mr. J. L. Tobin attended the Tobin-Price wedding in Nashville, Tenn., yesterday.

Miss Jennie Winfree, of Hopkinsville, is visiting at Col. R. Rowland's on North Seventh.—Paducah Register.

Dr. A. E. Bently was summoned to the bedside of his sister, Mrs. W. E. Bourland, at Dixon, Tuesday. She was reported dangerously ill.

Mr. Clem C. Plance, formerly with Troy Steam Laundry, Dayton, Ohio, has accepted a position as foreman of starch department in the Hopkinsville Steam Laundry.

Dr. B. W. Stone, of the Morning-side Retreat, Nashville, Tenn., was in the city Wednesday for the first time in several months. The Doctor is the picture of health and is pleased with Nashville as a place of residence and business.

Mr. Wm. B. Neely, the rising young lawyer, has just returned from an important and successful business trip to Santa Fe, New Mexico. He went to look after the interests of some Clarksville clients in a big will case. He placed the matter in the hands of local attorneys and accomplished the purpose of his visit. Mr. Neely bids fair to make a pronounced success of his chosen profession.

Mr. J. C. Terry has moved his family from Adairville to this city and has located on South Campbell street. The Adairville correspondent of the Russellville Ledger, pays the following high compliment to Mr. Terry: "Mr. Terry has been a resident of Adairville for the past sixteen years, and has many friends here who regret very much to give him up. He has ever been ready with a helping hand for every good cause that was calculated to build up Adairville. As a merchant he has all the time been in the front rank, and has accommodated many a man who could not have gotten accommodation elsewhere. Mr. Terry and family will be greatly missed in business, church and social circles, and Adairville's loss will be Hopkinsville's gain."

In Rip Van Winkle.

Chas. F. Underhill will appear at the Tabernacle to-night in an impersonation of Rip Van Winkle. The audience is inexpressibly charmed by Mr. Underhill's rendering of "Rip Van Winkle," and at its conclusion have very much the same feeling that always comes on witnessing the play. "Rip" seems to have been there with all his fun-loving characteristics. Gretchen, too, with her constant fault-finding—and she had cause enough, poor woman—Derrick, Nick, and indeed all the familiar faces are there almost as distinctly as though Mr. Underhill had the assistance of many. But he is alone. The illusion created is the effect of his masterly genius as an impersonator. His dialect is perfect, his voice and manner admirably adapted to every situation, and the story is spoken and acted in a way that leaves nothing to be desired.

Those who intend going out to hear him will be glad to know that arrangements have been made to light the house with clusters of incandescent lights and also foot-lights for stage. Tickets are selling rapidly at Elgin's. Admission 35c. Children 20c.

Nailers at Ironton, O., are declining to submit to a cut of 20 per cent in their wages.
