A masquerade party was given by Mr. W. H. Faxon's little daughters on Tuesday evening. It was attended by forty or fifty of their school mates and little friends and the occasion was greatly enjoyed by the little folks. Delicious refreshments were served.
Graves & Condy Jewelers will move into the store next to Hopkinsville Bank January 1st, 1898, where they will be glad to see all their old customers and hope to make many new ones. "They will continue to sell right goods at right prices."
Circulars have been issued by General Manager Metcalf, of the L. & N., announcing the appointment of B. M. Starks as superintendent of the Louisville division and branches, and W. S. Martin as superintendent of the Henderson and St. Louis division, the appointments to be effective January 1.
Graves & Condy tried hard to sell out and quit the jewelry business but it seems the people of Hopkinsville and Christian county didn't want them to do so, so they will be found after January 1st in store next to Bank of Hopkinsville. If you buy anything from Graves & Condy the quality is right and so is the price.
There is now a star route from Lafayette to Church Hill. The mail carrier comes from Lafayette every morning and returns from Church Hill at 1 o'clock via. Pee Dee and Roaring Springs. This is the most direct route to get mail to Lafayette, and the only one that makes it possible to deliver mail before it is a day old. The Lafayette people are trying to get their Hopkinsville mail changed to the star route.
