DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Railroad Commissioner, J. FLETCHER DEMPSEY, of Hopkins County.

Dewey is now on his way home by way of the Suez canal.

Jack Chinn and Charlie Bronston have made up and agreed to let bygones be bygones.

Gen. Hardin spoke at Murray yesterday and his friends are claiming Calloway county.

Dawson City, Alaska, has been destroyed by fire, the loss amounting to $1,000,000.

Sam Jones has closed his meeting in Louisville and the Critic says he added $2000 to his bank account.

Maj. Josiah Harris, of Paducah, surprised his friends Saturday by marrying Mrs. Josephine Dibble, a Paducah widow.

Another expedition is to start this week to search for those who went in search of Andree last summer.

Mrs. Jas. Wood, of Pockmart, Ga., shot and killed a negro who was trying to get into a window of her room.

The Spanish cruiser Reina Mercedes was towed into Hampton Roads Sunday, making the voyage from Santiago in eight days.

The arrangements for that dinner to Dewey in New York to cost $100 a plate are proceeding rather slowly. That is to say we have not yet received our invitation.

An effort is to be made to have the post-office at Lake City, S. C., re-established. The office was abolished when the negro postmaster was mobbed and killed a year or two ago.

Congressman Charlie Wheeler, of Paducah, has announced his candidacy for Senator to succeed Deboe in 1903. His private secretary, J. D. Watson, who will be State Senator in the Mayfield district, will be his leader.

The race in Caldwell county between Hollingsworth, a cousin of Capt. Stone, and Lisanby, a Hardin man, was a square test of strength in the gubernatorial contest and the Stone man won by 198 votes. This would seem to indicate that Caldwell is not a doubtful county.

The funny genius of the Albany (N. Y.) Argus after reading Rudyard Kipling's latest masterly effort in rhyme entitled, "The White Man's Burden," oiled up the machinery in his think loft and ground out this pretty pat little dab of delicious doggerel: "Cold is the night 'tis 2 a. m.—when baby screams and cries; take up the white man's burden, then, and walk—for exercise."

An indignation meeting was held at Owensboro Saturday over the acquittal of a criminal, and Broncho Franks broke all records by declining to make a speech when called upon. As the State of Kentucky went Republican in 1896 by the votes of ex-convicts restored to citizenship in order to let them vote, the criminals are entitled to good deal of consideration at the hands of Republican politicians.

Miss Mamie Sasseen, of Henderson, who is a candidate for superintendent of public instruction, lays claim to the support of the democrats of Kentucky on the grounds that she is the only woman in the state, married or unmarried, who is past thirty years of age! And it is doubtful, she says, if she would be so old but for the constitutional provisions that one must be thirty to hold the office she seeks.—Morganfield Sun.

In his Mumfordsville speech Gen. Hardin said:

"I stand here to-day to defy the boss. I defy his machine. Let it be worked for all it is worth. I stand for the people, I stand with the people. The political trust which seems to have been formed, and through which the offices, the gift of the people, are to be parceled out to adherents and favorites, is as bad, if not worse, than the money trust by which they are to be deprived of their right to earn living wages. The one robs them of their votes. The other robs them of their bread."

The following language was also used in discussing Senator Goebel's record and his advocacy of the election law:

"It is quite sufficient now to observe with regard to Mr. Goebel that he has not fully escaped at the hands of the people some very considerable amount of repudiation himself. A man less courageous after the action of three great conventions of the people covering the entire State, repudiating in toto all that he has urged—his little private political hobby-horses upon which he and his little satellites were to ride into office—would see that he and his crowd were, as far as the people were concerned, persona non grata. He would appreciate that if his mission was to fasten these bills onto the party platform, it has failed, that his platform is rejected and his leadership repudiated, and that there is now nothing left but reflection and retirement."

If a failure of the railroad district conventions to endorse the election bill is a repudiation of that measure, the Democrats of the State should see and will see that the State Convention does not make the same oversight. The election bill may be a "hobby-horse," but the people are for it and do not endorse the idea that it robs any man of his vote. It guarantees an honest ballot and a fair count, and the only people robbed of their votes are those who have no right to vote.

A public meeting in Owensboro adopted this resolution about Jake Rowe:

"That we recognize in the character and habits of the present commonwealth's attorney a harmful example and fruitful source of lawlessness, and we favor his retirement from office at the earliest possible opportunity."

Rowe was once a bright and talented fellow, but drink has been his ruin.

In Democratic primaries and conventions held Saturday, L. E. Weatherford was nominated for Representative in Graves county, J. W. Hollingsworth in Caldwell, and W. H. Mimms in Todd. S. B. Harrel won the Senatorial contest in Simpson, Todd and Logan, and J. D. Watson won in the Graves-Fulton-Hickman district.

An ice trust is trying to buy the ice plants in twelve of the larger cities and run them as one big corporation.

TO NEW YORK CITY.

Forbes & Bro. Ship a Pheaton to The Eastern Metropolis.

Messrs. Forbes & Bro. are widening their territory in the carriage business until they are shipping vehicles into many distant states. They shipped a pheaton last week to Mr. W. H. Cummings, Sr., of New York City, who was here on a visit and struck with the superiority of their handsome vehicles while looking through their big new repository.

Col. Henry Returns.

Lieut. Col. Jouette Henry arrived from Savannah Sunday and is now at home for the first time in several months. He was here on a brief furlough just before he was ordered to Cuba. Col. Henry is looking the very picture of health.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

CRUMBAUGH

Pays His Compliments to Deboe in Peppery Style.

Major S. R. Crumbaugh, the Supervising Inspector of Steam Vessels, was asked yesterday if he had seen the Lexington Leader's editorial, reproduced in The Enquirer, in which Collector Sam J. Roberts resents and repudiates the assertion and assumption of Senator Deboe, Barker and Franks that General Taylor is the Administration candidate for the nomination for Governor of Kentucky.

"Yes, sir, I have," he replied, "and I approve of every word of it. It is simply preposterous and absurd to make such a claim, and in the end it will injure very much the chances of Taylor's nomination instead of helping them, as it was intended such a claim by the claimants should do. I do most emphatically resent and repudiate such assertion and assumption by Deboe and his followers. I do not allow any man or set of men to do my thinking for me. Collector Sam J. Roberts, John W. Yerkes, D. N. Comingore and Leslie Combs, Pension Agent, are for Stone, and your humble servant is for Pratt if he can get him, and, if not, for Stone for second choice.

"We are all office-holders and devoted and enthusiastic McKinley men, and were such when Deboe and Franks were not. I do not believe the Administration has or will have a candidate for the nomination for Governor of Kentucky.

"I am sure that if the Administration had a choice Sam J. Roberts, who is closer to McKinley than any other man in Kentucky, would know that choice, and he says that the Administration has none. There are a great number of office-holders in Kentucky who are not for Taylor. Personally I like Taylor, but I do not think he is the greatest vote getter in Kentucky.

"Nor do I think he is the one to unite the factions. I am in favor of a fair fight and an open field for all candidates, and any attempt to force any man upon the party as the candidate of any individual or faction will endanger party success. I do not belong to the Deboe faction nor to the Bradley wing, but am for McKinley to the absolute exclusion of every other consideration and of everybody else and everything else. All three candidates are administration supporters and admirers of the President, but it will not do for a man or set of men to make the attempt to forestall and control public opinion by assertions and assumptions without foundation in fact, and thus try to injure the chances of good men and true for political preferment."—Enquirer.
