ORIGIN OF "HOCH DER KAISER"

Written in Montreal by a Scotchman.

The new famous poem which was published in the Herald some few months ago, and which was recited by Capt. Coghlan during his famous speech, was written under peculiar circumstances in this city in October, 1897. The poem as it was in the original consisted of thirteen verses, not eight, as published throughout the world during the last two years.

The occasion upon which the poem was written was the Emperor William's speech upon the divine right of Kings and his own special mission upon earth. At the time A. M. R. Gordon, a Scotchman by birth, and whose real name was A. McGregor Rose, was a member of the Montreal Herald staff. He had been in the habit of writing verses upon different subjects, and was looked upon as a very bright fellow indeed. The city editor, turning to him, said:

"Give us a poem, Gordon, on the Emperor. In less than an hour's time he turned out thirteen verses, which were entitled by him "Kaiser & Co.," not "Hoch der Kaiser." The matter was sent up to the printer just as it was written, and by some mistake the foreman of the composing-room only picked up eight verses in type, leaving the other five verses on the galley. The paper went to press, and Gordon, who was very particular about his matter being strictly correct got one of the first copies off the press. He at once saw the mistake, and the form was recast, not, however, before a few hundred had been sent into the mailing-room for the foreign mails. Thus the fact that only eight verses were copied in the papers which printed the time. In the second edition it was given in full and signed A. M. R. Gordon. Here is the poem in its original form:

Der Kaiser of his Fatherland
 Und Gott on high all dings command,
 Ve two ach! Don't you understand?
 Myself—und Gott.
 He reigns in Heafen and always shall,
 Und mein own Embire don'd vas shmall.
 Ein noble pair I dinks you call
 Myself—und Gott.
 Vile some men sing der power divine,
 Mein soldiers sing "Der Wacht am Rhein"
 Und drink der health in a Rheinish wine
 Of Me—und Gott.
 Dere's France, she swaggers all aroundt,
 She's ausgespielt.
 To mtch we think she don't amount,
 Myself—und Gott.
 She vill not dare to fight again,
 But if she shouldt, I'll show her blain
 Dot Elsass (und in French) Lorraine
 Are mein—by Gott.
 Von Bismarck was a man of might,
 Und dought he was glear out auf sight,
 But ach! he was nicht good to fight
 Mit Me—und Gott.
 Ve knock him like ein man auf sdraw,
 Ve let him know whose vill vas law,
 Und dot we don't vould sdand his jaw,
 Meinself—und Gott.
 We send him outd in bin disgrace,
 Ve gif him insuldt to his face,
 And put Caprivi in his place,
 Meinself—und Gott.
 And ven Caprivi get svelled hedt
 Ve very bromply on him set,
 Und toldt him to get up and get,
 Meinself—und Gott.
 Dere's grandma dinks she is nicht small beer,
 Midt Boers und such she interfare;
 She'll learn none owns dis hemisphere.
 Bat Me—und Gott!
 She drinks, good frau, some ships
 sh's got.

Und soldiers midt der scarlet goat,
 Ach! We could knock them! Pouf!
 Like that,
 Myself—midt Gott!

In dimes of peace, brebare for wars,
 I bear the spear and helm of Mars,
 Und care not for den thousand Csars,
 Myself—midt Gott!

In fact, I humor efry whim,
 With aspect dark and visage grim;
 Gott pulis mit me, und I mit him,
 Myself—und Gott!
 —New York Herald.

ALTGELD'S DISAPPOINTMENT.

Said to be Broken Down Over His Defeat.

John P. Altgeld may never fight again. The man who was once Governor of Illinois, who aspired to be United States Senator from the third State in the Union, and whose influence, more than any other one thing, gave Bryan the immense popular vote he received in 1896, may never witness the glory of another political fight. His days on earth are numbered. His physician, Dr. Nicholas E. Senn, can offer no hope for his patient.

Altgeld, politically, is dead. Physically, he is not much better. His old complaint, locomotor ataxia is asserting itself again. Worse than that, Altgeld is broken in spirit. This man one of the dominating powers of the Chicago platform of 1896, this man, who had designs on the Presidency; this man, for so long apparently unconquerable in Illinois politics, knows and feels that he has no more power than a child. Young Carter Harrison has eclipsed him. Altgeld's overwhelming defeat a month ago for the Mayoralty of Chicago broke him as a reed might be broken by the passage of a rock wagon. Disappointments, added to physical infirmities, may finish him.—Post Dispatch.

LARGE APPLE CROP.

Small Fruits Will be Abundant, Excepting Blackberries.

Indications are flattering for a large apple crop. The prospect for pears is not so bright. Small fruit, such as strawberries, gooseberries and currants will be abundant, but the blackberry crop will fall below the average. Grapes will not be as abundant as usual, as many of the vines were killed and others badly damaged. There will be but very few peaches in this section. Many of the trees were winter-killed and the decayed trees have been chopped down.

The society of ladies is a school of politeness.

Many old soldiers now feel the effects of the hard service they endured during the war. Mr. Geo. S. Anderson, of Rossville, York county, Penn., who saw the hardest kind of service at the front, is now frequently troubled with rheumatism. "I had a severe attack lately," he says, "and procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It did so much good that I would like to know what you would charge me for one dozen bottles." Mr. Anderson wanted it both for his own use and to supply it to his friends and neighbors, as every family should have a bottle of it in their home, not only for rheumatism, but lame back, sprains, swellings, cuts, bruises and burns, for which it is unequalled. For sale by R. C. Hardwick, Druggist.

Attach yourself to good company and you will be respected as one of them.

Whooping Cough.
 I had a little boy who was nearly dead from an attack of whooping cough. My neighbors recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did not think that any medicine would help him, but after giving him a few doses of that remedy I noticed an improvement, and one bottle cured him entirely. It is the best cough medicine I ever had in the house.—J. L. MOORE, South Burgettstown, Pa. For sale by R. C. Hardwick Druggist.

He who marries for wealth sells his liberty.

The most vigorous workers have spells of "tired feeling" now and then. This feeling is caused by derangement in the stomach, liver and bowels. A few doses of PRICKLY ASH BITTERS quickly corrects the disorder and sends the blood tingling through the veins, carrying life and renewed energy through the system.

Zeal without knowledge is like fire without light.

 Clean blood means a clean skin. No beauty without it. Cascarets, Caudy Cathartic clean your blood and keep it clean, by stirring up the lazy liver and driving all impurities from the body. Begin to day to banish pimples, boils, blotches, blackheads, and that sickly bilious complexion by taking Cascarets—beauty for ten cents. All druggists, satisfaction guaranteed, 10c, 25c, 50c.

A good word is as soon said as a bad one.

A TIMELY HINT.
 You should be wise and see that your blood is rich and pure and your whole system put in a perfectly healthy condition by the use of Dr. Carlsberg's German Liver Powder.
